53 the children of Harsha; the children

54 children of Temah; the children of 55 Nezhiah, the children of Hatipha. The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of <sup>6</sup>Has-56 sophereth, the children of <sup>7</sup>Peruda; the children of Jaalah, the children of Dar-57 kon, the children of Giddel; the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil,
the children of Pochereth-hazzebaim, 58 the children of <sup>8</sup>Ami. All the Nethin-im, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and 59 two. And these were they which went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, <sup>9</sup>Addan, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, and they 60 seed, whether they were of Israel: the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hun-61 red fifty and two. And of the children of the priests: the children of <sup>10</sup>Habaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was 62 called after their name. These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found; therefore <sup>11</sup>were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood.
63 And the <sup>12</sup>Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with 64 Urin and with Thummim. The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and three-65 score, beside their menservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hun-red singing men and singing women.

66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty 67 and five; their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thou-68 sand seven hundred and twenty. And some of the heads of fathers' houses, when they came to the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to set it 69 up in its place: they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work threescore and one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand <sup>13</sup>pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.
70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3 <sup>14</sup>And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.
2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozad-ak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of 3 Moses the man of God. And they set the altar <sup>15</sup>upon its base; for fear was upon them because of the people of the countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the Lord, even burnt 4 offerings morning and evening. And they kept the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day re-5 quired; and afterward the continual burnt offering, and the offerings of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the Lord that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-6 will offering unto the Lord. From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord: but the foundation of the tem-7 ple of the Lord was not yet laid. They gave money also unto the <sup>16</sup>masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, unto Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to <sup>17</sup>have the oversight of the work of the house
9 of the Lord. Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of <sup>1</sup>Judah, <sup>2</sup>together, to have the oversight of the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and 10 their brethren the Levites. And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, <sup>3</sup>they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after 11 the order of David king of Israel. And they sang one to another in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of 12 the LORD was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' houses, the old men that had seen <sup>4</sup>the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted 13 aloud for joy: so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded a temple unto 2 the LORD, the God of Israel; then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of fathers' houses, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; <sup>5</sup>and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assyria, which 3 brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. 4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and 5 <sup>6</sup>troubled them in building, and hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of 6 Darius king of Persia. And in the reign of <sup>7</sup>Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

9 king in this sort: then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archvites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchiotes, the Dehaites, the Elamites, and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over, and set in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the river, 11 and so forth. This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men beyond 12 the river, and so forth. Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee are come to us unto Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations. 13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will endamage 14 the kings. Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king; 15 that search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause 16 was this city laid waste. We certify the king that, if this city be builded, and the walls finished, by this means thou shalt 17 have no portion beyond the river. Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and <sup>11</sup>in the rest of the country beyond the river, Peace, and 18 so forth. The letter which ye sent unto us hath been <sup>12</sup>plainly read before me. 19 And I decreed, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition 20 have been made therein. There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all the country beyond the river; and tribute, custom, 21 and toll, was paid unto them. Make ye now a decree to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until a decree shall be made 22 by me. And take heed that ye be not slack herein: why should damage grow 23 to the hurt of the kings? Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force 24 and power. Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5 Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel <sup>1</sup>prophesied they unto them.

Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the

3 prophets of God, helping them. At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the river, and Shethar-bozenai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to

4 finish this wall? <sup>2</sup>Then spake we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this build-

5 ing? But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them cease, till the matter should come to Darius, and then <sup>3</sup>answer should be returned by letter concerning it.

6 The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the river, and Shethar-bozenai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were beyond the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 they sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the 8 king, all peace. Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth on with diligence and pro-

9 pereth in their hands. Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who gave you a decree to build this

10 house, and to finish this wall? We asked them their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were at the head of

11 them. And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and finished. But <sup>4</sup>after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away

13 into Babylon. But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of 14 God. And the gold and silver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did

Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 and he said unto him, Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of 16 God be builded in its place. Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not completed.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

6 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the <sup>5</sup>archives, where the treasures were

2 laid up in Babylon. And there was found at <sup>6</sup>Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a roll, and therein was thus written for a record.

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree; Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be builded, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the

4 breadth thereof threescore cubits; with three rows of great stones, and <sup>7</sup>a row of new timber; and let the expenses

5 be given out of the king's house: and also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to its place, and thou shalt put them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-bozenai, and <sup>8</sup>your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far

7 from thence: let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place.

8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, expenses be given with all diligence unto these men, that

9 they be not hindered. And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day with-

10 out fail: that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savour unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king,

11 and of his sons. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: and the God that hath caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples, that shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence.

13 Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the river, Shethar-bozenai, and their companions,<sup>1</sup> because that Darius the king had sent, did accordingly with all diligence. And the elders of the Jews builded and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. And the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. And they offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves<sup>2</sup> together; all of them were pure: and they killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. And the children of Israel, which were come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the Lord, the God of Israel, did eat, and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the Lord had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahiab, the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of 4 Meraioth, the son of Zerahiah, the son of 5 Uzzi, the son of Bukki, the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest: this Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord, the God of Israel, had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the Lord his God upon him. And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. 8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. For upon the first day of the first month<sup>3</sup> began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. 10 For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgements.

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of the commandments of the Lord, and of his statutes to Israel. <sup>4</sup> Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect and so forth. I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with thee. Forasmuch as thou art sent<sup>5</sup> of the king and his seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand; and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, and all the silver and gold that thou shalt find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem; therefore thou shalt with all diligence buy with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shalt offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. And whatsoever shall seem good to thee and to thy brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do ye after the will of your God. And the vessels that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem. And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, <sup>22</sup> it be done with all diligence, unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred <sup>1</sup> measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without pre-<sup>23</sup> scribing how much. Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king <sup>24</sup> and his sons? Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, the singers, porters, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or <sup>25</sup> toll, upon them. And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God that is in thine hand, appoint magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye him <sup>26</sup> that knoweth them not. And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgement be executed upon him with all diligence, whether it be unto death, or to <sup>2</sup> banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

son of Bebai; and with him twenty <sup>12</sup> and eight males. And of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him an hundred and ten males. <sup>13</sup> And of the sons of Adonikam, that were the last; and these are their names, Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, <sup>14</sup> and with them threescore males. And of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and <sup>5</sup> Zab-bud; and with them seventy males. <sup>15</sup> And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of <sup>16</sup> Levi. Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joi-arib, and for Elnathan, <sup>4</sup> which were <sup>17</sup> teachers. And <sup>5</sup> I sent them forth unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should say unto <sup>6</sup> Iddo, and his brethren the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us minis-
<sup>18</sup> ters for the house of our God. And according to the good hand of our God upon us they brought us <sup>7</sup> a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, <sup>19</sup> eighteen; and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; <sup>20</sup> and of the Nethinim, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were expressed <sup>21</sup> by name. Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way, for us, and for our little ones, and for all our <sup>22</sup> substance. For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way; because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them that seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. <sup>23</sup> So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us. <sup>24</sup> Then I separated twelve of the chiefs of the <sup>8</sup> priests, <sup>9</sup> even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with <sup>25</sup> them, and weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his princes, and all Israel there <sup>26</sup> present, had offered: I even weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents; of gold an hundred <sup>27</sup> talents; and twenty bowls of gold, of a thousand darics; and two vessels of fine

And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD, the God of your fathers. Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' houses of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the liar in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. And on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binui, the Levites; the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was 35 written at that time. The children of the captivity, which were come out of exile, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD. And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the river: and they furthered the people and the house of God.

9 Now when these things were done, the princes drew near unto me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons; so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of the lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass. And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished. Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the trespass of them of the captivity; and I sat astonished

5 until the evening oblation. And at the evening oblation I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my mantle rent; and I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God; and I said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guiltiness is grown up unto the heavens. Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to spoiling, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. And now for a little moment grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. For we are bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the ruins thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such a remnant, shall we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? O LORD, the God of Israel, thou art righteous; for we are left a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our guiltiness; for none can stand before thee because of this.

10 Now while Ezra prayed, and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there was gathered together unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore.

 2 And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have married strange women of the peoples of the land: yet now there is hope for Israel concerning 3 this thing. Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of <sup>1</sup>my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it
 4 be done according to the law. Arise; for the matter belongeth unto thee, and we are with thee: be of good courage,
 5 and do it. Then arose Ezra, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they
 6 sware. Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: <sup>2</sup>and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the trespass
 7 of them of the captivity. And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;
 8 and that whosoever came not within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be <sup>3</sup>forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation
 9 of the captivity. Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for 10 <sup>4</sup>the great rain. And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have trespassed, and have married strange women, to increase the guilt of Israel.
 11 Now therefore <sup>5</sup>make confession unto the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land,
 12 and from the strange women. Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, <sup>6</sup>As thou hast said
 13 concerning us, so must we do. But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we have great-
 14 ly transgressed in this matter. Let now our princes <sup>7</sup>be appointed for all the congregation, and let all them that are in our cities which have married strange women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, <sup>8</sup>until this matter be

15 despatched. Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah <sup>9</sup>stood up against this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the 16 Levite helped them. And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of fathers' houses, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were separated; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the 17 matter. And they made an end with all the men that had married strange women by the first day of the first 18 month. And among the sons of the priests there were found that had married strange women: namely, of the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brethren, Maaseiah, and Eli-
 19 ezer, and Jariib, and Gedaliah. And they gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their 20 guilt. And of the sons of Immer; 21 Hanani and Zebadiah. And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah.
 22 And of the sons of Pashhur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah. And of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. And of the singers; Eliashib: and of the porters; Shallum, and 23 Telem, and Uri. And of Israel: of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malchijah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah. And of the sons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jerem-
 24 moth, and Eliahah. And of the sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.
 25 And of the sons of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, <sup>10</sup>Jeremoth.
 26 And of the sons of Pahath-moab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.
 27 And of the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah.
 28 Of the sons of Hashum; Mattaniah, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei. Of the sons of

Of the sons of Nebo; Jiel, 38 Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, <sup>13</sup>Iddo, and 39 Joel, Benaiah. 1 THE <sup>1</sup>words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah.

Now it came to pass in the month Chisleu, <sup>2</sup>in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the <sup>3</sup>palace, that Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire. And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, and said, I beseech thee, O LORD, the God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments: let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: yea, I and my father's house have sinned. We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgements, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye trespass, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples: but if ye return unto me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to cause my name to dwell there. Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who delight to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. (Now I was cupbearer to the king.)

2 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been <sup>2</sup>beforetime sad in his presence. And the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid. 3 And I said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire? Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. 5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it. And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. 7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may let me pass through till I come unto Judah; and a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's <sup>4</sup>forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the castle which appertaineth to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. And when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, for that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. And I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the dragon's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed 14 with fire. Then I went on to the fountain gate and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that 15 was under me to pass. Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so

 16 returned. And the <sup>1</sup>rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the <sup>1</sup>rulers, nor to the rest that did 17 the work. Then said I unto them, Ye see the evil case that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.
 18 And I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also of the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for the good work.
 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?
 20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.
 3 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of <sup>2</sup>Hammeah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananel. And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to <sup>3</sup>them
 3 builded Zaccur the son of Inuri. And the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the bolts
 4 thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel. And next unto them repaired
 5 Zadok the son of Baana. And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the 6 work of their <sup>4</sup>lord. And <sup>5</sup>the old gate repaired Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the bolts
 7 thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Merothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah,

 13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits of the wall un-

And the fountain gate repaired Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of <sup>8</sup>Shelah by the king's garden, even unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.
 16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and unto the pool that was made, and unto the house

4 But it came to pass that, when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews?

5 will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of

3 rubbish, seeing they are burned? Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall break down

4 their stone wall. Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn back their reproach upon their own head, and give them up to spoiling in a land

5 of captivity: and cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the

6 builders. So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto half the height thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 But it came to pass that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be stopped,

8 then they were very wroth; and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to

9 cause confusion therein. But we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, be-

10 cause of them. And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come into the midst of them, and slay them, and

12 cause the work to cease. And it came to pass that, when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten

13 times from all places, Ye must return unto us. Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I even set the people after their families with their swords,

14 their spears, and their bows. And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses. And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. And it came to pass from that time forth, that half of my servants wrought in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind

17 all the house of Judah. They that builded the wall and they that bare burdens laded themselves, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other held his 18 weapon; and the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the

19 trumpet was by me. And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another:

20 in what place soever ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto

21 us; our God shall fight for us. So we wrought in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and

23 may labour in the day. So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, every one went with his weapon to the wall.

5 Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against

2 their brethren the Jews. For there were that said, We, our sons and our daughters, are many: let us get corn, 3 that we may eat and live. Some also there were that said, We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses: let us get corn, because of the dearth. There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute upon our fields and 5 our vineyards. Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to help it; for other men have our fields and our vine- 6 yards. And I was very angry when I 7 heard their cry and these words. Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the <sup>1</sup> rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I held a great 8 assembly against them. And I said unto them, We after our ability have <sup>2</sup> redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and would ye even sell your brethren, and should they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found never a word. 9 Also I said, The thing that ye do is not good: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? 10 And I likewise, my brethren and my servants, do lend them money and corn on usury. I pray you, let us leave off 11 this usury. Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and 12 the oil, that ye exact of them. Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to 13 this promise. Also I shook out my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise; even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the Lord. And the people 14 did according to this promise. Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the 15 bread of the governor. But the former governors that were before me <sup>3</sup> were chargeable unto the people, and took of them bread and wine, <sup>4</sup> beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants <sup>5</sup> bare rule over the people: but so did

16 not I, because of the fear of God. Yea, also I <sup>6</sup> continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land; and all my servants were gathered thither 17 unto the work. Moreover there were at my table of the Jews and the <sup>1</sup> rulers an hundred and fifty men, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that were round about us. 18 Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I demanded not the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. 19 Remember unto me, O my God, for good, all that I have done for this people. 6 Now it came to pass, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and unto the rest of our enemies, that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though even unto that time I had not set up the doors in the 2 gates;) that Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought 3 to do me mischief. And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to 4 you? And they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them 5 after the same manner. Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter 6 in his hand; wherein was written, It is reported among the nations, and <sup>7</sup> Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel; for which cause thou buildest the wall: and thou wouldest be their king, according to these words. 7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, 8 and let us take counsel together. Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. 9 For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. But now, <sup>8</sup> O God, strengthen thou my hands. 10 And I went unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will 11 they come to slay thee. And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being such as I, <sup>9</sup> would go into the temple to save his life? I

13 For this cause was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. And it came to pass, when all our enemies heard thereof, that all the heathen that were about us<sup>1</sup> feared, and were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah to wife. Also they spake of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

7 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, that I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the castle, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand on guard, let them shut the doors, and bar ye them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house. Now the city was wide and large: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded. And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and I found written therein: <sup>2</sup> These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and that returned unto Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city; who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the 8 people of Israel: the children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred and seventy and two. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two. The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen. The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five. The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore. The children of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight. The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight. The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two. The children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven. The children of Bigvai, two thousand three score and seven. The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five. The children of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. The children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight. The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four. The children of Hariph, an hundred twenty and twelve. The children of Gibeon, ninety and five. The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, an hundred forty score and eight. The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight. The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty and two. The men of Kiriath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three. The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty and one. The men of Michmas, an hundred and twenty and two. The men of Beth-el and Ai, an hundred twenty and three. The men of the other Nebo, fifty and two. The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty. The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five. The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one. The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty. The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three. The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two. The children of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven. The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen. The Levites: the children of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the children of Hodevah, seventy and four. The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred forty and eight. The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, an hundred thirty and eight. The Nethinim: the children of Zihva, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth; the children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon; the children of Lebana, the children of sand darics of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities.

<sup>5</sup>And when the seventh month was come, the children of Israel were in their cities. And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the broad place that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. And he read therein before the broad place that was before the water gate <sup>6</sup>from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a <sup>7</sup>pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Ananiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: and Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with the lifting up of their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. And they read in the book, in the law of God, <sup>8</sup>distinctly; and they gave the sense, <sup>9</sup>so that they understood the reading. And Nehemiah, which was the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the Lord your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto him for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye grieved; for the joy of the Lord is your <sup>10</sup>strength. So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy;

12 neither be ye grieved. And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 And on the second day were gathered together the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the 14 law. And they found written in the law, how that the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast

15 of the seventh month: and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees,

16 to make booths, as it is written. So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and dwelt in the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very 18 great gladness. Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a <sup>1</sup>solemn assembly, according unto the ordinance.

9 Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sack-
2 cloth, and earth upon them. And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of 3 their fathers. And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God a fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD
4 their God. Then stood up upon the stairs of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting; and <sup>2</sup>blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted 6 above all blessing and praise. Thou art the LORD, even thou alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all things that are thereon, the seas and all that is in them, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. Thou art <sup>3</sup>the LORD

7 the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of 8 Abraham; and foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, even to give it unto his seed, and hast performed thy words;

9 for thou art righteous. And thou sawest the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red
10 Sea; and shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them; and didst get thee a name, as 11 it is this day. And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers thou didst cast into the depths, as a stone into

12 the mighty waters. Moreover thou leddest them in a pillar of cloud by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way wherein they

13 should go. Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgements and true laws, good statutes
14 and commandments: and madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them thy commandments, and statutes, and a law, by the hand of

15 Moses thy servant: and gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commandedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst lifted up thine hand to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their neck, and heark-
17 ened not to thy commandments, and refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their neck, <sup>4</sup>and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art <sup>5</sup>a God ready to pardon, gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, and forsook-

18 est them not. Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great

19 provocations; yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud departed not from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should

instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest <sup>21</sup> them water for their thirst. Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, and they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their <sup>22</sup> feet swelled not. Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and peoples, <sup>1</sup> which thou didst allot after their portions: so they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and <sup>23</sup> the land of Og king of Bashan. Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou didst say to their fathers, that they should <sup>24</sup> go in to possess it. So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would. <sup>25</sup> And they took fenced cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their back, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them again unto thee, and they <sup>27</sup> wrought great provocations. Therefore thou deliverdst them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours who saved them out of the hand of their <sup>28</sup> adversaries. But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy <sup>29</sup> mercies; and testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and <sup>2</sup> withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would <sup>30</sup> not hear. Yet many years didst thou bear with them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit through thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the <sup>31</sup> peoples of the lands. Nevertheless in thy manifold mercies thou didst not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God. Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the travail seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings <sup>33</sup> of Assyria unto this day. Howbeit thou art just in all that is come upon us; for thou hast dealt truly, but we <sup>34</sup> have done wickedly: neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked <sup>36</sup> works. Behold, we are servants this day, and as for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, <sup>37</sup> behold, we are servants in it. And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great <sup>38</sup> distress. And <sup>3</sup> yet for all this we make a <sup>4</sup> sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our priests, <sup>5</sup> seal unto it.

<sup>10</sup> Now those that sealed were, Nehemiah the Tirshatha, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah; Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah; Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah; Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch; <sup>5, 6</sup> Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah; Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch; Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin; Maaziah, Bilgai, Shebanaiah: these were the priests. And the Levites: namely, Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel; and their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan; Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah; <sup>12, 13</sup> Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah; Hodiah, Bani, Beninu. The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, <sup>15</sup> Zattu, Bani; Bunni, Azgad, Bebai; <sup>16, 17</sup> Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin; Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur; Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai; <sup>19, 20</sup> Hariph, Anathoth, Nobai; Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir; Meshezabel, Zaddok, Jaddua; Pelatiah, Hanan, Ananiah; Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub; <sup>24, 25</sup> Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek; Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah; and Abiah, <sup>27</sup> Hanan, Anan; Malluch, Harim, Banaah. And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinim, and all they that had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one that had 29 knowledge and understanding; they gave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judge-30 ments and his statutes; and that we would not give our daughters unto the peoples of the land, nor take their 31 daughters for our sons: and if the peoples of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the sabbath, or on a holy day: and that we would forgo the <sup>1</sup>seventh year, and the 32 <sup>2</sup>exaction of every debt. Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our 33 God; for the shewbread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the 34 house of our God. And we cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written 35 in the law: and to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all manner of trees, year by 36 year, unto the house of the LORD: also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in 37 the house of our God: and that we should bring the firstfruits of our <sup>3</sup>dough, and our heave offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, <sup>4</sup>the wine and the oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God;

 and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.
 38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the 39 treasure house. For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the heave offering of the corn, of <sup>4</sup>the wine, and of the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.
 11 And the princes of the people dwelt in Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts 2 in the other cities. And the people blessed all the men that willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem.

 3 <sup>5</sup>Now these are the chiefs of the province that dwell in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solo-4 mon's servants. And in Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of 5 Perez; and Maaseiah the son of Baruch,
 the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah,
 the son of Adaiah, the son of Joarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the 6 Shilonite. All the sons of Perez that dwelt in Jerusalem were four hundred 7 threescore and eight valiant men. And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu
 the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah,
 the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel,
 8 the son of Jeshaiiah. And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty 9 and eight. And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the 10 city. Of the priests: Jedaiah the son 11 of Joarib, Jachin, Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of 12 God, and their brethren that did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of 13 Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and his brethren, chiefs of fathers' houses, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai
 the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of 14 Immer, and their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was 15 Zabdiel, <sup>6</sup>the son of Haggadolim. And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son 16 of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of the house 17 of God; and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbuk-iah, the second among his brethren;
 and Abda the son of Shammua, the 18 son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. All the Levites in the holy city were two 19 hundred fourscore and four. Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren, that kept watch at the gates, were an hundred seventy and 20 two. And the residue of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance. But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim. The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of the house of God. For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and <sup>1</sup>a settled provision for the singers, as every day required. And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. 25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in Kiriath-arba and the <sup>2</sup>towns thereof, and in Dibon and the <sup>2</sup>towns thereof, and in Jekabzeel and the villages thereof; and in Jeshua, and in Moladah, 27 and Beth-pelet; and in Hazar-shual, and in Beer-sheba and the <sup>2</sup>towns thereof; and in Ziklag, and in Meconah 29 and in the <sup>2</sup>towns thereof; and in Enrimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth; 30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and the fields thereof, Azekah and the <sup>2</sup>towns thereof. So they encamped from Beer-sheba unto the 31 valley of Hinnom. The children of Benjamin also dwelt from Geba onward, at Michmash and Aija, and at 32 Beth-el and the <sup>2</sup>towns thereof; at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah; Hazor, Ramah, 34 Gittaim; Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat; 35 Lod, and Ono, <sup>3</sup>the valley of craftsmen. 36 And of the Levites, certain courses in Judah were joined to Benjamin. 12 Now these are the priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, Amariah, Malchiah, Hattush; Shecaniah, Rehum, 4 Meremoth; Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah; 5, 6 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah; Shemaiah, 7 and Joiarib, Jedaiah; Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua. Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, She-rebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over <sup>4</sup>the thanksgiving, he and his 9 brethren. Also Bakkukiah and Unno, their brethren, were over against them 10 in wards. And Jeshua begat Joiakim, and Joiakim begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, and Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua. 12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, heads of fathers' houses: of Seraiah, 13 Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; of <sup>5</sup>Malluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph; of Harim, Adna; of 16 Meraioth, Helkai; of Iddo, Zechariah; 17 of Ginnethon, Meshullam; of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; of Bilgah, Shammua; of She- 19 maiah, Jehonathan; and of Joiarib, 20 Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; of Sallai, 21 Kallai; of Amok, Eber; of Hilkiah, 22 Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel. The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded heads of fathers' houses: also the priests, <sup>6</sup>in the reign of Darius the 23 Persian. The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' houses, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. 24 And the chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward against 25 ward. Mattaniah, and Bakkukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the 26 storehouses of the gates. These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest the scribe. 27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, 28 and with harps. And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the <sup>7</sup>plain round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of the 29 Netophathites; also from Beth-gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem. 30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies that gave thanks and went in procession; whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the 32 dung gate: and after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, 35 and Jeremiah, and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micahiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; 36 and his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe was before them: 37 and by the fountain gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward. And the other company of them that gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, upon the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even unto the broad wall; and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of <sup>1</sup>Hammeah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in <sup>40</sup>the gate of the guard. So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and <sup>41</sup>the half of the <sup>2</sup>rulers with me: and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and <sup>42</sup>Hananiah, with trumpets; and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. And they offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

<sup>13</sup> On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God for ever; because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: howbeit our God turned <sup>3</sup>the curse into a blessing. And it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

<sup>5</sup> to Tobiah, had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the <sup>6</sup>heave offerings for the priests. But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went unto the king, and after certain days <sup>7</sup>asked I leave of the king: and I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the <sup>8</sup>courts of the house of God. And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out <sup>9</sup>of the chamber. Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offerings and the frankincense. And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field. <sup>11</sup> Then contended I with the <sup>2</sup>rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, <sup>12</sup>and set them in their place. Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the wine and the oil unto the <sup>13</sup>treasuries. And I made treasurers over the treasures, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and <sup>14</sup>of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute unto their brethren. Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my <sup>7</sup>good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the observances thereof.

shut, and commanded that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I over the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. And I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember unto me, O my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

23 In those days also saw I the Jews that had married women of Ashdod, of 24 Ammon, and of Moab: and their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language 25 of each people. And I contended with them, and <sup>3</sup>cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters 26 for your sons, or for yourselves. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did strange women cause to sin. 27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying strange women? 28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. Remember them, O my God, <sup>4</sup>because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. Thus cleansed I them from <sup>5</sup>all strangers, and appointed wards for the priests and for the Levites, every one in 31 his work; and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

BOOK OF ESTHER.

1 Now it came to pass in the days of

5 And when these days were fulfilled, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the 6 king's palace; there were hangings of <sup>3</sup>white cloth, of <sup>4</sup>green, and of blue, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the couches were of gold and silver, upon a pavement <sup>5</sup>of red, and white, 7 and yellow, and black marble. And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the <sup>6</sup>bounty of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none could compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus. On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven <sup>7</sup>chamberlains that ministered in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the peoples and the princes her beauty: 12 for she was fair to look on. But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him. 13 Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew 14 law and judgement; and the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and 15 sat first in the kingdom :) What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not done the bidding of the king Ahasuerus by 16 the chamberlains? And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples that are in all the provinces of the king

 17 Ahasuerus. For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes, when it shall be reported. The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before 18 him, but she came not. And this day shall the princesses of Persia and Media which have heard of the deed of the queen <sup>1</sup>say the like unto all the king's princes. So shall there arise
 19 <sup>2</sup>much contempt and wrath. If it please the king, let there go forth a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, <sup>3</sup>that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate <sup>4</sup>unto another that is better than she. And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his kingdom, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour,
 20 both to great and small. And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word
 22 of Memucan: for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and should publish it according to the language of his people.

2 After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of 5 Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for 4 purification be given them: and let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 There was a certain Jew in Shushan the palace, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite; who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives which had been carried away with 6 Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon

7 had carried away. And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took 8 her for his own daughter. So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the 9 women. And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with her portions, and the seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he removed her and her maidens to the best place of the 10 house of the women. Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she 11 should not shew it. And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.
 12 Now when the turn of every maiden was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that it had been done to her according to the law for the women, twelve months, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with the things for the purifying of the women,)
 13 then in this wise came the maiden unto the king, whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's
 14 house. In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her,
 15 and that she were called by name. Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked up 16 on her. So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.
 17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of 18 Vashti. Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a <sup>1</sup> release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the <sup>2</sup> bounty of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai

20 sat in the king's gate. Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought

21 up with him. In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the <sup>3</sup> door, were wroth, and sought to lay hands

22 on the king Ahasuerus. And the thing was known to Mordecai, who shewed it unto Esther the queen; and Esther told the king thereof in Mordecai's

23 name. And when inquisition was made of the matter, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

3 After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes

2 that were with him. And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed down, and did reverence to Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed

3 not down, nor did him reverence. Then the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's command-

4 ment? Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's <sup>4</sup> matters would stand: for he had told them

5 that he was a Jew. And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not down, nor did him reverence, then was Haman

6 full of wrath. But he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the

7 people of Mordecai. In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, which is the month

8 Adar. And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and <sup>5</sup> dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from those of every people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not <sup>6</sup> for the king's profit to suffer

9 them. If it please the king, let it be written that they be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those that have the charge of the king's business, to bring it

10 into the king's treasuries. And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha

11 the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's <sup>7</sup> scribes called in the first month, on the thirteenth day thereof, and there was written according to all that Haman commanded unto the king's satraps, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the princes of every people; to every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and it was sealed with

13 the king's ring. And letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for 14 a prey. A copy of the writing, <sup>8</sup> that the decree should be given out in every province, was published unto all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. The posts went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace: and the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

4 Now when Mordecai knew all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried

2 with a loud and a bitter cry: and he came even before the king's gate: for none might enter within the king's

3 gate clothed with sackcloth. And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and <sup>9</sup> many lay in sackcloth and ashes. And Esther's maidens and her chamberlains came and told it her; and the queen was exceedingly grieved: and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take his sackcloth from off

5 him: but he received it not. Then called Esther for Hathach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and charged him to go to Mordecai, to know what this

6 was, and why it was. So Hathach went forth to Mordecai unto the broad place of the city, which was before the

7 king's gate. And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy

8 them. Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her; and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him, for her people. And Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. Then Esther spake unto Hathach, and gave him a message unto Mordecai, saying: All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. And they told unto Mordecai Esther's words. Then Mordecai bade them return answer unto Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall relief and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but thou and thy father's house shall perish: and who knoweth whether thou art not come to the kingdom for such a time as this? Then Esther bade them return answer unto Mordecai, Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast in like manner; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish. So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the entrance of the house. And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be given thee even to the half of the kingdom. And Esther said, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that it may be done as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is; if I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said. Then went Haman forth that day joyful and glad of heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up nor moved for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai. Nevertheless Haman refrained himself, and went home; and he sent and fetched his friends and Zeresh his wife. And Haman recounted unto them the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to-morrow also am I invited by her together with the king. Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate. Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

On that night could not the king sleep; and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles, and they were read before the king. And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, of those that kept the door, who had sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus. And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him. And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman said in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than 7 to myself? And Haman said unto the king, For the man whom the king de-8 lighteth to honour, let royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon,<sup>1</sup> and on the head of which a crown 9 royal is set: and let the apparel and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and cause him to ride on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to 10 honour. Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail 11 of all that thou hast spoken. Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and caused him to ride through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king de-12 lighteth to honour. And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hastened to his house, mourning and hav-13 ing his head covered. And Haman recounted unto Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai, before whom thou hast begun to fall, be of the seed of the Jews, thou shalt not pre-14 vail against him, but shalt surely fall before him. While they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hastened to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

7 So the king and Haman came <sup>2</sup>to 2 banquet with Esther the queen. And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine,
 What is thy petition, queen Esther?
 and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the 3 kingdom it shall be performed. Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people 4 at my request: for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my peace, <sup>3</sup>although the adversary could not have compensated for the 5 king's damage. Then spake the king Ahasuerus and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that 6 durst presume in his heart to do so? And Esther said, An adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the 7 queen. And the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the 8 king. Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the couch whereon Esther was.

 Then said the king, Will he even force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, 9 they covered Haman's face. Then said Harbonah, one of the chamberlains that were before the king, Behold also, the <sup>4</sup>gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman hath made for Mordecai, who spake good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. And the king 10 said, Hang him thereon. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

8 On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther 2 had told what he was unto her. And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai
 3 over the house of Haman. And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.
 4 Then the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre. So Esther arose, and 5 stood before the king. And she said,
 If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:
 6 for how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of 7 my kindred? Then the king Ahasue-rus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon 8 the Jews. Write ye also <sup>5</sup>to the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's 9 ring, may no man reverse. Then were the king's scribes called at that time, in the third month, which is the month
 Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, 10 and according to their language. And he wrote in the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, riding on <sup>1</sup>swift steeds that were used in the king's service, bred of the 11 stud: wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, 12 upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, 13 which is the month Adar. A copy of the writing, <sup>2</sup>that the decree should be given out in every province, was published unto all the peoples, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their ene- 14 mies. So the posts that rode upon swift steeds that were used in the king's service went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment; and the decree was given out in 15 Shushan the palace. And Mordecai went forth from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan shouted and 16 was glad. The Jews had light and 17 gladness, and joy and honour. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness and joy, a feast and a good day. And many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen upon them. 9 Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have rule over them; whereas it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had 2 rule over them that hated them; the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them was fallen upon 3 all the peoples. And all the princes of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and they that did the king's business, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai was fallen

4 upon them. For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went forth throughout all the provinces: for the man Mordecai waxed 5 greater and greater. And the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they would 6 unto them that hated them. And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and 7 destroyed five hundred men. And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, 8 and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridai, 9 and Parmashta, and Arisai, and 10 Aridai, and Vaizatha, the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy, slew they; but on the 11 spoil they laid not their hand. On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought 12 before the king. And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what 13 is thy request further? and it shall be 13 done. Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged 14 upon the gallows. And the king commanded it so to be done: and a decree was given out in Shushan; and they 15 hanged Haman's ten sons. And the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men in Shushan; but on the spoil they laid not their hand. 16 And the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of them that hated them seventy and five thousand; but on the spoil they 17 laid not their hand. This was done on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of 18 feasting and gladness. But the Jews that were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and 19 gladness. Therefore do the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwall'd towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another. 20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and

And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written 24 unto them; because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume 25 them, and to destroy them; but when the matter came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head; and that he and his sons should 26 be hanged on the gallows. Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which 27 had come unto them, the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing thereof, and according to the appointed time 28 thereof, every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them <sup>1</sup>perish from their seed. Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all <sup>2</sup>authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. 30 And he sent letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, 31 with words of peace and truth, to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had ordained for themselves and for their seed, <sup>3</sup>in the matter of the fastings and their 32 cry. And the commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book. 10 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the 2 sea. And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 3 kings of Media and Persia? For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren; seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

1 THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was <sup>1</sup>Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that 2 feared God, and eschewed evil. And there were born unto him seven sons 3 and three daughters. His <sup>2</sup>substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of 4 all the children of the east. And his sons went and held a feast in the house of each one upon his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters 5 to eat and to drink with them. And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and <sup>3</sup>renounced God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and <sup>4</sup>Satan came also 7 among them. And the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and 8 from walking up and down in it. And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job? <sup>5</sup>for there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that 9 feareth God, and escheweth evil. Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, 10 Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his 13 And it fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 14 that there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and 15 the asses feeding beside them: and <sup>3</sup> the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the <sup>4</sup> servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the <sup>4</sup> servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made three bands, and <sup>5</sup> fell upon the camels, and have taken them away, yea, and slain the <sup>4</sup> servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and, behold, there came a great wind <sup>6</sup> from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and wept; and he said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; 22 blessed be the name of the LORD. In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God with foolishness.

2 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. 3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job? <sup>7</sup> For there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil: and he still holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, <sup>8</sup> to destroy him without cause. And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath 5 will he give for his life. But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce thee to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; 7 only spare his life. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown. And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat among the ashes. 9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still hold fast thine integrity? renounce 10 God, and die. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the <sup>9</sup> foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: and they made an appointment together to come to bemoan him 12 and to comfort him. And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their 13 heads toward heaven. So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his <sup>10</sup> grief was very great.

3 After this opened Job his mouth, and 2 cursed his day. And Job answered and said:

3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, And the night which said, There is a man child conceived. .

4 Let that day be darkness;

Let not God <sup>11</sup> regard it from above, Neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and <sup>12</sup> the shadow of death claim it for their own;

<sup>12</sup> Or, deep darkness (and so elsewhere)

Let a cloud dwell upon it;

Let all that maketh black the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize upon it:

Let it not <sup>13</sup> rejoice among the days of the year;

Let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be <sup>14</sup> barren;

Let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day,

Who are <sup>15</sup> ready to rouse up leviathan.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark:

Let it look for light, but have none;

Neither let it behold the eyelids of the morning:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb,

Nor hid trouble from mine eyes.

11 Why died I not from the womb?

Why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees receive me?

Or why the breasts, that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lien down and been quiet;

I should have slept; then had I been at rest;

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth,
Which <sup>1</sup>built up waste places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold,

Who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been;

As infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from <sup>2</sup>troubling;

And there the weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners are at ease together;
They hear not the voice of the taskmaster.

19 The small and great are there;
And the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery,

And life unto the bitter in soul;

21 Which <sup>3</sup>long for death, but it cometh not;
And dig for it more than for hid treasures;

22 Which rejoice <sup>4</sup>exceedingly,
And are glad, when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid,

And whom God hath hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh <sup>5</sup>before I eat,
And my roarings are poured out like water.

25 For <sup>6</sup>the thing which I fear cometh
upon me,

And that which I am afraid of cometh unto me.

26 <sup>7</sup>I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest;

But trouble cometh.

4 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 If one assay to commune with thee,
wilt thou be grieved?

But who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many,
And thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling,

And thou hast confirmed the <sup>8</sup>feeble knees.

5 But now it is come unto thee, and thou <sup>9</sup>faintest;

It toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not thy fear of God thy confidence,
And thy hope the integrity of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent?

Or where were the upright cut off?

8 According as I have seen, they that plow iniquity,

And sow <sup>10</sup>trouble, reap the same.

9 By the breath of God they perish,

And by the blast of his anger are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion,

And the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey,
And the whelps of the lioness are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was <sup>11</sup>secretly brought to
me,

And mine ear received a whisper
thereof.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night,

When deep sleep falleth on men,

14 Fear came upon me, and trembling,
Which made all my bones to shake.

15 Then <sup>12</sup>a spirit passed before my face;
The hair of my flesh stood up.

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the appearance thereof;

A form was before mine eyes:

<sup>13</sup>There was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man <sup>14</sup>be more just than God?

Shall a man <sup>15</sup>be more pure than his Maker?

18 Behold, he putteth no trust in his servants;

And his angels he chargeth with folly:

19 How much more them that dwell in houses of clay,

Whose foundation is in the dust,
Which are crushed <sup>16</sup>before the moth!

20 <sup>17</sup>Betwixt morning and evening they are <sup>18</sup>destroyed:

They perish for ever without any regarding it.

21 <sup>19</sup>Is not their tent-cord plucked up within them?

They die, and that without wisdom.

5 Call now; is there any that will answer
thee?

And to which of the <sup>20</sup>holy ones wilt thou turn?

2 For vexation killeth the foolish man,
And <sup>21</sup>jealousy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root:
But suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety,
And they are crushed in the gate,

Neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up,
And taketh it even out of the thorns,

And <sup>22</sup>the snare gapeth for their substance.

6 For <sup>23</sup>affliction cometh not forth of the dust,

Neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 But man is born unto trouble,
As <sup>24</sup>the sparks fly upward.

And unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable;

Marvellous things without number:

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth,

And sendeth waters upon the fields:

11 So that he setteth up on high those that be low;

And those which mourn are exalted to safety.

12 He frustrateth the devices of the crafty, So that their hands <sup>1</sup>cannot perform their enterprise.

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness:

And the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the day-time,

And grope at noonday as in the night.

15 But he saveth from the sword <sup>2</sup>of their mouth,

Even the needy from the hand of the mighty.

16 So the poor hath hope, And iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 Behold, happy is the man whom God <sup>3</sup>correcteth:

Therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty.

18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; He woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles; Yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death;

And in war from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue;

Neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and dearth thou shalt laugh;

Neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field;

And the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know that thy tent is in peace;

And thou shalt visit thy <sup>4</sup>fold, and <sup>5</sup>shalt miss nothing.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great,

And thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age,

Like as a shock of corn cometh in in its season.

27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; Hear it, and know thou it <sup>6</sup>for thy good.

6 Then Job answered and said, 2 Oh that my vexation were but weighed,

And my calamity laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas:

Therefore have my words been rash.

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me,

The poison whereof my spirit drinketh up;

The terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass?

Or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which hath no savour be eaten without salt?

Or is there any taste in <sup>7</sup>the white of an egg?

7 <sup>8</sup>My soul refuseth to touch them;

They are as loathsome meat to me.

8 Oh that I might have my request;

And that God would grant me the thing that I long for!

9 Even that it would please God to crush me;

That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort;

11 What is my strength, that I should wait? And what is mine end, that I should be patient?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of brass?

13 Is it not that I have no help in me, And that <sup>14</sup>effectual working is driven quite from me?

14 To him that is ready to faint kindness should be shewed from his friend;

<sup>15</sup>Even to him that forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook,

As the channel of brooks that pass away;

16 Which are black by reason of the ice, And wherein the snow hideth itself:

17 What time they <sup>16</sup>wax warm, they vanish:

When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

18 <sup>17</sup>The caravans that travel by the way of them turn aside;

They go up into the waste, and perish.

19 The caravans of Tema looked, The companies of Sheba waited for them.

20 They were ashamed because they had hoped;

They came thither, and were confounded.

21 For now ye <sup>18</sup>are nothing; Ye see a terror, and are afraid.

Or, Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my peace:
And cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How forcible are words of uprightness!
But what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words?
Seeing that the speeches of one that is desperate are <sup>1</sup>as wind.

27 Yea, ye would cast lots upon the fatherless,
And make merchandise of your friend.

28 Now therefore be pleased to look upon me;
<sup>2</sup>For surely I shall not lie to your face.

29 Return, I pray you, let there be no injustice;
Yea, return again, <sup>3</sup>my cause is righteous.

30 Is there injustice on my tongue?
Cannot my taste discern mischievous things?

7 Is there not a <sup>4</sup>warfare to man upon earth?
And are not his days like the days of an hireling?

2 As a servant that earnestly desireth the shadow,
And as an hireling that looketh for his wages:

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity,
And wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say,
<sup>5</sup>When shall I arise? but the night is long;

And I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust;
My skin <sup>6</sup>closeth up and breaketh out afresh.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
And are spent without hope.

7 Oh remember that my life is wind:
Mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that seeth me shall behold me no more:
Thine eyes shall be upon me, but I shall not be.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away,
So he that goeth down to <sup>7</sup>Sheol shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house,
Neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;

I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster,
That thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me,
My couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams,
And terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling,
And death rather than these my bones.

16 <sup>8</sup>I loathe my life; I <sup>9</sup>would not live alway:
Let me alone; for my days are <sup>10</sup>vanity.

17 What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him,
And that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him,

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning,
And try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not look away from me,
Nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 If I have sinned, what <sup>11</sup>do I unto thee,
O thou <sup>12</sup>watcher of men?

Why hast thou set me as a mark for thee,
So that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity?

For now shall I lie down in the dust;
And thou shalt seek me diligently, but I shall not be.

8 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things?
And how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a mighty wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgement?
Or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 <sup>13</sup>If thy children have sinned against him,
And he have delivered them into the hand of their transgression:

5 If thou wouldest seek diligently unto God,
And make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright;
Surely now he would awake for thee,

And make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 And though thy beginning was small,
Yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age,
And apply thyself to that which their fathers have searched out:

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, Because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee,
And utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the <sup>14</sup>rush grow up without mire?
Can the <sup>15</sup>flag grow without water?

12 Whilst it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down,
It withereth before any other herb.

| <sup>8</sup> Or, If one should desire... he could not &c. | 3 <sup>8</sup> If he be pleased to contend with him, He cannot answer him one of a thousand.  | If it be not he, who then is it?   |   |
|   | 4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength:  | 25 Now my days are swifter than a <sup>21</sup> post: They flee away, they see no good.            | <sup>21</sup> Or, runner  |
|   | Who hath hardened himself against him, and prospered?   | 26 They are passed away as the <sup>22</sup> swift ships:  | <sup>22</sup> Heb. ships of reed.                                       |
|   | 5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know it not,   | As the eagle that swoopeth on the prey.  |   |
|   | When he overturneth them in his anger.  | 27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad countenance, and             | <sup>23</sup> Heb. brighten up.   |
|   | 6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place,   | <sup>23</sup> he of good cheer:  |   |
|   | And the pillars thereof tremble.  | 28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.                      |   |
|   | 7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not;  | 29 I shall be condemned;   |   |
|   | And sealeth up the stars.   | Why then do I labour in vain?  |   |
|   | And treadeth upon the <sup>9</sup> waves of the sea.  | 31 Yet wilt thou plunge me in the ditch, And mine own clothes shall abhor me.                      | <sup>25</sup> Heb. cleanse my hands with lye.                           |
|   | 9 Which maketh the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,   | 32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,   |   |
|   | And the chambers of the south.  | That we should come together in judgement.   |   |
|   | 10 Which doeth great things past finding out;   | 33 There is no <sup>26</sup> daysman betwixt us, That might lay his hand upon us both.             | <sup>26</sup> Or, umpire  |
|   | Yea, marvellous things without number.  | 34 Let him take his rod away from me, And let not his terror make me afraid:                       |   |
| <sup>10</sup> Or, turn him back                           | 11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not:   | 35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; For I am not so in myself.                                |   |
|   | He passeth on also, but I perceive him not.   |  |   |
|   | 12 Behold, he seizeth the prey, who can <sup>10</sup> hinder him?                             |  |   |
|   | Who will say unto him, What doest thou?   |  |   |
|   | 13 God will not withdraw his anger;   |  |   |

10 My soul is weary of my life;
I will give free course to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
21 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me;
Shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.
3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress,
That thou shouldst despise the <sup>1</sup> work of thine hands,
And shine upon the counsel of the wicked?
4 Hast thou eyes of flesh,
Or seest thou as man seeth?
5 Are thy days as the days of man,
Or thy years as man's days,
6 That thou inquirest after mine iniquity,
And searchest after my sin,
7 Although thou knowest that I am not wicked;
And there is none that can deliver out of thine hand?
8 Thine hands have framed me and fashioned me
Together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.
9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast fashioned me as clay;
And wilt thou bring me into dust again?
10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk,
And curdled me like cheese?
11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews.
12 Thou hast granted me life and favour,
And thy <sup>2</sup> visitation hath preserved my spirit.
13 Yet these things thou didst hide in thine heart;
I know that this is with thee:
14 If I sin, then thou markest me,
And thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
15 If I be wicked, woe unto me;
And if I be righteous, yet shall I not lift up my head;
<sup>3</sup> Being filled with ignominy
And looking upon mine affliction.
16 And if my head exalt itself, thou hunt-est me as a lion:
And again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.
17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me,
And increasest thine indignation upon me;
<sup>4</sup> Changes and warfare are with me.
18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb?
I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me.
19 I should have been as though I had not been;
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not my days few? <sup>5</sup> Cease then,

And let me alone, that I may <sup>6</sup> take comfort a little,
21 Before I go whence I shall not return,
Even to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death;
22 A land of thick darkness, as darkness itself;
A land of the shadow of death, without any order,
And where the light is as darkness.
11 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should a man full of talk be justified?
3 Should thy boastings make men hold their peace?
And when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
4 For thou sayest, My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in thine eyes.
5 But Oh that God would speak,
And open his lips against thee;
6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom,
<sup>7</sup> That it is manifold in effectual working!
Know therefore that God <sup>8</sup> exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserve.
7 <sup>9</sup> Canst thou by searching find out God?
Canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?
8 <sup>10</sup> It is high as heaven; what canst thou do?
Deeper than <sup>11</sup> Sheol; what canst thou know?
9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth,
And broader than the sea.
10 If he pass through, and shut up,
And <sup>12</sup> call unto judgement, then who can hinder him?
11 For he knoweth vain men:
He seeth iniquity also, <sup>13</sup> even though he consider it not.
12 <sup>14</sup> But vain man is void of understanding,
Yea, man is born as a wild ass's colt.
13 If thou set thine heart aright,
And stretch out thine hands toward him;
14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away,
And let not unrighteousness dwell in thy tents;
15 Surely then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot;
Yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:
16 For thou shalt forget thy misery;
Thou shalt remember it as waters that are passed away:
17 And thy life shall <sup>15</sup> be clearer than the noonday;
Though there be darkness, it shall be as the morning.
18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope;

Yea, thou shalt search about thee, and shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid;

Yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, And <sup>1</sup>they shall have no way to flee, And their hope shall be the giving up of the ghost.

12 Then Job answered and said,

2 No doubt but ye are the people, And wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you;

I am not inferior to you:

Yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am as one that is a laughing-stock to his neighbour,

A man that called upon God, and he answered him:

The just, the perfect man is a laughing-stock.

5 In the thought of him that is at ease there is contempt for misfortune;

It is ready for them whose foot slippeth.

6 The tents of robbers prosper, And they that provoke God are secure;

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee;

And the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee;

And the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not <sup>3</sup>in all these, That the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing,

And the <sup>4</sup>breath of all mankind.

11 Doth not the ear try words,

Even as the palate tasteth its meat?

12 <sup>5</sup>With aged men is wisdom, And in length of days understanding.

13 With him is wisdom and might;

He hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again;

He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up;

Again, he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 With him is strength and <sup>6</sup>effectual working;

The deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled,

And judges maketh he fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings,

And bindeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth priests away spoiled,

And overthroweth the mighty.

20 He removeth the speech of the trusty,

And taketh away the understanding of the elders.

21 He poureth contempt upon princes, And looseth the belt of the strong.

22 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, And bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them:

He spreadeth the nations abroad, and <sup>7</sup>bringeth them in.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chiefs of the people of the <sup>8</sup>earth, And causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, And he maketh them to <sup>9</sup>stagger like a drunken man.

13 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this, Mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same do I know also:

I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, And I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies,

Ye are all physicians of no value.

5 Oh that ye would altogether hold your peace!

And it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, And hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will ye speak unrighteously for God,

And talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye <sup>10</sup>respect his person?

Will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? Or as one <sup>11</sup>deceiveth a man, will ye <sup>12</sup>deceive him?

10 He will surely reprove you, If ye do secretly <sup>13</sup>respect persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid,

And his dread fall upon you?

12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,

Your defences are defences of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak,

And let come on me what will.

14 <sup>14</sup>Wherefore should I take my flesh in my teeth,

And put my life in mine hand?

15 <sup>15</sup>Though he slay me, yet will I wait for him:

Nevertheless I will <sup>16</sup>maintain my ways before him.

16 <sup>17</sup>This also shall be my salvation;

17 Hear diligently my speech,

And let my declaration be in your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause;

I know that I <sup>19</sup>am righteous.

19 Who is he that will contend with me?

For now <sup>20</sup>shall I hold my peace and give up the ghost.

20 Only do not two things unto me, Then will I not hide myself from thy face:

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me;
And let not thy terror make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins?
Make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face,
And holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou harass a driven leaf?
And wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against
me,
And makest me to inherit the iniquities
of my youth:

27 Thou putttest my feet also in the stocks, and markest all my paths; Thou drawest thee a line about the soles of my feet:

28<sup>1</sup> Though I am like a rotten thing that consumeth,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 Man that is born of a woman
Is of few days, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, and<sup>2</sup> is cut down:

He fleeth also as a shadow, and con-tinueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one,
And bringest me into judgement with
thee?

4<sup>3</sup> Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with thee,
And thou hast appointed his bounds
that he cannot pass;

6 Look away from him, that he may<sup>4</sup> rest, Till he shall<sup>5</sup> accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in
the earth,
And the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud,
And put forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and<sup>6</sup> wasteth away:
Yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11<sup>7</sup> As the waters<sup>8</sup> fail from the sea,
And the river decayeth and drieth up;

12 So man lieth down and riseth not:
Till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake,
Nor be roused out of their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in <sup>9</sup> Sheol,
That thou wouldest keep me secret,
until thy wrath be past,

That thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again?
All the days of my warfare<sup>10</sup> would I wait,

Till my<sup>11</sup> release should come.

15<sup>12</sup> Thou shouldest call, and I would answer thee:

Thou wouldest have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 But now thou numberest my steps:
Dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And thou fastestest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling<sup>13</sup>
cometh to nought,

And the rock is removed out of its place;

19 The waters wear the stones;
The overflowings thereof wash away
the dust of the earth:

And thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him,
and he passeth;

Thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not;

And they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22<sup>14</sup> But his flesh upon him hath pain,
And his soul within him mourneth.

15 Then answered Eliphaz the Teman-
ite, and said,

2 Should a wise man make answer with <sup>15</sup> vain knowledge,

And fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk,

Or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, thou doest away with fear,
And<sup>16</sup> restrainest<sup>17</sup> devotion before
God.

5 For<sup>18</sup> thine iniquity teacheth thy mouth,

And thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee,
and not I;

Yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born?
Or wast thou brought forth before the hills?

8<sup>19</sup> Hast thou heard the secret counsel of God?

And dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that we know not?
What understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are both the grayheaded and the very aged men,

Much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God too small for thee,

<sup>20</sup> And the word that dealeth gently with thee?

<sup>10</sup> Or, will ... shall come.

<sup>11</sup> Or,

and by the hand of the Lord
the servant of the Lord (Job 1:1)

17 Although there is no violence in mine hands,
And my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood,
And let my cry have no resting place.

19 Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven,
And he that voucheth for me is on high.

20 My friends scorn me:
But mine eye poureth out tears unto God;

21<sup>2</sup> That he would maintain the right of a man with God,
And of a son of man with his neighbour!

22 For when a few years are come,
I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

17 My spirit is consumed, my days are extinct,
The grave is ready for me.

2 Surely there are mockers with me,
And mine eye abideth in their provocation.

3 Give now a pledge, be surety for me with thyself;
Who is there that will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding:
Therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that denounceth his friends for a prey,
Even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also a byword of the people;
And I am become an open abhorring.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow,
And all my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this,
And the innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.

9 Yet shall the righteous hold on his way.
And he that hath clean hands shall wax stronger and stronger.

10 But return ye, all of you, and come now:
<sup>6</sup> And I shall not find a wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off,
Even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day:
The light, say they, is near unto the darkness.

13<sup>9</sup> If I look for Sheol as mine house;
If I have spread my couch in the darkness;

14 If I have said to corruption, Thou art my father;
To the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister;

15 Where then is my hope?
And as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 It shall go down to the bars of Sheol,
When once there is rest in the dust.

18 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long will ye lay snares for words?
Consider, and afterwards we will speak.

3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts,
And are become unclean in your sight?

4 Thou that tearest thyself in thine anger,
Shall the earth be forsaken for thee?

Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?

5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out,
And the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tent,
And his lamp above him shall be put out.

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened,
And his own counsel shall cast him down.

8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
And he walketh upon the toils.

9 A gin shall take him by the heel,
And a snare shall lay hold on him.

10 A noose is hid for him in the ground,
And a trap for him in the way.

11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,
And shall chase him at his heels.

12 His strength shall be hungerbitten,
And calamity shall be ready for his halting.

13 It shall devour the members of his body,
Yea, the firstborn of death shall devour his members.

14 He shall be rooted out of his tent wherein he trusteth;
And he shall be brought to the king of terrors.

15<sup>17</sup> There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his:
Brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

16 His roots shall be dried up beneath,
And above shall his branch be cut off.

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth,
And he shall have no name in the street.

18 He shall be driven from light into darkness,
And chased out of the world.

19 He shall have neither son nor son's son among his people,
Nor any remaining where he sojourned.

20<sup>19</sup> They that come after shall be astonished at his day,
As they that went before were affrighted.

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous,
And this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

19 Then Job answered and said,

2 How long will ye vex my soul,

And break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times have ye reproached me:

Ye are not ashamed that ye deal hardly with me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, Mine error remaineth with myself.

5<sup>1</sup> If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me,

And plead against me my reproach:

6 Know now that God hath<sup>2</sup> subverted me in my cause,

And hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I<sup>3</sup> cry out of wrong, but I am not heard:

I cry for help, but there is no judgement.

8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass,

And hath set darkness in my paths.

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, And taken the crown from my head.

10 He hath broken me down on every side, and I am gone:

And mine hope hath he plucked up like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me,

And he counteth me unto him as one of his adversaries.

12 His troops come on together, and cast up their way against me,

And encamp round about my tent.

13 He hath put my brethren far from me, And mine acquaintance are wholly estranged from me.

14 My kinsfolk have failed,

And my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that<sup>4</sup> dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger:

I am an alien in their sight.

16 I call unto my servant, and he giveth me no answer,

Though I intreat him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, And<sup>5</sup> my supplication to the children<sup>6</sup> of my mother's womb.

18 Even young children despise me;

If I arise, they speak against me.

19 All<sup>7</sup> my inward friends abhor me.

And they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh,

And I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends;

For the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute me as God,

And are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 Oh that my words were now written!

Oh that they were inscribed in a book!

24 That with an iron pen and lead

They were graven in the rock for ever!

25<sup>8</sup> But I know that my<sup>9</sup> redeemer liveth, And that he shall stand up at the last upon the<sup>10</sup> earth:

26<sup>11</sup> And after my skin hath been thus destroyed,

Yet<sup>12</sup> from my flesh shall I see God:

27 Whom I shall see<sup>13</sup> for myself,

And mine eyes shall behold, and not<sup>14</sup> another.

My reins are consumed within me.

28 If ye say, How we will persecute him!

<sup>15</sup> Seeing that the root of the matter is found in<sup>16</sup> me;

29 Be ye afraid of the sword:

For<sup>17</sup> wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword,

That ye may know there is a judgement.

20 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me,

<sup>18</sup> Even by reason of my haste that is in me.

3 I have heard the reproof which putteth me to shame,

<sup>19</sup> And the spirit of my understanding answereth me.

4 Knowest thou not this of old time,

Since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short,

And the joy of the godless but for a moment?

6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens,

And his head reach unto the clouds;

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung:

They which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found:

Yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye which saw him shall see him no more;

Neither shall his place any more behold him.

10<sup>20</sup> His children shall seek the favour of the poor,

And his hands shall give back his wealth.

11 His bones are full of his youth,

But it shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth,

Though he hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he spare it, and will not let it go, But keep it still within his mouth;

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, It is the gall of asps within him.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again:

God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the poison of asps:

The viper's tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall not look upon the rivers, The flowing streams of honey and butter.

19 For he hath oppressed and forsaken the poor;

He hath violently taken away an house, <sup>2</sup> and he shall not build it up.

20 Because he knew no quietness <sup>3</sup> within him,

He shall not save aught of that wherein he delighteth.

21 There was nothing left that he devoured not;

Therefore his prosperity shall not endure.

22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits:

The hand of every one that is in misery shall come upon him.

23 <sup>4</sup> When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fierceness of his wrath upon him,

And shall rain it upon him <sup>5</sup> while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon,

And the bow of brass shall strike him through.

25 He draweth it forth, and it cometh out of his body:

Yea, the glittering point cometh out of his gall;

Terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness is laid up for his treasures:

A fire not blown by man shall devour him;

27 The heavens shall reveal his iniquity, And the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, His goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God,

And the heritage appointed unto him by God.

21 Then Job answered and said,

2 Hear diligently my speech;

And let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me, and I also will speak;

And after that I have spoken, <sup>7</sup> mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint <sup>8</sup> to man? And why should I not be impatient?

5 <sup>9</sup> Mark me, and be astonished, And lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am troubled, And horror taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, Become old, yea, wax mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established with them in their sight,

And their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are <sup>10</sup> safe from fear, Neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; Their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,

And their children dance.

12 They <sup>11</sup> sing to the timbrel and harp, And rejoice at the sound of the pipe.

13 They spend their days in prosperity, And in a moment they go down to <sup>12</sup> Sheol.

14 Yet they said unto God, Depart from us;

For we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?

And what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 <sup>13</sup> Lo, their prosperity is not in their hand:

The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 <sup>14</sup> How oft is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out?

That their calamity cometh upon them?

That God distributeth sorrows in his anger?

18 That they are as stubble before the wind,

And as chaff that the storm carrieth away?

19 <sup>15</sup> Ye say, God layeth up his iniquity for his children.

Let him recompense it unto himself, that he may know it.

20 Let his own eyes see his destruction, And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him,

When the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach God knowledge?

Seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth in his full strength, Being wholly at ease and quiet;

24 His <sup>16</sup> breasts are full of milk, And the marrow of his bones is moistened.

25 And another dieth in bitterness of soul, And never tasteth of good.

26 They lie down alike in the dust, And the worm covereth them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, And the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince?

And where is the tent wherein the wicked dwelt?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way?

And do ye not know their tokens?

30 That the evil man is <sup>17</sup> reserved to the day of calamity?

That they are <sup>18</sup> led forth to the day of wrath?

31 Who shall declare his way to his face?

<sup>14</sup> Or, How oft is the lamp of the wicked put out, and how oft cometh their calamity upon them? God distributeth sorrows in his anger. They are as stubble... away.

<sup>15</sup> Or, God layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it. His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink &c.
<sup>16</sup> Or, milk pails

<sup>18</sup> Or, led away in &c.

And who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 <sup>1</sup> Yet shall he be borne to the grave,
And <sup>2</sup> shall keep watch over the tomb.

33 The clouds of the valley shall be sweet unto him,
And all men shall draw after him,
As there were innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me <sup>3</sup> in vain,
Seeing in your answers there remaineth only <sup>4</sup> falsehood?

22 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Can a man be profitable unto God?

Surely he that is wise is profitable unto himself.

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous?

Or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Is it <sup>5</sup> for thy fear of him that he reproveth thee,
That he entereth with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great?
Neither is there any end to thine iniquities.

6 For thou hast taken pledges of thy brother for nought,
And stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink,
And thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for <sup>6</sup> the mighty man, he had the <sup>7</sup> earth;

And <sup>8</sup> the honourable man, he dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty,
And the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee,
And sudden fear troubleth thee,

11 <sup>9</sup> Or darkness, that thou canst not see,
And abundance of waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven?
And behold the <sup>10</sup> height of the stars,
how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, What doth God know?

Can he judge through the thick darkness?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not;
And he walketh <sup>11</sup> in the circuit of heaven.

15 <sup>12</sup> Wilt thou keep the old way
Which wicked men have trodden?

16 Who were snatched away before their time,
Whose foundation was poured out as a stream:

17 Who said unto God, Depart from us;
And, What can the Almighty do <sup>13</sup> for us?

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things:

But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it, and are glad;
And the innocent laugh them to scorn:
20 Saying, Surely they that did rise up against us are cut off,

And <sup>15</sup> the remnant of them the fire hath consumed.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace:

22 Receive, I pray thee, <sup>17</sup> the law from his mouth,

And lay up his words in thine heart.

23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up;

24 And lay thou thy <sup>19</sup> treasure <sup>20</sup> in the dust,

And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks;

25 And the Almighty shall be thy <sup>19</sup> treasure,

And <sup>21</sup> precious silver unto thee.

26 For then shalt thou delight thyself in the Almighty,

And shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee;

And thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee;

And light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When they <sup>22</sup> cast thee down, thou shalt say, There is lifting up;

And <sup>23</sup> the humble person he shall save.

30 He shall deliver <sup>24</sup> even him that is not innocent:

Yea, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of thine hands.

23 Then Job answered and said,

2 Even to-day is my complaint <sup>25</sup> rebellious:

<sup>26</sup> My stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him,
That I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me,

And understand what he would say unto me.

6 Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?

Nay; <sup>27</sup> but he would give heed unto me.

7 There the upright might reason with him;

So should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;

And backward, but I cannot perceive him:

but I cannot behold him:

<sup>11</sup> My foot hath held fast to his steps; His way have I kept, and turned not aside.

And what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

<sup>14</sup> For he performeth that which is appointed for me:

And many such things are with him.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore am I troubled at his presence;

When I consider, I am afraid of him.

Neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

And why do not they which know him see his days?

They take the widow's ox for a pledge.

And have no covering in the cold.

<sup>8</sup> They are wet with the showers of the mountains, And embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

<sup>9</sup> There are that pluck the fatherless from the breast,

And <sup>13</sup>take a pledge of the poor:

<sup>10</sup> So that they go about naked without clothing,

And being an-hungred they carry the sheaves;

<sup>11</sup> They make oil within the walls of these men;

They tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

And the soul of the wounded crieth out: Yet God imputeth it not for folly.

They know not the ways thereof, Nor abide in the paths thereof.

<sup>14</sup> The murderer riseth with the light, he killeth the poor and needy; And in the night he is as a thief.

Saying, No eye shall see me: And he <sup>14</sup>disguiseth his face.

They know not the light.

<sup>17</sup> For the morning is to all of them as the shadow of death;

For they know the terrors of the shadow of death.

Their portion is cursed in the earth: He turneth not by the way of the vineyards.

So doth <sup>18</sup>Sheol those which have sinned.

<sup>20</sup> The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him;

He shall be no more remembered: And unrighteousness shall be broken

<sup>19</sup> as a tree.

<sup>21</sup> He devoureth the barren that beareth not;

And doeth not good to the widow.

He riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

And are cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

<sup>25</sup> And if it be not so now, who will prove me a liar,

And make my speech nothing worth?

He maketh peace in his high places.

<sup>3</sup> Is there any number of his armies?

And upon whom doth not his light arise?

And the stars are not pure in his sight:

26 Then Job answered and said,
 2 How hast thou helped him that is without power!
 How hast thou saved the arm that hath no strength!
 3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom,
 And plentifully declared sound knowledge!
 4 To whom hast thou uttered words?
 And whose <sup>1</sup>spirit came forth from thee?
 5 <sup>2</sup>They that are deceased tremble
 Beneath the waters and the inhabitants thereof.
 6 <sup>3</sup>Sheol is naked before him,
 And <sup>4</sup>Abaddon hath no covering.
 7 He stretcheth out the north over empty space,
 And hangeth the earth <sup>5</sup>upon nothing.
 8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds;
 And the cloud is not rent under them.
 9 He closeth in the face of his throne,
 And spreadeth his cloud upon it.
 10 He hath described a boundary upon the face of the waters,
 Unto the confines of light and darkness.
 11 The pillars of heaven tremble
 And are astonished at his rebuke.
 12 He <sup>6</sup>stirreth up the sea with his power,
 And by his understanding he smiteth through <sup>7</sup>Rahab.
 13 By his spirit the heavens are <sup>8</sup>garnished;
 His hand hath pierced the <sup>9</sup>swift serpent.
 14 Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways:
 And <sup>10</sup>how small a whisper <sup>11</sup>do we hear of him!
 But the thunder of his <sup>12</sup>power who can understand?

27 And Job again took up his parable, and said,
 2 As God liveth, who hath taken away my right;
 And the Almighty, who hath <sup>13</sup>vexed my soul;
 3 <sup>14</sup>(For my life is yet whole in me,
 And the spirit of God is in my nostrils);
 4 Surely my lips <sup>15</sup>shall not speak unrighteousness,
 Neither <sup>16</sup>shall my tongue utter deceit.
 5 God forbid that I should justify you:
 Till I die I will not put away mine integrity from me.
 6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go:
 My heart <sup>17</sup>shall not reproach me so long as I live.
 7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked,
 And let him that riseth up against me be as the unrighteous.
 8 For what is the hope of the godless,
<sup>18</sup>Though he get him gain,
 When God taketh away his soul?
 9 Will God hear his cry,

When trouble cometh upon him?
 10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty,
 And call upon God at all times?
 11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God;
 That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
 12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it;
 Why then are ye become altogether vain?
 13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
 And the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty.
 14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword;
 And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
 15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death,
 And his widows shall make no lamentation.
 16 Though he heap up silver as the dust,
 And prepare raiment as the clay;
 17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,
 And the innocent shall divide the silver.
 18 He buildeth his house as the <sup>19</sup>moth,
 And as a booth which the keeper maketh.
 19 He lieth down rich, but he <sup>20</sup>shall not be gathered;
 He openeth his eyes, and he is not.
 20 Terrors overtake him like waters;
 A tempest stealeth him away in the night.
 21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth;
 And it sweepeth him out of his place.
 22 For God shall hurl at him, and not spare:
 He would fain flee out of his hand.
 23 Men shall clap their hands at him,
 And shall hiss him out of his place.
 28 <sup>21</sup>Surely there is a mine for silver,
 And a place for gold which they refine.
 2 Iron is taken out of the <sup>22</sup>earth,
 And brass is molten out of the stone.
 3 Man setteth an end to darkness,
 And searcheth out to the furthest bound
 The stones of thick darkness and of the shadow of death.
 4 <sup>23</sup>He breaketh open a shaft away from where men sojourn;
 They are forgotten of the foot that passeth by;
 They hang afar from men, they <sup>24</sup>swing to and fro.
 5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread:
 And underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
 6 The stones thereof are the place of sapphires,
 And it hath dust of gold.

25 I chose out their way, and sat as chief,
And dwelt as a king in the army,
As one that comforteth the mourners.

30 But now they that are younger than
I have me in derision, Whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, the strength of their hands, where-to should it profit me?

Men in whom <sup>1</sup>ripe age is perished.

3 They are gaunt with want and famine;
<sup>2</sup>They gnaw the dry ground, <sup>3</sup>in the gloom of wasteness and desolation.

4 They pluck salt-wort by the bushes;
And the roots of the broom are <sup>4</sup>their meat.

5 They are driven forth from the midst of men;

They cry after them as after a thief.

6 <sup>5</sup>In the clefts of the valleys must they dwell,

In holes of the earth and of the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they bray;
Under the <sup>6</sup>nettles they <sup>7</sup>are gathered together.

8 They are children of fools, yea, children of <sup>8</sup>base men;

They <sup>9</sup>were scourged out of the land.

9 And now I am become their song,
Yea, I am a byword unto them.

10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from
me,

And spare not to spit <sup>10</sup>in my face.

11 For he hath loosed <sup>11</sup>his cord, and afflicted me,

And they have cast off the bridle before
me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the <sup>12</sup>rabble;
They thrust aside my feet,

And they cast up against me their ways of destruction.

13 They <sup>13</sup>mar my path,

They set forward my calamity,

Even men that have no helper.

14 <sup>14</sup>As through a wide breach they come:
In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me,

<sup>15</sup>They chase <sup>16</sup>mine honour as the wind;
And my welfare is passed away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out <sup>17</sup>within
me;

Days of affliction have taken hold upon
me.

17 In the night season my bones are <sup>18</sup>pierced <sup>19</sup>in me,

And <sup>20</sup>the pains that gnaw me take no
rest.

18 <sup>21</sup>By the great force of my disease is my garment disfigured:

It bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire,

And I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not answer me:

I stand up, and thou lookest at me.

21 Thou art turned to be cruel to me:

With the might of thy hand thou persecutest me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind, thou causest me to ride upon it;

And thou dissolvest me in the storm.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death,

And to <sup>22</sup>the house appointed for all living.

24 <sup>23</sup>Surely against a ruinous heap he will not put forth his hand;

Though it be in his destruction, one may utter a cry because of these things.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble?

Was not my soul grieved for the needy?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came;
And when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boil, and rest not;

Days of affliction are come upon me.

28 I go <sup>24</sup>mourning without the sun:
I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.

29 I am a brother to jackals,

A companion to ostriches.

30 My skin is black, and falleth from me,
And my bones are burned with heat.

31 Therefore is my harp turned to mourning,

And my pipe into the voice of them that weep.

31 I made a covenant with mine eyes;
How then should I look upon a maid?

2 <sup>25</sup>For what is the portion of God from above,

And the heritage of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is it not calamity to the unrighteous,
And disaster to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways,
And number all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity,
And my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 (Let me be weighed in an even balance,

That God may know mine integrity;)

7 If my step hath turned out of the way,
And mine heart walked after mine
eyes,

And if any spot hath cleaved to mine
hands:

8 Then let me sow, and let another eat;
Yea, let <sup>26</sup>the produce of my field be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been enticed unto a woman,

And I have laid wait at my neighbour's door:

10 Then let my wife grind unto another,
And let others bow down upon her.

11 For that were an heinous crime;
Yea, it were an iniquity to be punished
by the judges:

12 For it is a fire that consumeth unto

<sup>10</sup> Or, at the sight of me

<sup>14</sup> Or, as a mid- breaking in of waters

<sup>29</sup> Or, my affliction Heb, my pro- duce.

<sup>30</sup> Or, my affliction Heb, my pro- duce.

<sup>32</sup> Or, my affliction Heb, my pro- duce.

<sup>33</sup> Or, my affliction Heb, my pro- duce.

<sup>44</sup> Or, my affliction Heb, my pro- duce.

And would root out all mine increase.
 13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant,
 When they contended with me:
 14 What then shall I do when God riseth up?
 And when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?
 15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him?
 And did not one fashion us in the womb?
 16 If I have withheld <sup>1</sup>the poor from their desire,
 Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;
 17 Or have eaten my morsel alone,
 And the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;
 18 (Nay, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,
 And I have been her guide from my mother's womb;)
 19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing,
 Or that the needy had no covering;
 20 If his loins have not blessed me,
 And if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
 21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,
 Because I saw my help in the gate:
 22 Then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade,
 And mine arm be broken from the bone.
 23 For calamity from God was a terror to me,
 And by reason of his excellency I could do nothing.
 24 If I have made gold my hope,
 And have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;
 25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great,
 And because mine hand had gotten much;
 26 If I beheld <sup>2</sup>the sun when it shined,
 Or the moon walking in brightness;
 27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed,
 And <sup>3</sup>my mouth hath kissed my hand:
 28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judges;
 For I should have <sup>4</sup>lied to God that is above.
 29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me,
 Or lifted up myself when evil found him;
 30 (Yea, I suffered not my <sup>5</sup>mouth to sin
 By asking his life with a curse;)
 31 If the men of my tent said not,
<sup>6</sup>Who can find one that hath not been satisfied with his flesh?
 32 The stranger did not lodge in the street;
 But I opened my doors to <sup>7</sup>the traveller;
 33 If <sup>8</sup>like Adam I covered my transgressions,
 By hiding mine iniquity in my bosom;
 34 Because I feared the great multitude,

And the contempt of families terrified me,
 So that I kept silence, and went not out of the door—
 35 Oh that I had one to hear me!
 (Lo, here is my <sup>9</sup>signature, let the Almighty answer me;)
 And that I had the <sup>10</sup>indictment which mine adversary hath written!
 36 Surely I would carry it upon my shoulder;
 I would bind it unto me as a crown.
 37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps;
 As a prince would I <sup>11</sup>go near unto him.
 38 If my land cry out against me,
 And the furrows thereof weep together;
 39 If I have eaten the <sup>12</sup>fruits thereof without money,
 Or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:
 40 Let <sup>13</sup>thistles grow instead of wheat,
 And <sup>14</sup>cockle instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God. Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
 4 Now Elihu had <sup>15</sup>waited to speak unto Job, because they were elder than he. And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.
 6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said,
 I am young, and ye are very old;
 Wherefore I held back, and durst not shew you mine opinion.
 7 I said, Days should speak,
 And multitude of years should teach wisdom.
 8 But there is a spirit in man,
 And the breath of the Almighty giveth them understanding.
 9 It is not the great that are wise,
 Nor the aged that understand judgment.
 10 Therefore I <sup>16</sup>said, Harken to me;
 I also will shew mine opinion.
 11 Behold, I waited for your words,
 I listened for your reasons,
 Whilst ye searched out what to say.
 12 Yea, I attended unto you,
 And, behold, there was none that convinced Job,
 Or that answered his words, among you.
 13 <sup>17</sup>Beware lest ye say, We have found wisdom;
 God may vanquish him, not man:
 14 For he hath not directed his words against me;

<sup>6</sup> Or, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

<sup>17</sup> Or, lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man: now he is.

Neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They are amazed, they answer no more:
They have not a word to say.

16 And shall I wait, because they speak not,
Because they stand still, and answer no more?

17 I also will answer my part,
I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of words;

The spirit <sup>1</sup> within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent;

Like new <sup>2</sup> bottles <sup>3</sup> it is ready to burst.

20 I will speak, that I may <sup>4</sup> be refreshed;
I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, respect any man's person;

Neither will I give flattering titles unto any man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles;

Else would my Maker soon take me
away.

33 Howbeit, Job, I pray thee, hear my speech,
And hearken to all my words.

2 Behold now, I have opened my mouth,
My tongue hath spoken in my <sup>5</sup> mouth.

3 My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart:

And that which my lips know they shall speak sincerely.

4 The spirit of God hath made me,
And the breath of the Almighty giveth me life.

5 If thou canst, answer thou me;
Set thy words in order before me, stand forth.

6 Behold, <sup>6</sup> I am toward God even as thou art:

I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid,

Neither shall my pressure be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing,

And I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am clean, without transgression;
I am innocent, neither is there iniquity
in me:

10 Behold, he findeth <sup>7</sup> occasions against
me,

He counteth me for his enemy;

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks,

He marketh all my paths.

12 <sup>8</sup> Behold, I will answer thee, in this thou art not just;

For God is greater than man.

13 <sup>9</sup> Why dost thou strive against him?

For he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh <sup>10</sup> once,

Yea twice, though man regardeth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,

When deep sleep falleth upon men,

In slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then he <sup>11</sup> openeth the ears of men,
And sealeth their instruction,

17 <sup>12</sup> That he may withdraw man from his purpose,

And hide pride from man;

18 <sup>13</sup> He keepeth back his soul from the pit,
And his life from perishing by the <sup>14</sup> sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed,

20 So that his life abhorreth bread,

And his soul dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen;

And his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the pit,
And his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be with him <sup>16</sup> an angel,
An interpreter, one <sup>17</sup> among a thousand,

To shew unto man <sup>18</sup> what is right for
him;

24 <sup>19</sup> Then he is gracious unto him, and saith,

Deliver him from going down to the pit,

I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's;

He returneth to the days of his youth:

26 He prayeth unto God, and he is favourable unto him;

So that he seeth his face with joy:
And he restoreth unto man his righteousness.

27 <sup>20</sup> He singeth before men, and saith,
I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,

And <sup>21</sup> it profited me not:

28 He hath redeemed my soul from going into the pit,

And my life shall behold the light.

29 Lo, all these things doth God work,
Twice, yea thrice, with a man,

30 To bring back his soul from the pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of <sup>22</sup> the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me:
Hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer
me:

Speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, hearken thou unto me:
Hold thy peace, and I will teach thee
wisdom.

34 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
2 Hear my words, ye wise men;

And give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words,

As the palate tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose for us that which is right:
Let us know among ourselves what is good.

<sup>20</sup> Or, He

See Ps. 1. 18.

4 Or, laid upon him
5 According to another reading, If he cause his heart to return unto himself.
6 Or, upon himself
7 Heb. him.
8 Or, Only understand
9 Or, as read by some ancient versions, Who saith to... vile, and to... wicked; that respecteth &c.
10 Or, and at mid-night the people &c.

11 Or, without inquisition

And God hath taken away my right:
6<sup>1</sup> Notwithstanding my right I am accounted a liar;
2 My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.
7 What man is like Job,
Who drinketh up scorning like water?
8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walketh with wicked men.
9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing
That he should <sup>8</sup>delight himself with God.
10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding:
Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness;
And from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him,
And cause every man to find according to his ways.
12 Yea, of a surety, God will not do wickedly,
Neither will the Almighty pervert judgement.
13 Who gave him a charge over the earth?
Or who hath <sup>4</sup>disposed the whole world?
14<sup>5</sup> If he set his heart <sup>6</sup>upon <sup>7</sup>man,
If he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;
15 All flesh shall perish together,
And man shall turn again unto dust.
16<sup>8</sup> If now thou hast understanding, hear this:
Hearken to the voice of my words.
17 Shall even one that hateth right govern?
And wilt thou condemn him that is just and mighty?
18<sup>9</sup> Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art vile?
Or to nobles, Ye are wicked?
19 How much less to him that respecteth not the persons of princes,
Nor regardeth the rich more than the poor?
For they all are the work of his hands.
20 In a moment they die, <sup>10</sup>even at mid-night;
The people are shaken and pass away,
And the mighty are taken away without hand.
21 For his eyes are upon the ways of a man,
And he seeth all his goings.
22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death,
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For he needeth not further to consider a man,
That he should go before God in judgement.
24 He breaketh in pieces mighty men <sup>11</sup>in ways past finding out,
And setteth others in their stead.

25 Therefore he taketh knowledge of their works;
And he overturneth them in the night, so that they are <sup>12</sup>destroyed.
26 He striketh them as wicked men <sup>13</sup>In the open sight of others;
27 Because they turned aside from following him,
And would not have regard to any of his ways:
28<sup>14</sup> So that they caused the cry of the poor to come unto him,
And he heard the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he giveth quietness, who then can condemn?
And when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?
Whether it be done unto a nation, or unto a man, alike:
30 That the godless man reign not,
That there be none to ensnare the people.
31 For hath any said unto God,
I have borne chastisement, <sup>15</sup>I will not offend any more:
32 That which I see not teach thou me:
If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more?
33 Shall his recompence be as thou wilt, that thou refusest it?
For thou must choose, and not I:
Therefore speak what thou knowest.
34 Men of understanding will say unto me, Yea, every wise man that heareth me:
35 Job speaketh without knowledge, And his words are without wisdom.
36 Would that Job were tried unto the end,
Because of his answering like wicked men.
37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin,
He clappeth his hands among us,
And multiplieth his words against God.
35 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be thy right,
Or sayest thou, My righteousness is more than God's,
3 That thou sayest, What advantage will it be unto thee?
And, What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?
4 I will answer thee,
And thy companions with thee.
5 Look unto the heavens, and see;
And behold the skies, which are higher than thou.
6 If thou hast sinned, what doest thou against him?
And if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?
7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou him?
Or what receiveth he of thine hand?
8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art;
And thy righteousness may profit a son of man.

12 Heb. crushed.

13 Heb. In the place of holders

14 Or, That they might cause... and that he might hear

15 Or, though I offend not

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;
They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, Where is God my Maker,

Who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth,

And maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 There they cry, <sup>1</sup>but none giveth answer,

Because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity,
Neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 How much less when thou sayest
<sup>2</sup>thou beholdest him not,

The cause is before him, and thou waitest for him!

15 But now, because he hath not visited in his anger,

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vanity;

He multiplieth words without knowledge.

36 Elihu also proceeded, and said,

For <sup>5</sup>I have yet somewhat to say on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar,
And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words are not false:
One that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any;

He is mighty in strength of <sup>6</sup>understanding.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked:
But giveth to the afflicted their right.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous:

But with kings upon the throne
He setteth them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters,
And be taken in the cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work,
And their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.

10 He openeth also their ear to instruction,
And commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they hearken and serve him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,

And their years in <sup>7</sup>pleasures.

12 But if they hearken not, they shall perish by <sup>8</sup>the sword,

And they shall die without knowledge.

13 But they that are godless in heart lay up anger:

They cry not for help when he bindeth them.

14<sup>9</sup> They die in youth,
And their life perisheth <sup>10</sup>among the <sup>11</sup>unclean.

15 He delivereth the afflicted <sup>12</sup>by his affliction,

And openeth their ear <sup>13</sup>in oppression.

16 Yea, he would have <sup>14</sup>led thee away <sup>15</sup>out of distress

Into a broad place, where there is no straitness;

And that which is set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou <sup>16</sup>art full of the judgement of the wicked:

Judgement and justice take hold on thee.

18<sup>17</sup> Because there is wrath, beware lest thou be <sup>18</sup>led away by thy sufficiency;

Neither let the greatness of the ransom turn thee aside.

19<sup>19</sup> Will thy riches suffice, <sup>20</sup>that thou be not in distress,

Or all the forces of thy strength?

20 Desire not the night,
When peoples <sup>21</sup>are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity:
For this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God doeth loftily in his power:
Who is a teacher like unto him?

23 Who hath enjoined him his way?
Or who can say, Thou hast wrought unrighteousness?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work,
Whereof men have sung.

25 All men have looked thereon;
Man beholdeth it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not;

The number of his years is unsearchable.

27 For he draweth up the drops of water,
Which distil in rain <sup>22</sup>from <sup>23</sup>his vapour:

28 Which the skies pour down
And drop upon man abundantly.

29 Yea, can any understand the spreadings of the clouds,
The thunders of his pavilion?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light <sup>24</sup>around him;

And he <sup>25</sup>covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by these he judgeth the peoples;
He giveth meat in abundance.

32 He covereth his hands with the <sup>26</sup>lightning;

And giveth it a charge <sup>27</sup>that it strike the mark.

33 The noise thereof telleth concerning <sup>28</sup>him,

The cattle also concerning <sup>29</sup>the storm that cometh up.

37 At this also my heart trembleth,
And is moved out of its place.

2 Harken ye unto the noise of his voice,
And the <sup>30</sup>sound that goeth out of his mouth.

<sup>2</sup> Or, thou beholdest him not! The cause is before him; therefore wait thou for him.

heaven,
And his <sup>1</sup>lightning unto the <sup>2</sup>ends of
the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth;
He thundereth with the voice of his majesty:
And he stayeth them not when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice;
Great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Fall thou on
the earth;
Likewise to the shower of rain,
And to the showers of his mighty rain.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man;
That all men whom he hath made may know it.

8 Then the beasts go into coverts,
And remain in their dens.

9 Out of <sup>3</sup>the chamber of the south
cometh the storm:

And cold out of the <sup>4</sup>north.

10 By the breath of God ice is given:
And the breadth of the waters is <sup>5</sup>straitened.

11 Yea, he ladeth the thick cloud with moisture;
He spreadeth abroad the cloud of his <sup>1</sup>lightning:

12 And it is turned round about by his guidance,
That they may do whatsoever he com-mandeth them

Upon the face of the habitable world:

13 Whether it be for correction, or for his <sup>6</sup>land,
Or for mercy, that he cause it to come.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job:
Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know how God layeth his charge upon them,
And causeth the <sup>1</sup>lightning of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds,
The wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 <sup>7</sup>How thy garments are warm,

<sup>8</sup>When the earth is still by reason of the south wind?

18 Canst thou with him spread out the sky,
Which is strong as a molten mirror?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him;
For we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I would speak?

<sup>9</sup>Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?

21 And now men <sup>10</sup>see not the light which is bright in the skies:

But the wind passeth, and cleanseth
them.

22 Out of the north cometh <sup>11</sup>golden splendour:

God hath upon him terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out; he is excellent in power:
And <sup>12</sup>in judgement and plenteous justice he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him:

He regardeth not any that are wise of heart.

38 Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel
By words without knowledge?

3 Gird up now thy loins like a man;

For I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?

Declare, <sup>13</sup>if thou hast understanding.

5 Who determined the measures thereof,
<sup>14</sup>if thou knowest?

Or who stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon were the <sup>15</sup>foundations thereof <sup>16</sup>fastened?

Or who laid the corner stone thereof;

7 When the morning stars sang together,
And all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors,
When it brake forth, <sup>17</sup>as if it had issued out of the womb;

9 When I made the cloud the garment
thereof,

And thick darkness a swaddlingband
for it,

10 And <sup>18</sup>prescribed for it my <sup>19</sup>decree,
And set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come,
but no further;

And here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou commanded the morning
since thy days began,

And caused the day-spring to know its
place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of
the earth,

And the wicked be shaken out of it?

14 It is changed as clay under the seal;
And all things stand forth <sup>20</sup>as a garment:

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden,

And the high arm is broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea?

Or hast thou walked in the <sup>21</sup>recesses of the deep?

17 Have the gates of death been revealed unto thee?

Or hast thou seen the gates of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou comprehended the breadth of the earth?

Declare, if thou knowest it all.

And that thou shouldest discern the paths to the house thereof?

21 Doubtless, thou knowest, for thou wast then born,

And the number of thy days is great!

22 Hast thou entered the treasures of the snow,

Or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble,

Against the day of battle and war?

24 <sup>1</sup>By what way is the light parted, Or the east wind scattered upon the earth?

25 Who hath cleft a channel for the water-flood,

Or a way for the lightning of the thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on a land where no man is;

On the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 To satisfy the waste and desolate ground;

And to cause the <sup>2</sup>tender grass to spring forth?

28 Hath the rain a father?

Or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? And the hoary frost of heaven, who hath <sup>3</sup>gendered it?

30 The waters <sup>4</sup>are hidden as with stone, And the face of the deep <sup>5</sup>is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the <sup>6</sup>cluster of the Pleiades,

Or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou lead forth <sup>7</sup>the Mazzaroth in their season?

Or canst thou guide the Bear with her <sup>8</sup>train?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of the heavens?

Canst thou establish the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds,

That abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send forth lightnings, that they may go,

And say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the <sup>9</sup>inward parts?

Or who hath given understanding to the <sup>10</sup>mind?

37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can <sup>11</sup>pour out the bottles of heaven, 38 When the dust runneth into a mass, And the clods cleave fast together?

39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lioness? Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 40 When they couch in their dens, And abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provideth for the raven his food, When his young ones cry unto God, And wander for lack of meat?

39 Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth?

Or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil?

Or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young,

They cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up in the open field;

They go forth, and <sup>12</sup>return not again.

5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? Or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6 Whose house I have made the wilderness,

And the salt land his dwelling place.

7 He scorneth the tumult of the city, Neither heareth he the shoutings of the <sup>13</sup>driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,

And he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the <sup>14</sup>wild-ox be content to serve thee?

Or will he abide by thy crib?

10 Canst thou bind the wild-ox with his band in the furrow?

Or will he harrow the valleys after thee?

11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great?

Or wilt thou leave to him thy labour?

12 Wilt thou confide in him, that he will bring home thy seed,

And gather the corn of thy threshing-floor?

13 The wing of the ostrich rejoiceth; But are her pinions and feathers <sup>15</sup>kindly?

14 For she leaveth her eggs on the earth, And warmeth them in the dust,

15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them,

Or that the wild beast may trample them.

16 She <sup>16</sup>is hardened against her young ones, as if they were not hers:

Though her labour be in vain, she is without fear;

17 Because God hath <sup>17</sup>deprived her of wisdom,

Neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she <sup>18</sup>lifteth up herself on high,

She scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse his might?

Hast thou clothed his neck with <sup>19</sup>the quivering mane?

20 Hast thou made him to leap as a locust? The glory of his snorting is terrible.

Neither turneth he back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattleth <sup>1</sup> against him,
The flashing spear and the javelin.
24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage;
<sup>2</sup> Neither believeth he that it is the voice of the trumpet.
25 As oft as the trumpet soundeth he saith, Aha!
And he smelleth the battle afar off,
The thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
26 Doth the hawk soar by thy wisdom,
And stretch her wings toward the south?
27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command,
And make her nest on high?
28 She dwelleth on the rock, and hath her lodging there,
Upon the crag of the rock, and the strong hold.
29 From thence she spieth out the prey;
Her eyes behold it afar off.
30 Her young ones also suck up blood:
And where the slain are, there is she.

40 Moreover the LORD answered Job, and said,
2 Shall he that cavilleth contend with the Almighty?
He that argueth with God, let him answer it.

3 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,
4 Behold, I am of small account; what shall I answer thee?
I lay mine hand upon my mouth.
5 Once have I spoken, and I will not answer;
Yea twice, but I will proceed no further.

6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
7 Gird up thy loins now like a man:
I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
8 Wilt thou even disannul my judgement?
Wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be justified?
9 Or hast thou an arm like God?
And canst thou thunder with a voice like him?
10 Deck thyself now with excellency and dignity;
And array thyself with honour and majesty.
11 Pour forth the overflowings of thine anger:
And look upon every one that is proud, and abase him.
12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low;
And tread down the wicked where they stand.
13 Hide them in the dust together;

Bind their faces in the hidden place.
14 Then will I also confess of thee
That thine own right hand can save thee.
15 Behold now <sup>3</sup> behemoth, which I made with thee;
He eateth grass as an ox.
16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins,
And his force is in the muscles of his belly.
17 He moveth his tail like a cedar:
The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
18 His bones are as tubes of brass;
His <sup>4</sup> limbs are like bars of iron.
19 He is the chief of the ways of God:
<sup>5</sup> He only that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.
20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food;
Where all the beasts of the field do play.
21 He lieth under the lotus trees,
In the covert of the reed, and the fen.
22 The lotus trees cover him with their shadow;
The willows of the brook compass him about.
23 Behold, if a river <sup>6</sup> overflow, he trembleth not:
He is confident, though Jordan swell even to his mouth.
24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch,
Or pierce through his nose with a snare?
41 Canst thou draw out <sup>7</sup> leviathan with a fish hook?
Or press down his tongue with a cord?
2 Canst thou put <sup>8</sup> a rope into his nose?
Or pierce his jaw through with a <sup>9</sup> hook?
3 Will he make many supplications unto thee?
Or will he speak soft words unto thee?
4 Will he make a covenant with thee,
That thou shouldest take him for a servant for ever?
5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird?
Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
6 Shall the bands of fishermen make traffic of him?
Shall they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons,
Or his head with fish spears?
8 Lay thine hand upon him;
Remember the battle, and do so no more.
9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain:
Shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
10 None is so fierce that he dare stir him up:
Who then is he that can stand before me?
11 Who hath first given unto me, that I should repay him?

Whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not keep silence concerning his limbs,

Nor his mighty strength, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can <sup>1</sup>strip off his outer garment? Who shall come within his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face?

15 His <sup>3</sup>strong scales are his pride, Shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, That no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another; They stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 His needings flash forth light, And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning torches, And sparks of fire leap forth.

20 Out of his nostrils a smoke goeth, As of a seething pot and burning rushes.

21 His breath kindleth coals, And a flame goeth forth from his mouth.

22 In his neck abideth strength, And terror danceth before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: They are firm upon him; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; Yea, firm as the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth himself up, the mighty are afraid:

By reason of conservation they are beside themselves.

26 If one lay at him with the sword, it cannot avail;

Nor the spear, the dart, nor the <sup>4</sup>pointed shaft.

27 He counteth iron as straw, And brass as rotten wood.

28 The <sup>5</sup>arrow cannot make him flee: Slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Clubs are counted as stubble: He laugheth at the rushing of the javelin.

30 His underparts are like sharp potsherd:

He spreadeth as it were a threshing wain upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot:

He maketh the sea like ointment.

32 He maketh a path to shine after him; One would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like, That is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth every thing that is high: He is king over all the <sup>6</sup>sons of pride.

42 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

2 I know that thou canst do all things, And that no purpose of thine can be restrained.

3 Who is this that hideth counsel without knowledge?

Therefore have I uttered that which I understood not, Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak;

<sup>8</sup>I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I had heard of thee by the hearing of the ear;

But now mine eye seeth thee,

6 Wherefore I <sup>9</sup>abhor myself, and repent In dust and ashes.

7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

Now therefore, take unto you seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him will I accept, that I deal not with you after your folly; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: and the LORD ac-

10 cepted Job. And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: and the LORD gave Job

11 twice as much as he had before. Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him:

every man also gave him a <sup>10</sup>piece of money, and every one a ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: and he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name

15 of the third, Keren-happuch. And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance

16 among their brethren. And after this Job lived an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, 17 even four generations. So Job died, being old and full of days.

<sup>1</sup> Or, Happy

1 <sup>1</sup> BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
2 But his delight is in the law of the
LORD;
And in his law doth he meditate day
and night.
3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also doth not wither;
And <sup>2</sup> whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
4 The wicked are not so;
But are like the chaff which the wind
driveth away.
5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgement,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the
righteous:
But the way of the wicked shall perish.

2 Why do the nations <sup>3</sup> rage,
And the peoples <sup>4</sup> imagine a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together, Against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,
3 Let us break their bands asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.
4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh:
The Lord shall have them in derision.
5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath,
And <sup>5</sup> vex them in his sore displeasure:
6 Yet I have set my king
Upon my holy hill of Zion.
7 I will tell of the decree:
The LORD said unto me, Thou art my son;
This day have I begotten thee.
8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance,
And the uttermost parts of the earth
for thy possession.
9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Now therefore be wise, O ye kings:
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
12 <sup>6</sup> Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way,
For his wrath <sup>7</sup> will soon be kindled.

3 A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.
1 LORD, how are mine adversaries increased!
Many are they that rise up against
me.
2 Many there be which say <sup>9</sup> of my soul,
There is no <sup>10</sup> help for him in God. [Selah]
3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield about
me;
My glory, and the lifter up of mine
head.
4 I cry unto the LORD with my voice,
And he answereth me out of his holy hill. [Selah]
5 I laid me down and slept;
I awaked; for the LORD sustaineth
me.
6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people,
That have set themselves against me round about.
7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God:
For thou hast smitten all mine enemies
upon the cheek bone;
Thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked.
8 <sup>11</sup> Salvation belongeth unto the LORD:
Thy blessing be upon thy people. [Selah]

4 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instru-

1 Answer me when I call, O God of my
righteousness;
Thou hast set me at large when I was in distress:
12 Have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.
2 O ye sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonour?
How long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood? [Selah]
3 But know that the LORD hath set apart
<sup>13</sup> him that is godly for himself:

LORD, lift thou up the light of thy

More than they have when their corn

5 For the Chief Musician; with the <sup>3</sup> Nehiloth.
A Psalm of David.

1 Give ear to my words, O LORD,
Consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God:

For unto thee do I pray.

3 O LORD, in the morning shalt thou hear my voice;

In the morning will I order my prayer
unto thee, and will keep watch.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness:

<sup>4</sup> Evil shall not sojourn with thee.

5<sup>5</sup> The arrogant shall not stand in thy sight:

Thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak lies:
The LORD abhorreth the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, in the multitude of thy lovingkindness will I come into thy house:

In thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of <sup>6</sup> mine enemies;
Make thy way plain before my face.

9 For there is no <sup>7</sup> faithfulness in their
mouth;

Their inward part is <sup>8</sup> very wickedness:

Their throat is an open sepulchre;

They <sup>9</sup> flatter with their tongue.

10 Hold them guilty, O God;
Let them fall <sup>10</sup> by their own counsels:

Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions;

For they have rebelled against thee.

11<sup>11</sup> But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice,

Let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them:

Let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou wilt bless the righteous;

O LORD, thou wilt compass him with favour as with a shield.

6 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, set to <sup>12</sup> the Sheminith. A Psalm

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for
I am withered away:

O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul also is sore vexed:

And thou, O LORD, how long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul:

Save me for thy lovingkindness' sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee:

In <sup>13</sup> Sheol who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning;

Every night make I my bed to swim;

I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye wasteth away because of grief;

It waxeth old because of all mine adversaries.

8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity;

For the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication;

The LORD will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be ashamed and sore vexed:

They shall turn back, they shall be ashamed suddenly.

7 Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush a Benjamite.

1 O LORD my God, in thee do I <sup>14</sup> put my trust:

Save me from all them that pursue me, and deliver me:

2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, Rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this;
If there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me;

(Yea, I have delivered him that without cause was mine adversary:)

5 Let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;

Yea, let him tread my life down to the earth,

And lay my glory in the dust. [Selah]

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, Lift up thyself against the rage of mine adversaries:

And awake for me; thou hast commanded judgement.

7<sup>15</sup> And let the congregation of the peoples compass thee about:

And over them return thou on high.

the peoples:

Judge me, O LORD, according to my

He hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

He maketh his arrows fiery shafts.

Yea, he hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He hath made a pit, and digged it,
And is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head,

And his violence shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will give thanks unto the LORD according to his righteousness:

And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

8 For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith.
A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Who<sup>2</sup> hast set thy glory<sup>3</sup> upon the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength,
Because of thine adversaries,
That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,
The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him but little lower than<sup>4</sup> God,
And crownest him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;
Thou hast put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea,
Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

9 For the Chief Musician; set to Muth-labben.
A Psalm of David.

1 I will give thanks unto the LORD with my whole heart;

I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and exult in thee:

I will sing praise to thy name, O thou<sup>5</sup> Most High.

3 When mine enemies turn back,
They stumble and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause;

Thou satest in the throne judging righteously.

5 Thou hast rebuked the<sup>6</sup> nations, thou hast destroyed the wicked,

Thou hast blotted out their name for ever and ever.

6<sup>7</sup> The enemy are come to an end, they are desolate for ever;

And the cities which thou hast<sup>8</sup> overthrown,

Their very memorial is perished.

7 But the LORD sitteth as king for ever:
He hath prepared his throne for judgement.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness,

He shall minister judgement to the<sup>9</sup> peoples in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a high tower for the oppressed,

A high tower in times of trouble;

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee;

For thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion:

Declare among the<sup>11</sup> people his doings.

12<sup>12</sup> For he that maketh inquisition for blood remembereth them:

He forgetteth not the cry of the<sup>13</sup> poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; Behold my affliction which I suffer

of them that hate me,
Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death;

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise:
In the gates of the daughter of Zion,
I will rejoice in thy<sup>14</sup> salvation.

15 The nations are sunk down in the pit that they made:

In the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

17 The wicked shall return to Sheol,
Even all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten,
Nor the expectation of the<sup>16</sup> poor perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail:
Let the nations be judged in thy sight.

14 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.

They are corrupt, they have done abominable works;
There is none that doeth good.

2 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were any that did understand,
That did seek after God.

There is none that doeth good, no, not one.

18 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David
the servant of the LORD, <sup>8</sup> who spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul : and he said,

1 I love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress,
and my deliverer ;

My God, my strong rock, in him will I trust ;

My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised :

So shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The cords of death compassed me,
And the floods of <sup>9</sup> ungodliness made me afraid.

5 The cords of Sheol were round about
me :

The snares of death came upon me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried unto my God :

He heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry before him came into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled,
The foundations also of the mountains moved

And were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke <sup>10</sup> out of his nostrils,

And fire out of his mouth devoured :
Coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down ;

And thick darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly :
Yea, he flew swiftly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion round about him ;

Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed,

Hailstones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens,

And the Most High uttered his voice ;
Hailstones and coals of fire.

14 And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ;

<sup>11</sup> Yea, lightnings manifold, and discomfited them.

15 Then the channels of waters appeared,
And the foundations of the world were laid bare,

At thy rebuke, O LORD,

At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from on high, he took me ;

He drew me out of <sup>12</sup> many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,

And from them that hated me, for they were too mighty for me.

18 They came upon me in the day of my calamity :

But the LORD was my stay.

19 He brought me forth also into a large
place ;

He delivered me, because he delighted
in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness ;

According to the cleanness of my hands
hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgements were before me,
And I put not away his statutes from
me.

23 I was also perfect with him,

And I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands
in his eyesight.

25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful ;

With the perfect man thou wilt shew
thyself perfect ;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself
pure ;

And with the perverse thou wilt shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people ;
But the haughty eyes thou wilt bring down.

28 For thou wilt light my lamp :

The LORD my God will lighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I run <sup>13</sup> upon a troop ;

And by my God do I leap over a wall.

And who is a rock, beside our God?
 32 The God that girdeth me with strength,
 And maketh my way perfect.
 33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet:
 And setteth me upon my high places.
 34 He teacheth my hands to war;
 So that mine arms do bend a bow of brass.
 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation:
 And thy right hand hath holden me up,
 And thy <sup>1</sup>gentleness hath made me great.
 36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me,
 And my <sup>2</sup>feet have not slipped.
 37 I will pursue mine enemies, and overtake them:
 Neither will I turn again till they are consumed.
 38 I will smite them through that they shall not be able to rise:
 They shall fall under my feet.
 39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle:
 Thou hast <sup>3</sup>subdued under me those that rose up against me.
 40 Thou hast also made mine enemies turn their backs unto me,
 That I might cut off them that hate me.
 41 They cried, but there was none to save:
 Even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.
 42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind:
 I did <sup>4</sup>cast them out as the mire of the streets.
 43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people;
 Thou <sup>5</sup>hast made me the head of the nations:
 A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
 44 As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me:
 The strangers shall <sup>6</sup>submit themselves unto me.
 45 The strangers shall fade away,
 And shall come trembling out of their close places.
 46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock;
 And exalted be the God of my salvation:
 47 Even the God that executeth vengeance for me,
 And subdueth peoples under me.
 48 He rescueth me from mine enemies:
 Yea, thou liftest me up above them that rise up against me:
 Thou deliverest me from the violent man.
 49 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the nations,
 And will sing praises unto thy name.

 And sheweth lovingkindness to his anointed,

19 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 The heavens declare the glory of God;
 And the firmament sheweth his handy-work.
 2 Day unto day uttereth speech,
 And night unto night sheweth knowledge.
 3 There is no speech nor language;
 Their voice cannot be heard.
 4 Their line is gone out through all the earth,
 And their words to the end of the world.
 In them hath he set a <sup>8</sup>tabernacle for the sun,
 5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
 And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.
 6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven,
 And his circuit unto the ends of it:
 And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, restoring the soul:
 The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.
 8 The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart:
 The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.
 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever:
 The judgements of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.
 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold:
 Sweeter also than honey and <sup>9</sup>the honeycomb.
 11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned:
 In keeping of them there is great reward.
 12 Who can discern his errors?
 Clear thou me from hidden faults.
 13 Keep back thy servant also <sup>10</sup>from presumptuous sins;
 Let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be perfect,
 And I shall be clear from great transgression.
 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight,
 O LORD, my rock, and my redeemer.

LORD;

And in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire,

And hast not withholden the request of his lips. [Selah]

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of <sup>3</sup> goodness:

Thou settest a crown of fine gold on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, thou gavest
it him;

Even length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory is great in thy salvation:

Honour and majesty dost thou lay upon him.

6 For thou <sup>4</sup> makest him most blessed
for ever:

Thou makest him glad with joy in thy presence.

7 For the king trusteth in the LORD,

Most High he shall not be moved.

8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies:

Thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery furnace in the time of thine <sup>5</sup> anger.

The LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath,

And the fire shall devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth,

And their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee:
They imagined a device, which they are not able to perform.

12 For thou shalt make them turn their back,

Thou shalt make ready with thy bow-strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, O LORD, in thy strength:

So will we sing and praise thy power.

22 For the Chief Musician; set to <sup>6</sup> Aijeleth hash-Shahar. A Psalm of David.

1 My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

<sup>7</sup> Why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou answerest not;

And in the night season, <sup>8</sup> and am not silent.

3 But thou art holy,
O thou that <sup>9</sup> inhabitest the praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee:
They trusted, and thou didst deliver
them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered:

They trusted in thee, and were not ashamed.

6 But I am a worm, and no man;

A reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn:

They shoot out the lip, they shake
the head, saying,

8 <sup>10</sup> Commit thyself unto the LORD; let him deliver him:

Let him deliver him, seeing he delighteth in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb:

Thou didst make me trust when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb:
Thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near;
For there is none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me:
Strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 They gape upon me with their mouth,
As a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water,
And all my bones are out of joint:

My heart is like wax;

It is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd;
And my tongue cleaveth to my jaws;

And thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compassed me:
The assembly of evil-doers have inclosed me;

<sup>11</sup> They pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones;

They look and stare upon me:

18 They part my garments among them,
And upon my vesture do they cast lots.

19 But be not thou far off, O LORD:

O thou my succour, haste thee to help
me.

And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred
the affliction of the afflicted;
Neither hath he hid his face from him;
But when he cried unto him, he heard.

25 Of thee cometh my praise in the great congregation:
I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied:
They shall praise the LORD that seek after him:

Let your heart live for ever.

27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto the LORD:
And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

28 For the kingdom is the LORD's:
And he is the ruler over the nations.

29 All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and worship:
All they that go down to the dust
shall bow before him,
Even he that cannot keep his soul alive.

30 A seed shall serve him;

<sup>1</sup> It shall be told of the LORD unto the next generation.

31 They shall come and shall declare his
righteousness
Unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done it.

23 A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the <sup>2</sup> still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul:

He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of <sup>3</sup> the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with
me:

Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou hast anointed my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD <sup>5</sup> for ever.

24 A Psalm of David.

1 The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof;

The world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the
LORD?

And who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure
heart;

Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
And hath not sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive a blessing from the
LORD,

And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

That seek thy face, <sup>6</sup> O <sup>7</sup> God of Ja-

The LORD mighty in battle.

25 A Psalm of David.

1 Unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, in thee have I trusted,
Let me not be ashamed;

Let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, none that wait on thee shall be ashamed:

They shall be ashamed that deal treacherously without cause.

4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD;

Teach me thy paths.

5 Guide me in thy truth, and teach me;
For thou art the God of my salvation;

On thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses;

For they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sins of my youth,
nor my transgressions:

According to thy lovingkindness remember thou me,

For thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD:
Therefore will he instruct sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgement:
And the meek will he teach his way.

26 A Psalm of David.

- 1 Judge me, O LORD, for I have walked in mine integrity:
I have trusted also in the LORD <sup>4</sup> without wavering.
2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me;
Try my reins and my heart.
3 For thy lovingkindness is before mine
eyes;
And I have walked in thy truth.
4 I have not sat with vain persons;
Neither will I go in with dissemblers.
5 I hate the congregation of evil-doers,
And will not sit with the wicked.
6 I will wash mine hands in innocence;
So will I compass thine altar, O LORD:
7 That I may <sup>5</sup> make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard,
And tell of all thy wondrous works.
8 LORD, I love the habitation of thy
house,
And the place <sup>6</sup> where thy glory dwelleth.
9 <sup>7</sup> Gather not my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with men of blood:
10 In whose hands is mischief,
And their right hand is full of bribes.
11 But as for me, I will walk in mine
integrity:
Redeem me, and be merciful unto
me.
12 My foot standeth in an even place:
In the congregations will I bless the
LORD.
27 A Psalm of David.
1 The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the <sup>8</sup> strength of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

- 2 When evil-doers came upon me to eat
up my flesh,

they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host should encamp against
me,
My heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me,
<sup>9</sup> Even then will I be confident.
4 One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after;
That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
To behold <sup>10</sup> the beauty of the LORD,
and to <sup>11</sup> inquire in his temple.
5 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me secretly in his pavilion:
In the covert of his <sup>12</sup> tabernacle shall
he hide me;
He shall lift me up upon a rock.
6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me;
And I will offer in his <sup>13</sup> tabernacle sacrifices of <sup>14</sup> joy;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises
unto the LORD.
7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice:
Have mercy also upon me, and answer
me.
8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face;
my heart said unto thee,
Thy face, LORD, will I seek.
9 Hide not thy face from me;
Put not thy servant away in anger:
Thou hast been my help;
Cast me not off, neither forsake me, O
God of my salvation.
10 <sup>14</sup> For my father and my mother have forsaken me,
But the LORD will take me up.

12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries:
For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

A Psalm of David.

1 Give unto the LORD, O ye <sup>2</sup>sons of the <sup>3</sup>mighty,

Give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name;

Worship the LORD <sup>4</sup>in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters:

The God of glory thundereth,

Even the LORD upon <sup>5</sup>many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars;

Yea, the LORD breaketh in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf;

Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild-ox.

7 The voice of the LORD <sup>6</sup>cleaveth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness;

The LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve,

And strippeth the forests bare:

And in his temple every thing saith, Glory.

10 The LORD sat as king at the Flood;

Yea, the LORD sitteth as king for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people;

The LORD will bless his people with peace.

30 A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House; a Psalm of David.

1 I will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast <sup>7</sup>raised me up,

And hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God,

I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed
me.

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from Sheol:

Thou hast kept me alive, <sup>8</sup>that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing praise unto the LORD, O ye saints of his,

And give thanks to his holy <sup>9</sup>name.

5 For his anger is but for a moment;
<sup>10</sup>In his favour is life:

Weeping <sup>11</sup>may tarry for the night,

But joy cometh in the morning.

6 As for me, I said in my prosperity,
I shall never be moved.

7 Thou, LORD, of thy favour hadst made my mountain to stand strong:

Thoudidst hide thy face; I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD;

And unto the LORD I made supplica-
tion:

9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit?

Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me:
LORD, be thou my helper.

11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing;

Thou hast loosed my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness:

12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent.

O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

31 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust;
let me never be ashamed:

Deliver me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow down thine ear unto me; deliver me speedily:

Be thou to me a strong rock, an house of <sup>12</sup>defence to save me.

3 For thou art my rock and my fortress;
Therefore for thy name's sake lead me and guide me.

4 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid privily for me;

For thou art my strong hold.

5 Into thine hand I commend my spirit:
Thou hast redeemed me, O LORD, thou
God of truth.

6 I hate them that regard lying vanities:
But I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy:

soul

- 8 And thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy;
Thou hast set my feet in a large place.
- 9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in distress:
Mine eye wasteth away with grief,
yea, my soul and my body.
- 10 For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing:
My strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are wasted away.
- 11 Because of all mine adversaries I am become a reproach,
Yea, unto my neighbours exceedingly, and a fear to mine acquaintance:
They that did see me without fled from me.
- 12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind:
I am like a broken vessel.
- 13 For I have heard the defaming of many,
Terror on every side:
While they took counsel together against me,
They devised to take away my life.
- 14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD:
I said, Thou art my God.
- 15 My times are in thy hand:
Deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.
- 16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant:
Save me in thy lovingkindness.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee:
Let the wicked be ashamed, let them be silent in Sheol.
- 18 Let the lying lips be dumb;
Which speak against the righteous insolently,
With pride and contempt.
- 19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee,
Which thou hast wrought for them that put their trust in thee, before the sons of men!
- 20 In the covert of thy presence shalt thou hide them from the plottings of man:
Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
- 21 Blessed be the LORD:
For he hath shewed me his marvellous lovingkindness in a strong city.
- 22 As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes:
Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
- 23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints:
The LORD preserveth <sup>2</sup>the faithful, And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

32 A Psalm of David. Maschil.

- 1 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
- 2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no guile.
- 3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old
Through my roaring all the day long.
- 4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me:
My moisture was changed <sup>4</sup>as with the drought of summer. [Selah]
- 5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid:
I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD;
And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. [Selah]
- 6 For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee <sup>5</sup>in a time when thou mayest be found:
Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach unto him.
- 7 Thou art my hiding place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble;
Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance. [Selah]
- 8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go:
I will counsel thee with mine eye upon thee.
- 9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding:
Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in,
<sup>6</sup>Else they will not come near unto thee.
- 10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked:
But he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.
- 11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous:
And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.
- 33 Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous:
Praise is comely for the upright.
- 2 Give thanks unto the LORD with harp:
Sing praises unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.
- 3 Sing unto him a new song;
Play skilfully with a loud noise.
- 4 For the word of the LORD is right;
And all his work is done in faithfulness.
- 5 He loveth righteousness and judgement:
The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the LORD.
- 6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made;
And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
- 7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap:
He layeth up the deeps in storehouses.

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought:

He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth fast for ever,

The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD;

The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven;

He beholdeth all the sons of men;

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh forth

Upon all the inhabitants of the earth;

15 He that fashioneth the hearts of them all,

That considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by <sup>1</sup>the multitude of an host:

A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety:

Neither shall he deliver any by his great power.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him,

Upon them that <sup>2</sup>hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, And to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul hath waited for the LORD:

He is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, Because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, According as we <sup>2</sup>have hoped in thee.

34 A Psalm of David; when he <sup>3</sup>changed his behaviour before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

1 I will bless the LORD at all times:

His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD:

The meek shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the LORD with me, And let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me, And delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened:

And their faces shall never be confounded.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him,

And saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, And delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the LORD is good:

Blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints:

For there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger:

But they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me:

I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, And loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil,

And thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good;

Seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous,

And his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil,

To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cried, and the LORD heard, And delivered them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is high unto them that are of a broken heart,

And saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous:

But the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones:

Not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked:

And they that hate the righteous shall be <sup>4</sup>condemned.

22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants:

And none of them that trust in him shall be <sup>4</sup>condemned.

A Psalm of David.

1 Strive thou, O LORD, with them that strive with me:

Fight thou against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, And stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, <sup>5</sup>and stop the way against them that pursue me:

Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be ashamed and brought to dishonour that seek after my soul:

Let them be turned back and confounded that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind, And the angel of the LORD driving them on.

6 Let their way be <sup>6</sup>dark and slippery, And the angel of the LORD pursuing them.

And let his net that he hath hid catch himself:

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD:
It shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee,

Which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him,

Yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 <sup>2</sup> Uprighteous witnesses rise up;
They ask me of things that I know not.

12 They reward me evil for good,
To the bereaving of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick,
my clothing was sackcloth:

I afflicted my soul with fasting;
And my prayer <sup>3</sup> returned into mine own bosom.

14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother:

I bowed down mourning, as one that bewaileth his mother.

15 But when I halted they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together:

The <sup>4</sup> objects gathered themselves together against me, and <sup>5</sup> I knew it not;

They did tear me, and ceased not:

16 <sup>6</sup> Like the profane mockers in feasts,
They gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on?
Rescue my soul from their destructions,

<sup>7</sup> My darling from the lions.

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation:

I will praise thee among <sup>8</sup> much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies <sup>9</sup> wrongfully rejoice over me:

Neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace:
But they devise deceitful words against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me;

They said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.

22 Thou hast seen it, O LORD; keep not silence:

O Lord, be not far from me.

23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgement,

Even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness;

And let them not rejoice over me.

25 Let them not say in their heart, <sup>10</sup> Aha, so would we have it:

Let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

26 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that rejoice at mine hurt:

Let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that <sup>11</sup> favour my righteous cause:

Yea, let them say continually, The LORD be magnified,

Which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And my tongue shall talk of thy righteousness,

And of thy praise all the day long.

36 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

1 <sup>12</sup> The transgression of the wicked <sup>13</sup> saith within <sup>14</sup> my heart,

There is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For <sup>15</sup> he flattereth himself in his own eyes, <sup>16</sup> That his iniquity shall not be found out and be hated.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit:

He hath left off to be wise and to do good.

4 He deviseth iniquity upon his bed;
He setteth himself in a way that is not good;

He abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy lovingkindness, O LORD, is in the heavens;

Thy faithfulness reacheth unto the skies.

6 Thy righteousness is like the mountains of God;

Thy judgements are a great deep:

O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How precious is thy lovingkindness, O God!

And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be <sup>17</sup> abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house;

And thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life:
In thy light shall we see light.

10 Continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee;

And thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me,

And let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.

15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope:
Thou wilt answer, O LORD my God.

16 For I said, Lest they rejoice over me:
When my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready to halt,
And my sorrow is continually before me.

I will be sorry for my sin.

Are adversaries unto me, because I follow the thing that is good.

O LORD my salvation.

39 For the Chief Musician, for Jeduthun.
A Psalm of David.

1 I said, I will take heed to my ways,
That I sin not with my tongue:
I will keep <sup>4</sup>my mouth with a bridle,
While the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, <sup>5</sup>even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me;
While I was musing the fire kindled:
Then spake I with my tongue:

4 LORD, make me to know mine end,
And the measure of my days, what it is;

Let me know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as handbreadths;
And mine age is as nothing before thee:

Surely every man <sup>6</sup>at his best estate is altogether <sup>7</sup>vanity. [Selah]

6 Surely every man walketh <sup>8</sup>in a vain shew:

Surely they are disquieted <sup>9</sup>in vain:
He heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for?
My hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions:
Make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth;
Because thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me:
I am consumed by the <sup>10</sup>blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity,
Thou <sup>11</sup>makest his beauty to consume away like a moth:

Surely every man is <sup>7</sup>vanity. [Selah]

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry;

Hold not thy peace at my tears:

For I am a stranger with thee,

A sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 <sup>12</sup>O spare me, that I may <sup>13</sup>recover strength,
Before I go hence, and be no more.

40 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 I waited patiently for the LORD;
And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of <sup>14</sup>an horrible pit, out of the miry clay;
And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:

Many shall see it, and fear,
And shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed is the man that maketh the LORD his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as <sup>15</sup>turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are the wonderful works which thou hast done,
And thy thoughts which are to us-ward:

They cannot be set in order unto thee;

If I would declare and speak of them,
They are more than can be numbered.

BOOK II.

42 For the Chief Musician; Maschil of the sons of Korah.

- 1 As the hart panteth after the water
brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O God.
2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:
When shall I come and appear before
God?
3 My tears have been my meat day and night,
While they <sup>1</sup> continually say unto me,
Where is thy God?
4 These things I remember, and pour out my soul <sup>2</sup> within me,

- How I went with the throng, and <sup>3</sup> led them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.
5 Why art thou <sup>4</sup> cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within
me?
Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him
<sup>5</sup> For the <sup>6</sup> health of his countenance.
6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me:
Therefore do I remember thee from the land of Jordan,
And the Hermons, from <sup>7</sup> the hill Mizar.

All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will command his loving-kindness in the day-time,
And in the night his song shall be with me,

Even a prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me?

Why go I mourning <sup>2</sup>because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with <sup>3</sup>a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me;

While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?

Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him,

Who is the <sup>4</sup>health of my countenance, and my God.

43 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation:

O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength; why hast thou cast me off?

Why go I mourning <sup>2</sup>because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth; let them lead me:

Let them bring me unto thy holy hill, And to thy tabernacles.

4 Then will I go unto the altar of God, Unto God <sup>5</sup>my exceeding joy:

And upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?

Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him,

Who is the <sup>4</sup>health of my countenance, and my God.

44 For the Chief Musician; a Psalm of the sons of Korah. Maschil.

1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us,
What work thou didst in their days, in the days of old.

2 Thou didst drive out the nations with thy hand, and plantedst them in;
Thou didst afflict the peoples, and <sup>6</sup>didst spread them abroad.

3 For they gat not the land in possession by their own sword,
Neither did they their own arm save them:
But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance,
Because thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God:
Command <sup>7</sup>deliverance for Jacob.

5 Through thee will we push down our adversaries:

Through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my bow,
Neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our adversaries,
And hast put them to shame that hate us.

8 In God have we made our boast all the day long,
And we will give thanks unto thy name for ever. [Selah]

9 But now thou hast cast us off, and brought us to dishonour;

And goest not forth with our hosts.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the adversary:
And they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat;
And hast scattered us among the nations.

12 Thou sellest thy people for nought,
And hast not increased thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours,
A scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 Thou makest us a byword among the nations,
A shaking of the head among the peoples.

15 All the day long is my dishonour before me,
And the shame of my face hath covered me,

16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth;
By reason of the enemy and the avenger.

17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee,
Neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back,
Neither have our steps declined from thy way;

19 <sup>8</sup>That thou hast sore broken us in the place of jackals,
And covered us with the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
Or spread forth our hands to a strange god;

21 Shall not God search this out?

For he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long;

We are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord?
Arise, cast us not off for ever.

45 For the Chief Musician; set to <sup>1</sup>Shoshannin; a Psalm of the sons of Korah. Maschil. A Song of loves.

1 My heart overfloweth with a goodly matter:

2 I speak the things which I have made touching the king:

My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men; Grace is poured <sup>3</sup>into thy lips: Therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O <sup>a</sup>mighty one,

Thy glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty ride on prosperously,

4 Because of truth and meekness and righteousness:

And <sup>5</sup>thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp; <sup>or; be</sup> The peoples fall under thee;

6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: A sceptre of equity is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

7 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated wickedness:

Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee

With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloe, and cassia;

Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters are among thy honourable women:

At thy right hand doth stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear;

Forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

11 So shall the king desire thy beauty:

For he is thy <sup>1</sup>Lord; and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift;

Even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

13 The king's daughter <sup>7</sup>within the palace is all glorious:

Her clothing is inwrought with gold.

14 She shall be led unto the king <sup>8</sup>in broidered work:

The virgins her companions that follow her

Shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be led:

They shall enter into the king's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children,

Whom thou shalt make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations:

Therefore shall the peoples give thee thanks for ever and ever.

46 For the Chief Musician; a Psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A Song.

1 God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change,

And though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas;

3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,

Though the mountains shake with the <sup>9</sup>swelling thereof. [Selah]

4 There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God,

The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:

God shall help her, <sup>10</sup>and that right early.

6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:

He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

7 The LORD of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our <sup>11</sup>refuge. [Selah]

8 Come, behold the works of the LORD, <sup>12</sup>What desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;

He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;

He burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 <sup>13</sup>Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations,

I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The LORD of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our <sup>11</sup>refuge. [Selah]

47 For the Chief Musician; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 O clap your hands, all ye peoples; Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

2 For <sup>14</sup>the LORD Most High is terrible; He is a great King over all the earth.

3 He <sup>15</sup>shall subdue the peoples under us, And the nations under our feet.

4 He <sup>16</sup>shall choose our inheritance for us,

The excellency of Jacob whom he <sup>17</sup>loved. [Selah]

<sup>2</sup> To be the people of the God of Abraham:

For the shields of the earth belong unto God;

He is greatly exalted. be he?

48 A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised,

In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth,

Is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, The city of the great King.

3 God hath made himself known in her palaces for a <sup>3</sup> refuge.

4 For, lo, the kings assembled themselves,

They <sup>4</sup> passed by together.

5 They saw it, then were they amazed; They were dismayed, they <sup>5</sup> hasted away.

6 Trembling took hold of them there; Pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 <sup>6</sup> With the east wind

Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen In the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God:

God will establish it for ever. [Selah]

9 We have thought on thy lovingkindness, O God,

In the midst of thy temple.

10 As is thy name, O God,

So is thy praise unto the ends of the earth:

Thy right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let mount Zion be glad,

Let the daughters of Judah rejoice, Because of thy judgements.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her:

Tell the towers thereof.

13 Mark ye well her bulwarks,

<sup>7</sup> Consider her palaces;

That ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: or: Elohim

He will be our guide even <sup>8</sup> unto death.

49 For the Chief Musician; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 Hear this, all ye peoples;

Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, Rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak wisdom;

And the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable:

I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil,

When <sup>9</sup> iniquity at my heels compasseth me about?

6 They that trust in their wealth,

And boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother,

Nor give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For the redemption of their soul is costly,

And must be let alone for ever:)

9 That he should still live alway, That he should not see <sup>10</sup> corruption.

10 <sup>11</sup> For he seeth that wise men die, The fool and the brutish together perish,

And leave their wealth to others.

11 <sup>12</sup> Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever,

And their dwelling places to all generations;

They call their lands after their own names.

12 But <sup>13</sup> man abideth not in honour:

He is like the beasts that perish.

13 <sup>14</sup> This their way is <sup>15</sup> their folly:

Yet after them men approve their sayings. [Selah]

14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol; Death shall be their shepherd:

And the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning;

And their <sup>16</sup> beauty shall be for Sheol to consume, that there be no habitation for it.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the <sup>17</sup> power of Sheol:

For he shall receive me. [Selah]

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich,

When the <sup>18</sup> glory of his house is increased:

17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away;

His glory shall not descend after him.

18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul,

And men praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself,

19 <sup>19</sup> He shall go to the generation of his fathers;

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not,

Is like the beasts that perish.

12 Heb. know.

3 For I <sup>12</sup>acknowledge my transgressions:
And my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done that which is evil in thy sight:

That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest,

And be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity;

And in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts:

And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness;
That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.

13 Or, for
me 14 Or,
stedfast

10 Create <sup>13</sup>in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a <sup>14</sup>right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence;
And take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation:

And uphold me with a <sup>15</sup>free spirit.

15 Or,
willing

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;

And sinners shall <sup>16</sup>be converted unto thee.

16 Or,
return

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O
God, thou God of my salvation;
And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips;

And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou delightest not in sacrifice;
<sup>17</sup>else would I give it:

17 Or,
that I should give it

Thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:

A broken and a contrite heart, O God,
thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion:
Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offering and whole burnt offering:

Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

52 For the Chief Musician. Maschil of David: when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

1 Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man?

The mercy of God endureth continually.

2 Thy tongue deviseth very wickedness; Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good; And lying rather than to speak righteousness. [Selah]

4 Thou lovest all devouring words,

<sup>1</sup> O thou deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise <sup>2</sup> destroy thee for ever,

He shall take thee up, and pluck thee out of thy tent,

And root thee out of the land of the living. [Selah]

6 The righteous also shall see it, and fear, And shall laugh at him, saying,

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his <sup>3</sup> strength;

But trusted in the abundance of his riches, And strengthened himself in his wickedness.

8 But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God:

I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will give thee thanks for ever, because thou hast done it:

And I will wait on thy name, for it is good, in the presence of thy saints.

53 For the Chief Musician: set to Mahalath. Maschil of David.

1<sup>4</sup> The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.

Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity; There is none that doeth good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,

To see if there were any that did <sup>5</sup> understand,

That did seek after God.

3 Every one of them is gone back; they are together become filthy;

There is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge?

Who eat up my people as they eat bread, And call not upon God.

5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was:

For God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee;

Thou hast put them to shame, because God hath rejected them.

6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion!

When God <sup>6</sup> bringeth back the captivity of his people,

Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

54 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. Maschil of David: when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

1 Save me, O God, by thy name, And judge me in thy might.

2 Hear my prayer, O God;

Give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For <sup>7</sup> strangers are risen up against me, And violent men have sought after my soul:

They have not set God before them. [Selah]

4 Behold, God is mine helper:

The Lord is <sup>8</sup> of them that uphold my soul.

5<sup>9</sup> He shall requite the evil unto <sup>10</sup> mine enemies:

Destroy thou them in thy truth.

6 With a freewill offering will I sacrifice unto thee:

I will give thanks unto thy name, O Lord, for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble;

And mine eye hath seen my desire upon mine enemies.

55 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. Maschil of David.

1 Give ear to my prayer, O God;

And hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and answer me:

I am restless in my complaint, and moan;

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, Because of the oppression of the wicked;

For they cast iniquity upon me,

And in anger they persecute me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me: And the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me,

And horror hath overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove!

Then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, I would lodge in the wilderness. [Selah]

8 I would <sup>11</sup> haste me to a shelter From the stormy wind and tempest.

9<sup>12</sup> Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongue:

For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof:

Iniquity also and mischief are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof:

<sup>13</sup> Oppression and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me;

Then I could have borne it:

Neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me;

Then I would have hid myself from him:

13 But it was thou, a man mine equal,
My companion, and my familiar friend.

14 We took sweet counsel together,
We walked in the house of God with the throng.

15 <sup>1</sup>Let death come suddenly upon them,
Let them go down alive into <sup>2</sup>the pit:
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in <sup>3</sup>the midst of them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God;
And the LORD shall save me.

17 Evening, and morning, and at noonday, will I complain, and moan:
And he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath redeemed my soul in peace <sup>4</sup>from the battle that was against
me:

For they were many that strove with
me.

19 God shall hear, and <sup>5</sup>answer them,
Even he that abideth of old, [Selah

*The men who have no changes,
And who fear not God.*

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as were at peace with him:
He hath profaned his covenant.

21 His mouth was smooth as butter,
But his heart was war:
His words were softer than oil,
Yet were they drawn swords.

22 Cast <sup>6</sup>thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee:
He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction:
Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days;
But I will trust in thee.

56 For the Chief Musician; set to <sup>7</sup>Jonath elem rehokim. A Psalm of David: Michtam:
when the Philistines took him in Gath.

1 Be merciful unto me, O God; for man would swallow me up:
All the day long he fighting oppresses
me.

2 <sup>8</sup>Mine enemies would swallow me up
all the day long:
For they be many that fight proudly against me.

3 What time I am afraid,
I will put my trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word:
In God have I put my trust, I will not be afraid;

What can flesh do unto me?

5 All the day long they wrest my words:
All their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves,
They mark my steps,

<sup>9</sup>Even as they have waited for my soul.

7 <sup>10</sup>Shall they escape by iniquity?

In anger cast down the peoples, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wanderings:
Put thou my tears into thy bottle;
Are they not in thy <sup>11</sup>book?

9 Then shall mine enemies turn back in the day that I call:

This I know, <sup>12</sup>that God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word:

In the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust, I will not be afraid;

What can man do unto me?

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God:
I will render thank offerings unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death:

Hast thou not delivered my feet from falling?

That I may walk before God

In the light of <sup>13</sup>the living.

Do ye <sup>1</sup>judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; Ye weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb:

They go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent:

They are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

5 Which hearkeneth not to the voice of <sup>2</sup>charmers,

Charming never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth:

Break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord.

7 Let them melt away as water that runneth apace:

When he aimeth his arrows, let them be as though they were cut off.

8 Let them be as a snail which melteth and passeth away:

Like the untimely birth of a woman,

<sup>3</sup>that hath not seen the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns,

<sup>4</sup>He shall take them away with a whirlwind, the green and the burning alike.

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance:

He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 So that men shall say, Verily there is <sup>5</sup>a reward for the righteous:

Verily there is a God that judgeth in the earth.

59 For the Chief Musician; set to Al-tashheth. A Psalm of David: Michtam: when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

1 Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God:

Set me on high from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, And save me from the bloodthirsty men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul; The mighty gather themselves together against me:

Not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault:

Awake thou to <sup>6</sup>help me, and behold.

5 Even thou, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel,

Arise to visit all the <sup>7</sup>heathen:

Be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. [Selah]

6 They return at evening, they make a noise like a dog,

And go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth; Swords are in their lips:

For who, say they, doth hear?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them; Thou shalt have all the <sup>7</sup>heathen in derision.

9 O my strength, I will wait upon thee: For God is my high tower.

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me:

God shall let me see my desire upon <sup>10</sup>mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget:

<sup>11</sup>Scatter them by thy power, and bring them down,

O Lord our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips,

Let them even be taken in their pride, And for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they be no more:

And let them know that God ruleth in Jacob,

Unto the ends of the earth. [Selah]

14 And at evening let them return, let them make a noise like a dog,

And go round about the city.

15 They shall wander up and down for meat,

And tarry all night if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy strength;

Yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning:

For thou hast been my high tower, And a refuge in the day of my distress.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing praises:

For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

60 For the Chief Musician; set to <sup>12</sup>Shushan Eduth: Michtam of David, to teach: when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the Valley of Salt twelve thousand.

1 O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast broken us down;

Thou hast been angry; O restore us again.

2 Thou hast made the land to tremble; thou hast rent it:

Heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things:

Thou hast made us to drink the wine of staggering.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee,

<sup>13</sup>That it may be displayed because of the truth. [Selah]

5 That thy beloved may be delivered, Save with thy right hand, and answer <sup>14</sup>us.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will exult:

I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

<sup>8</sup> So some ancient authorities. The Hebrew text has, His strength.

<sup>10</sup> Or, them, that lie in wait for me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong city?

10 <sup>4</sup> Hast not thou, O God, cast us off? And thou goest not forth, O God, with our hosts.

11 Give us help against the adversary: For vain is the <sup>5</sup> help of man.

12 Through God we shall do valiantly: For he it is that shall tread down our adversaries.

61 For the Chief Musician; on a stringed instrument. A Psalm of David.

1 Hear my cry, O God;

Attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart <sup>6</sup> is overwhelmed:

Lead me to <sup>7</sup> the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a refuge for me, A strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will dwell in thy <sup>8</sup> tabernacle for ever: I will take refuge in the covert of thy wings. [Selah]

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: Thou hast <sup>9</sup> given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life: His years shall be as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare lovingkindness and truth, that they may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, That I may daily perform my vows.

62 For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

1 My soul <sup>10</sup> waiteth only upon God: From him cometh my salvation. or. 25

2 He only is my rock and my salvation: He is my high tower; I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye set upon a man, <sup>11</sup> That ye may slay him, all of you, Like a bowing wall, like a tottering fence?

4 They only consult to thrust him down from his excellency; They delight in lies: They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. [Selah]

5 My soul, <sup>12</sup> wait thou only upon God; For my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: He is my high tower; I shall not be moved.

7 With God is my salvation and my glory: The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times, ye people; Pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. [Selah]

9 Surely men of low degree are <sup>13</sup> vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: In the balances they will go up; They are together lighter than <sup>13</sup> vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, And become not vain in robbery: If riches increase, set not your heart thereon.

11 God hath spoken once, Twice have I heard this; That power belongeth unto God:

12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy:

For thou renderest to every man according to his work.

63 A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

1 O God, thou art my God; <sup>14</sup> early will I seek thee:

My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee, In a dry and weary land, where no water is.

2 So have I looked upon thee in the sanctuary,

To see thy power and thy glory.

3 For thy lovingkindness is better than life;

My lips shall praise thee.

4 So will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with <sup>15</sup> marrow and fatness;

And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips;

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, <sup>16</sup> And meditate on thee in the night watches.

7 For thou hast been my help, And in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: Thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, <sup>17</sup> to destroy it, Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall be <sup>18</sup> given over to the power of the sword:

They shall be a portion for <sup>19</sup> foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God: Every one that sweareth by him shall glory;

For the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

64 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint:

Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of evil-doers;

From the <sup>20</sup> tumult of the workers of iniquity:

13 Heb. *a breath.*14 Or, *earnestly*15 Heb. *fat.*16 Or, *I meditate*17 Or, *shall be destroyed; they shall &c.*18 Or, *poured out by*19 Or, *jacks*20 Or, throng

3 Who have whet their tongue like a sword,
And have aimed their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret places at the perfect:
Suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil purpose;
They commune of laying snares privily;
They say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities; <sup>1</sup>We have accomplished, say they, a diligent search:
And the inward thought of every one, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them;
With an arrow suddenly shall they be wounded.

8 <sup>2</sup>So they shall be made to stumble. their own tongue being against them:

All that see them shall <sup>3</sup>wag the head.

9 And all men shall fear;
And they shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him;
And all the upright in heart shall glory.

65 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm.
A Song of David.

1 <sup>4</sup>Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion:

And unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer,
Unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 <sup>5</sup>Iniquities prevail against me:
As for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and caustest to approach unto thee,

That he may dwell in thy courts:
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
The holy place of thy temple.

5 By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness,
O God of our salvation;
Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,

6 And of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains;

Being girded about with might:

7 Which stilleth the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves,

And the tumult of the peoples.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens:
Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and water-est it,

Thou greatly enrichest it;
The river of God is full of water:
Thou providest them corn, <sup>7</sup>when thou hast so prepared <sup>8</sup>the earth.

10 Thou waterest her furrows abundantly;
Thou <sup>9</sup>settlest the ridges thereof:
Thou makest it soft with showers;
Thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest <sup>10</sup>the year with thy goodness;
And thy paths drop fatness.

12 <sup>11</sup>They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness:

And the hills are girded with joy.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks;
The valleys also are covered over with corn;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

66 For the Chief Musician. A Song, a Psalm.

1 Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth:

2 Sing forth the glory of his name:
Make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible are thy works!

Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies <sup>12</sup>submit themselves unto thee.

4 All the earth shall worship thee,
And shall sing unto thee;

They shall sing to thy name. [Selah]

5 Come, and see the works of God;
He is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land:
They went through the river on foot:
There <sup>13</sup>did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his might for ever;
His eyes observe the nations:
Let not the rebellious exalt themselves. [Selah]

8 O bless our God, ye peoples,
And make the voice of his praise to be heard:

9 Which <sup>14</sup>holdeth our soul in life,
And suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For thou, O God, hast proved us:
Thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 Thou broughtest us into the net;
Thou layedst a sore burden upon our loins.

12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads;
We went through fire and through water;

But thou broughtest us out into <sup>15</sup>a wealthy place.

13 I will come into thy house with burnt offerings,

I will pay thee my vows,

14 Which my lips have uttered,
And my mouth hath spoken, when I was in distress.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt offerings of fatlings,

With the incense of rams;

I will offer bullocks with goats. [Selah]

David, a Song.

1 Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered;

Let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away:

As wax melteth before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God:

Yea, let them rejoice with gladness.

69 For the Chief Musician; set to 8 Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.

1 Save me, O God;

For the waters are come in unto my
soul.

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing:

I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary with my crying; my throat is dried:

Mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head:

They that would cut me off, being mine enemies 9 wrongfully, are mighty:

Then I 10 restored that which I took not
away.

5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness;
And my 11 sins are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee be ashamed through me, O Lord God of hosts:

Let not those that seek thee be brought to dishonour through me,
O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach;

Shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren,

And an alien unto my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up;

And the reproaches of them that reproach thee are fallen upon me.

10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting,

That was to my reproach.

11 When I made sackcloth my clothing,
I became a proverb unto them.

12 They that sit in the gate talk of me;
And I am the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee,
O Lord, in an acceptable time:

O God, in the multitude of thy mercy,
Answer me in the truth of thy salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink:

Let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15 Let not the waterflood overwhelm me,
Neither let the deep swallow me up;

And let not the pit shut her mouth
upon me.

16 Answer me, O LORD; for thy loving-kindness is good:

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies turn thou unto me.

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant;

For I am in distress; answer me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem
it:

Ransom me because of mine enemies.

19 Thou knowest my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour:

Mine adversaries are all before thee.

20 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am 12 full of heaviness:

And I looked for some to take pity,
but there was none;

And for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also 13 gall for my meat;
And in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table before them become a snare;

And when they are in peace, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not;

And make their ~~leaves~~ continually to shake.

24 Pour out thine indignation upon them,
And let the fierceness of thine anger overtake them.

25 Let their 14 habitation be desolate;
Let none dwell in their tents.

And they tell of the 15 sorrow of those whom thou hast wounded.

Let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 I will praise the name of God with a song,

And will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 And it shall please the LORD better than an ox,

Or a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

Ye that seek after God, let your heart live.

And despiseth not his prisoners.

The seas, and every thing that moveth therein.

35 For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah;
And they shall abide there, and have it in possession.

And they that love his name shall dwell therein.

<sup>3</sup>to bring to remembrance.

1<sup>4</sup> ~~Make~~ haste, O God, to deliver me;
Make haste to help me, O LORD.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded
That seek after my soul:

That delight in my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back <sup>5</sup>by reason of their shame
That say, Aha, Aha.

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee;
And let such as love thy salvation say continually,
Let God be magnified.

5 But I am poor and needy;
Make haste unto me, O God:
Thou art my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, make no tarrying.

71<sup>6</sup> In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust:
Let me never be ashamed.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and rescue me:
Bow down ~~thine~~ ear unto me, and save me.

3 Be thou to me <sup>7</sup>a rock of habitation, whereunto I may continually resort:
Thou hast given commandment to save me;

For thou art my rock and my fortress.
4 Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, O Lord God:

~~Thou art~~ my trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb:

<sup>8</sup>Thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels:

My praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a wonder unto many;
But thou art my strong refuge.

8 My mouth shall be filled with thy praise,
And with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age;
Forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak concerning me;
And they that watch for my soul take counsel together,

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him:
Pursue and take him; for there is none to deliver.

12 O God, be not far from me:
O my God, make haste to help me.

13 Let them be ashamed and consumed that are adversaries to my soul;
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually,
And will praise thee yet more and more.

15 My mouth shall tell of thy righteousness,

~~and~~ of thy salvation all the day;
For I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will come <sup>9</sup>with the mighty acts of the Lord God:

I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth;
And hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 Yea, even <sup>10</sup>when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not;
Until I have declared <sup>11</sup>thy strength unto the next generation,

Thy might to every one that is to come.
19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high;

Thou who hast done great things,
O God, who is like unto thee?

20 Thou, which hast shewed <sup>12</sup>us many and sore troubles,
Shalt quicken <sup>12</sup>us again,
And shalt bring <sup>13</sup>us up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Increase thou my greatness,
And turn again and comfort me.

22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery,
Even thy truth, O my God:

Unto thee will I sing praises with the harp,

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 Surely God is good to Israel,
Even to such as are pure in heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone;

My steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the <sup>2</sup>arrogant,
When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no <sup>3</sup>bands in their death:
But their strength is firm.

5 They are not <sup>4</sup>in trouble as other men;
Neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride is as a chain about their neck;

Violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness:

<sup>5</sup>They have more than heart could wish.

8 They scoff, and in wickedness utter oppression:

They speak <sup>6</sup>loftily.

9 They have set their mouth <sup>7</sup>in the heavens,

And their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore <sup>8</sup>his people return hither:
And waters of a full cup are <sup>9</sup>wrung out by them.

11 And they say, How doth God know?

And is there knowledge in the Most High?

12 Behold, these are the wicked;

And, being alway at ease, they increase in riches.

13 Surely in vain have I cleansed my heart,
And washed my hands in innocence;

14 For all the day long have I been plagued,

And <sup>10</sup>chastened every morning.

15 If I had said, I will speak thus;

Behold, I had dealt treacherously with the generation of thy children.

Thou castest them down to <sup>1</sup>de-

19 How are they become a desolation in a moment!

They are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh;

So, O Lord, <sup>2</sup>when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 For my heart <sup>3</sup>was grieved,

And I was pricked in my reins:

22 So brutish <sup>4</sup>was I, and ignorant;

I was as a beast <sup>5</sup>before thee. or. but

And there is none upon earth that I desire <sup>7</sup>beside thee.

shall perish:

Thou hast destroyed all them that go unto God:

I have made the Lord God my refuge,
That I may tell of all thy works.

74 Maschil of Asaph.

1 O God, why hast thou cast us off for Why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old,

Which thou hast redeemed to be the

And mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual

They have set up their ensigns for signs.

Axes upon a thicket of trees.

6 And now all the carved work thereof

They break down with hatchet and hammers.

7 They have set thy sanctuary on fire;
They have profaned the dwelling place of thy name even to the ground.

They have burned up all the <sup>11</sup>synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs:

There is no more any prophet;

Neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 How long, O God, shall the adversary
reproach?

Shall the enemy blaspheme thy name
for ever?

11 Why drawest thou back thy hand, even thy right hand?

*Pluck it out of thy bosom, and con-

12 Yet God is my King of old, Working salvation in the midst of the 13 Thou didst <sup>13</sup>divide the sea by thy strength:

Thou brakest the heads of the <sup>18</sup>dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan
in pieces,

Thou gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 Thou didst cleave fountain and flood:
Thou driedst up <sup>14</sup>mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine:

Thou hast prepared the <sup>15</sup>light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth:

Thou hast made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy <sup>16</sup>hath reproached, O Lord,

And that a foolish people have blas-phemed thy name.

19 O deliver not <sup>17</sup>the soul of thy turtledove unto the wild beast:

Forget not the <sup>18</sup>life of thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto the covenant:
For the dark places of the <sup>19</sup>earth are full of the habitations of violence.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed:

Let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause:
Remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee all the day.

23 Forget not the voice of thine ad-
versaries:

The tumult of those that rise up against thee <sup>20</sup>ascendeth continually.

Surely the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall <sup>4</sup> wring them out, and drink them.

76 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

1 In Judah is God known:

His name is great in Israel.

2 In Salem also is his <sup>5</sup> tabernacle, And his <sup>6</sup> dwelling place in Zion.

3 There he brake the <sup>7</sup> arrows of the bow; The shield, and the sword, and the battle. [Selah]

4 Glorious art thou and excellent, <sup>8</sup> from the mountains of prey.

5 The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep; And none of the men of might have found their hands.

6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, Both chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared: And who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause sentence to be heard from heaven;

The earth feared, and was still,

9 When God arose to judgement, To save all the meek of the earth. [Selah]

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee:

The residue of wrath shalt thou <sup>9</sup> gird upon thee.

11 Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: Let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: He is terrible to the kings of the earth.

77 For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

1 I will cry unto God with my voice; Even unto God with my voice, and he will give ear unto me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord:

My hand was stretched out in the night, and slacked not;

My soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remember God, and am disquieted: I complain, and my spirit <sup>10</sup> is overwhelmed. [Selah]

4 Thou holdest mine eyes watching:

I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old, The years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night:

I commune with mine own heart; And my spirit made diligent search.

7 Will the Lord cast off for ever?

And will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever?

Doth his promise fail for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? [Selah]

10 And I said, This is my infirmity;

<sup>11</sup> But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.

11 I will make mention of the deeds of <sup>12</sup> the LORD;

For I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also upon all thy work, And muse on thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is <sup>13</sup> in the sanctuary: Who is a great god like unto God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: Thou hast made known thy strength among the peoples.

15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people,

The sons of Jacob and Joseph. [Selah]

16 The waters saw thee, O God;

The waters saw thee, they <sup>14</sup> were afraid:

The depths also trembled.

17 The clouds poured out water;

The skies sent out a sound;

Thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the whirlwind;

The lightnings lightened the world:

The earth trembled and shook.

19 Thy way was in the sea,

And thy paths in the great waters,

And thy footsteps were not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock, By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

1 Give ear, O my people, to my <sup>15</sup> law: Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 Which we have heard and known, And our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children,

Telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,

And his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done.

5 For he established a testimony in Jacob,

And appointed a law in Israel,

Which he commanded our fathers,

That they should make them known to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God,

And not forget the works of God,
But keep his commandments:

8 And might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation;
A generation <sup>1</sup> that set not their heart aright,

And whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God,
And refused to walk in his law;

11 And they forgot his doings,
And his wondrous works that he had shewed them.

12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 He clave the sea, and caused them to pass through;
And he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 Yet went they on still to sin against him,
To rebel against the Most High in <sup>2</sup> the desert.

18 And they tempted God in their heart
By asking meat for their lust.

19 Yea, they spake against God;
They said, Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that waters gushed out,
And streams overflowed;
Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD heard, and was wroth:

And a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also went up against Israel;

22 Because they believed not in God,
And trusted not in his salvation.

23 Yet he commanded the skies above,
And opened the doors of heaven;

24 And he rained down manna upon them to eat,
And gave them of the corn of heaven.

25 <sup>3</sup> Man did eat the bread of the mighty:
He sent them meat to the full.

26 He <sup>4</sup> caused the east wind to blow in the heaven:

And by his power he guided the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as the dust,

And winged fowl as the sand of the seas:
28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp,

Round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled;
And he gave them that they lusted after.

30 They were not estranged from their lust,

Their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 When the anger of God went up against them,
And slew of the fattest of them,

And smote down the young men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned still,
And believed not in his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity,
And their years in terror.

34 When he slew them, then they inquired after him:
And they returned and sought God <sup>5</sup> early.

35 And they remembered that God was their rock,

And the Most High God their redeemer.

36 But they flattered him with their mouth,

And lied unto him with their tongue.

37 For their heart was not <sup>6</sup> right with him,
Neither were they faithful in his covenant.

38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not:

Yea, many a time turned he his anger away,

And did not stir up all his wrath.

39 And he remembered that they were but flesh;

A wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness,

And grieve him in the desert!

41 And they turned again and tempted God,

And <sup>7</sup> provoked the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand,
Nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary.

43 How he set his signs in Egypt,
And his wonders in the field of Zoan;

44 And turned their rivers into blood,
And their streams, that they could not drink.

45 He sent among them swarms of flies,
which devoured them;

And frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar,

And their labour unto the locust.

47 He <sup>8</sup> destroyed their vines with hail,
And their sycomore trees with <sup>9</sup> frost.

48 He gave over their cattle also to the hail,
And their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

50 He <sup>2</sup>made a path for his anger;
He spared not their soul from death,
But gave <sup>3</sup>their life over to the pestilence;

51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt,
The <sup>4</sup>chief of their strength in the tents of Ham:

52 But he led forth his own people like sheep,
And guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them safely, so that they feared not:
But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to <sup>5</sup>the border of his sanctuary,
To this <sup>6</sup>mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

55 He drove out the nations also before them,
And allotted them for an inheritance by line,
And made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God,
And kept not his testimonies;

57 But turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers:
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places,
And moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth,
And greatly abhorred Israel:

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent which he placed among men;

61 And delivered his strength into captivity,
And his glory into the adversary's hand.

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword;
And was wroth with his inheritance.

63 Fire devoured their young men;
And their maidens had no marriage-song.

64 Their priests fell by the sword;
And their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep,
Like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And he smote his adversaries backward:
He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tent of Joseph,
And chose not the tribe of Ephraim;

68 But chose the tribe of Judah,
The mount Zion which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like the heights,

Like the earth which he hath established for ever.

70 He chose David also his servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds:

71 From following the ewes that give suck he brought him,
To feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart;
And guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

79 A Psalm of Asaph.

1 O God, the <sup>7</sup>heathen are come into thine inheritance;

Thy holy temple have they defiled;
They have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven,
The flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem;
And there was none to bury them.

4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours,
A scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, O LORD, wilt thou be angry for ever?
Shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that know thee not,
And upon the kingdoms that call not upon thy name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob,
And laid waste his <sup>8</sup>habitation.

8 Remember not against us the iniquities of our forefathers:
Let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us:

For we are brought very low.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name:
And deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.

10 Wherefore should the heathen say,
Where is their God?

Let the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed
Be known among the heathen in our sight.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee;

According to the greatness of <sup>9</sup>thy power preserve thou <sup>10</sup>those that are appointed to death;

12 And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom
Their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O LORD.

13 So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture

Will give thee thanks for ever:

We will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

- 1 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, Thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; Thou that <sup>2</sup>sittest upon the cherubim, shine forth.
- 2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy might, And come to save us.
- 3 <sup>3</sup>Turn us again, O God; And cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
- 4 O LORD God of hosts, How long <sup>4</sup>wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?
- 5 Thou hast fed them with the bread of tears, And given them tears to drink in large measure.
- 6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: And our enemies laugh among themselves.
- 7 Turn us again, O God of hosts; And cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
- 8 Thou broughtest a vine out of Egypt: Thou didst drive out the nations, and plantedst it.
- 9 Thou preparedst room before it, And it took deep root, and filled the land.
- 10 The mountains were covered with the shadow of it, And <sup>5</sup>the boughs thereof were like <sup>6</sup>cedars of God.
- 11 She sent out her branches unto the sea, And her shoots unto the River.
- 12 Why hast thou broken down her fences, So that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?
- 13 The boar out of the wood doth ravage it, And the wild beasts of the field feed on it.
- 14 Turn again, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine,
- 15 And <sup>7</sup>the stock which thy right hand hath planted, And the <sup>8</sup>branch that thou madest strong for thyself.
- 16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: They perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.
- 17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, Upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.
- 18 So shall we not go back from thee: Quicken thou us, and we will call upon thy name.
- 19 Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts; Cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

- 3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, At the full moon, on our solemn feast day.
- 4 For it is a statute for Israel, An ordinance of the God of Jacob.
- 5 He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony, When he went out <sup>10</sup>over the land of Egypt: Where I heard <sup>11</sup>a language that I knew not.
- 6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: His hands were freed from the basket.
- 7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder; I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. [Selah]
- 8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wouldest hearken unto me!
- 9 There shall no strange god be in thee; Neither shalt thou worship any strange god.
- 10 I am the LORD thy God, Which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt: Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- 11 But my people hearkened not to my voice; And Israel would none of me.
- 12 So I let them go after the stubbornness of their heart, That they might walk in their own counsels.
- 13 Oh that my people would hearken unto me, That Israel would walk in my ways!
- 14 I should soon subdue their enemies, And turn my hand against their adversaries.
- 15 The haters of the LORD should <sup>12</sup>submit themselves unto him: But their time should endure for ever.

In whose heart are the high ways to Zion.
6 Passing through the valley of <sup>8</sup>Weeping they make it a place of springs; Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.
7 They go from strength to strength,
Every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.
8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer:
Give ear, O God of Jacob. [Selah]
9 Behold, O God our shield, And look upon the face of thine anointed.
10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.
I had rather <sup>10</sup>be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
11 For the LORD God is a sun and a shield:
The LORD will give grace and glory:
No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
12 O LORD of hosts, Blessed is the man that trusteth in
thee.

85 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land:
Thou hast <sup>11</sup>brought back the captivity of Jacob.
2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people,
Thou hast covered all their sin. [Selah]
3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath:
Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.
4 <sup>12</sup>Turn us, O God of our salvation,
And cause thine indignation toward us to cease.
5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever?
Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?
6 Wilt thou not quicken us again:
That thy people may rejoice in thee?
7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD,
And grant us thy salvation.

<sup>11</sup> Or,
returned to

<sup>12</sup> Or,
Turn
to us

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak:

For he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints:

But let them not turn again to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him;

That glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth springeth out of the earth;
And righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good;

And our land shall yield her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him;
And shall <sup>1</sup>make his footsteps a way to walk in.

86 A Prayer of David.

1 Bow down thine ear, O LORD, and answer me;

For I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am godly:
O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord;
For unto thee do I cry all the day long.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant;
For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive,
And plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer;
And hearken unto the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee;
For thou wilt answer me.

8 There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord;
Neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord;
And they shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things:
Thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth:
Unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart;
And I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me;
And thou hast delivered my soul from <sup>2</sup>the lowest pit.

14 O God, the proud are risen up against me,
And the congregation of violent men have sought after my soul,
And have not set thee before them.

15 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion and gracious,
Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16 O turn unto me, and <sup>3</sup>have mercy upon me;

Give thy strength unto thy servant,
And save the son of thine handmaid.

17 Shew me a token for good;
That they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed,
Because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

87 A Psalm of the sons of Korah, a Song.

1 <sup>4</sup>His foundation is in the holy mountains.

2 The LORD loveth the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken of thee,
O city of God. [Selah]

4 I will make mention of <sup>5</sup>Rahab and Babylon as among them that know me:

Behold Philistia, and Tyre, with <sup>6</sup>Ethiopia;
This one was born there.

5 Yea, of Zion it shall be said, This one and that one was born in her;
And the Most High himself shall establish her.

6 The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the peoples,
This one was born there. [Selah]

7 They that sing as well as <sup>7</sup>they that dance shall say,
All my fountains are in thee.

88 A Song, a Psalm of the sons of Korah; for the Chief Musician; set to Mahalath <sup>8</sup>Leannoth. Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

1 O LORD, the God of my salvation,
I have cried day and night before thee:

2 Let my prayer enter into thy presence;
Incline thine ear unto my cry:

3 For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life draweth nigh unto <sup>9</sup>Sheol.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit;

I am as a man that hath no help:

5 <sup>10</sup>Cast off among the dead,
Like the slain that lie in the grave,
Whom thou rememberest no more;
And they are cut off from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit,
In dark places, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me,
And thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. [Selah]

8 Thou hast put mine acquaintance far from me;
Thou hast made me an abomination unto them:

I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye wasteth away by reason of affliction:

I have called daily upon thee, O LORD,
I have spread forth my hands unto thee.

- 10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead?
Shall <sup>1</sup>they that are deceased arise and praise thee? [Selah]
- 11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave?
Or thy faithfulness in <sup>2</sup>Destruction?
- 12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark?
And thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
- 13 But unto thee, O LORD, have I cried.
And in the morning shall my prayer come before thee.
- 14 LORD, why castest thou off my soul?
Why hidest thou thy face from me?
- 15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up:
While I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.
- 16 Thy fierce wrath is gone over me;
Thy terrors have cut me off.
- 17 They came round about me like water
all the day long;
They compassed me about together.
- 18 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me,
And mine acquaintance <sup>3</sup>into darkness.
- 89 Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.
- 1 I will sing of the mercies of the LORD
for ever:
With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
- 2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever;
Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.
- 3 I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn unto David my servant;
- 4 Thy seed will I establish for ever,
And build up thy throne to all generations. [Selah]
- 5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD; Thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
- 6 For who in the skies can be compared
unto the LORD?
Who among the <sup>4</sup>sons of the <sup>5</sup>mighty is like unto the LORD,
- 7 A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones,
And to be feared above all them that are round about him?
- 8 O LORD God of hosts,
Who is a mighty one, like unto thee,
O JAH?
And thy faithfulness is round about
thee.
- 9 Thou rulest the pride of the sea:
When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
- 10 Thou hast broken <sup>6</sup>Rahab in pieces,
as one that is slain; Thou hast scattered thine enemies with the arm of thy strength.
- 11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:

The world and the fulness thereof,
thou hast founded them.

- 12 The north and the south, thou hast created them:

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy name.

- 13 Thou hast <sup>7</sup>a mighty arm: Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

- 14 Righteousness and judgement are the foundation of thy throne:

Mercy and truth go before thy face.

- 15 Blessed is the people that know the <sup>8</sup>joyful sound:

They walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

- 16 In thy name do they rejoice all the day:

And in thy righteousness are they exalted.

- 17 For thou art the glory of their strength:
And in thy favour <sup>9</sup>our horn shall be exalted.

- 18 For our shield belongeth unto the
LORD;

<sup>10</sup>And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

- 19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy <sup>11</sup>saints,

And saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty;

I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

- 20 I have found David my servant;
With my holy oil have I anointed him:

- 21 With whom my hand shall be established;

Mine arm also shall strengthen him.

- 22 The enemy shall not <sup>12</sup>exact upon him;
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

- 23 And I will beat down his adversaries
before him,

And smite them that hate him.

- 24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him;

And in my name shall his horn be exalted.

- 25 I will set his hand also on the sea,
And his right hand on the rivers:

- 26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father,

My God, and the rock of my salvation.

- 27 I also will make him my firstborn,
The highest of the kings of the earth.

- 28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore,

And my covenant shall <sup>13</sup>stand fast with him.

- 29 His seed also will I make to endure
for ever,

And his throne as the days of heaven.

- 30 If his children forsake my law,
And walk not in my judgements;

- 31 If they <sup>14</sup>break my statutes,
And keep not my commandments;

- 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.

35 <sup>2</sup>Once have I sworn by my holiness;

36 His seed shall endure for ever,
And his throne as the sun before me.

37 <sup>3</sup>It shall be established for ever as the moon,

<sup>4</sup>And as the faithful witness in the sky. [Selah]

38 But thou hast cast off and rejected,
Thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.

39 Thou hast abhorred the covenant of thy servant:

Thou hast profaned his crown even to the ground.

40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges;
Thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.

41 All that pass by the way spoil him:
He is become a reproach to his neighbours.

42 Thou hast exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
Thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

43 Yea, thou turnest back the edge of his sword,

And hast not made him to stand in the battle.

44 Thou hast made his brightness to cease,
And cast his throne down to the ground.

45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened:

Thou hast covered him with shame. [Selah]

46 How long, O LORD, wilt thou hide thyself for ever?

How long shall thy wrath burn like fire?

47 O remember how short my time is:
For what vanity hast thou created all the children of men!

48 What man is he that shall live and not see death,

That shall deliver his soul from the <sup>5</sup>power of <sup>6</sup>Sheol? [Selah]

49 Lord, where are thy former mercies,
Which thou swarest unto David in thy faithfulness?

50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants;

How I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the <sup>7</sup>mighty peoples;

51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD,
Wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.

52 Blessed be the LORD for evermore.
Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV.

90 A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

1 Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place
In all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth,

Or ever thou <sup>1</sup>hadst formed the earth and the world,

Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to <sup>2</sup>destruction;
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight
Are but as yesterday <sup>3</sup>when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood;
they are as a sleep:
In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up;
In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed in thine anger,
And in thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,

Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath:

We bring our years to an end as <sup>4</sup>a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten,

Or even by reason of strength fourscore years;

Yet is their pride but labour and sorrow;

For it is soon gone, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger,
And thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee?

12 So teach us to number our days,
That we may get us an heart of wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD; how long?

And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us in the morning with thy mercy;

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.

91 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High

<sup>2</sup> Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in whom I trust.

3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall cover thee with his pinions,
And under his wings shalt thou take refuge:

His truth is a shield and a buckler.
5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror
by night,

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
6 For the pestilence that walketh in
darkness,

Nor for the destruction that wasteth
at noonday.

7 A thousand shall fall at thy side,
And ten thousand at thy right hand;
But it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold,
And see the reward of the wicked.

9<sup>3</sup> For thou, O LORD, art my refuge!
Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation;

10 There shall no evil befall thee, Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

11 For he shall give his angels charge
over thee,

To keep thee in all thy ways.

12 They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:

The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me,
therefore will I deliver him:

I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble:

I will deliver him, and honour him.

16 With long life will I satisfy him,
And shew him my salvation.

92 A Psalm, a Song for the sabbath day.

1 It is a good thing to give thanks unto
the LORD,
And to sing praises unto thy name, O
Most High:

2 To shew forth thy lovingkindness in
the morning,
And thy faithfulness every night,

3 With an instrument of ten strings,
and with the psaltery;

With a solemn sound upon the harp.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work:

I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 How great are thy works, O LORD!

Thy thoughts are very deep.

6 A brutish man knoweth not;

Neither doth a fool understand this:

7 When the wicked spring as the grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity
do flourish;

It is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

8 But thou, O LORD, art on high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD,

For, lo, thine enemies shall perish;

All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild-ox:

I am anointed with fresh oil.

11 Mine eye also hath seen my desire on <sup>4</sup> mine enemies,

Mine ears have heard my desire of the evil-doers that rise up against me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree:

He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 They that are planted in the house of
the LORD

Shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;

They shall be full of sap and green:

15 To shew that the LORD is upright;
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

93 The LORD reigneth; he is apparelled with majesty;

The LORD is apparelled, he hath girded himself with strength:

The world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

2 Thy throne is established of old:

Thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD,

The floods have lifted up their voice;

The floods lift up their <sup>5</sup> waves.

4 Above the voices of many waters,

The mighty breakers of the sea,

The LORD on high is mighty.

5 Thy testimonies are very sure:

Holiness becometh thine house,

O LORD, for evermore.

94 O LORD, thou God to whom vengeance
belongeth,

Thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth.

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth:
Render to the proud their desert.

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked,
How long shall the wicked triumph?

4 They prate, they speak arrogantly:

<sup>2</sup> Or,
Thou art abidesth...
Al-

even I do.

<sup>3</sup> Or,
Because thou hast said, The LORD is my refuge;

<sup>4</sup> Or,

that lie in wait for me

<sup>5</sup> Or,
roaring

All the workers of iniquity boast themselves.

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD,

And afflict thine heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, And murder the fatherless.

1 Heb. Jah.
7 And they say, <sup>1</sup>The LORD shall not see, Neither shall the God of Jacob consider.

8 Consider, ye brutish among the people: And ye fools, when will ye be wise?

9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear?

He that formed the eye, shall he not see?

2 Or, instructeth
10 He that <sup>2</sup>chastiseth the nations, shall not he correct,

Even he that teacheth man knowledge?

11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man,

<sup>3</sup>That they are <sup>4</sup>vanity.

3 Or, For
1 Heb. a breath.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, <sup>1</sup>O LORD,

And teachest out of thy law;

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity,

Until the pit be digged for the wicked.

14 For the LORD will not cast off his people,

Neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 For judgement shall return unto righteousness:

And all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers?

Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help, My soul had soon dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, My foot slippeth;

Thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.

5 Or, doubts
19 In the multitude of my <sup>5</sup>thoughts within me

Thy comforts delight my soul.

6 Or, sent
20 Shall the <sup>6</sup>throne of wickedness have fellowship with thee,

Which frameth mischief by statute?

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,

And condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the LORD hath been my high tower;

And my God the rock of my refuge.

23 And he hath brought upon them their own iniquity,

And shall cut them off in their own evil;

The LORD our God shall cut them off.

95 O come, let us sing unto the LORD:

Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,

Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the LORD is a great God, And a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth;

The <sup>7</sup>heights of the mountains are his also.

7 Or, strength

5 The sea is his, and he made it; And his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down;

Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker:

7 For he is our God, And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

<sup>8</sup>To-day, Oh that ye would hear his voice!

8 Or, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, hearken ye.

8 Harden not your heart, as at <sup>9</sup>Meribah, As in the day of <sup>10</sup>Massah in the wilderness:

9 That is, strife.
10 That is, temptation.

9 When your fathers tempted me, Proved me, and saw my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with that generation,

And said, It is a people that do err in their heart,

And they have not known my ways:

11 Wherefore I swore in my wrath, That they should not enter into my rest.

96 O sing unto the LORD a new song:

Sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name;

Shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the nations, His marvellous works among all the peoples.

4 For great is the LORD, and highly to be praised:

He is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the peoples are <sup>11</sup>idols:

11 Or, things of nought

But the LORD made the heavens.

6 Honour and majesty are before him:

Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the peoples,

Give unto the LORD glory and strength.

8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name:

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the LORD <sup>12</sup>in the beauty of holiness:

12 Or, in holy array

Tremble before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the nations, The LORD reigneth:

The world also is stablished that it cannot be moved:

He shall judge the peoples with equity.

11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

12 Let the field exult, and all that is therein;

Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy;

13 Before the LORD, for he cometh; For he cometh to judge the earth:

<sup>1</sup> Or,
in his faithfulness

He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples <sup>1</sup> with his truth.

97 The LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice;

Let the multitude of isles be glad.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him:

Righteousness and judgement are the foundation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him,
And burneth up his adversaries round about.

4 His lightnings lightened the world:
The earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare his righteousness,
And all the peoples have seen his glory.

7 Ashamed be all they that serve graven images,

That boast themselves of idols:
Worship him, all ye gods.

8 Zion heard and was glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoiced;
Because of thy judgements, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art most high above
all the earth:

Thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 O ye that love the LORD, hate evil:
He preserveth the souls of his saints;
He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Be glad in the LORD, ye righteous;
And give thanks to his holy <sup>2</sup> name.

98 A Psalm.

1 O sing unto the LORD a new song;
For he hath done marvellous things:
His right hand, and his holy arm, hath wrought salvation for him.

2 The LORD hath made known his salvation:

His righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the nations.

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all
the earth:

Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.

5 Sing praises unto the LORD with the harp;

With the harp and the voice of melody.

6 With trumpets and sound of cornet
Make a joyful noise before the King,
the LORD.

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

The world, and they that dwell therein;

8 Let the floods clap their hands;

Let the hills sing for joy together;
9 Before the LORD, for he cometh to judge the earth:

He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with equity.

99 The LORD reigneth; let the peoples tremble:

He <sup>3</sup> sitteth upon the cherubim; let the earth be moved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion;
And he is high above all the peoples.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible
name:
Holy is he.

4 The king's strength also loveth judgement;

Thou dost establish equity,
Thou executest judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God,
And worship at his footstool:
Holy is he.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests,
And Samuel among them that call upon his name;

They called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto them in the pillar of cloud:

They kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our
God:

Thou wast a God that forgavest them, Though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.

9 Exalt ye the LORD our God,
And worship at his holy hill;
For the LORD our God is holy.

100 A Psalm <sup>4</sup> of thanksgiving.

1 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD,
<sup>5</sup> all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness:
Come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God:
It is he that hath made us, <sup>6</sup> and we are his;

We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with <sup>7</sup> thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise:

Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is good; his mercy
endureth for ever;

And his faithfulness unto all generations.

101 A Psalm of David.

1 I will sing of mercy and judgement:
Unto thee, O LORD, will I sing praises.

2 I will <sup>8</sup> behave myself wisely in a perfect way:

Oh when wilt thou come unto me?

I will walk within my house <sup>9</sup> with a perfect heart.

It shall not cleave unto me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will know no <sup>2</sup>evil thing.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I destroy:

Him that hath an high look and a proud heart will I not suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me:

He that walketh in a perfect way, he shall minister unto me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house:

He that speaketh falsehood shall not be established before mine eyes.

8 Morning by morning will I destroy all the wicked of the land;

To cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of the LORD:

102 A Prayer of the afflicted, when he <sup>3</sup>is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

1 Hear my prayer, O LORD, And let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day of my distress:

Incline thine ear unto me;

In the day when I call answer me speedily.

3 For my days consume away <sup>4</sup>like smoke, And my bones are burned <sup>5</sup>as a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten like grass, and withered;

For I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning My bones cleave to my flesh.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am become as an owl of the waste places.

7 I watch, and am become Like a sparrow that is alone upon the housetop.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; They that are mad against me do curse by me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, And mingled my drink with weeping.

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath:

For thou hast taken me up, and cast me away.

11 My days are like a shadow that <sup>6</sup>declineth;

And I am withered like grass.

12 But thou, O LORD, <sup>7</sup>shalt abide for ever;

And thy memorial unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion:

For it is time to have pity upon her, yea, the set time is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones,

And have pity upon her dust.

15 So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD,

And all the kings of the earth thy glory:

16 For the LORD hath built up Zion,

He hath appeared in his glory;

17 He hath regarded the prayer of the destitute,

And hath not despised their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come:

And a people which shall be created shall praise <sup>8</sup>the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary;

From heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 To hear the sighing of the prisoner;

To loose <sup>9</sup>those that are appointed to death;

21 That men may declare the name of the LORD in Zion,

And his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the peoples are gathered together,

And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 <sup>10</sup>He weakened my strength in the way;

He shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days:

Thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth;

And the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure:

Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment;

As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But thou art the same,

And thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue,

And their seed shall be established before thee.

103 A Psalm of David.

1 Bless the LORD, O my soul;

And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul,

And forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;

Who healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who redeemeth thy life from <sup>11</sup>destruction;

Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies:

5 Who satisfieth <sup>12</sup>thy mouth with good things;

So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

<sup>10</sup> Another reading is, He afflicted me with his strength.

7 He made known his ways unto Moses,
His doings unto the children of Israel.

8 The LORD is full of compassion and gracious,

Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

9 He will not always chide;

Neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins,

Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

11 For as the heaven is high above the earth,

So great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west,
So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13 Like as a father pitieth his children,
So the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame;
He remembereth that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are as grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone;

And the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,

And his righteousness unto children's children;

18 To such as keep his covenant,
And to those that remember his precepts to do them.

19 The LORD hath established his throne in the heavens;

And his kingdom ruleth over all.

20 Bless the LORD, ye angels of his:
Ye mighty in strength, that fulfil his word,

Hearkening unto the voice of his word.

21 Bless the LORD, all ye his hosts;
Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

22 Bless the LORD, all ye his works,
In all places of his dominion:

Bless the LORD, O my soul.

104

Bless the LORD, O my soul.

O LORD my God, thou art very great;
Thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment;

Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters;

Who maketh the clouds his chariot;

Who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

4 Who maketh <sup>1</sup>winds his messengers;
His ministers a flaming fire;

5 <sup>2</sup>Who laid the foundations of the earth,

That it should not be moved for ever.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a vesture;
The waters stood above the mountains.

7 At thy rebuke they fled;

At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away;

8 <sup>3</sup>They went up by the mountains,
they went down by the valleys,
Unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over;

That they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth forth springs into the valleys;

They run among the mountains:

11 They give drink to every beast of the field;

The wild asses quench their thirst.

12 By them the fowl of the heaven have their habitation,

They <sup>4</sup>sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the mountains from his chambers:

The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle,

And herb for the <sup>5</sup>service of man;

That he may bring forth <sup>6</sup>food out of the earth:

15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man,

<sup>7</sup>And oil to make his face to shine,
And bread that strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are <sup>8</sup>satisfied;
The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests:
As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high mountains are for the wild goats;

The rocks are a refuge for the <sup>9</sup>conies.

19 He appointed the moon for seasons:

The sun knoweth his going down.

20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night;
Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they get them away,
And lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto his work
And to his labour until the evening.

24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works!
In wisdom hast thou made them all:

The earth is full of thy <sup>10</sup>riches.

25 Yonder is the sea, great and wide,
Wherein are things creeping innumerable,

Both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships;
There is leviathan, whom thou hast formed to <sup>11</sup>take his pastime therein.

Thou <sup>1</sup>takest away their breath, they die,
And return to their dust.

created;
And thou renewest the face of the ground.

Let the LORD rejoice in his works:

trembleth;
He toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

I live:
I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

I will rejoice in the LORD.
35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth,
And let the wicked be no more.
Bless the LORD, O my soul.
<sup>2</sup>Praise ye the LORD.

105

O give thanks unto the LORD, call
upon his name;
Make known his doings among the peoples.

2 Sing unto him, sing praises unto him;

<sup>3</sup>Talk ye of all his marvellous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name:

Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek ye the LORD and his strength;
Seek his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done;

His wonders, and the judgements of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant,
Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

7 He is the LORD our God:

His judgements are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembered his covenant
for ever,

The word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

9 The covenant which he made with Abraham,

And his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a statute,

To Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land
of Canaan,

The <sup>4</sup>lot of your inheritance:

12 When they were but a few men in number;

Yea, very few, and sojourners in it;

13 And they went about from nation to nation,

From one kingdom to another people.

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong;

Yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes;

15 <sup>5</sup>Saying, Touch not mine anointed ones,

And do my prophets no harm.

16 And he called for a famine upon the land;

He brake the whole staff of bread.

17 He sent a man before them;

Joseph was sold for a servant:

18 His feet they hurt with fetters;

<sup>6</sup>He was laid in chains of iron:

19 Until the time that his word came to pass;

The word of the LORD tried him.

20 The king sent and loosed him;

Even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.

21 He made him lord of his house,

And ruler of all his substance:

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure,

And teach his <sup>6</sup>senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt;

And Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people greatly,
And made them stronger than their adversaries.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people,

To deal subtilly with his servants.

26 He sent Moses his servant,
And Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 <sup>7</sup>They set among them <sup>8</sup>his signs,

And wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness, and made it dark;

And they rebelled not against his words.

29 He turned their waters into blood,
And slew their fish.

30 Their land swarmed with frogs,
In the chambers of their kings.

31 He spake, and there came swarms of flies,

And <sup>9</sup>lice in all their borders.

32 He gave them hail for rain,

And flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees;

And brake the trees of their borders.

34 He spake, and the locust came,

And the cankerworm, and that without number,

35 And did eat up every herb in their land,
And did eat up the fruit of their ground.

36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land,

The <sup>10</sup>chief of all their strength.

37 And he brought them forth with silver and gold:

And there was <sup>11</sup>not one feeble person
among his tribes.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed;
For the fear of them had fallen upon
them.

39 He spread a cloud for a covering;

And fire to give light in the night.

42 For he remembered his holy word,

And Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy,

And his chosen with singing.

44 And he gave them the lands of the nations;

And they took the labour of the peoples in possession:

45 That they might keep his statutes,
And observe his laws.

106

<sup>1</sup> Praise ye the LORD.

O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:

For his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the
LORD,

Or shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgement,
And he that doeth righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people;
O visit me with thy salvation:

5 That I may see the prosperity of thy chosen,

That I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation,

That I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt;

They remembered not the multitude of thy mercies;

But were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,

That he might make his mighty power
to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up:

So he led them through the depths,
as through a <sup>2</sup> wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them,

And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their adversaries:

There was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words;

They sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works;

They waited not for his counsel:

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,

And tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request;
But sent leanness into their soul.

16 They envied Moses also in the camp,
And Aaron the <sup>3</sup> saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up
Dathan,

And covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company;
The flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb,
And worshipped a molten image.

20 Thus they changed their glory
For the likeness of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgot God their saviour,
Which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
And terrible things by the Red Sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them,

Had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach,

To turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land,
They believed not his word;

25 But murmured in their tents,
And hearkened not unto the voice of
the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand unto
them,

That he would <sup>4</sup> overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 And that he would overthrow their seed among the nations,

And scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto <sup>5</sup> Baal-peor,

And ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with
their doings;

And the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgement:

And so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for
righteousness,

Unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of <sup>6</sup> Meribah,

So that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they were rebellious against his spirit,

And he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the peoples,
As the LORD commanded them;

35 But mingled themselves with the nations,

And learned their works:

36 And they served their idols;

Which became a snare unto them:

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto demons,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, Whom they sacrificed unto the idols
of Canaan;

And the land was polluted with blood.
 39 Thus were they defiled with their works,
 And went a whoring in their doings.
 40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people,
 And he abhorred his inheritance.
 41 And he gave them into the hand of the nations;
 And they that hated them ruled over them.
 42 Their enemies also oppressed them,
 And they were brought into subjection under their hand.
 43 Many times did he deliver them;
 But they were rebellious in their counsel,
 And were brought low in their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
 When he heard their cry:
 45 And he remembered for them his covenant,
 And repented according to the multitude of his mercies.
 46 He made them also to be pitied
 Of all those that carried them captives.
 47 Save us, O LORD our God,
 And gather us from among the nations,
 To give thanks unto thy holy name,
 And to triumph in thy praise.
 48 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
 From everlasting even to everlasting.
 And let all the people say, Amen.

O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
 Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary;
 3 And gathered them out of the lands,
 From the east and from the west,
 From the north and <sup>1</sup>from the south.
 4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way;
 They found no city of habitation.
 5 Hungry and thirsty,
 Their soul fainted in them.
 6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
 And he delivered them out of their distresses.
 7 He led them also by a straight way,
 Which they might go to a city of habitation.
 8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
 And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
 9 For he satisfieth the longing soul,
 And the hungry soul he filleth with good.
 10 Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
 Being bound in affliction and iron;
 11 Because they rebelled against the words of God,
 And contemned the counsel of the Most High:
 12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour;
 They fell down, and there was none to help.
 13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
 And he saved them out of their distresses.

<sup>1</sup> Heb.
from the sea.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
 And brake their bands in sunder.
 15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
 And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
 16 For he hath broken the gates of brass,
 And cut the bars of iron in sunder.
 17 Fools because of <sup>2</sup>their transgression,
 And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
 18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat;
 And they draw near unto the gates of death.
 19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble,
 And he saveth them out of their distresses.
 20 He sendeth his word, and healeth them,
 And delivereth them from their <sup>3</sup>destructions.
 21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
 And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
 22 And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
 And declare his works with singing.
 23 They that go down to the sea in ships,
 That do business in great waters;
 24 These see the works of the LORD,
 And his wonders in the deep.
 25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind,
 Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
 26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths:
 Their soul melteth away because of trouble.
 27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,

<sup>2</sup> Heb.

of their transgression.

<sup>3</sup> Heb.
pits.

<sup>1</sup> Heb.
all their wisdom
is swallowed up.

And <sup>1</sup>are at their wits' end.
28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their
trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.
29 He maketh the storm a calm,
So that the waves thereof are still.
30 Then are they glad because they be quiet;
So he bringeth them unto <sup>2</sup>the haven
where they would be.
31 Oh that men would praise the LORD
for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
32 Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
And praise him in the seat of the elders.
33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
And watersprings into a thirsty ground;
34 A fruitful land into a salt desert,
For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
35 He turneth a wilderness into a pool of
water,
And a dry land into watersprings.
36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell,
That they may prepare a city of habitation;
37 And sow fields, and plant vineyards,
And get them fruits of increase.
38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly;
And he suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
39 Again, they are minished and bowed
down
Through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
40 He poureth contempt upon princes,
And causeth them to wander in the waste, where there is no way.
41 Yet setteth he the needy on high from affliction,
And maketh him families like a flock.
42 The upright shall see it, and be glad;
And all iniquity shall stop her mouth.
43 Whoso is wise shall give heed to these things,
And they shall consider the mercies of
the LORD.

108 A Song, a Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> My heart is fixed, O God;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises,
even with my glory.
2 Awake, psaltery and harp:
<sup>4</sup> I myself will awake right early.
3 I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD,
among the peoples:
And I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
4 For thy mercy is great above the
heavens,
And thy truth reacheth unto the skies.
5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens:

<sup>3</sup> See
Ps. lvi.
7-11.

<sup>4</sup> Or, I will awake the dawn

And thy glory above all the earth.
6 <sup>5</sup> That thy beloved may be delivered,
Save with thy right hand, and answer
<sup>6</sup> us.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will exult:

I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim also is the defence of mine
head;

Judah is my <sup>7</sup> sceptre.

9 Moab is my washpot;

<sup>8</sup> Upon Edom will I cast my shoe:
Over Philistia will I shout.

10 Who will bring me into the fenced city?

<sup>9</sup> Who hath led me unto Edom?

11 <sup>10</sup> Hast not thou cast us off, O God?
And thou goest not forth, O God, with our hosts.

12 Give us help against the adversary:
For vain is the <sup>11</sup> help of man.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly:
For he it is that shall tread down our adversaries.

109 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 Hold not thy peace, O God of my praise;

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit have they opened
against me:

They have spoken <sup>12</sup> unto me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred,

And fought against me without a cause.

4 For my love they are my adversaries:
But I give myself unto prayer.

5 And they have <sup>13</sup> rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.

6 Set thou a wicked man over him:

And let <sup>14</sup> an adversary stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him come forth guilty;

And let his prayer <sup>15</sup> be turned into sin.

8 Let his days be few;
And let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be vagabonds, and beg;
And let them seek their bread <sup>16</sup> out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner <sup>17</sup> catch all that he hath;

And let strangers make spoil of his labour.

12 Let there be none to <sup>18</sup> extend mercy
unto him;

Neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off;
In the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD;

That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy,

But persecuted the poor and needy man, And the broken in heart, to slay them.

17 Yea, he loved cursing, and it came unto him;

And he delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him.

18 He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment,

And it came into his inward parts like water,

And like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the raiment wherewith he covereth himself,

And for the girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 This is the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD,

And of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But deal thou with me, O God the LORD, for thy name's sake:

Because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me,

22 For I am poor and needy,

And my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it <sup>1</sup>declineth:

I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees <sup>2</sup>are weak through fasting; And my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I am become also a reproach unto them: When they see me, they shake their head.

26 Help me, O LORD my God;

O save me according to thy mercy:

27 That they may know that this is thy hand;

That thou, LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou:

When they arise, they shall be ashamed, but thy servant shall rejoice.

29 <sup>3</sup>Let mine adversaries be clothed with dishonour,

And let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a mantle.

30 I will give great thanks unto the LORD with my mouth;

Yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the needy,

To save him from them that judge his soul.

110 A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD saith unto my lord, Sit thou at my right hand,

Until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The LORD shall <sup>4</sup>send forth the rod of thy strength out of Zion:

Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 Thy people <sup>5</sup>offer themselves willingly <sup>6</sup>in the day of thy <sup>7</sup>power:

<sup>9</sup>Thou hast the dew of thy youth.

Thou art a priest for ever

After the <sup>10</sup>order of Melchizedek.

5 The LORD at thy right hand

<sup>11</sup>Shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the nations,

In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.

3 His work is honour and majesty:

And his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered:

The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He hath given <sup>16</sup>meat unto them that fear him:

He will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works,

In giving them the heritage of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are truth and judgement;

When Israel went forth out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob from a people of strange language;

2 Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.

3 The sea saw it, and fled;
Jordan was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like young sheep.

5 What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleest?

Thou Jordan, that thou turnest back?

6 Ye mountains, that ye skip like rams;

Ye little hills, like young sheep?

7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord,

At the presence of the God of Jacob;

8 Which turned the rock into a pool of water,

The flint into a fountain of waters.

115

Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,

But unto thy name give glory,

For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

2 Wherefore should the nations say,
Where is now their God?

3 But our God is in the heavens:
He hath done whatsoever he pleased.

4 Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they speak not;

Eyes have they, but they see not;

6 They have ears, but they hear not;
Noses have they, but they smell not;

7 They have hands, but they handle not;

Feet have they, but they walk not;

Neither speak they through their throat.

8 They that make them shall be like unto them;

Yea, every one that trusteth in them.

9 O Israel, trust thou in the LORD:
He is their help and their shield.

10 O house of Aaron, trust ye in the LORD:
He is their help and their shield.

11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD.

He is their help and their shield.

12 The LORD hath been mindful of us; he will bless us:

He will bless the house of Israel;

He will bless the house of Aaron.

13 He will bless them that fear the LORD,
Both small and great.

14 The LORD increase you more and more,

You and your children.

15 Blessed are ye of the LORD,
Which made heaven and earth.

16 The heavens are the heavens of the LORD;

But the earth hath he given to the children of men.

 For the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.
 8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death,

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud <sup>1</sup>that are cursed,
Which do wander from thy commandments.
22 Take away from me reproach and contempt;
For I have kept thy testimonies.
23 Princes also sat and talked against me:
But thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.
24 Thy testimonies also are my delight
And <sup>2</sup>my counsellors.

♫ DALETH.

- 25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust:

- Quicken thou me according to thy word.
26 I declared my ways, and thou answerdest me:
Teach me thy statutes.
27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts:
So shall I meditate of thy wondrous works.
28 My soul <sup>3</sup>melteth for heaviness:
Strengthen thou me according unto thy word.
29 Remove from me the way of falsehood:
And grant me thy law graciously.
30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness:
Thy judgements have I set before me.
31 I cleave unto thy testimonies:
O LORD, put me not to shame.
32 I will run the way of thy commandments,
When thou shalt enlarge my heart.

♫ HE.

- 33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes;
And I shall keep it unto the end.
34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law;
Yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments;
For therein do I delight.
36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies,
And not to covetousness.
37 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity,
And quicken me in thy ways.
38 Confirm thy word unto thy servant,
<sup>4</sup>Which belongeth unto the fear of thee.
39 Turn away my reproach whereof I am afraid;
For thy judgements are good.
40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts:
Quicken me in thy righteousness.

♫ VAV.

- 41 Let thy mercies also come unto me, O LORD,
Even thy salvation, according to thy word.
42 So shall I have an answer for him that reproacheth me;
For I trust in thy word.
43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth;
For I have hoped in thy judgements.
44 So shall I observe thy law continually
For ever and ever.
45 And I will walk at liberty;
For I have sought thy precepts.
46 I will also speak of thy testimonies before kings,
And will not be ashamed.
47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments,
Which I have loved.
48 I will lift up my hands also unto thy commandments, which I have loved;

1 ZAIN.

49 Remember the word unto thy servant,

<sup>1</sup> Because thou hast made me to hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction:

<sup>2</sup> For thy word hath quickened me.

51 The proud have had me greatly in derision:

<sup>3</sup> Yet have I not swerved from thy law.

52 I have remembered thy judgements of old, O LORD,

And have comforted myself.

53 <sup>4</sup> Hot indignation hath taken hold upon me,

Because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

54 Thy statutes have been my songs

In the house of my pilgrimage.

55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night,

And have observed thy law.

56 This I have had.

<sup>4</sup> Because I kept thy precepts.

7 CHETH.

57 <sup>5</sup> The LORD is my portion:

I have said that I would observe thy words.

58 I intreated thy favour with my whole heart:

Be merciful unto me according to thy word.

59 I thought on my ways,

And turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

60 I made haste, and delayed not,

To observe thy commandments.

61 The cords of the wicked have wrapped me round;

But I have not forgotten thy law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee

Because of thy righteous judgements.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee,

And of them that observe thy precepts.

64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: Teach me thy statutes.

2 TETH.

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgement and knowledge;

For I have believed in thy commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray;

But now I observe thy word.

68 Thou art good, and doest good;

Teach me thy statutes.

69 The proud have forged a lie against me:

With my whole heart will I keep thy precepts.

70 Their heart is as fat as grease;

But I delight in thy law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted;

That I might learn thy statutes.

72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me Than thousands of gold and silver.

6 JOD.

73 Thy hands have made me and <sup>6</sup> fashioned me:

Give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

74 They that fear thee shall see me and be glad;

Because I have hoped in thy word.

75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgements are righteous,

And that in faithfulness thou hast afflicted me.

76 Let, I pray thee, thy lovingkindness be for my comfort,

According to thy word unto thy servant.

77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live:

For thy law is my delight.

78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they have overthrown me <sup>7</sup> wrongfully:

But I will meditate in thy precepts.

79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me,

<sup>8</sup> And they shall know thy testimonies.

80 Let my heart be perfect in thy statutes; That I be not ashamed.

3 CAPH.

81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation:

But I hope in thy word.

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word,

While I say, When wilt thou comfort me?

83 For I am become like a <sup>9</sup> bottle in the smoke;

Yet do I not forget thy statutes.

84 How many are the days of thy servant? When wilt thou execute judgement on them that persecute me?

85 The proud have digged pits for me,

Who are not after thy law.

86 All thy commandments are faithful:

They persecute me <sup>7</sup> wrongfully; help thou me.

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth;

But I forsook not thy precepts.

88 Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; So shall I observe the testimony of thy mouth.

5 LAMED.

89 For ever, O LORD, Thy word is settled in heaven.

90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations:

Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

91 <sup>10</sup> They abide this day according to thine ordinances;

For all things are thy servants.

92 Unless thy law had been my delight, I should then have perished in mine affliction.

93 I will never forget thy precepts;

For with them thou hast quickened me.

94 I am thine, save me;

For I have sought thy precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me;

But I will consider thy testimonies.

96 I have seen an end of all perfection;

But thy commandment is exceeding broad.

MEM.

97 Oh how love I thy law!

It is my meditation all the day.

98 Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies;

For they are ever with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers;

For thy testimonies are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the aged, Because I have kept thy precepts.

101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way,

That I might observe thy word.

102 I have not turned aside from thy judgements;

For thou hast taught me.

103 How sweet are thy words unto my <sup>2</sup> taste!

Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

104 Through thy precepts I get understanding:

Therefore I hate every false way.

NUN.

105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, And light unto my path.

106 I have sworn, and have confirmed it, That I will observe thy righteous judgements.

107 I am afflicted very much:

Quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.

108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, And teach me thy judgements.

109 My soul is continually in my hand; Yet do I not forget thy law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me; Yet went I not astray from thy precepts.

111 Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever;

For they are the rejoicing of my heart.

112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes,

For ever, even unto the end.

SAMECH.

113 I hate them that are of a double mind; But thy law do I love.

114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield:

I hope in thy word.

115 Depart from me, ye evil-doers;

That I may keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live;

And let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe, And shall have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast set at nought all them that err from thy statutes;

For their deceit is <sup>3</sup> falsehood.

119 Thou <sup>4</sup> putttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross:

Therefore I love thy testimonies.

120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; And I am afraid of thy judgements.

AIN.

121 I have done judgement and justice: Leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 Be surety for thy servant for good: Let not the proud oppress me.

123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, And for thy righteous word.

124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy,

And teach me thy statutes.

125 I am thy servant, give me understanding;

That I may know thy testimonies.

126 It is time for the LORD to work; For they have made void thy law.

127 Therefore I love thy commandments Above gold, yea, above fine gold.

128 Therefore I esteem <sup>5</sup> all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; And I hate every false way.

PE.

129 Thy testimonies are wonderful: Therefore doth my soul keep them.

130 The opening of thy words giveth light;

It giveth understanding unto the simple.

131 I opened wide my mouth, and panted; For I longed for thy commandments.

132 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me,

As thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.

133 Order my footsteps in thy word; And let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Redeem me from the oppression of man:

So will I observe thy precepts.

135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant;

And teach me thy statutes.

136 Mine eyes run down with rivers of water,

Because they observe not thy law.

Therefore thy servant loveth it.

141 I am small and despised:
Yet do not I forget thy precepts.

142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting
righteousness,
And thy law is truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have <sup>3</sup>taken hold on me:
Yet thy commandments are my de-

144 Thy testimonies are righteous for ever:

פ KOPH.

145 I have called with my whole heart;
answer me, O LORD:

I will keep thy statutes.

146 I have called unto thee; save me,
And I shall observe thy testimonies.

147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried:
I hoped in thy words.

148 Mine eyes prevented the night watches,
That I might meditate in thy word.

149 Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness:

Quicken me, O LORD, <sup>4</sup>according to thy judgements.

150 They draw nigh <sup>5</sup>that follow after wickedness;

They are far from thy law.

151 Thou art nigh, O LORD;
And all thy commandments are truth.

152 Of old have I known from thy testimonies,
That thou hast founded them for ever.

ר RESH.

153 Consider mine affliction, and deliver
me;

For I do not forget thy law.

154 Plead thou my cause, and redeem me:
Quicken me according to thy word.

155 Salvation is far from the wicked;
For they seek not thy statutes.

156 Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD: Quicken me according to thy judgements.

157 Many are my persecutors and mine
adversaries;

Yet have I not swerved from thy testimonies.

158 I beheld the treacherous dealers, and <sup>6</sup>was grieved;

Because they observe not thy word.

159 Consider how I love thy precepts: Quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness.

160 The sum of thy word is truth;
And every one of thy righteous judgements endureth for ever.

ש SHIN.

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause;

But my heart standeth in awe of thy words.

162 I rejoice at thy word,

As one that findeth great spoil.

163 I hate and abhor falsehood;

But thy law do I love.

164 Seven times a day do I praise thee,
Because of thy righteous judgements.

165 Great peace have they which love
thy law;

And they have none occasion of stumbling.

166 I have hoped for thy salvation, O
LORD,

And have done thy commandments.

167 My soul hath observed thy testimonies;

And I love them exceedingly.

168 I have observed thy precepts and thy testimonies;

For all my ways are before thee.

170 Let my supplication come before
thee:

Deliver me according to thy word.

171 Let my lips utter praise;

For thou teachest me thy statutes.

172 Let my tongue sing of thy word;

For all thy commandments are righteousness.

173 Let thine hand be ready to help me;

For I have chosen thy precepts.

174 I have longed for thy salvation, O
LORD;

And thy law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise
thee;

And let thy judgements help me.

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep;
seek thy servant;

For I do not forget thy commandments.

A Song of Ascents.

1 In my distress I cried unto the LORD,
And he answered me.

2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips,

And from a deceitful tongue.

3 What shall be given unto thee, and what shall be done more unto thee,

Thou deceitful tongue?

4 <sup>7</sup>Sharp arrows of the mighty,

With coals of <sup>8</sup>juniper.

5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech,
That I dwell among the tents of Kedar!

6 My soul hath long had her dwelling

With him that hateth peace.

7 I am for peace:

But when I speak, they are for war.

121 A Song of Ascents.

1 I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains:

From whence shall my help come?

2 My help cometh from the LORD,
Which made heaven and earth.

3<sup>1</sup> He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:

He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD is thy keeper:

The LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6 The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD shall keep thee from all evil;

He shall keep thy soul.

8 The LORD shall keep thy going out and thy coming in,

From this time forth and for evermore.

122 A Song of Ascents; of David.

1 I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go unto the house of the LORD.

2 Our feet <sup>2</sup>are standing Within thy gates, O Jerusalem;

3 Jerusalem, that art builded

As a city that is compact together:

4 Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes of <sup>3</sup>the LORD,

For a testimony unto Israel,

To give thanks unto the name of the
LORD.

5 For there <sup>4</sup>are set thrones for judgment,

The thrones of the house of David.

6<sup>5</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:

<sup>6</sup> They shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls,

And prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions'

sakes,

I will now <sup>7</sup>say, Peace be within thee.

9 For the sake of the house of the LORD
our God

I will seek thy good.

123 A Song of Ascents.

1 Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes,
O thou that sittest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master,

As the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress;

So our eyes look unto the LORD our
God,

Until he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us:

For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled With the scorning of those that are at ease,

And with the contempt of the proud.

124 A Song of Ascents; of David.

1 If it had not been the LORD who was
on our side,

Let Israel now say;

2 If it had not been the LORD who was
on our side,

When men rose up against us:

3 Then they had swallowed us up alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us:

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us,
The stream had gone over our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the LORD,
Who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers:

The snare is broken, and we are escaped.

8 Our help is in the name of the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.

125 A Song of Ascents.

1 They that trust in the LORD
Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,

So the LORD is round about his people,

From this time forth and for evermore.

3 For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous;
That the righteous put not forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good,

And to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 But as for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways,

The LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity.

Peace be upon Israel.

126 A Song of Ascents.

1 When the LORD <sup>8</sup>turned again the captivity of Zion,

We were like unto them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter,

And our tongue with singing:

Then said they among the nations,
The LORD hath done great things for
them.

3 The LORD hath done great things for
us;

Whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD,
As the streams in the South.

5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6 Though he goeth on his way weeping,

127 A Song of Ascents; of Solomon.

- 1 Except the LORD build the house,
They labour in vain that build it:
Except the LORD keep the city,
The watchman waketh but in vain.
2 It is vain for you that ye rise up early,
and so late take rest,
And eat the bread of toil:
For so he giveth unto his beloved <sup>1</sup>sleep.
3 Lo, children are an heritage of the
LORD:
And the fruit of the womb is his reward.
4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty
man,
So are the children of youth.
5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them:
They shall not be ashamed,
When they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128 A Song of Ascents.

- 1 Blessed is every one that feareth the
LORD,
That walketh in his ways.
2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine
hands:
Happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.
3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine, in the innermost parts of thine
house:
Thy children like olive plants, round about thy table.
4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed
That feareth the LORD.
5 The LORD <sup>2</sup>shall bless thee out of Zion:
And <sup>3</sup>thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.
6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children.
4 Peace be upon Israel.

129 A Song of Ascents.

- 1<sup>5</sup> Many a time have they afflicted me
from my youth up,
Let Israel now say;
2<sup>6</sup> Many a time have they afflicted me
from my youth up:
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
3 The plowers plowed upon my back;
They made long their furrows.
4 The LORD is righteous:
He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.
5 Let them be ashamed and turned backward,
All they that hate Zion.
6 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops,
Which withereth afore it <sup>6</sup>groweth up:
7 Wherewith the reaper filleth not his hand,
Nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.
8 Neither do they which go by say,

The blessing of the LORD be upon you;
We bless you in the name of the LORD.

130 A Song of Ascents.

- 1 Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.
2 Lord, hear my voice:
Let thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.
3 If thou, <sup>7</sup>LORD, shouldest mark in-iquities,
O Lord, who shall stand?
4 But there is forgiveness with thee,
That thou mayest be feared.
5 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth
wait,
And in his word do I hope.
6 My soul looketh for the LORD,
More than watchmen look for the morning;
Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
7 O Israel, hope in the LORD;
For with the LORD there is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And he shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

131 A Song of Ascents; of David.

- 1 LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty;
Neither do I <sup>8</sup>exercise myself in great matters,
Or in things too wonderful for me.
2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my
soul;
Like a weaned child with his mother,
My soul is with me like a weaned child.
3 O Israel, hope in the LORD
From this time forth and for evermore.

- 1 LORD, remember for David

6 Lo, we heard of it in <sup>12</sup>Ephrathah:
We found it in the field of <sup>13</sup>the wood.

We will worship at his footstool.
8 Arise, O LORD, into thy resting place;
Thou, and the ark of thy strength.

xiii. 5.

11 The LORD hath sworn unto David in truth;
He will not turn from it:
Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12 If thy children will keep my covenant
And my testimony that I shall teach them,
Their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion;
He hath desired it for his habitation.

14 This is my resting place for ever:
Here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

15 I will abundantly bless her provision:
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 Her priests also will I clothe with salvation:
And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

17 There will I make <sup>2</sup>the horn of David to bud:
I have <sup>3</sup>ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

18 His enemies will I clothe with shame:
But upon himself shall his crown flourish.

133 A Song of Ascents; of David.

1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is
For brethren to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the precious oil upon the head,
That ran down upon the beard,
Even Aaron's beard;
That came down upon the <sup>4</sup>skirt of his garments;

3 Like the dew of Hermon,
That cometh down upon the mountains of Zion:
For there the LORD commanded the blessing,
Even life for evermore.

134 A Song of Ascents.

1 Behold, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD,
Which by night stand in the house of the LORD.

2 Lift up your hands <sup>5</sup>to the sanctuary,
And bless ye the LORD.

3 The LORD bless thee out of Zion;
Even he that made heaven and earth.

135 <sup>6</sup>Praise ye the LORD.
Praise ye the name of the LORD;
Praise him, O ye servants of the LORD:

2 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God.

3 Praise ye the LORD; for the LORD is good:
Sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

4 For <sup>7</sup>the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself,

And Israel for his peculiar treasure.

5 For I know that the LORD is great,
And that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that hath he done,

In heaven and in earth, in the seas
and in all deeps.

7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth;
He maketh lightnings for the rain;
He bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

8 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt,
Both of man and beast.

9 He sent signs and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt,
Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.

10 Who smote <sup>8</sup>many nations,
And slew mighty kings;

11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
And Og king of Bashan,
And all the kingdoms of Canaan:

12 And gave their land for an heritage,
An heritage unto Israel his people.

13 Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever;
Thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.

14 For the LORD shall judge his people,
And repent himself concerning his servants.

15 <sup>9</sup>The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, but they speak not;
Eyes have they, but they see not;

17 They have ears, but they hear not;
Neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 They that make them shall be like unto them;
Yea, every one that trusteth in them.

19 O house of Israel, bless ye the LORD:
O house of Aaron, bless ye the LORD:

20 O house of Levi, bless ye the LORD:
Ye that fear the LORD, bless ye the LORD.

21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion,
Who dwelleth at Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>Praise ye the LORD.

136 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:

For his mercy endureth for ever.

2 O give thanks unto the God of gods:
For his mercy endureth for ever.

3 O give thanks unto the Lord of lords:
For his mercy endureth for ever.

4 To him who alone doeth great wonders:
For his mercy endureth for ever.

5 To him that by understanding made the heavens:

For his mercy endureth for ever.

6 To him that spread forth the earth

- By the rivers of Babylon,
There we sat down, yea, we wept,
When we remembered Zion.
2 Upon the willows in the midst thereof
We hanged up our harps,
3 For there they that led us captive required of us <sup>2</sup>songs,
And <sup>3</sup>they that wasted us required of
us mirth, saying,
Sing us one of the songs of Zion.
4 How shall we sing the LORD's song
In a strange land?
5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget her cunning.
6 Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth,
If I remember thee not;
If I prefer not Jerusalem
Above my chief joy.
7 Remember, O LORD, against the children of Edom

- The day of Jerusalem;
Who said, Rase it, rase it,
Even to the foundation thereof.
8 O daughter of Babylon, <sup>4</sup>that art to be destroyed;
Happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee
As thou hast served us.
9 Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones
Against the rock.

A Psalm of David.

- 1 I will give thee thanks with my whole heart:
Before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.
2 I will worship toward thy holy temple,
And give thanks unto thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth:
For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.
3 In the day that I called thou answeredst me,
Thou didst encourage me with strength in my soul.
4 All the kings of the earth shall give thee thanks, O LORD,
For they have heard the words of thy mouth.
5 Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD;
For great is the glory of the LORD.
6 For though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly:
But the haughty he knoweth from afar.
7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me;
Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies,
And thy right hand shall save me.
8 The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me:
Thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever;
Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

139 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.
2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising,
Thou understandest my thought afar off.
3 Thou <sup>5</sup>searchest out my path and my lying down,
And art acquainted with all my ways.
4 For there is not a word in my tongue,
But, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.
5 Thou hast beset me behind and before,
And laid thine hand upon me.
6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.
7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit?
Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

<sup>3</sup> Or, our tormentors<sup>4</sup> Or, that art to be wasted<sup>5</sup> Or, omniscient

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:

If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall <sup>1</sup>overwhelm me,

<sup>2</sup>And the light about me shall be
night;

12 Even the darkness hideth not from
thee,

But the night shineth as the day:
The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast <sup>3</sup>possessed my reins:
Thou hast <sup>4</sup>covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will give thanks unto thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:

Wonderful are thy works;
And that my soul knoweth right well.

15 My frame was not hidden from thee,
When I was made in secret,
And curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see mine unperfect substance,

And in thy book <sup>5</sup>were all my members written,

Which day by day were fashioned,
When as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!

How great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:

When I awake, I am still with thee.

19 <sup>6</sup>Surely thou wilt slay the wicked,
O God:

Depart from me therefore, ye bloodthirsty men.

20 For they <sup>7</sup>speak against thee wickedly,
And thine enemies <sup>8</sup>take thy name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate
thee?

And <sup>9</sup>am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred:

I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart:
Try me, and know my thoughts:

24 And see if there be any way of <sup>10</sup>wickedness in me,

And lead me in the way everlasting.

140 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil
man;

Preserve me from the violent man:

2 Which imagine mischiefs in their
heart;

Continually do they <sup>11</sup>gather themselves together for war.

3 They have sharpened their tongue like a serpent;

Adders' poison is under their lips. [Selah]

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of
the wicked;

Preserve me from the violent man:
Who have purposed to thrust aside
my steps.

5 The proud have hid a snare for me,
and cords;

They have spread a net by the way side;

They have set gins for me. [Selah]

6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my
God:

Give ear unto the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O God the LORD, the strength of my salvation,

Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;

Further not his evil device; lest they exalt themselves. [Selah]

9 As for the head of those that compass me about,

Let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

10 Let burning coals fall upon them:

Let them be cast into the fire;
Into <sup>12</sup>deep pits, that they rise not up again.

11 <sup>13</sup>An evil speaker shall not be established in the earth:

Evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted,

And the right of the needy.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name:

The upright shall dwell in thy presence.

141 A Psalm of David.

1 LORD, I have called upon thee; make haste unto me:

Give ear unto my voice, when I call
unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth as incense
before thee;

The lifting up of my hands as the evening <sup>14</sup>sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth;
Keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing,
To be occupied in deeds of wickedness

With men that work iniquity:

And let me not eat of their dainties.

5 Let the righteous smite me, it shall be

142 Maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a Prayer.

1 I cry with my voice unto the LORD;
With my voice unto the LORD do I make supplication.

2 I pour out my complaint before him; I shew before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit <sup>5</sup>was overwhelmed within me, thou knewest my path.
In the way wherein I walk have they hidden a snare for me.

4 <sup>6</sup>Look on my right hand, and see; for there is no man that knoweth me:
Refuge hath failed me; no man careth for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD;
I said, Thou art my refuge.
My portion in the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low:
Deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks unto thy name:
The righteous shall <sup>7</sup>compass me about;
For thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

143 A Psalm of David.

1 Hear my prayer, O LORD; give ear to my supplications:

In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And enter not into judgement with thy servant;
For in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul;
He hath smitten my life down to the ground:

He hath made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.

4 Therefore <sup>8</sup>is my spirit overwhelmed within me;

My heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all thy doings:
I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 I spread forth my hands unto thee:

My soul thirsteth after thee, as a weary land.

7 Make haste to answer me, O LORD; my spirit faileth:

Hide not thy face from me;
Lest I become like them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning;

For in thee do I trust:

Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk;

For I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies:
<sup>9</sup>I flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God:

<sup>10</sup>Thy spirit is good; lead me in <sup>11</sup>the land of uprightness.

11 Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake:

In thy righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And in thy lovingkindness cut off mine enemies,
And destroy all them that afflict my soul;
For I am thy servant.

144 A Psalm of David.

1 Blessed be the LORD my rock,
Which teacheth my hands to war,
And my fingers to fight:

2 My lovingkindness, and my fortress,
My high tower, and my deliverer;
My shield, and he in whom I trust;
Who subdueth my people under me.

3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him?

Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him?

4 Man is like to <sup>12</sup>vanity:

His days are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down:

Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them;
Send out thine arrows, and discomfit them.

7 Stretch forth thine hand from above;
Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,

Out of the hand of strangers;

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God:
Upon a psaltery of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings:
Who rescueth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hand of strangers,

Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

145 A Psalm of praise; of David.

1 I will extol thee, my God, O King;
And I will bless thy name for ever and
ever.
2 Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.
3 Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
4 One generation shall laud thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
5 Of the glorious majesty of thine honour,
And of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.
6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts;
And I will declare thy greatness.
7 They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.
8 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion;
Slow to anger, and of great mercy.
9 The LORD is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
10 All thy works shall give thanks unto
thee, O LORD;
And thy saints shall bless thee.
11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power;
12 To make known to the sons of men
his mighty acts,
And the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that be bowed
down.
15 The eyes of all wait upon thee;
And thou givest them their meat in due season.
16 Thou openest thine hand,
And <sup>2</sup>satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways,
And gracious in all his works.

18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
To all that call upon him in truth.
19 He will fulfil the desire of them that
fear him;
He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him;
But all the wicked will he destroy.
21 My mouth shall speak the praise of
the LORD;
And let all flesh bless his holy name
for ever and ever.

5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in the LORD his God:
6 Which made heaven and earth,
The sea, and all that in them is;
Which keepeth truth for ever:
7 Which executeth judgement for the oppressed;
Which giveth food to the hungry:
The LORD looseth the prisoners;
8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind;
The LORD raiseth up them that are bowed down;
The LORD loveth the righteous;
9 The LORD preserveth the strangers;
He upholdeth the fatherless and widow;
But the way of the wicked he <sup>5</sup>turn-

Who prepareth rain for the earth, Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

- 9 He giveth to the beast his food,
And to the young ravens which cry.
10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse:

He pleaseth not in the legs of a man.

- 11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them
that fear him,

In those that hope in his mercy.

- 12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; Praise thy God, O Zion.

- 13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;

He hath blessed thy children within
thee.

- 14<sup>1</sup> He maketh peace in thy borders;
He filleth thee with the <sup>2</sup>finest of the wheat.

- 15 He sendeth out his commandment
upon earth;

His word runneth very swiftly.

- 16 He giveth snow like wool;
He scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

- 17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels:
Who can stand before his cold?

- 18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth
them:

He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

- 19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob,
His statutes and his judgements unto Israel.

- 20 He hath not dealt so with any nation:
And as for his judgements, they have not known them.

<sup>3</sup> Praise ye the LORD.

Praise ye the LORD from the heavens:
Praise him in the heights.

- 4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,

And ye waters that be above the

- 5 Let them praise the name of the LORD:
For he commanded, and they were

He hath made a decree <sup>4</sup>which shall

Creeping things and flying fowl:

- 11 Kings of the earth and all peoples;

Princes and all judges of the earth:

- 12 Both young men and maidens;

Old men and children:

- 13 Let them praise the name of the LORD;

For his name alone is exalted:

His glory is above the earth and heaven.

- 14 And he hath lifted up <sup>6</sup>the horn of his people,

The praise of all his saints;

Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.

<sup>8</sup> Praise ye the LORD.

Sing unto the LORD a new song,

And his praise in the assembly of the saints.

him:

Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

- 3 Let them praise his name in the dance:
Let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

- 4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his
people:

He will beautify the meek with <sup>7</sup>salvation.

- 5 Let the saints exult in glory:

Let them sing for joy upon their beds.

- 6 Let the high praises of God be in their <sup>8</sup>mouth,

And a two-edged sword in their hand;

- 7 To execute vengeance upon the nations,
And punishments upon the peoples;

- 8 To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron;

Praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with stringed instruments

THE PROVERBS.

1 THE proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

2 To know wisdom and instruction;
To discern the words of understanding;

3 To receive instruction in wise dealing,
In righteousness and judgement and equity;

4 To give <sup>1</sup>subtily to the simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion:

5 That the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;
And that the man of understanding may attain unto sound counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and <sup>2</sup>a figure:
The words of the wise, and their <sup>3</sup>dark sayings.

7 The fear of the LORD is the <sup>4</sup>beginning of knowledge:
But the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father,
And forsake not the <sup>5</sup>law of thy mother:

9 For they shall be a chaplet of grace unto thy head,
And chains about thy neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice thee,
Consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us,
Let us lay wait for blood,
Let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause;

12 Let us swallow them up alive as <sup>6</sup>Sheol,
<sup>7</sup>And whole, as those that go down into the pit;

13 We shall find all precious substance,
We shall fill our houses with spoil;

14 <sup>8</sup>Thou shalt cast thy lot among us;
We will all have one purse:

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them;
Refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed blood.

17 For in vain <sup>9</sup>is the net spread,
In the eyes of any bird:

18 And these lay wait for their own blood,
They lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain;
It taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 Wisdom crieth aloud in the street;
She uttereth her voice in the broad places;

21 She crieth <sup>10</sup>in the chief place of concourse;

At the entering in of the gates,
In the city, she uttereth her words:

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity?
And scorners delight them in scorning,
And fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof:
Behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you,
I will make known my words unto you.

24 Because I have called, and ye refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel,
And would none of my reproof:

26 I also will laugh in the day of your calamity;

I will mock when your fear cometh;
27 When your fear cometh as <sup>11</sup>a storm,
And your calamity cometh on as a whirlwind;

When distress and anguish come upon you.

28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer;

They shall seek me <sup>12</sup>diligently, but they shall not find me:

29 For that they hated knowledge,
And did not choose the fear of the LORD:

30 They would none of my counsel;
They despised all my reproof:

31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way,
And be filled with their own devices.

32 For the backsliding of the simple shall slay them,
And the <sup>13</sup>prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell securely,
And shall be quiet without fear of evil.

2 My son, if thou wilt receive my words,
And lay up my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom,
And apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou cry after discernment,
And lift up thy voice for understanding;

4 If thou seek her as silver,
And search for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.

6 For the LORD giveth wisdom;

<sup>10</sup> Heb. at the head of the way street.

<sup>13</sup> Or, careless case

Out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding:

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the upright,

<sup>1</sup> He is a shield to them that walk in integrity;

8 <sup>2</sup> That he may guard the paths of judgement,

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness and judgement, And equity, yea, every good path.

10 For wisdom shall enter into thine heart, And knowledge shall be pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall watch over thee, Understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of <sup>4</sup> evil, From the men that speak froward things;

13 Who forsake the paths of uprightness, To walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, And delight in the frowardness of <sup>4</sup> evil;

15 Who are crooked in their ways, And perverse in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the strange woman,

Even from the stranger which <sup>5</sup> flat-tereth with her words;

17 Which forsaketh the <sup>6</sup> friend of her youth, And forgetteth the covenant of her God:

18 For <sup>7</sup> her house inclineth unto death, And her paths unto <sup>8</sup> the dead:

19 None that go unto her return again, Neither do they attain unto the paths of life:

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, And keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright shall dwell in the <sup>9</sup> land,

And the perfect shall remain in it.

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the <sup>9</sup> land,

And they that deal treacherously shall be rooted out of it.

3 My son, forget not my <sup>10</sup> law; But let thine heart keep my commandments:

2 For length of days, and years of life, And peace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not <sup>11</sup> mercy and truth forsake thee: Bind them about thy neck;

Write them upon the table of thine heart:

4 So shalt thou find favour and <sup>12</sup> good understanding In the sight of God and man.

5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart, And lean not upon thine own under- standing:

6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, And he shall <sup>13</sup> direct thy paths.

7 Be not wise in thine own eyes;

Fear the LORD, and depart from evil:

8 It shall be health to thy navel, And <sup>14</sup> marrow to thy bones.

9 Honour the LORD with thy substance, And with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, And thy fats shall overflow with new wine.

11 My son, despise not the <sup>15</sup> chastening of the LORD;

Neither be weary of his reproof:

12 For whom the LORD loveth he re- proveth;

Even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 Happy is the man that findeth wis- dom,

And the man that <sup>16</sup> getteth under- standing.

14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver,

And the gain thereof than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than <sup>17</sup> rubies:

And none of the things thou canst de- sire are to be compared unto her.

16 Length of days is in her right hand;

In her left hand are riches and honour.

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace.

18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her:

And happy is every one that retaineth her.

19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth;

By understanding he established the heavens.

20 By his knowledge the depths were broken up,

And the skies drop down the dew.

21 My son, let not them depart from thine eyes;

Keep sound wisdom and discretion;

22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, And grace to thy neck.

23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way securely,

And <sup>18</sup> thy foot shall not stumble.

24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid:

Yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

25 Be not afraid of sudden fear, Neither of the <sup>19</sup> desolation of the wicked, when it cometh:

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, And shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due,

When it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, And to-morrow I will give;

When thou hast it by thee.

29 Devise not evil against thy neighbour,
Seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.
30 Strive not with a man without cause,
If he have done thee no harm.
31 Envy thou not the man of violence,
And choose none of his ways.
32 For the perverse is an abomination to
the LORD:
But his <sup>1</sup> secret is with the upright.
33 The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked;
But he blesseth the habitation of the
righteous.
34 <sup>2</sup> Surely he scorneth the scorers,
<sup>3</sup> But he giveth grace unto the lowly.
35 The wise shall inherit glory;
But <sup>4</sup> shame shall be the promotion of fools.
4 Hear, my sons, the instruction of a father,
And attend to know understanding:
2 For I give you good doctrine;
Forsake ye not my <sup>5</sup> law.
3 For I was a son unto my father, Tender and <sup>6</sup> only-beloved in the sight of my mother.
4 And he taught me, and said unto me,
Let thine heart retain my words;
Keep my commandments, and live:
5 Get wisdom, get understanding; Forget it not, neither decline from the words of my mouth:
6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve
thee;
Love her, and she shall keep thee.
7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom:
Yea, with all thou hast gotten get understanding.
8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee:
She shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.
9 She shall give to thine head a chaplet of grace:
A crown of <sup>8</sup> beauty shall she deliver to
thee.
10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings;
And the years of thy life shall be many.
11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom;
I have led thee in paths of uprightness.
12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened;
And if thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.
13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go:
Keep her; for she is thy life.
14 Enter not into the path of the wicked,
And walk not in the way of evil men.
15 Avoid it, pass not by it;
Turn from it, and pass on.
16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief;
And their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
And drink the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the righteous is as <sup>9</sup> the shining light,
That shineth more and more unto the perfect day.
19 The way of the wicked is as darkness:
They know not at what they stumble.
20 My son, attend to my words;
Incline thine ear unto my sayings.
21 Let them not depart from thine eyes;
Keep them in the midst of thine heart.
22 For they are life unto those that find
them,
And health to all their flesh.
23 Keep thy heart <sup>10</sup> with all diligence;
For out of it are the issues of life.
24 Put away from thee a froward mouth,
And perverse lips put far from thee.
25 Let thine eyes look right on,
And let thine eyelids look straight
before thee.
26 <sup>11</sup> Make level the path of thy feet,
And let all thy ways be <sup>12</sup> established.
27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left:
Remove thy foot from evil.
5 My son, attend unto my wisdom;
Incline thine ear to my understanding:
2 That thou mayest preserve discretion,
And that thy lips may keep knowledge.
3 For the lips of a strange woman drop honey,
And her mouth is smoother than oil:
4 But her latter end is bitter as wormwood,
Sharp as a two-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death;
Her steps take hold on <sup>13</sup> Sheol;
6 <sup>14</sup> So that she findeth not the level path
of life:
Her ways are unstable and <sup>15</sup> she knoweth it not.
7 Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto
me,
And depart not from the words of my mouth.
8 Remove thy way far from her,
And come not nigh the door of her
house:
9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others,
And thy years unto the cruel:
10 Lest strangers be filled with thy <sup>16</sup> strength;
And thy labours be in the house of an alien;
11 And thou <sup>17</sup> mourn at thy latter end,
When thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

<sup>1</sup> Or, Let 16<sup>1</sup> Should thy springs be dispersed abroad,

And rivers of water in the streets?

17 Let them be for thyself alone,
And not for strangers with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed;

And rejoice in the wife of thy youth.

19 As a loving hind and a pleasant doe,
Let her breasts satisfy thee at all times;

And <sup>2</sup> be thou ravished always with her love.

20 For why shouldest thou, my son, <sup>2</sup> be ravished with a strange woman,
And embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,

And he <sup>3</sup> maketh level all his paths.

<sup>3</sup> Or, weigheth carefully

22 His own iniquities shall take the wicked,
And he shall be holden with the cords of his sin.

23 He shall die for lack of instruction;
And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

6 My son, if thou art become surety for thy neighbour,

<sup>4</sup> Or, thy hand with a stranger

If thou hast stricken <sup>4</sup> thy hands for a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth,

Thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself,

Seeing thou art come into the hand of thy neighbour;

<sup>5</sup> Or, bestir

Go, <sup>5</sup> humble thyself, and importune thy neighbour.

4 Give not sleep to thine eyes,
Nor slumber to thine eyelids.

<sup>6</sup> Or, gazelle

5 Deliver thyself as a <sup>6</sup> roe from the hand of the hunter,

And as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 Go to the ant, thou sluggard;
Consider her ways, and be wise;

<sup>7</sup> Or, judge

7 Which having no <sup>7</sup> chief, Overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer,
And gathereth her food in the harvest.

<sup>8</sup> Heb. lie down.

9 How long wilt thou <sup>8</sup> sleep, O sluggard?

When wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,

A little folding of the hands to <sup>9</sup> sleep:

<sup>9</sup> Or, rover

11 So shall thy poverty come as a <sup>9</sup> robber,

And thy want as <sup>10</sup> an armed man.

<sup>11</sup> Or, shuffeth

12 A worthless person, a man of iniquity;
He walketh with a froward mouth;

<sup>12</sup> Or, teacheth

13 He winketh with his eyes, he <sup>11</sup> speaketh with his feet,

He <sup>12</sup> maketh signs with his fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth evil continually;

He <sup>13</sup> soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly;

On a sudden shall he be broken, and that without remedy.

16 There be six things which the LORD hateth;

Yea, seven which are an abomination <sup>14</sup> unto him:

17 Haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
And hands that shed innocent blood;

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations,

Feet that be swift in running to mischief;

19 A false witness that <sup>15</sup> uttereth lies,
And he that <sup>16</sup> soweth discord among brethren.

20 My son, keep the commandment of thy father,

And forsake not the <sup>16</sup> law of thy mother:

21 Bind them continually upon thine heart,
Tie them about thy neck.

22 When thou walkest, it shall lead thee;
When thou <sup>17</sup> sleepest, it shall watch over thee;

And when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 For <sup>18</sup> the commandment is a lamp;
and <sup>19</sup> the law is light;

And reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 To keep thee from the evil woman,
From the flattery of the stranger's tongue.

25 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart;

Neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

26 For on account of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread:

And <sup>20</sup> the adulteress hunteth for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom,
And his clothes not be burned?

28 Or can one walk upon hot coals,
And his feet not be scorched?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife;

Whosoever toucheth her shall not be <sup>21</sup> unpunished.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal
To satisfy his soul when he is hungry:

31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold;

He shall give all the substance of his house.

32 He that committeth adultery with a woman is void of <sup>22</sup> understanding:

He doeth it that would destroy his own soul.

33 Wounds and dishonour shall he get;
And his reproach shall not be wiped away.

strange woman,
From the stranger which <sup>3</sup>flattereth with her words.

6 For at the window of my house
I looked forth through my lattice;

7 And I beheld among the simple ones,
I discerned among the youths,

A young man void of understanding,
8 Passing through the street near her corner,

And he went the way to her house;
9 In the twilight, in the evening of the day,

In the <sup>4</sup>blackness of night and the darkness.

10 And, behold, there met him a woman
With the attire of an harlot, and <sup>5</sup>wily of heart.

11 She is <sup>6</sup>clamorous and wilful;
Her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now she is in the streets, now in the broad places,

And lieth in wait at every corner.
13 So she caught him, and kissed him,

<sup>7</sup>And with an impudent face she said
unto him:

14 Sacrifices of peace offerings <sup>8</sup>are with
me;

This day have I paid my vows.
15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee,

Diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have spread my couch with <sup>9</sup>carpets of tapestry,

With striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.

17 I have <sup>10</sup>perfumed my bed
With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until
the morning;

Let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the Goodman is not at home,
He is gone a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him;
He will come home at the full moon.

21 With her much fair speech she causeth him to yield,

With the flattering of her lips she foreth him away.

22 He goeth after her <sup>11</sup>straightway,
As an ox goeth to the slaughter,

Or as <sup>12</sup>fetters to the correction of the fool;

23 Till an arrow strike through his liver;
As a bird hasteth to the snare,

And knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto
me,

And attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways,
Go not astray in her paths.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded:

Yea, all her slain are a mighty host.

27 Her house is the way to <sup>13</sup>Sheol,
Going down to the chambers of death.

8 Doth not wisdom cry,
And understanding put forth her voice?

2 In the top of high places by the way,

Where the paths meet, she standeth;

3 Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,

At the coming in at the doors, she crieth aloud:

4 Unto you, O men, I call;

And my voice is to the sons of men.

5 O ye simple, understand <sup>14</sup>subtily;

And, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things;
And the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall utter truth;
And wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth <sup>15</sup>are in
righteousness;

There is nothing crooked or perverse
in them.

9 They are all plain to him that under-standeth,

And right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver;
And knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than <sup>16</sup>rubies;
And all the things that may be desired are not to be compared unto her.

12 I wisdom have made <sup>14</sup>subtily my dwelling,

And find out <sup>17</sup>knowledge and discretion.

13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil:
Pride, and arrogance, and the evil way,

And the froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and <sup>18</sup>sound knowledge:

I am understanding; I have might.

15 By me kings reign,
And princes decree justice.

16 By me <sup>19</sup>princes rule,
And nobles, even all the judges <sup>20</sup>of
the earth.

17 I love them that love me;
And those that seek me <sup>21</sup>diligently shall find me.

18 Riches and honour are with me;
Yea, <sup>22</sup>durable riches and righteousness.

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold;
And my <sup>1</sup>revenue than choice silver.
20 I walk in the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of judgement:
21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance,
And that I may fill their treasures.
22 The LORD <sup>2</sup>possessed me <sup>3</sup>in the beginning of his way, <sup>4</sup>Before his works of old.
23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
Or ever the earth was.
24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth;
When there were no fountains abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills was I brought forth:
26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,
Nor the <sup>5</sup>beginning of the dust of the world.
27 When he <sup>6</sup>established the heavens, I was there:
When he set a circle upon the face of the deep:
28 When he made firm the skies above:
When the fountains of the deep became strong:
29 When he gave to the sea <sup>7</sup>its bound,
That the waters should not transgress his commandment:
When he <sup>8</sup>marked out the foundations of the earth:
30 Then I was by him, as a master workman:
And I <sup>9</sup>was daily his delight,
<sup>10</sup>Rejoicing always before him;
31 <sup>10</sup>Rejoicing in his habitable earth;
And my delight was with the sons of men.
32 Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto me:
For blessed are they that keep my ways.
33 Hear instruction, and be wise,
And refuse it not.
34 Blessed is the man that heareth me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.
35 For whoso findeth me findeth life,
And shall <sup>11</sup>obtain favour of the LORD.
36 But he that <sup>12</sup>sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul:
All they that hate me love death.

9 Wisdom hath builded her house,
She hath hewn out her seven pillars:
2 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine;
She hath also furnished her table.
3 She hath sent forth her maidens, she crieth
Upon the highest places of the city,
4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither:
As for him that is void of understanding, she saith to him,
5 Come, eat ye of my bread,

And drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 <sup>13</sup>Leave off, ye simple ones, and live;
And walk in the way of understanding.

7 He that correcteth a scorner getteth to himself shame:

And he that reproveth a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee:
Reprove a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser:

Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom:

And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied,
And the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou art wise, thou art wise for thyself:

And if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 <sup>14</sup>The foolish woman is clamorous;
She is <sup>15</sup>simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 And she sitteth at the door of her house,

On a seat in the high places of the city, 15 To call to them that pass by,

Who go right on their ways,
16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither:

And as for him that is void of understanding, she saith to him,

17 Stolen waters are sweet,
And bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that <sup>16</sup>the dead are there;

That her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

10 The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son maketh a glad father:
But a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing:
But righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish:

But he thrusteth away the desire of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand:

But the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is <sup>17a</sup>a wise son:

But he that sleepeth in harvest is a son <sup>18</sup>that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the righteous:

But <sup>19</sup>violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

<sup>13</sup> Heb. addeth.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments:

But <sup>1</sup>a prating fool <sup>2</sup>shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely:

But he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow:

<sup>3</sup> But <sup>1</sup>a prating fool <sup>2</sup>shall fall.

11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life:

But <sup>4</sup>violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes:

But love covereth all transgressions.

13 In the lips of him that hath discernment wisdom is found:

But a rod is for the back of him that is void of <sup>5</sup>understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge:

But the mouth of the foolish is a present destruction.

15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city:

The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life;

The increase of the wicked to sin.

17 He <sup>6</sup>is in the way of life that heedeth <sup>7</sup>correction:

But he that forsaketh reproof <sup>8</sup>erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred is of lying lips;

And he that uttereth a slander is a fool.

19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not transgression:

But he that refraineth his lips <sup>9</sup>doeth wisely.

20 The tongue of the righteous is as choice silver:

The heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many:

But the foolish die for lack of <sup>5</sup>understanding.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich,

And <sup>10</sup>he addeth no sorrow therewith.

23 It is as sport to a fool to do wickedness:

<sup>11</sup> And so is wisdom to a man of understanding.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him:

And the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 <sup>12</sup> When the whirlwind passeth, the wicked is no more:

But the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,

So is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD <sup>13</sup>prolongeth days:

But the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness:

But the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is a strong hold to the upright;

But <sup>14</sup>it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed:

But the wicked shall not dwell in the <sup>15</sup>land.

31 The mouth of the righteous <sup>16</sup>bringeth forth wisdom:

But the froward tongue shall be cut off.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable:

But the mouth of the wicked <sup>17</sup>*speake*th frowardness.

11 <sup>18</sup> A false balance is an abomination to the LORD:

But a just weight is his delight.

2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame:

But with the lowly is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them:

But the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.

4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath:

But righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall <sup>19</sup>direct his way:

But the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them:

But they that deal treacherously shall be taken in their own mischief.

7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish:

And the hope of <sup>20</sup>iniquity perisheth.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble,

And the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 With his mouth the godless man destroyeth his neighbour:

But through knowledge shall the righteous be delivered.

10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth:

And when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted:

But it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that despiseth his neighbour is void of <sup>5</sup>wisdom:

But a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 He that goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets:

But he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

15 He that is surety for a stranger <sup>1</sup> shall smart for it:

16 A gracious woman retaineth honour: And violent men retain riches.

17 The merciful man doeth good to his own soul:

But he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked earneth deceitful wages: But he that soweth righteousness hath a sure reward.

19 <sup>3</sup> He that is stedfast in righteousness shall attain unto life:

And he that pursueth evil doeth it to his own death.

20 They that are perverse in heart are an abomination to the LORD:

But such as are perfect in their way are his delight.

21 <sup>4</sup> Though hand join in hand, the evil man shall not be unpunished:

But the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a <sup>5</sup> jewel of gold in a swine's snout, So is a fair woman which <sup>6</sup> is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: But the expectation of the wicked is <sup>7</sup> wrath.

24 There is that scattereth, and increaseth yet more;

And there is that withholdeth <sup>8</sup> more than is meet, but it tendeth only to want.

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat: And he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him:

But blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good seeketh favour:

But he that searcheth after mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: But the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind:

And the foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life;

And he that is wise winneth souls.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth:

How much more the wicked and the sinner!

12 Whoso loveth <sup>9</sup> correction loveth knowledge:

But he that hateth reproof is brutish.

2 A good man shall obtain favour of the LORD:

But a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness:

But the root of the righteous shall never be moved.

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband:

But she that <sup>10</sup> maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are <sup>11</sup> just:

But the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked <sup>12</sup> are of lying in wait for blood:

But the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7 <sup>13</sup> The wicked are overthrown, and are not:

But the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom:

But he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

9 Better is he that is lightly esteemed, and hath a servant,

Than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast:

But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread:

But he that followeth after <sup>14</sup> vain persons is void of understanding.

12 The wicked desireth <sup>15</sup> the net of evil men:

But the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 In the transgression of the lips is <sup>16</sup> a snare to the evil man:

But the righteous shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth:

And the doings of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

15 The way of the foolish is right in his own eyes:

But he that is wise hearkeneth unto counsel.

16 A fool's vexation is <sup>17</sup> presently known: But a prudent man concaleth shame.

17 He that <sup>18</sup> uttereth truth sheweth forth righteousness,

But a false witness deceit.

18 There is that speaketh rashly like the piercings of a sword:

But the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever:

But a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that devise evil:

But to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no mischief happen to the righteous:

But the wicked shall be filled with evil.

<sup>18</sup> Heb. breatheth out.

But they that deal truly are his delight.
 23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge:
 But the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.
 24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule:
 But <sup>1</sup>the slothful shall be put under taskwork.
 25 <sup>2</sup>Heaviness in the heart of a man maketh it stoop;
 But a good word maketh it glad.
 26 The righteous is a guide to his neighbour:
 But the way of the wicked causeth them to err.
 27 <sup>3</sup>The slothful man <sup>3</sup>roasteth not that which he took in hunting:
 But the precious substance of men <sup>4</sup>is to the diligent.
 28 In the way of righteousness is life;
 And in the pathway thereof there is no death.
 13 A wise son <sup>5</sup>heareth his father's <sup>5</sup>instruction:
 But a scorner heareth not rebuke.
 2 A man shall eat good <sup>6</sup>by the fruit of his mouth:
 But <sup>7</sup>the soul of the treacherous shall eat violence.
 3 He that guardeth his mouth keepeth his life:
 But he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.
 4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing:
 But the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.
 5 A righteous man hateth lying:
 But a wicked man <sup>8</sup>is loathsome, and cometh to shame.
 6 Righteousness guardeth <sup>9</sup>him that is upright in the way:
 But wickedness overthroweth <sup>10</sup>the sinner.
 7 There is that <sup>11</sup>maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing:
 There is that <sup>12</sup>maketh himself poor, yet hath great wealth.
 8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches:
 But the poor heareth no <sup>12</sup>threatening.
 9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth:
 But the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
 10 By pride cometh only contention:
 But with the well advised is wisdom.
 11 Wealth gotten <sup>13</sup>by vanity shall be diminished:
 But he that gathereth <sup>14</sup>by labour shall have increase.
 12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick:
 But when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.
 13 Whoso despiseth <sup>15</sup>the word <sup>16</sup>bringeth destruction on himself:
 But he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.
 14 The <sup>17</sup>law of the wise is a fountain of life,
 To depart from the snares of death.
 15 Good understanding <sup>18</sup>giveth favour:

But the way of the treacherous is rugged.
 16 Every prudent man worketh with knowledge:
 But a fool spreadeth out folly.
 17 A wicked messenger falleth into evil:
 But a faithful ambassador is health.
 18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth <sup>19</sup>correction:
 But he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.
 19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul:
 But it is an abomination to fools to depart from evil.
 20 <sup>20</sup>Walk with wise men, and thou shalt be wise:
 But the companion of fools shall <sup>21</sup>smart for it.
 21 Evil pursueth sinners:
 But the righteous shall be recompensed with good.
 22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children;
 And the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the righteous.
 23 Much food is in the <sup>22</sup>tillage of the poor:
 But there is that is destroyed by reason of injustice.
 24 He that spareth his rod hateth his son:
 But he that loveth him chasteneth him <sup>23</sup>betimes.
 25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul:
 But the belly of the wicked shall want.
 14 Every wise woman buildeth her house:
 But <sup>24</sup>the foolish plucketh it down with her own hands.
 2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD:
 But he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.
 3 In the mouth of the foolish is a <sup>25</sup>rod <sup>26</sup>of pride:
 But the lips of the wise shall preserve them.
 4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean:
 But much increase is by the strength of the ox.
 5 A faithful witness will not lie:
 But a false witness <sup>27</sup>uttereth lies.
 6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and <sup>28</sup>findeth it not:
 But knowledge is easy unto him that hath understanding.
 7 <sup>28</sup>Go into the presence of a foolish man,
 And thou shalt not perceive in him the lips of knowledge.
 8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way:
 But the folly of fools is deceit.
 9 <sup>29</sup>The foolish make a mock at <sup>30</sup>guilt:
 But among the upright there is <sup>31</sup>good will.

<sup>20</sup> According to another reading, He that walketh with wise men shall be wise.

<sup>27</sup> Heb. breatheth out.

<sup>28</sup> Or, Go from . . . for thou wilt not see.

<sup>1</sup> Or, is straight before

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown:

But the tent of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which <sup>1</sup> seemeth right unto a man,
But the end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful;
And the end of mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways:

And a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word:
But the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil:
But the fool beareth himself insolently, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry will deal foolishly:
And a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly:
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good;
And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour:

But the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth:
But he that hath pity on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil?
But mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit:
But the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches:
But the folly of fools is only folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls:
But he that <sup>4</sup> uttereth lies causeth deceit.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence:

And <sup>5</sup> his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,

To depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's glory:

But in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to anger is of great understanding:

But he that is hasty of spirit <sup>6</sup> exalteth folly.

30 A <sup>7</sup> sound heart is the life of the flesh:
But <sup>8</sup> envy is the rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker:

But he that hath mercy on the needy honoureth him.

32 The wicked is thrust down in his <sup>9</sup> evil-doing:

But the righteous <sup>10</sup> hath hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding:

<sup>11</sup> But that which is in the inward part of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation:

But sin is a reproach to <sup>12</sup> any people.

35 The king's favour is toward a servant that dealth wisely:

But his wrath shall be against him that <sup>13</sup> causeth shame.

15 A soft answer turneth away wrath:
But a grievous word stirreth up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise uttereth knowledge aright:

But the mouth of fools poureth out folly.

3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
Keeping watch upon the evil and the good.

4 <sup>14</sup> A wholesome tongue is a tree of life:
But perverseness therein is a breaking of the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's <sup>15</sup> correction:

But he that regardeth reproof <sup>16</sup> getteth prudence.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure:

But in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge:
But the heart of the foolish <sup>17</sup> doeth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD:

But the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD:

But he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

10 There is grievous correction for him that forsaketh the way:

And he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 <sup>18</sup> Sheol and <sup>19</sup> Abaddon are before the LORD:

How much more then the hearts of the children of men!

12 A scorner loveth not to be reproved:
He will not go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance:

But by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge:

But the mouth of fools feedeth on folly.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil:
But he that is of a cheerful heart hath

a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD,
Than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a <sup>20</sup> dinner of herbs where love is,

Than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

<sup>19</sup> Or, hath a refuge

<sup>16</sup> Or, dealeth prudently

<sup>9</sup> Or, calamity

18 A wrathful man stirreth up contention:
But he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the sluggard is as an hedge of thorns:
But the path of the upright is made an high way.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father:
But a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is void of wisdom:
But a man of understanding maketh straight his going.

22 Where there is no counsel, purposes are disappointed:
But in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy in the answer of his mouth:
And a word in due season, how good is it!

24 To the wise the way of life goeth upward,
That he may depart from <sup>2</sup>Sheol beneath.

25 The LORD will root up the house of the proud:
But he will establish the border of the widow.

26 Evil devices are an abomination to the LORD:
But <sup>3</sup>pleasant words are pure.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house:
But he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer:
But the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far from the wicked:
But he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart:
And good tidings make the bones fat.

31 The ear that hearkeneth to the reproof of life
Shall abide among the wise.

32 He that refuseth <sup>4</sup>correction despiseth his own soul:
But he that hearkeneth to reproof getteth <sup>1</sup>understanding.

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom;
And before honour goeth humility.

16 The <sup>5</sup>preparations of the heart belong to man:
But the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes:
But the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 <sup>6</sup>Commit thy works unto the LORD,
And thy <sup>7</sup>thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made every thing for <sup>8</sup>its own end:
Yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD:

<sup>9</sup> Though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is <sup>10</sup>purged:
And by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the LORD,
He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness
Than great revenues with injustice.

9 A man's heart deviseth his way:
But the LORD directeth his steps.

10 <sup>11</sup>A divine sentence is in the lips of the king:
His mouth shall not transgress in judgement.

11 A just balance and scales are the LORD's:
All the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness:
For the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings;
And they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death:
But a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life;
And his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold!

Yea, to get understanding is rather to be chosen than silver.

17 The high way of the upright is to depart from evil:
He that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction,
And an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of a lowly spirit with the <sup>12</sup>poor,
Than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that <sup>13</sup>giveth heed unto <sup>14</sup>the word shall find good:

And whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent:

And the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it:

But the correction of fools is their folly.

23 The heart of the wise instructeth his mouth,

And addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as an honeycomb,

Sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 <sup>15</sup>There is a way which <sup>16</sup>seemeth right unto a man,

But the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 The appetite of the labouring man laboureth for him;

<sup>8</sup> Or, desire without knowledge is not good

<sup>9</sup> Or, misseeth his way

6 A fool's lips <sup>1</sup>enter into contention,
And his mouth calleth for stripes.
7 A fool's mouth is his destruction,
And his lips are the snare of his soul.
8 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
And they go down into the <sup>2</sup>innermost parts of the belly.
9 He also that is slack in his work
Is brother to him that is a destroyer.
10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower:
The righteous runneth into it, and <sup>3</sup>is safe.
11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
And as an high wall in his own imagination.
12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty,
And before honour goeth humility.
13 He that giveth answer before he heareth,
It is folly and shame unto him.
14 The fear of a man will sustain his infirmity;
But a broken spirit who can <sup>4</sup>bear?
15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge;
And the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.
16 A man's gift maketh room for him,
And bringeth him before great men.
17 He that pleadeth his cause first seemeth just;
But his neighbour cometh and searcheth him out.
18 The lot causeth contentions to cease,
And parteth between the mighty.
19 A brother <sup>5</sup>offended is harder to be won than a strong city:
And such contentions are like the bars of a castle.
20 A man's belly shall be filled with the fruit of his mouth;
With the increase of his lips shall he be satisfied.
21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue;
And they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.
22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing,
And obtaineth favour of the LORD.
23 The poor useth intreaties:
But the rich answereth roughly.
24 <sup>6</sup>He that maketh many friends doeth it to his own destruction:
But there is a <sup>7</sup>friend that sticketh closer than a brother.
19 Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity
Than he that is perverse in his lips and is a fool.
2 Also, <sup>8</sup>that the soul be without knowledge is not good;
And he that hasteth with his feet <sup>9</sup>sinneth.
3 The foolishness of man subverteth his way;
And his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 Wealth addeth many friends:
But <sup>10</sup>the poor is separated from his friend.
5 A false witness shall not be unpunished;
And he that <sup>11</sup>uttereth lies shall not escape.
6 Many will intreat the favour of <sup>12</sup>the liberal man:
And every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.
7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him:
How much more do his friends go far from him!
<sup>13</sup>He pursueth them with words, but they are gone.
8 He that getteth <sup>14</sup>wisdom loveth his own soul:
He that keepeth understanding shall find good.
9 A false witness shall not be unpunished;
And he that <sup>11</sup>uttereth lies shall perish.
10 Delicate living is not seemly for a fool;
Much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
11 The discretion of a man maketh him slow to anger;
And it is his glory to pass over a transgression.
12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion;
But his favour is as dew upon the grass.
13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father:
And the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.
14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers:
But a prudent wife is from the LORD.
15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep;
And the idle soul shall suffer hunger.
16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his soul:
But he that <sup>15</sup>is careless of his ways shall die.
17 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD,
And his good deed will he pay him again.
18 Chasten thy son, seeing there is hope;
And set not thy heart on <sup>16</sup>his destruction.
19 A man of great wrath shall bear the penalty:
For if thou deliver him, thou must do it yet again.
20 Hear counsel, and receive <sup>17</sup>instruction,
That thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.
21 There are many devices in a man's heart;
But the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.
22 <sup>18</sup>The desire of a man is the measure of his kindness:
And a poor man is better than a liar.
23 The fear of the LORD tendeth to life:
And he that hath it shall abide satisfied;
He shall not be visited with evil.

<sup>10</sup> Or, the friend of the poor separateth himself from him
<sup>11</sup> Heb. breatheth out.
<sup>12</sup> Or, a prince

<sup>18</sup> Or, That which maketh a man to be desired is his kindness

<sup>1</sup> Or, according to some ancient authorities, they are snares of death or, into the snares of death.
<sup>2</sup> Or, straight

Is a vapour driven to and fro; <sup>1</sup> they that seek them seek death.

7 The violence of the wicked shall sweep them away;

Because they refuse to do judgement.

8 The way of him that is laden with guilt is exceeding crooked:

But as for the pure, his work is <sup>2</sup> right.

9 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,

Than with a contentious woman in <sup>3</sup> a wide house.

10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: His neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise:

And <sup>4</sup> when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 <sup>5</sup> The righteous man considereth the house of the wicked;

How the wicked are overthrown to their ruin.

13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor,

He also shall cry, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret <sup>6</sup> pacifieth anger, And a present in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the righteous to do judgement;

But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding

Shall rest in the congregation of <sup>8</sup> the dead.

17 He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man:

He that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous; And the treacherous cometh in the stead of the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in a desert land, Than with <sup>9</sup> a contentious and fretful woman.

20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;

But a foolish man swalloweth it up.

21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy

Findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty,

And bringeth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue

Keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 The proud and haughty man, scorner is his name,

He worketh in the arrogance of pride.

25 The desire of the slothful killeth him; For his hands refuse to labour.

26 There is that coveteth greedily all the day long:

But the righteous giveth and withholdeth not.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination:

How much more, when he bringeth it <sup>10</sup> with a wicked mind!

28 A false witness shall perish:

But the man that heareth shall speak <sup>11</sup> unchallenged.

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face:

But as for the upright, <sup>12</sup> he ordereth his ways.

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding Nor counsel against the LORD.

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle:

But <sup>13</sup> victory is of the LORD.

22 A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches,

And <sup>14</sup> loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and the poor meet together: The LORD is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man seeth the evil, and hideth himself:

But the simple pass on, and <sup>15</sup> suffer for it.

4 The reward of humility and the fear of the LORD

Is riches, and honour, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward:

He that keepeth his soul shall be far from them.

6 Train up a child <sup>16</sup> in the way he should go,

And even when he is old he will not depart from it.

7 The rich ruleth over the poor, And the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap <sup>17</sup> calamity:

And the rod of his wrath shall fail.

9 He that hath a <sup>18</sup> bountiful eye shall be blessed;

For he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out;

Yea, strife and ignominy shall cease.

11 He that loveth <sup>19</sup> pureness of heart,

<sup>20</sup> For the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve him that hath knowledge,

But he overthroweth the words of the treacherous man.

13 The sluggard saith, There is a lion without:

I shall be <sup>21</sup> murdered in the streets.

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit:

He <sup>22</sup> that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child;

But the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his gain,

And he that giveth to the rich, cometh only to want.

<sup>7</sup> Or, But destruction shall be to &c.

<sup>8</sup> Or, the shades Heb. Rephaim.

<sup>9</sup> Or, a contentious woman and vexation

17 Incline thine ear, and hear the words of the wise,
And apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee,
If they be established together upon thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the LORD,
I have made them known to thee this day, even to thee.

20 Have not I written unto thee <sup>1</sup>excellent things
<sup>2</sup>Of counsels and knowledge;
21 To make thee know <sup>3</sup>the certainty of the words of truth,
That thou mayest carry back words of truth to them that send thee?

22 Rob not the poor, <sup>4</sup>because he is poor,
Neither <sup>5</sup>oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23 For the LORD will plead their cause,
And despoil of life those that despoil them.

24 Make no friendship with a man that is given to anger;
And with a wrathful man thou shalt not go:

25 Lest thou learn his ways,
And get a snare to thy soul.

26 Be thou not one of them that strike hands,
Or of them that are sureties for debts:

27 If thou hast not wherewith to pay,
Why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

28 Remove not the ancient landmark,
Which thy fathers have set.

29 Seest thou a man <sup>6</sup>diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings;
He shall not stand before <sup>7</sup>mean men.

23 When thou sittest to eat with a ruler,
Consider diligently <sup>8</sup>him that is before thee;

2 <sup>9</sup>And put a knife to thy throat,
If thou be a man given to appetite.

3 Be not desirous of his dainties;
Seeing they are deceitful meat.

4 Weary not thyself to be rich;
Cease <sup>10</sup>from thine own wisdom.

5 <sup>11</sup>Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not?
For riches certainly make themselves wings,
Like an eagle that flieth toward heaven.

6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye,
Neither desire thou his dainties:

7 For <sup>12</sup>as he reckoneth within himself,
so is he:
Eat and drink, saith he to thee;
But his heart is not with thee.

8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up,
And lose thy sweet words.

9 Speak not in the hearing of a fool;

For he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

10 <sup>13</sup>Remove not the ancient landmark;
And enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11 For their redeemer is strong;
He shall plead their cause against thee.

12 Apply thine heart unto <sup>14</sup>instruction,
And thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Withhold not correction from the child:
For <sup>15</sup>if thou beat him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod,
And shalt deliver his soul from <sup>16</sup>Sheol.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise,
My heart shall be glad, even mine:

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice,
When thy lips speak right things.

17 Let not thine heart envy sinners:
But be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long:

18 For surely there is a <sup>17</sup>reward;
And thy hope shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise,
And guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not among winebibbers;
Among gluttonous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty:
And drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Harken unto thy father that begat thee,
And despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth, and sell it not;
Yea, wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice:
And he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Let thy father and thy mother be glad,
And let her that bare thee rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart,
And let thine eyes <sup>18</sup>delight in my ways.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch;
And a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 Yea, she lieth in wait <sup>19</sup>as a robber,
And increaseth the treacherous among men.

29 Who hath <sup>20</sup>woe? who hath <sup>21</sup>sorrow?
who hath contentions?
Who hath complaining? who hath wounds without cause?
Who hath <sup>22</sup>redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine;
They that go to <sup>23</sup>seek out mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red,
When it giveth its colour in the cup,
When it <sup>24</sup>goeth down smoothly:

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent,
And stingeth like <sup>25</sup>an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold <sup>26</sup>strange things,

<sup>24</sup> Or, month itself aright
<sup>26</sup> Or, strange women

And thine heart shall utter froward things.
 34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea,
 Or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.
 35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not hurt;
 They have beaten me, and I felt it not:
 When shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.
 24 Be not thou envious against evil men,
 Neither desire to be with them:
 2 For their heart studieth oppression,
 And their lips talk of mischief.
 3 Through wisdom is an house builded;
 And by understanding it is established:
 4 And by knowledge are the chambers filled
 With all precious and pleasant riches.
 5 A wise man <sup>1</sup>is strong;
 Yea, a man of knowledge <sup>2</sup>increaseth might.
 6 For by wise guidance thou shalt make thy war:
 And in the multitude of counsellors there is <sup>3</sup>safety.
 7 Wisdom is too high for a fool:
 He openeth not his mouth in the gate.
 8 He that deviseth to do evil,
 Men shall call him a mischievous person.
 9 The thought of <sup>4</sup>the foolish is sin:
 And the scorner is an abomination to men.
 10 If thou faint in the day of adversity,
 Thy strength is small.
 11 Deliver them that are carried away unto death,
 And those that are <sup>5</sup>ready to be slain
<sup>6</sup>see that thou hold back.
 12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew not <sup>7</sup>this:
 Doth not he that weigheth the hearts consider it?
 And he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it?
 And shall not he render to every man according to his work?
 13 My son, eat thou honey, for it is good;
 And the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste:
 14 So shalt thou know wisdom to be unto thy soul:
 If thou hast found it, then shall there be a <sup>8</sup>reward,
 And thy hope shall not be cut off.
 15 Lay not wait, <sup>9</sup>O wicked man, against the <sup>10</sup>habitation of the righteous;
 Spoil not his <sup>11</sup>resting place:
 16 For a righteous man falleth seven times, and riseth up again:
 But the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
 17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth,
 And let not thine heart be glad when he is overthrown:

<sup>11</sup> Or, fold

And he turn away his wrath from him.
 19 Fret not thyself because of evil-doers;
 Neither be thou envious at the wicked:
 20 For there will be no <sup>8</sup>reward to the evil man;
 The lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
 21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king:
 And meddle not with them that are given to change:
 22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly;
 And who knoweth the destruction <sup>12</sup>of them both?

<sup>12</sup> Or, of their years

23 These also are sayings of the wise.
 To have respect of persons in judgment is not good.
 24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous;
 Peoples shall curse him, nations shall abhor him:
 25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight,
 And a good blessing shall come upon them.
 26 He <sup>13</sup>kisseth the lips
 That giveth a right answer.
 27 Prepare thy work without,
 And make it ready for thee in the field;
 And afterwards build thine house.
 28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause;
<sup>14</sup>And deceive not with thy lips.
 29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me;
 I will render to the man according to his work.
 30 I went by the field of the slothful,
 And by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;
 31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns,
 The face thereof was covered with <sup>15</sup>nettles,
 And the stone wall thereof was broken down.
 32 Then I beheld, and considered well:
 I saw, and received instruction.
 33 <sup>16</sup>Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
 A little folding of the hands to sleep:
 34 So shall thy poverty come as a robber;
 And thy want as an armed man.

<sup>14</sup> Heb. And wouldest thou deceive with thy lips?

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.
 2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing:
 But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.
 3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth,
 And the heart of kings is unsearchable.
 4 Take away the dross from the silver,
 And there cometh forth a vessel for the finer:

|   |  |   |  |
|---|--|---|--|
|   | 5 Take away the wicked from before the king,And his throne shall be established in righteousness.   | 23 The north wind bringeth forth rain:So doth a backbiting tongue an angry countenance.   |  |
| <sup>1</sup> Heb. Glorify not thyself.   | 6 <sup>1</sup> Put not thyself forward in the presence of the king,And stand not in the place of great men:7 For better is it that it be said unto thee, Come up hither;Than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince, Whom thine eyes have seen. | 24 <sup>12</sup> It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,Than with a contentious woman in a wide house.                           | <sup>12</sup> See ch. xxi. 9.  |
| <sup>2</sup> Or, Lest I be said in the end thereof, What wilt thou do I when &amp;c. | 8 Go not forth hastily to strive,<sup>2</sup> Lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof,When thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.  | 25 As cold waters to a <sup>13</sup> thirsty soul,So is good news from a far country.  | <sup>13</sup> Or, weary   |
| <sup>4</sup> Or, in due season   | 10 Lest he that heareth it revile thee,And thine infamy turn not away.   | 27 It is not good to eat much honey:<sup>16</sup> So for men to search out their own glory is not glory.                                      | <sup>16</sup> Or, But for men to search out their own glory is glory  |
| <sup>6</sup> Or, a nose-ring   | 12 As <sup>6</sup> an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,So is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.   | 29 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest,So honour is not seemly for a fool.   | <sup>17</sup> Or, He that hath no rule over his spirit  |
|   | 13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,So is a faithful messenger to them that send him;For he refresheth the soul of his masters.   | 30 As the sparrow in her wandering, as the swallow in her flying,So the curse that is causeless <sup>18</sup> lighteth not.            | <sup>18</sup> Heb. cometh not .   |
| <sup>7</sup> Heb. in a gift of falsehood.  | 14 As clouds and wind without rain,So is he that boasteth himself <sup>7</sup> of his gifts falsely.  | 31 Answer not a fool according to his folly,Lest thou also be like unto him.  | <sup>19</sup> Heb. his own eyes .   |
| <sup>8</sup> Or, Judge   | 15 By long forbearing is a <sup>8</sup> ruler persuaded,And a soft tongue breaketh the bone.   | 32 Answer a fool according to his folly,Lest he be wise in <sup>19</sup> his own conceit.   |  |

|  |   | 14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor,   |  |

His throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom:

But a child left to himself causeth shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked<sup>1</sup> are increased, transgression increaseth:

But the righteous shall look upon their fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest;

Yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people cast off restraint:

But he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words:

For though he understand he will not<sup>2</sup> give heed.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his<sup>3</sup> words?

There is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child

Shall have him become<sup>4</sup> a son at the last.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, And a wrathful man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him low:

But he that is of a lowly spirit shall obtain honour.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul:

<sup>5</sup>He heareth the adjuration and uttereth nothing.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare:

But whoso putteth his trust in the LORD<sup>6</sup> shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour:

But a man's judgement<sup>7</sup> cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous:

And he that is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh; the<sup>8</sup> oracle.

The man saith<sup>9</sup> unto Ithiel, unto Ithiel and Ucal:

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, And have not the understanding of a man:

3 And I have not learned wisdom,<sup>10</sup> Neither have I the knowledge of the Holy One.

4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, and descended?

Who hath gathered the wind in his fists?

Who hath bound the waters in his garment?

Who hath established all the ends of the earth?

What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou knowest?

5<sup>11</sup> Every word of God is<sup>12</sup> tried:

He is a shield unto them that trust in him.

6 Add thou not unto his words, Lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I asked of thee; Deny me<sup>13</sup> them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: Give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me with<sup>14</sup> the food that is needful for me:

9 Lest I be full, and deny<sup>15</sup> thee, and say, Who is the LORD?

Or lest I be poor, and steal,

And<sup>16</sup> profanely the name of my God.

10 Slander not a servant unto his master, Lest he curse thee, and thou be held guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father,

And doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes,

And yet are not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, Oh how lofty are their eyes!

And their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives,

To devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The<sup>15</sup> horseleach hath two daughters,<sup>16</sup> crying, Give, give.

There are three things that are never satisfied,

Yea, four that say not, Enough:

16<sup>17</sup> The grave; and the barren womb; The earth that is not satisfied with water;

And the fire that saith not, Enough.

17 The eye that mocketh at his father, And despiseth to obey his mother,

The ravens of<sup>18</sup> the valley shall pick it out,

And the<sup>19</sup> young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me,

Yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air;

The way of a serpent upon a rock;

The way of a ship in the midst of the sea;

And the way of a man with a maid.

20 So is the way of an adulterous woman; She eateth, and wipeth her mouth,

And saith, I have done no wickedness.

21<sup>20</sup> For three things the earth doth tremble,

And for four, which it cannot bear:

22 For a servant when he is king;

And a fool when he is filled with meat;

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth,
But they are exceeding wise:

25 The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they provide their meat in the summer;

26 The <sup>1</sup>conies are but a feeble folk,
Yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king,
Yet go they forth all of them by bands;

28 The lizard <sup>2</sup>taketh hold with her hands,
Yet is she in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which are stately in their march,
Yea, four which are stately in going:

30 The lion, which is mightiest among beasts,
And turneth not away for any;

31 The <sup>3</sup>greyhound; the he-goat also;
And the king, <sup>4</sup>against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself,
Or if thou hast thought evil,

Lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 For the <sup>5</sup>churning of milk bringeth forth butter,
And the <sup>6</sup>wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood;

So the <sup>7</sup>forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

31 <sup>8</sup>The words of king Lemuel; the <sup>9</sup>oracle which his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, O son of my womb?

And what, O son of my vows?

3 Give not thy strength unto women,
Nor thy ways to <sup>8</sup>that which destroyeth kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine;
Nor for princes <sup>9</sup>to say, Where is strong drink?

5 Lest they drink, and forget <sup>10</sup>the law,
And pervert the judgement <sup>11</sup>of any that is afflicted.

6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish,
And wine unto the bitter in soul:

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
And remember his misery no more.

8 Open thy mouth for the dumb,
In the cause of all such as are <sup>12</sup>left desolate.

9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously,
And minister judgement to the poor and needy.

10 A virtuous woman who can find?

For her price is far above <sup>13</sup>rubies.

11 The heart of her husband trusteth in her,
And he shall have no lack of <sup>14</sup>gain.

12 She doeth him good and not evil
All the days of her life.

13 She seeketh wool and flax,
And worketh <sup>15</sup>willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchant-ships;
She bringeth her food from afar.

15 She riseth also while it is yet night,
And giveth meat to her household,
And their <sup>16</sup>task to her maidens.

16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it:
With the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

17 She girdeth her loins with strength,
And maketh strong her arms.

18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is profitable:

Her lamp goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth her hands to the distaff,
And her <sup>17</sup>hands hold the spindle.

20 She spreadeth out her <sup>18</sup>hand to the poor;

Yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
For all her household are clothed with scarlet.

22 She maketh for herself <sup>19</sup>carpets of tapestry;

Her clothing is fine linen and purple.

23 Her husband is known in the gates,
When he sitteth among the elders of the land.

24 She maketh linen garments and selleth them;
And delivereth girdles unto the <sup>20</sup>merchant.

25 Strength and dignity are her clothing;
And she laugheth at the time to come.

26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
And the <sup>21</sup>law of kindness is on her tongue.

27 She looketh well to the ways of her household,
And eateth not the bread of idleness.

28 Her children rise up, and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praiseth her, saying:

29 Many daughters have done virtuously,
But thou excellest them all.

30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain:
But a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.

31 Give her of the fruit of her hands;
And let her works praise her in the gates.

1 THE words of <sup>1</sup>the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; vanity of vanities, all is vanity.

3 What profit hath man of all his labour wherein he laboureth under the sun?

4 One generation goeth, and another generation cometh; and the earth a-

5 bideth for ever. The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth

6 to his place where he ariseth. The wind goeth toward the south, and turn-eth about unto the north; it turneth about continually in its course, and the wind returneth again to its cir-

7 cuits. All the <sup>2</sup>rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full; unto the place whither the rivers go, thither

8 they go again. <sup>3</sup>All things are full of weariness; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor 9 the ear filled with hearing. That which hath been is that which shall be;

and that which hath been done is that which shall be done: and there

10 is no new thing under the sun. Is there a thing whereof men say, See, this is new? it hath been already, in the ages which were before us. There

11 is no remembrance of the former generations; neither shall there be any remembrance of the latter generations that are to come, among those that shall come after.

12 I <sup>4</sup>the Preacher was king over Israel

13 in Jerusalem. And I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven: it is a sore travail that God hath given to the sons of men to be 14 exercised therewith. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and <sup>5</sup>a 15 striving after wind. That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and

<sup>6</sup>that which is wanting cannot be num-

16 bered. I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I have gotten me great wisdom <sup>7</sup>above all that were before me <sup>8</sup>in Jerusalem: yea, my heart <sup>9</sup>hath had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. And I applied

17 my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also was a striving after wind.

18 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

2 I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; <sup>10</sup>therefore enjoy <sup>11</sup>pleasure: and, behold, this

2 also was vanity. I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth

3 it? I searched in mine heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, mine heart yet <sup>12</sup>guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under the 4 heaven <sup>13</sup>all the days of their life. I made me great works; I builded me

5 houses; I planted me vineyards; I made me gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of 6 fruit: I made me pools of water, to water therefrom the forest where trees

7 were reared: I bought menservants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all

8 that were before me in Jerusalem: I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, <sup>14</sup>concubines very 9 many. So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom <sup>15</sup>remained

10 with me. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them: I withheld not my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labour; and this was my portion from 11 all my labour. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness and folly: for what can the man do that cometh <sup>16</sup>after the king? even that which hath been

13 already done. Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light

14 excelleth darkness. The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walketh in darkness: and yet I perceived that one event happeneth to 15 them all. Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also was vanity.

16 For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no remembrance for ever; seeing that in the days to come all will have been already forgotten.

And how doth the wise man die even

17 as the fool! So I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun

was grievous unto me: for all is vanity and a striving after wind.

18 And I hated all my labour wherein I laboured under the sun: seeing that I must leave it unto the man that shall be after me. And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed wisdom under the sun.

20 This also is vanity. Therefore I turned about to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labour wherein I had

21 laboured under the sun. For there is a man whose labour is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with <sup>1</sup>skillfulness; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he <sup>2</sup>leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a

22 great evil. For what hath a man of all his labour, and of the <sup>3</sup>striving of his heart, wherein he laboureth under the 23 sun? For all his days are but sorrows, and his travail is grief; yea, even in the night his heart taketh no rest. This also is vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of 25 God. For who can eat, or who can 26 <sup>4</sup>have enjoyment, <sup>5</sup>more than I? For to the man that pleaseth him God giveth wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that pleaseth God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

3 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every <sup>6</sup>purpose under the 2 heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to 3 pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to 4 break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from 6 embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to 7 cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a 8 time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time 9 for peace. What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised therewith. He hath made every thing beautiful in its time: also he hath set <sup>7</sup>the world in their heart, yet so that the man cannot find out the work that God hath done from the beginning

12 even to the end. I know that there is nothing better for them, than to rejoice, and <sup>8</sup>to do good so long as 13 they live. And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good 14 in all his labour, is the gift of God. I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God hath done it, that men should fear

15 before him. <sup>9</sup>That which is hath been already; and that which is to be hath already been: and God seeketh again that which is <sup>10</sup>passed away.

16 And moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of judgement, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was

17 there. I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every

18 <sup>6</sup>purpose and for every work. <sup>11</sup>I said in mine heart, It is because of the sons of men, that God may prove them, and that they may see that they them-

19 selves are but as beasts. For <sup>12</sup>that which befalleth the sons of men befall-eth beasts; even one thing befall-eth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one <sup>13</sup>breath;

and man hath no preeminence above the 20 beasts: for all is vanity. All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all

21 turn to dust again. Who knoweth the spirit <sup>14</sup>of man <sup>15</sup>whether it goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast

<sup>15</sup>whether it goeth downward to the 22 earth? Wherefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him back to see what shall be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power, but they 2 had no comforter. Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive;

3 yea, <sup>16</sup>better than them both did I esteem him which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 Then I saw all labour and every <sup>17</sup>skilful work, that <sup>18</sup>for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This also is

5 vanity and a striving after wind. The fool foldeth his hands together, and eat-eth his own flesh. Better is an hand-

6 ful <sup>19</sup>with quietness, than two handfuls <sup>19</sup>with labour and striving after wind.

7 Then I returned and saw vanity under 8 the sun. There is one that is alone, and he hath not a second; yea, he hath neither son nor brother; yet is there no end of all his labour, neither are his eyes satisfied with riches. For whom then, saith he, do I labour, and de-privy my soul of good? This also is 9 vanity, yea, it is a sore travail. Two are better than one; because they have

10 a good reward for their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth, and hath not another to lift him up. Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth: but how can one be warm alone? And if a man prevail against him that is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who knoweth not how to receive admonition any more.

14 For out of prison he came forth to be king; <sup>1</sup>yea, even in his kingdom he was born poor. I saw all the living which walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, that stood up in his stead. <sup>2</sup>There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was: yet they that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

5 Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God; for to draw nigh to hear is better than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they know not that they do evil. Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter <sup>3</sup>any thing before God; for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. For a dream cometh with a multitude of <sup>4</sup>business; and a fool's voice with a multitude of words. When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou vowest. Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before <sup>5</sup>the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands? <sup>6</sup>For thus it cometh to pass through the multitude of dreams and vanities and many words: but fear thou God.

8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of judgement and justice in <sup>7</sup>a province, marvel not at the matter: for one higher than the high regardeth; and there be higher than they. <sup>8</sup>Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this also is vanity. When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what advantage is there to the owner thereof, saving the beholding of them with his eyes? The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the fulness of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept by the owner thereof to his hurt: and those riches perish by evil <sup>9</sup>adventure; and if he hath begotten a son, there is nothing in his hand. As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. And this also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that he laboureth for the wind?

17 <sup>10</sup>All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he is sore vexed and hath sickness and wrath.

18 Behold, <sup>11</sup>that which I have seen to be good and to be comely is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labour, wherein he laboureth under the sun, <sup>12</sup>all the days of his life which God hath given him: for this is his portion. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon 2 men: a man to whom God giveth riches, wealth, and honour, so that he lacketh nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it; this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, but his soul be not filled with good, and moreover he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is 4 better than he: for it cometh in vanity, and departeth in darkness, and the name thereof is covered with darkness; 5 moreover it hath not seen the sun <sup>13</sup>nor known it; <sup>14</sup>this hath rest rather than the other: yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet enjoy 7 no good: do not all go to one place? All the labour of man is for his mouth, and 8 yet the appetite is not filled. For what advantage hath the wise more than the fool? <sup>15</sup>or what hath the poor man, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

10 <sup>16</sup>Whatsoever hath been, the name thereof was given long ago, and it is known that it is <sup>17</sup>man: neither can he contend with him that is mightier than 11 he. Seeing there be many <sup>18</sup>things that increase vanity, what is man the 12 better? For who knoweth what is good for man in his life, <sup>12</sup>all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

18 Or, words

7 A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than 2 the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will 3 lay it to his heart. Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made 4 glad. The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of 5 fools is in the house of mirth. It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. 6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this 7 also is vanity. <sup>2</sup> Surely extortion maketh a wise man foolish; and a gift destroyeth the understanding. Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is 9 better than the proud in spirit. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be <sup>3</sup> angry: for <sup>4</sup> anger resteth in the bosom of fools. 10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire <sup>5</sup> wisely concerning this. Wisdom <sup>6</sup> is as good as an inheritance: yea, more excellent is it for 12 them that see the sun. For wisdom is a defence, even as money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom preserveth the life of him that 13 hath it. Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he 14 hath made crooked? In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider: God hath even made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out any thing that shall be after him. 15 All this have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a righteous man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth 16 his life in his evil-doing. Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou 17 destroy thyself? Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why 18 shouldest thou die before thy time? It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from that withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all. 19 Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers which are 20 in a city. <sup>2</sup> Surely there is not a righteous man upon earth, that doeth 21 good, and sinneth not. Also <sup>7</sup> take not heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: 22 for oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others. 23 All this have I <sup>8</sup> proved in wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far 24 from me. That which <sup>9</sup> is is far off, and exceeding deep; who can find it

25 out? I turned about, and my heart was set to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the reason of things, and to know <sup>10</sup> that wickedness is folly, and that foolishness is madness: and I find a thing more bitter than death, even the woman <sup>11</sup> whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall 27 be taken by her. Behold, this have I found, saith the Preacher, <sup>12</sup> laying one thing to another, to find out the account: 28 which my soul still seeketh, but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all 29 those have I not found. Behold, this only have I found, that God made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. 8 Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the <sup>13</sup> hardness of his face 2 is changed. I counsel thee, Keep the king's command, and that in regard of 3 the oath of God. Be not hasty to go out of his presence; persist not in an evil thing: for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him. Because the king's word hath 4 power; and who may say unto him, 5 What doest thou? Whoso keepeth the commandment shall know no evil thing; and a wise man's heart discerneth time 6 and judgement: for to every <sup>14</sup> purpose there is a time and judgement; because the <sup>15</sup> misery of man is great upon him: 7 for he knoweth not that which shall be; <sup>16</sup> for who can tell him how it shall 8 be? There is no man that hath power over the <sup>17</sup> spirit to retain the <sup>17</sup> spirit; neither hath he power over the day of death; and there is no discharge <sup>18</sup> in that war: neither shall wickedness 9 liver him that is given to it. All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: <sup>19</sup> there is a time wherein one man hath power over another <sup>20</sup> to his hurt. 10 And withal I saw the wicked buried, <sup>21</sup> and they came to the grave; and they that had done right went away from the holy place, and were forgotten in 11 the city: this also is vanity. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is <sup>22</sup> fully set in them to 12 do evil. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and prolong his days, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before 13 him: but it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because 14 he feareth not before God. There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be righteous men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be

15 I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: <sup>1</sup>for that shall abide with him in his labour all the days of his life which God hath given him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the <sup>2</sup>business that is done upon the earth: (<sup>3</sup>for also there is that neither day nor night seeth

17 sleep with his eyes:) then I beheld all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because however much a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea moreover, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not

9 be able to find it. For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this; that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: whether it be love or hatred, man knoweth it

2 not; all is before them. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good <sup>4</sup>and to the clean and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth and to him that sacrificeth not; as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an

3 evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that

4 they go to the dead. <sup>5</sup>For to him that is joined with all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a

5 dead lion.<sup>6</sup> For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. As well their love, as their hatred and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God hath already accepted thy

8 works. Let thy garments be always white; and let not thy head lack ointment. <sup>9</sup>Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in life, and in thy labour wherein thou labour-

10 est under the sun. Whatsoever thy hand <sup>7</sup>findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in <sup>8</sup>the grave, whither thou goest.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance

12 happeneth to them all. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun on this wise, and it seemed great unto

14 me: there was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built

15 great bulwarks against it: now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of the wise <sup>9</sup>spoken in quiet are heard more than the cry of him that

18 ruleth among fools. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner

10 destroyeth much good. Dead flies cause the ointment of the perfumer

<sup>10</sup>to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly <sup>11</sup>outweigh wisdom

2 and honour. A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart

3 at his left. Yea also, when the fool walketh by the way, his <sup>12</sup>understanding faileth him, and he saith <sup>13</sup>to every

4 one that he is a fool. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for <sup>14</sup>yielding allayeth

5 great offences. There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as it were an error which proceedeth from the ruler: 6 folly is set in great <sup>15</sup>dignity, and the 7 rich sit in low place. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walk-

8 ing as servants upon the earth. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh through a fence, a ser-

9 pent shall bite him. Whoso <sup>16</sup>heweth out stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood is endangered

10 thereby. If the iron be blunt, and one do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable

11 to direct. <sup>17</sup>If the serpent bite <sup>18</sup>before it be charmed, then is there no advantage in <sup>19</sup>the charmer. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up him-

13 self. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of <sup>20</sup>his talk is mischievous madness. 14 A fool also multiplieth words: yet man knoweth not what shall be; and that which shall be after him, who can tell

15 him? The labour of fools wearieth every one of them, for he knoweth not

 11 <sup>3</sup>Cast thy bread <sup>4</sup>upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.
 2<sup>5</sup> Give a portion to seven, yea, even unto eight; for thou knowest not what 3 evil shall be upon the earth. If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if a tree fall <sup>6</sup>toward the south, or <sup>6</sup>toward the north, in the place where the 4 tree falleth, there shall it be. He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not 5 reap. As thou knowest not what is the way of the <sup>7</sup>wind, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the work of God who doeth all.
 6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not which shall prosper, whether this or that, or whether 7 they both shall be alike good. Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun.
 8<sup>8</sup> Yea, if a man live many years, let him rejoice in them all; <sup>9</sup>but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.
 9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee 10 into judgement. Therefore remove <sup>10</sup>sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for youth and 12 the prime of life are vanity. Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth, or ever the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in 2 them; or ever the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, be darkened, and the clouds return after the 3 rain: in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the <sup>11</sup>grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the wind- 4 ows be darkened, and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought 5 low; yea, they shall be afraid <sup>12</sup>of that which is high, and terrors shall be in the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper <sup>13</sup>shall be a burden, and <sup>14</sup>the caper-berry shall <sup>15</sup>fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: or ever the silver cord be <sup>16</sup>loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern; 7 and the dust return to the earth as it was, and the spirit return unto God 8 who gave it. Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

 9 And further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he <sup>17</sup>pondered, and sought out, and set in order many 10 proverbs. The Preacher sought to find out <sup>18</sup>acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, even words of truth.
 11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails well fastened are the words of the <sup>19</sup>masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.
 12<sup>20</sup> And furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.
 13 <sup>21</sup>This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: fear God, and keep his commandments; for <sup>22</sup>this is the 14 whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgement, <sup>23</sup>with every hidden thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil.

THE SONG OF SONGS.

1 THE Song of songs, which is Solomon's.
 2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth:
 For thy love is better than wine.

3 Thine ointments have a goodly fragrance;
 Thy name is as ointment poured forth;
 Therefore do the <sup>1</sup>virgins love thee.
 4 Draw me; we will run after thee:

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me:
To whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them,
 When I found him whom my soul loveth:
 I held him, and would not let him go,
 Until I had brought him into my mother's house,
 And into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5<sup>1</sup> I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
 By the roes, and by the hinds of the field,
 That ye stir not up, nor awaken love,
 Until it please.

6 Who is this that cometh up out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke,
 Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
 With all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold, it is the litter of Solomon;
 Threescore mighty men are about it,
 Of the mighty men of Israel.

8 They all handle the sword, and are expert in war;
 Every man hath his sword upon his thigh,
 Because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a <sup>2</sup>palanquin
 Of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver,
 The bottom thereof of gold, the seat of it of purple,
 The midst thereof being <sup>3</sup>paved with love,
 From the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon,
 With the crown wherewith his mother hath crowned him in the day of his espousals,
 And in the day of the gladness of his heart.

4 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair;
<sup>4</sup>Thine eyes are as doves behind thy <sup>5</sup>veil:
 Thy hair is as a flock of goats,
 That <sup>6</sup>lie along the side of mount Gilead.

2 Thy teeth are like a flock of ewes that are newly shorn,
 Which are come up from the washing;
<sup>7</sup>Whereof every one hath twins,
 And none is bereaved among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet,
 And thy <sup>8</sup>mouth is comely:
 Thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate
 Behind thy <sup>5</sup>veil.

4 Thy neck is like the tower of David builded <sup>9</sup>for an armoury, Whereon there hang a thousand bucklers,
 All the shields of the mighty men.

5 Thy two breasts are like two fawns that are twins of a <sup>10</sup>roe,
 Which feed among the lilies.

6<sup>11</sup> Until the day be cool, and the shadows flee away,
 I will get me to the mountain of myrrh,
 And to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love;
 And there is no spot in thee.

8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride,
 With me from Lebanon:
<sup>12</sup>Look from the top of Amana,
 From the top of Senir and Hermon,
 From the lions' dens,
 From the mountains of the leopards.

9 Thou hast <sup>13</sup>ravished my heart, my sister, my bride;
 Thou hast <sup>13</sup>ravished my heart with <sup>14</sup>one of thine eyes,
 With one chain of thy neck.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my bride!
 How much better is thy love than wine!
 And the smell of thine ointments than all manner of spices!

11 Thy lips, O my bride, <sup>15</sup>drop as the honeycomb:
 Honey and milk are under thy tongue;
 And the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden <sup>16</sup>shut up is my sister, my bride;

A <sup>17</sup>spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

13 Thy shoots are <sup>18</sup>an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits;
 Henna with spikenard plants,

14 Spikenard and saffron,
 Calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense;
 Myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices.

15 Thou art a fountain of gardens,
 A well of living waters,
 And flowing streams from Lebanon.

16 Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south;
 Blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out.
 Let my beloved come into his garden,
 And eat his precious fruits.

5 I am come into my garden, my sister, my bride:
 I have gathered my myrrh with my <sup>19</sup>spice;
 I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
 I have drunk my wine with my milk.
 Eat, O friends;
 Drink, yea, drink abundantly, <sup>20</sup>O beloved.

It is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying,
Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my <sup>1</sup>undefiled:

For my head is filled with dew,
My locks with the drops of the night.
3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on?

I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door,

And my <sup>2</sup>heart was moved <sup>3</sup>for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved;
And my hands dropped with myrrh,
And my fingers with liquid myrrh,
Upon the handles of the bolt.

6 I opened to my beloved;
But my beloved had <sup>4</sup>withdrawn himself, and was gone.

My soul <sup>5</sup>had failed me when he spake:
I sought him, but I could not find him;
I called him, but he gave me no answer.

7 The watchmen that go about the city found me,

They smote me, they wounded me;
The keepers of the walls took away my <sup>6</sup>mantle from me.

8 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved,

<sup>7</sup>That ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

9 What is thy beloved more than another beloved,

O thou fairest among women?

What is thy beloved more than another beloved,

That thou dost so adjure us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy,

<sup>8</sup>The chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold,
His locks are <sup>9</sup>bushy, and black as a raven.

12 His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks;

Washed with milk, and <sup>10</sup>fitly set.

13 His cheeks are as a bed of <sup>11</sup>spices, as <sup>12</sup>banks of sweet herbs:

His lips are as lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.

14 His hands are as <sup>13</sup>rings of gold set with <sup>14</sup>beryl:

His body is as <sup>15</sup>ivory work <sup>16</sup>overlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold:

His aspect is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

16 His <sup>17</sup>mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend,

O daughters of Jerusalem.

6 Whither is thy beloved gone,
O thou fairest among women?

Whither hath thy beloved turned him,
That we may seek him with thee?

2 My beloved is gone down to his garden, to the beds of <sup>11</sup>spices,
To feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 <sup>18</sup>I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine:

He feedeth his flock among the lilies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah,

Comely as Jerusalem,
Terrible as <sup>19</sup>an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me,
For they <sup>20</sup>have overcome me,

<sup>21</sup>Thy hair is as a flock of goats,
That lie along the side of Gilead.

6 <sup>22</sup>Thy teeth are like a flock of ewes,
Which are come up from the washing;

Whereof every one hath twins,
And none is bereaved among them.

7 <sup>23</sup>Thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate Behind thy veil.

8 There are threescore queens, and four-score concubines,

And <sup>24</sup>virgins without number.

9 My dove, my <sup>1</sup>undefiled, is but one;
She is the only one of her mother;

She is the <sup>25</sup>choice one of her that bare her.

The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;

Yea, the queens and the concubines,
and they praised her.

10 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning,

Fair as the moon,

<sup>26</sup>Clear as the sun,

<sup>27</sup>Terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went down into the garden of nuts,
To see the green plants of the valley,

To see whether the vine budded,
And the pomegranates were in flower.

12 Or ever I was aware, my <sup>28</sup>soul <sup>29</sup>set me

Among the chariots of my <sup>30</sup>princely people.

13 Return, return, O Shulammitte;

Return, return, that we may look upon thee.

Why will ye look upon the Shulammitte,

As upon the dance <sup>31</sup>of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful are thy <sup>32</sup>feet in sandals, O prince's daughter!

<sup>33</sup>The joints of thy thighs are like jewels,

The work of the hands of a cunning workman.

That are twins of a roe.

<sup>4</sup> Thy neck is like the tower of ivory;
Thine eyes as the pools in Heshbon,
by the gate of Bath-rabbim;
Thy nose is like the tower of Lebanon
Which looketh toward Damascus.

<sup>5</sup> Thine head upon thee is like Carmel,
And the hair of thine head <sup>2</sup>like purple;
The king is held captive in the tresses
thereof.

<sup>6</sup> How fair and how pleasant art thou,
O love, for delights!

<sup>7</sup> This thy stature is like to a palm tree,

And thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

<sup>8</sup> I said, I will climb up into the palm
tree,
I will take hold of the branches there-
of:

Let thy breasts be as clusters of the vine,

And the smell of thy <sup>3</sup>breath like apples;

<sup>9</sup> And thy <sup>4</sup>mouth like the best wine,
That goeth down <sup>5</sup>smoothly for my beloved,

<sup>6</sup> Gliding through the lips of those that are asleep.

<sup>10</sup> I am my beloved's,
And his desire is toward me.

<sup>11</sup> Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field;

Let us lodge in the villages.

<sup>12</sup> Let us get up early to the vineyards;
Let us see whether the vine hath budded, And <sup>7</sup>its blossom be open,

And the pomegranates be in flower:

There will I give thee my love.

<sup>13</sup> The <sup>8</sup>mandrakes give forth fragrance,
And <sup>9</sup>at our doors are all manner of precious fruits, new and old,

Which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

<sup>8</sup> Oh that thou wert as my brother,
That sucked the breasts of my mother!
When I should find thee without, I would kiss thee;

Yea, and none would despise me.

<sup>2</sup> I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house,

<sup>10</sup> Who would instruct me;

I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine,

Of the <sup>11</sup>juice of my pomegranate.

<sup>3</sup> <sup>12</sup> His left hand should be under my head,

And his right hand should embrace
me.

<sup>4</sup> I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,

<sup>13</sup> That ye stir not up, nor awaken love,
Until it please.

<sup>5</sup> Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness,
Leaning upon her beloved?

Under the apple tree I awakened
thee:

There thy mother was in travail with
thee,

There was she in travail <sup>14</sup>that brought thee forth.

<sup>6</sup> Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm:

For love is strong as death;

Jealousy is <sup>15</sup>cruel as <sup>16</sup>the grave:

The flashes thereof are flashes of fire,

<sup>7</sup> Many waters cannot quench love,

Neither can the floods drown it:

If a man would give all the substance of his house for love,

<sup>19</sup> He would utterly be contemned.

<sup>8</sup> We have a little sister,

And she hath no breasts:

What shall we do for our sister

In the day when she shall be spoken for?

<sup>9</sup> If she be a wall,

We will build upon her <sup>20</sup>a turret of silver:

And if she be a door,

We will inclose her with boards of cedar.

<sup>10</sup> I <sup>21</sup>am a wall, and my breasts like the

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

1 THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the LORD hath spoken: I have <sup>1</sup>nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against

3 me. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not

4 consider. Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that deal corruptly: they have forsaken the LORD, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are estranged and gone backward.

5 <sup>2</sup>Why will ye be still stricken, that ye revolt more and more? <sup>3</sup>the whole head is sick, and <sup>4</sup>the whole heart

6 faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and

<sup>4</sup>festering sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mol-

7 lified with oil. Your country is desolate; your cities are burned with fire; your land, strangers devour it in your

8 presence, and it is desolate, <sup>5</sup>as overthrown by strangers. And the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard, 9 as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye <sup>6</sup>rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the

<sup>7</sup>law of our God, ye people of Go-11 morrah. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me?

saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of 12 he-goats. When ye come <sup>8</sup>to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to trample my courts?

13 Bring no more <sup>9</sup>vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; new moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies,—<sup>10</sup>I cannot away with in-

14 iquity and the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a <sup>11</sup>trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before

17 mine eyes; cease to do evil: learn to do well; seek judgement, <sup>12</sup>relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they

19 shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the 20 land: but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! she that was full of judgement! righteousness lodged in her,

22 but now murderers. Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with

23 water. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries,

25 and avenge me of mine enemies: and I will <sup>13</sup>turn my hand upon thee, and

<sup>14</sup>thoroughly purge away thy dross, and will take away all thy <sup>15</sup>tin: and

I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called The city of righteousness, the 27 faithful city. Zion shall be redeemed with judgement, and <sup>16</sup>her converts

28 with righteousness. But the <sup>17</sup>destruction of the transgressors and the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be con-

29 sumed. For they shall be ashamed of the <sup>18</sup>oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the 30 gardens that ye have chosen. For ye shall be as <sup>19</sup>an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 <sup>1</sup> And it shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established <sup>2</sup> in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many peoples shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth <sup>3</sup> the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge <sup>4</sup> between the nations, and shall <sup>5</sup> reprove many peoples: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD. For thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be filled with customs from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they strike hands with the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots. Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. And the mean man <sup>6</sup> is bowed down, and the great man <sup>7</sup> is brought low: therefore forgive them

10 not. Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty. The lofty looks of man shall be brought low, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For <sup>8</sup> there shall be a day of the LORD of hosts upon all that is proud and haughty, and upon all that is lifted up; and it shall be brought low: and upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan; and upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up; and upon every lofty tower, and upon every fenced wall; and upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant <sup>9</sup> imagery. And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 And the idols shall utterly pass away. 19 And men shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the <sup>10</sup> earth, from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made for him to worship, to the moles and to the bats; to go into the caverns of the rocks, and into the clefts of the ragged rocks, from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake mightily the earth. <sup>11</sup> Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

3 For, behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah stay and staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water; the mighty man, and the man of war; the judge, and the prophet, and the diviner, and the <sup>12</sup> ancient; the captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning <sup>13</sup> artificer, and the skilful enchanter.

4 And I will give children to be their princes, and <sup>14</sup> babes shall rule over them. And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the <sup>12</sup> ancient, and the base against the <sup>6</sup> honourable. When a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our <sup>15</sup> ruler, and let this ruin be

7 under thy hand: in that day shall he lift up his voice, saying, I will not be <sup>16</sup> an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: ye shall not make me ruler of the people. For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory. <sup>17</sup> The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have <sup>18</sup> rewarded

10 evil unto themselves. Say ye of the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the <sup>19</sup> reward

12 of his hands shall be <sup>20</sup> given him. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and <sup>21</sup> destroy the way of thy paths. The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the <sup>14</sup> <sup>22</sup> peoples. The LORD will enter into judgement with the elders of his people, and the princes thereof: It is ye that have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses: what mean ye that ye crush my people, and grind the face of the poor? saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

16 Moreover the LORD said, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and that is written <sup>8</sup>among the living in 4 Jerusalem: when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the <sup>9</sup>spirit of judgement, 5 and by the <sup>9</sup>spirit of burning. And the LORD will create over <sup>10</sup>the whole habitation of mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for over all the glory shall be 6 spread a canopy. And there shall be a pavilion for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and for a refuge and for a covert from storm and from rain.

5 Let me sing <sup>11</sup>for my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved had a vineyard

2 in <sup>12</sup>a very fruitful hill: and he <sup>13</sup>made a trench about it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also hewed out a

<sup>14</sup>winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it 3 brought forth wild grapes. And now,

O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt

4 me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild 5 grapes? And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be <sup>15</sup>eaten up; I will break down the fence thereof, and it shall 6 be trodden down: and I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor hoed; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon 7 it. For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah <sup>16</sup>his pleasant plant:
and he looked for judgement, but behold <sup>17</sup>oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no room, and ye be made to dwell 9 alone in the midst of the land! In mine ears saith the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabit-10 ant. For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and a <sup>18</sup>homer of seed shall yield but an ephah.

11 Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that tarry late into the 12 night, till wine inflame them! And the harp and the lute, the tabret and the pipe, and wine, are in their feasts:

but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither have they considered 13 the operation of his hands. Therefore my people are gone into captivity, for lack of knowledge: and <sup>19</sup>their honourable men are famished, and their multitude are parched with thirst.

14 Therefore <sup>20</sup>hell hath enlarged her desire, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their <sup>21</sup>pomp, and he that rejoiceth among them, descend

15 into it. And the mean man is bowed down, and the great man is humbled, and the eyes of the lofty are humbled:
16 but the LORD of hosts is exalted in judgement, and God the Holy One is 17 sanctified in righteousness. Then shall the lambs feed as in their pasture, and the waste places of the fat ones shall <sup>22</sup>wanderers eat.

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: which justify the wicked for a reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! Therefore as the tongue of fire devoureth the stubble, and as the dry grass sinketh down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have rejected the <sup>1</sup>law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them, and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss for them from the end of the earth: and, behold, <sup>3</sup>they shall come with speed

27 swiftly: none shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of

28 their shoes be broken: whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint,

29 and their wheels like a whirlwind: their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and carry it away safe, and there shall be none to

30 deliver. And they shall roar <sup>4</sup>against them in that day like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, <sup>5</sup>behold darkness and distress, and the light is darkened in the clouds thereof.

6 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his <sup>6</sup>train filled

2 the temple. Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with

3 twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: <sup>7</sup>the whole earth

4 is full of his glory. And the foundations of the thresholds were moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a <sup>8</sup>live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs

7 from off the altar: and he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin <sup>9</sup>purged.

8 And I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am

9 I; send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye <sup>10</sup>indeed, but understand not; and see ye <sup>10</sup>indeed,

10 but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and <sup>11</sup>understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until cities be waste without inhabitant, and houses without man, and the land become utterly

12 waste, and the LORD have removed men far away, and the forsaken places

13 be many in the midst of the land. <sup>12</sup>And if there be yet a tenth in it, it shall again be <sup>13</sup>eaten up: as a terebinth, and as an oak, <sup>14</sup>whose <sup>15</sup>stock remaineth, when they <sup>16</sup>are felled; so the holy seed is the <sup>15</sup>stock thereof.

7 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it; but could

2 not prevail against it. And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria <sup>17</sup>is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and

18 Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the

4 high way of the fuller's field; and say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither let thine heart be faint, because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the 5 son of Remaliah. Because Syria hath counselled evil against thee, Ephraim also, and the son of Remaliah, saying, 6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set up a king in the midst 7 of it, even the son of Tabeel: thus saith the LORD God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin: and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken in pieces,

9 that it be not a people: and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

13 I tempt the LORD. And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, that ye

14 will weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; behold, <sup>2</sup>a <sup>3</sup>virgin <sup>4</sup>shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call

15 his name <sup>5</sup>Immanuel. <sup>6</sup>Butter and honey shall he eat, <sup>7</sup>when he knoweth to refuse the evil, and choose

16 the good. For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings

17 thou abhorrest shall be forsaken. The Lord shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that

19 is in the land of Assyria. And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the <sup>8</sup>desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all <sup>9</sup>pastures.

20 In that day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, which is in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young

22 cow, and two sheep; and it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the midst of the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, shall even be for briers and

24 thorns. With arrows and with bow shall one come thither; because all the 25 land shall be briers and thorns. And all the hills that were digged with the mattock, <sup>10</sup>thou shalt not come thither for fear of briers and thorns, but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep.

8 And the Lord said unto me, Take thee a great tablet, and write upon it

<sup>11</sup>with the pen of a man, For <sup>12</sup>Mahershalal-hash-baz; and I will take unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of

3 Jerechiah. And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the Lord unto me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz. For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, My mother, the riches of Damascus shall be carried away before the king of Assyria.

5 And the Lord spake unto me yet 6 again, saying, Forasmuch as this people hath refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, <sup>13</sup>and rejoice <sup>14</sup>in Rezin

7 and Remaliah's son; now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the River, strong and many, even the king of Assyria and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his 8 banks: and he shall sweep onward into Judah; he shall overflow and pass through; he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, <sup>15</sup>O Immanuel.

9 <sup>16</sup>Make an uproar, O ye peoples, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall

10 be broken in pieces. Take counsel together, and it shall be brought to nought; speak the word, and it shall 11 not stand: for <sup>17</sup>God is with us. For the Lord spake thus to me <sup>18</sup>with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, Say ye not, A conspiracy, concerning all whereof this people shall say, A conspiracy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be in dread thereof.

13 The Lord of hosts, him shall ye sanctify; and let him be your fear, and let

14 him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of 15 Jerusalem. And <sup>19</sup>many shall stumble thereon, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind thou up the testimony, seal the 17 <sup>20</sup>law among my disciples. And I will wait for the Lord, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will

18 look for him. Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwell-eth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits and unto the wizards, that chirp and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? on behalf of the living should they seek unto the dead?

20 To the <sup>20</sup>law and to the testimony! <sup>21</sup>If they speak not according to this word, surely there is no morning for them.

<sup>9</sup> be driven away. <sup>3</sup> But there shall be no gloom to her that was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time hath he made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, <sup>4</sup> Galilee of the nations. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwelt in the land of the <sup>5</sup> shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. <sup>3</sup> Thou hast multiplied the nation, <sup>6</sup> thou hast increased their joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, thou hast broken as in the day of Midian. For

<sup>7</sup> all the armour of the armed man in the tumult, and the garments rolled in blood, shall even be for burning, for <sup>6</sup> fuel of fire. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called <sup>8</sup> Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, <sup>9</sup> Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgement and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall perform this.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD sent a word into Jacob, <sup>9</sup> and it hath lighted upon Israel. And all the people shall know, <sup>even</sup> Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in pride and in stoutness of heart, <sup>10</sup> The bricks are fallen, but we will build with hewn stone: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. Therefore the LORD <sup>10</sup> shall set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and <sup>11</sup> shall <sup>12</sup> stir up his enemies; the Syrians <sup>13</sup> before, and the Philistines <sup>14</sup> behind; and they <sup>15</sup> shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

<sup>13</sup> Yet the people hath not turned unto him that smote them, neither have they sought the LORD of hosts. Therefore the LORD <sup>16</sup> will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm-branch and rush, <sup>15</sup> in one day. The <sup>17</sup> ancient and the honourable man, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are <sup>17</sup> led of them are <sup>18</sup> destroyed. Therefore the LORD shall not rejoice over their young men, neither shall he have compassion on their fatherless and widows:

for every one is profane and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

<sup>10</sup> Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers that write perverseness: to turn aside the needy from judgement, and to take away the right of the poor of my people, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless <sup>3</sup> their prey! And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye <sup>4</sup> leave your glory? <sup>20</sup> They shall only bow down under the prisoners, and shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

<sup>5</sup> <sup>21</sup> Ho Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, the staff in whose hand is mine indignation! I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and <sup>22</sup> to tread them down like the mire of the streets. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to <sup>8</sup> cut off nations not a few. For he saith, Are not my princes all of them kings? <sup>9</sup> Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus? As my hand hath <sup>23</sup> found the kingdoms of the idols, whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem <sup>11</sup> and of Samaria; shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

<sup>12</sup> Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the LORD hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will <sup>24</sup> punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. For he hath said, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the peoples, and have

I have commanded my consecrated ones, yea, I have called my mighty men for mine anger, <sup>4</sup>even <sup>11</sup>my proudly exulting ones. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people! the noise of a tumult of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! the LORD of hosts <sup>5</sup>mustereth the host for the battle. They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to <sup>6</sup>destroy the whole land. Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; as destruction from <sup>12</sup>the Almighty shall it come. Therefore shall all hands be feeble, and every heart of man shall <sup>8</sup>melt: and they shall be dismayed; <sup>13</sup>pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman in travail: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be faces of <sup>9</sup>flame. Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy the sinners thereof out of it. For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. I will make a man more rare than fine gold, even a man than the pure gold of Ophir. Therefore I will make the heavens to tremble, and the earth shall be shaken out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>14</sup> And it shall come to pass, that as the chased <sup>14</sup>roe, and as sheep that no man gathereth, they shall turn every man to his own people, and shall flee every man to his own land. Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is <sup>15</sup>taken shall fall by the sword. Their infants also shall be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their <sup>17</sup>wives ravished. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver, and as for gold, they shall not delight in it. And their bows shall dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare <sup>19</sup>children. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, shall be as when God overthrew <sup>20</sup>Sodom and Gomorrah. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall shepherds make their <sup>21</sup>flocks to lie down there. But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and ostriches shall dwell there, <sup>22</sup>and <sup>16</sup>satyrs shall dance there. And <sup>17</sup>wolves shall <sup>18</sup>cry in their castles, and jackals in the pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her <sup>14</sup>days shall not be prolonged. rest from thy sorrow, and from thy trouble, and from the hard service
 4 wherein thou wast made to serve, that thou shalt take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the <sup>1</sup>golden city ceased! The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers: <sup>2</sup> that smote the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, that ruled the nations in anger, with a per-
 7 secution that none restrained. The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet:
 8 they break forth into singing. Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up
 9 against us. <sup>3</sup> Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up <sup>4</sup> the dead for thee, even all the <sup>5</sup> chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.
 10 All they shall answer and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?
 11 Thy pomp is brought down to <sup>3</sup> hell, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and worms cover
 12 thee. How art thou fallen from heaven, O day star, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, 13 which didst lay low the nations! And thou saidst in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; and I will sit upon the mount of congregation, in the 14 uttermost parts of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;
 15 I will be like the Most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to <sup>3</sup> hell, to the uttermost parts of the pit.
 16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, they shall consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake king-17 doms; that made the world as a wilderness, and overthrew the cities there-
 18 of; that let not loose his prisoners to their home? All the kings of the na-
 19 tions, all of them, sleep in glory, every one in his own house. But thou art cast forth away from thy sepulchre like an abominable branch, <sup>6</sup> clothed with the slain, that are thrust through with the sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden 20 under foot. Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, thou hast slain thy people; the seed of evil-doers shall 21 not be named for ever. Prepare ye <sup>7</sup> slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they rise not up, and possess the earth, and fill 22 the face of the world with cities. And I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and 23 son's son, saith the LORD. I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

 27 the nations. For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year that king Ahaz died was this <sup>8</sup> burden.

29 Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of thee, because the rod that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a <sup>9</sup> basilisk, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and thy remnant shall be slain.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou art melted away, O Philistia, all of thee; for there cometh a smoke out of the north, and <sup>10</sup> none standeth aloof at 32 his appointed times. What then shall one answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD hath founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of his people take refuge.

 3 off. In their streets they gird themselves with sackcloth: on their house-tops, and in their broad places, every one howleth, weeping abundantly.
 4 And Heshbon crieth out, and Elealeh; their voice is heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembleth within him.

5 My heart crieth out for Moab; her <sup>16</sup> nobles flee unto Zoar, <sup>17</sup> to Eglath-shelishiyah: for by the ascent of Luhith with weeping they go up; for in the way of Horonaim they raise up

All ye inhabitants of the world, and ye dwellers on the earth, when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye; and when <sup>4</sup>the trumpet is blown, hear ye. For thus hath the LORD said unto me, I will be still, and I will behold in my dwelling place; <sup>6</sup>like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the <sup>5</sup>heat of harvest. For afore the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becometh a ripening grape, he shall cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and the spreading branches <sup>6</sup>shall he take away and cut down. They shall be left together unto the ravenous birds of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the ravenous birds shall summer upon them, and all the boasts of the earth shall winter <sup>7</sup>upon them. In that time shall a present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people <sup>7</sup>tall and smooth, and from a people terrible from their beginning onward; a nation that meteth out and treadeth down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

19 The <sup>8</sup>burden of Egypt.

Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and cometh unto Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt <sup>2</sup>shall melt in the midst of it. And I will <sup>9</sup>stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against <sup>3</sup>kingdom. And the spirit of Egypt shall be made void in the midst of it; and I will <sup>10</sup>destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek unto the idols, and to the <sup>11</sup>charmings, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the <sup>4</sup>wizards. And I will <sup>12</sup>give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD <sup>5</sup>of hosts. And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be <sup>6</sup>wasted and become dry. And the rivers shall stink; the <sup>13</sup>streams of <sup>14</sup>Egypt shall be diminished and dried up: the <sup>7</sup>reeds and flags shall wither away. The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all that is sown by the Nile, shall become dry, be driven away, <sup>8</sup>and be no more. The fishers also shall lament, and all they that cast angle into the Nile shall mourn, and they

that spread nets upon the waters shall <sup>9</sup>languish. Moreover they that work in combed flax, and they that weave <sup>10</sup>white cloth, shall be ashamed. And her <sup>16</sup>pillars shall be broken in pieces, all they <sup>17</sup>that work for hire shall be grieved in soul. The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish; the counsel of the wisest counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the <sup>12</sup>son of ancient kings? Where then are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now; and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed concerning Egypt. The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of <sup>18</sup>Noph are deceived; they have caused Egypt to go astray, that are the corner <sup>14</sup>stone of her tribes. The LORD hath mingled a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her: and they have caused Egypt to go astray in every work thereof, as a drunken man <sup>19</sup>staggereth in his vomit. Neither shall there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm-branch or rush, may do. <sup>16</sup>In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh <sup>17</sup>over it. And the land of Judah shall become a terror unto Egypt, <sup>20</sup>every one to whom mention is made thereof shall be afraid, because of the purpose of the LORD of hosts, which he purposeth against it. <sup>18</sup>In that day there shall be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called The city of <sup>21</sup>destruction. <sup>19</sup>In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border <sup>20</sup>thereof to the LORD. And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and <sup>22</sup>a defender, <sup>21</sup>and he shall deliver them. And the LORD shall <sup>23</sup>be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day; yea, they shall worship with sacrifice and oblation, and shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and shall <sup>22</sup>perform it. And the LORD shall smite Egypt, smiting and healing; and they shall return unto the LORD, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them. <sup>23</sup>In that day shall there be a high way out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians. <sup>24</sup>In that day shall Israel be the 20 In the year that <sup>1</sup>Tartan came unto Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; at that time the LORD spake by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put thy shoe from off thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot <sup>2</sup>three years for a sign and a wonder upon Egypt and upon <sup>3</sup>Ethiopia; so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they shall be dismayed and ashamed, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. And the inhabitant of this coastland shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and we, how shall we escape?

21 The <sup>4</sup>burden of the wilderness of the sea.

As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it cometh from the wilderness, from a terrible land. A <sup>5</sup>grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof <sup>6</sup>have I made to cease. 3 Therefore are my loins filled with anguish; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman in travail: I am <sup>7</sup>pained so that I cannot hear; I am dismayed so that I cannot see. My heart <sup>8</sup>panteth, horror hath affrighted me: the twilight that I desired hath been turned into trembling unto me. They prepare the table, they <sup>9</sup>set the watch, they eat, they drink: rise up, ye princes, anoint the shield. 6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman; let him declare what he seeth: <sup>10</sup>and when he seeth <sup>11</sup>a troop, <sup>12</sup>horsemen in pairs, <sup>11</sup>a troop of asses, <sup>11</sup>a troop of camels, he shall hearken diligently with much heed. And he cried as a lion: O Lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the day-time, and am set in <sup>9</sup>my ward <sup>13</sup>whole nights: and, behold, here <sup>14</sup>cometh a troop of men, <sup>12</sup>horsemen in pairs. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods are 10 broken unto the ground. O thou my threshing, and the <sup>15</sup>corn of my floor: that which I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 The <sup>4</sup>burden of Dumah.

One calleth unto me out of Seir, Watchman, <sup>16</sup>what of the night? 12 Watchman, <sup>16</sup>what of the night? The watchman said, The morning <sup>17</sup>cometh, and also the night: if ye will inquire, inquire ye: <sup>18</sup>turn ye, come.

13 The <sup>19</sup>burden upon Arabia.

In the <sup>20</sup>forest <sup>21</sup>in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanites. Unto him that <sup>22</sup>was thirsty they brought water; <sup>23</sup>the inhabitants of the land of Tema did meet the fugitives with their bread. For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war. 16 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of 17 Kedar shall fail: and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be few: for the LORD, the God of Israel, hath spoken it.

22 The <sup>4</sup>burden of the valley of vision.

What aileth thee now, that thou art 2 wholly gone up to the housetops? O thou that art full of shoutings, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; thy slain are not slain with the sword, 3 neither are they dead in battle. All thy rulers fled away together, they were bound <sup>24</sup>by the archers: all that were found of thee were bound to 4 gether, <sup>25</sup>they fled afar off. Therefore said I, Look away from me, I will weep bitterly; <sup>26</sup>labour not to comfort me, for the spoiling of the daughter of my 5 people. For it is a day of discomfiture, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the LORD, the LORD of hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the <sup>27</sup>mountains. And Elam bare the quiver, with <sup>28</sup>chariots of men and horsemen; and 7 Kir uncovered the shield. And it came to pass, that thy choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set 8 themselves in array at the gate. And he took away the covering of Judah; and thou didst look in that day to the armour 9 in the house of the forest. And ye saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool. 10 And ye numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and ye brake down the houses to 11 fortify the wall. Ye made also a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye looked not unto <sup>29</sup>him that had done this, neither had ye respect unto him that fashioned it long

And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; and he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a throne of glory to his father's house. And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the vessels of cups even to all the vessels of flagons. In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall the nail that was fastened in a sure place give way; and it shall be hewn down, and fall, and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off; for the Lord hath spoken it.

23 The <sup>6</sup>burden of Tyre.

Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. Be still, ye inhabitants of the <sup>7</sup>isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. 3 And on great waters the seed of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue; and she was the mart of 4 nations. Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, the strong hold of the sea, saying, I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up 5 virgins. <sup>8</sup>When the report cometh to Egypt, they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the 7 isle. Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is <sup>9</sup>of ancient days, whose feet carried her afar off to sojourn? 8 Who hath purposed this against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the 9 honourable of the earth? The Lord of hosts hath purposed it, to <sup>10</sup>stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth. 10 <sup>12</sup>Pass through thy land as the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no 11 girdle about thee any more. He hath stretched out his hand over the sea, he hath shaken the kingdoms: the Lord hath given commandment concerning <sup>13</sup>Canaan, to destroy the strong holds thereof. And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Kittim; even there shalt thou have no 13 rest. Behold, the land of the Chaldeans; this people <sup>14</sup>is no more; the Assyrian <sup>15</sup>hath appointed it for <sup>16</sup>the beasts of the wilderness: they set up <sup>17</sup>their towers, they <sup>18</sup>overthrew the palaces thereof; he made it a ruin. 14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your 15 strong hold is laid waste. And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years <sup>19</sup>it shall be unto Tyre as in the song of the harlot. Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered. And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the Lord will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her hire, and shall play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the 18 world upon the face of the earth. And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for <sup>20</sup>durable clothing.

24 Behold, the Lord maketh the <sup>21</sup>earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth 2 abroad the inhabitants thereof. And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of

3 usury to him. The earth shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled; for 4 the LORD hath spoken this word. The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away,
5 the lofty people of the earth do languish. The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting
6 covenant. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are found guilty: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are 7 burned, and few men left. The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh. The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of 8 the harp ceaseth. They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall 9 be bitter to them that drink it. The city of <sup>2</sup>confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man 10 may come in. There is a crying in the streets because of the wine; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is 11 <sup>3</sup>gone. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.
12 For thus shall it be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the <sup>4</sup>shaking of an olive tree, as the grape gleanings when the vintage
13 is done. These shall lift up their voice, they shall shout; for the majesty of the LORD they cry aloud 14 from the sea. Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the <sup>5</sup>east, even the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the 15 <sup>6</sup>isles of the sea.
16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, glory to the righteous. But I said, <sup>7</sup>I pine away, I pine away, woe is me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt 17 very treacherously. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth. And it shall 18 come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the 19 earth do shake. The earth is utterly broken, the earth is clean dissolved, 20 the earth is moved exceedingly. The earth shall stagger like a drunken man, and shall be moved to and fro like a hut; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it, and it shall fall, and not rise again.
21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall <sup>8</sup>punish the host of the <sup>9</sup>high ones on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.
22 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the <sup>10</sup>pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be <sup>11</sup>visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and <sup>12</sup>before his <sup>13</sup>ancients gloriously.
25 O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things, even counsels of old, in faithfulness
2 and truth. For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it
3 shall never be built. Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.
4 For thou hast been a strong hold to the poor, a strong hold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against
5 the wall. As the heat in a dry place shalt thou bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shadow of a cloud, the song of the terrible ones
6 shall be brought low. And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees
7 well refined. And he will <sup>14</sup>destroy in this mountain the face of the covering that is cast over all peoples, and the 8 veil that is spread over all nations. He hath swallowed up death for ever; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the reproach of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.
9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.
10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down in his place, even as straw is trodden down <sup>15</sup>in the water of 11 the dunghill. And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst <sup>16</sup>thereof, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim; <sup>17</sup>and he shall lay low <sup>18</sup>his pride <sup>19</sup>together with the craft of 12 <sup>18</sup>his hands. And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls <sup>20</sup>hath he brought down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.
26 In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; salvation will he appoint for walls
2 and bulwarks. Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth
3 truth may enter in. <sup>21</sup>Thou wilt keep him <sup>22</sup>in perfect peace, whose <sup>23</sup>mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth brought down them that dwell on high, the lofty city: he layeth it low, he layeth it low even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust. The foot shall tread it down; even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy. The way of the just is <sup>1</sup>uprightness: thou that art upright dost <sup>2</sup>direct the path of the just. Yea, in the way of thy judgements, O LORD, have we waited for thee; to thy name and to thy memorial is the desire of our soul. With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee <sup>3</sup>early: for when thy judgements are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness will he deal wrongfully, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, thy hand is lifted up, yet they see not: but they shall see <sup>4</sup>thy zeal for the people, and be ashamed; yea, <sup>5</sup>fire shall devour thine adversaries.

12 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou hast also wrought all our works for us. O LORD our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name. <sup>6</sup>They are dead, they shall not live; <sup>7</sup>they are <sup>8</sup>deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation; thou art glorified: <sup>9</sup>thou hast enlarged all the borders of the land.

16 LORD, in trouble have they <sup>9</sup>visited thee, they poured out a <sup>10</sup>prayer when thy chastening was upon them. Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been <sup>11</sup>before thee, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; <sup>12</sup>neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy dead shall live; my dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in the dust: for thy dew is as the dew of <sup>13</sup>herbs, and the earth shall cast forth <sup>14</sup>the dead.

20 Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

27 In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the <sup>15</sup>swift serpent, and leviathan the <sup>16</sup>crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day: <sup>17</sup>A vineyard of wine, sing ye <sup>18</sup>unto it. I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: would that the briers and thorns were against me in battle! I would march upon them, I would burn them together. Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; yea, let him make peace with me. <sup>19</sup>In days to come shall Jacob take root; Israel shall blossom and bud: and they shall fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Hath he smitten him as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter <sup>20</sup>of them that were slain by him? <sup>21</sup>In measure, <sup>22</sup>when thou sendest her away, thou dost contend with her; he hath removed her with his rough blast in the 9 day of the east wind. Therefore by this shall the iniquity of Jacob be <sup>23</sup>purged, and this is all the fruit <sup>24</sup>of taking away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, so that the <sup>25</sup>Asherim and the sun-images shall rise no more. For the defenced city is solitary, an habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and 11 consume the branches thereof. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off; the women shall come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding; therefore he that made them will not have compassion upon them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall <sup>26</sup>beat off his fruit, from the flood of the River unto the brook of Egypt, and ye shall be <sup>27</sup>gathered <sup>28</sup>one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come which were <sup>29</sup>ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt; and they shall worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley of them that are <sup>30</sup>overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one; as a tempest of hail, a destroying storm, as a tempest of mighty waters overflowing, shall he cast down to the earth <sup>31</sup>with the hand.

beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be as the firstripe fig before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in 5 his hand he catcheth it up. In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, 6 unto the residue of his people: and for a spirit of judgement to him that sitteth in judgement, and for strength to them that turn back the battle <sup>1</sup>at the gate. 7 But these also <sup>2</sup>have erred through wine, and through strong drink <sup>3</sup>are gone astray; the priest and the prophet <sup>2</sup>have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are gone astray through strong drink; they <sup>3</sup>err in vision, they stumble in judgement. 8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place 9 clean. <sup>4</sup>Whom will he teach knowledge? and whom will he make to understand the <sup>5</sup>message? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn 10 from the breasts? For it is precept upon precept, precept upon precept; <sup>6</sup>line upon line, line upon line; here a 11 little, there a little. <sup>7</sup>Nay, but by men of strange lips and with another tongue 12 will he speak to this people: to whom he said, <sup>8</sup>This is the rest, give ye rest to him that is weary; and this is the refreshing; yet they would not hear. 13 Therefore shall the word of the LORD be unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. 14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people 15 which is in Jerusalem: Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with <sup>9</sup>hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us; for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we 16 hid ourselves: therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I <sup>9</sup>lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone of sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make 17 haste. And I will make judgement the line, and righteousness the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall 18 overflow the hiding place. And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with <sup>9</sup>hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye 19 shall be trodden down by it. As often as it passeth through, it shall take you; for morning by morning shall it pass through, by day and by night: and it shall be nought but terror to understand the <sup>6</sup>message. For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. 21 For the LORD shall rise up as in <sup>10</sup>mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his strange work, and bring to 22 pass his act, his strange act. Now therefore be ye not scornful, lest your hands be made strong: for a consummation, and that determined, have I heard from the LORD, the LORD of hosts, upon the whole <sup>11</sup>earth. 23 Give ye ear, and hear my voice; 24 hearken, and hear my speech. Doth the plowman plow continually to sow? doth he continually open and break the 25 clods of his ground? When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the <sup>12</sup>fitches, and scatter the cummin, and put in the wheat in rows and the barley in the appointed place and the spelt in the border 26 thereof? <sup>13</sup>For his God doth instruct him aright, and doth teach him. For the fitches are not threshed with a sharp threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with 28 a rod. <sup>14</sup>Bread corn is ground; for he will not ever be threshing it: and though the wheel of his cart and his horses scatter it, he doth not grind it. 29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in <sup>15</sup>wisdom. 29 <sup>16</sup>Ho <sup>17</sup>Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! add ye year to 2 year; let the feasts come round: then will I distress Ariel, and there shall be mourning and lamentation: <sup>18</sup>and 3 she shall be unto me as Ariel. And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a fort, and I will raise siege works against 4 thee. And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust; and thy voice shall be as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall <sup>19</sup>whisper out of 5 the dust. But the multitude of thy <sup>20</sup>foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at 6 an instant suddenly. <sup>21</sup>She shall be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire. 7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her strong hold, and that distress her, shall be as a 8 dream, a vision of the night. he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

9 <sup>1</sup>Tarry ye and wonder; <sup>2</sup>take your pleasure and be blind: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed <sup>3</sup>your eyes, the prophets; and your heads, the seers, hath he covered. 11 And all vision is become unto you as the words of a <sup>4</sup>book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that <sup>5</sup>is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot, for it is sealed: 12 and the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 And the LORD said, Forasmuch as this people draw nigh unto me, and with their mouth and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which 14 hath been <sup>6</sup>taught them: therefore, behold, I will <sup>7</sup>proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 <sup>8</sup>Ye turn things upside down! Shall the potter be counted as clay; that the thing made should say of him that made it, He made me not; or the thing framed say of him that framed

17 it, He hath no understanding? Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted

18 for a forest? And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of <sup>9</sup>the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out

19 of obscurity and out of darkness. The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner ceaseth, and all they that watch for iniquity are 21 cut off: that <sup>10</sup>make a man an offender in a cause, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just with a thing of nought.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now

23 wax pale. <sup>11</sup>But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name; yea, they shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall stand in <sup>12</sup>awe of the God of Israel. They also that err in spirit <sup>13</sup>shall come to understanding, and they that murmur shall learn <sup>14</sup>doctrine.

30 Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that <sup>14</sup>cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may <sup>2</sup>add sin to sin: that walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to <sup>15</sup>strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust <sup>3</sup>in the shadow of Egypt! Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of <sup>4</sup>Egypt your confusion. For his princes are at Zoan, and his ambassadors are <sup>5</sup>come to Hanes. They shall all be ashamed of a people that cannot profit them, that are not an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

Through the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For Egypt helpeth in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I <sup>17</sup>called her

8 Rahab that sitteth still. Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time

11 things, prophecy deceits: get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease

12 from before us. Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay there-

13 on; therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking

14 cometh suddenly at an instant. And he shall break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing; so that there shall not be found among the pieces thereof a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the cistern.

15 For thus said the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as <sup>1</sup>a beacon upon the top of a

 18 And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you,
 and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgement; blessed are all they that wait for him.
 19 For <sup>2</sup>the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more; he will surely be gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he 20 shall hear, he will answer thee. <sup>3</sup>And though the LORD give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy <sup>4</sup>teachers <sup>5</sup>be hidden any more, but thine eyes shall see thy 21 <sup>4</sup>teachers: and thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it; when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to 22 the left. And ye shall defile the overlaying of thy graven images of silver, and the plating of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt <sup>6</sup>cast them away as an <sup>7</sup>unclean thing; thou shalt say 23 unto it, Get thee hence. And he shall give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the ground, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.
 24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that till the ground shall eat <sup>8</sup>savoury provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.
 25 And there shall be upon every lofty mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, when the 26 towers fall. Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the hurt of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.
 27 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke: his lips are full of indignation, and his 28 tongue is as a devouring fire: and his breath is as an overflowing stream, that reacheth even unto the neck, to sift
 the nations with the sieve of <sup>9</sup>vanity:
 and a bridle that causeth to err shall 29 be in the jaws of the peoples. Ye shall have a song as in the night <sup>10</sup>when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the 30 LORD, to the Rock of Israel. And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with <sup>11</sup>a blast, and tempest, and hailstones. For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be broken in pieces, <sup>12</sup>which smote 32 with a rod. And every <sup>13</sup>stroke of the <sup>14</sup>appointed staff, which the LORD shall lay upon him, shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking 33 will he fight with them. For <sup>15</sup>a Topheth is prepared of old; yea, for the king it is made ready; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

31 Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses; and trust in chariots, because they are many,
 and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek 2 the LORD! Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the 3 help of them that work iniquity. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
 and their horses flesh, and not spirit:
 and when the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall stumble, and he that is holpen shall fall, and they all shall fall together.
 4 For thus saith the LORD unto me, Like as when the lion growleth and the young lion over his prey if a multitude of shepherds be called forth against him, he will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight 5 upon mount Zion, and <sup>16</sup>upon the hill thereof. As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts protect Jerusalem;
 he will protect and deliver it, he will 6 pass over and preserve it. Turn ye unto him <sup>17</sup>from whom <sup>18</sup>ye have deeply revolted, O children of Israel. For in that day they shall cast away every man his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have 8 made unto you for a sin. Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of man; and the sword, not of men, shall devour him: and he shall flee from the sword, and his young men 9 shall become tributary. And his rock shall pass away by reason of terror, and his princes shall be dismayed at the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

32 Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in

The heart also of the <sup>2</sup>rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall <sup>5</sup>be ready to speak plainly. The <sup>3</sup>vile person shall be no more called <sup>4</sup>liberal, nor the <sup>5</sup>churl said to be bountiful. <sup>6</sup>For the <sup>3</sup>vile person will speak <sup>6</sup>villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise profaneness, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the <sup>7</sup>drink of the thirsty to fail. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the <sup>7</sup>meek with lying words, even <sup>8</sup>when the needy speaketh right. But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and <sup>8</sup>in liberal things shall he continue.

9 Rise up, ye women that are at ease, and hear my voice; ye <sup>9</sup>careless daughters, give ear unto my speech. <sup>10</sup>For days beyond a year shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the ingathering shall <sup>11</sup>not come. Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and <sup>12</sup>gird sackcloth upon your loins. <sup>12</sup>They shall smite upon the breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful <sup>13</sup>vine. Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the <sup>14</sup>joyous city: for the palace shall be forsaken; the populous city shall be deserted; <sup>15</sup>the hill and the watch-tower shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild <sup>15</sup>asses, a pasture of flocks; until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest. <sup>16</sup>Then judgement shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness shall abide <sup>17</sup>in the fruitful field. And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and <sup>18</sup>confidence for ever. And my people shall abide in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet <sup>19</sup>resting places. But it shall hail, in the downfall of the forest; and the <sup>20</sup>city shall be utterly laid low. Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth the feet of the ox and the ass.

33 Woe to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! When thou hast ceased to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou hast made an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously <sup>2</sup>with thee. O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. At the noise of the tumult the peoples are fled; at the lifting up of thyself the <sup>4</sup>nations are scattered. And your spoil shall be gathered as the caterpillar gathereth: as locusts leap shall they <sup>5</sup>leap upon it. The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgement and righteousness. <sup>13</sup>And there shall be stability in thy times, abundance of salvation, wisdom and knowledge: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones cry without: the ambassadors of peace weep <sup>8</sup>bitterly. The high ways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the <sup>9</sup>cities, he regardeth not man. The land mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and withereth away: Sharon is like <sup>14</sup>a desert; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.

10 Now will I arise, saith the LORD; now will I lift up myself; now will I be ex-
<sup>11</sup>alted. Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath is a <sup>12</sup>fire that shall devour you. And the peoples shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire.

13 Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknow-
<sup>14</sup>ledge my might. The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling hath surprised the goddess ones. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting <sup>15</sup>burnings? He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of <sup>15</sup>oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes <sup>16</sup>from looking upon evil; he shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: his bread shall be given him; his waters shall be

<sup>20</sup>stand. Look upon Zion, the city of our <sup>19</sup>solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tent that shall not be removed, the stakes whereof shall never be plucked up, neither shall any of the cords thereof

<sup>21</sup>be broken. But there the LORD will be with us in majesty, <sup>20</sup>a place of broad rivers and streams; wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant <sup>22</sup>ship pass thereby. For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us.

 23 Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not strengthen the foot of their mast, they could not spread the sail: then was the prey of a great spoil divided;
 24 the lame took the prey. And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

34 Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye peoples: let the earth hear, and the fulness thereof; the world, and all things that come forth of it.
 2 For the LORD hath indignation against all the nations, and fury against all their host: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the 3 slaughter. Their slain also shall be cast out, and the stink of their carcases shall come up, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fade away, as the leaf fadeth from off the vine, and as a fading leaf from the fig tree. For my sword hath drunk its fill in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Edom, and upon the people of my curse, to judgement. The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. And the wild-oxen shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be drunken with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, the year of recompence in the controversy of Zion. And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch. It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever. But the pelican and the porcupine shall possess it; and the owl and the raven shall dwell therein: and he shall stretch over it the line of confusion, and the plummet of emptiness.
 6 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there; and all her princes shall be nothing. And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and thistles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall be an habitation of jackals, a court for ostriches. And the wild beasts of the desert shall meet with the wolves, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; yea, the night-monster shall settle there,

15 and shall find her a place of rest. There shall the arrowsnake make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: yea, there shall the kites be gathered, every one with her mate.
 16 Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall be missing, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them. And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

35 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.
 2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: they shall see the glory of the LORD, the excellency of our God.
 3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompence of God; he will come and save you.
 5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the glowing sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water: in the habitation of jackals, where they lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. And an high way shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the way-faring men, yea fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up thereon, they shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there: and the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

36 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the high way of the fuller's field. Then came forth unto him Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the <sup>1</sup>scribe, and Joah the 4 son of Asaph the <sup>2</sup>recorder. And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king,

the king of Assyria, What confidence 5 is this wherein thou trustest? I say, thy counsel and strength for the war are but vain words: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou hast rebelled 6 against me? Behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that 7 trust on him. But if thou say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this 8 altar? Now therefore, I pray thee, <sup>3</sup>give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy 9 part to set riders upon them. How then canst thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horse-10 men? And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up 11 against this land, and destroy it. Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the <sup>4</sup>Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.
12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall,
to eat their own dung, and to drink
13 their own water with you? Then Rab-shakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said,
Hear ye the words of the great king, 14 the king of Assyria. Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you;
for he shall not be able to deliver you:
15 neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of As-16 syria. Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, <sup>5</sup>Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cis-to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and 18 vineyards. Beware lest Hezekiah per-are the gods of Hamath and Arpad?

where are the gods of Sepharvaim?
and have they delivered Samaria out 20 of my hand? Who are they among all the gods of these countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem 21 out of my hand? But they held their peace, and answered him not a word:
for the king's commandment was, say-22 ing, Answer him not. Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

37 <sup>6</sup>And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the 2 LORD. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the 3 prophet the son of Amoz. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of contumely: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, <sup>7</sup>whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy 5 prayer for the remnant that is left. So the servants of king Hezekiah came to 6 Isaiah. And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria 7 have blasphemed me. Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return unto his own land; and I will cause him to fall
by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was 9 departed from Lachish. And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come out to fight against thee. And when he heard it, he sent 10 messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into 11 the hand of the king of Assyria. Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by <sup>8</sup>destroying them utterly: and shalt

13 Eden which were in Telassar? Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? 14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord. And Hezekiah prayed 15 unto the Lord, saying, O Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, that <sup>2</sup>sittest upon the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven 17 and earth. Incline thine ear, O Lord, and hear; open thine eyes, O Lord, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God. Of a truth, Lord, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries, and their land, 19 and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O Lord our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the Lord, even thou only. 21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib 22 king of Assyria, this is the word which the Lord hath spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion hath despised thee and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken 23 her head <sup>3</sup>at thee. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel. 24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice <sup>4</sup>fir trees thereof: and I will enter into his farthest height, the forest of his fruitful field. 25 I have digged and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up 26 all the rivers of <sup>5</sup>Egypt. Hast thou not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities 27 into ruinous heaps. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as <sup>6</sup>a field of corn before 28 it be grown up. But I know thy sitting down, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy raging against me. 29 Because of thy raging against me, and for that <sup>7</sup>thine arrogancy is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way 30 by which thou camest. And this shall be the sign unto thee: ye shall eat this year that which groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, 31 and eat the fruit thereof. And <sup>8</sup>the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion they that shall escape: the zeal of the Lord of hosts 33 shall perform this. Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come unto this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor 34 cast a mount against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come unto 35 this city, saith the Lord. For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. 36 And the angel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when men arose early in the morning, behold, they 37 were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. 38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead. 38 <sup>9</sup>In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, 2 and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto 3 the Lord, and said, Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And 4 Hezekiah wept sore. Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah, saying, 5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy 6 days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend 7 this city. And this shall be the sign unto thee from the Lord, that the Lord will do this thing that he hath 8 spoken: behold, I will cause the shadow on the steps, which is gone down on the

<sup>10</sup> I said, In the <sup>4</sup>noontide of my days I shall go into the gates of <sup>5</sup>the grave:

I am deprived of the residue of my years.

<sup>11</sup> I said, I shall not see <sup>6</sup>the LORD, even <sup>6</sup>the LORD in the land of the living:

I shall behold man no more <sup>7</sup>with the inhabitants of the world.

<sup>12</sup> Mine <sup>8</sup>age is removed, and is carried away from me as a shepherd's tent: I have rolled up like a weaver my life; he will cut me off from the <sup>9</sup>loom: From day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

<sup>13</sup> <sup>10</sup>I quieted myself until morning; as a lion, so he breaketh all my bones: From day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

<sup>14</sup> Like a swallow or a crane, so did I chatter;

I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward;

O LORD, I am oppressed, be thou my surety.

<sup>15</sup> What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it:

I shall go <sup>11</sup>softly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>16</sup> O Lord, by these things men live, And wholly therein is the life of my spirit:

<sup>12</sup> Wherefore recover thou me, and make me to live.

<sup>17</sup> Behold, it was for my peace that I had great bitterness:

But <sup>13</sup>thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of <sup>14</sup>corruption;

For thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

<sup>18</sup> For <sup>5</sup>the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: They that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

<sup>19</sup> The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day:

The father to the children shall make known thy truth.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD is ready to save me: Therefore will I sing my songs to the stringed instruments

All the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> <sup>15</sup>Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

<sup>39</sup> <sup>16</sup>At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he heard that he had been sick,

<sup>2</sup> and was recovered. And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his <sup>17</sup>precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his <sup>18</sup>armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that

<sup>3</sup> Hezekiah shewed them not. Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far coun-

<sup>4</sup> try unto me, even from Babylon. Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures

<sup>5</sup> that I have not shewed them. Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the

<sup>6</sup> word of the LORD of hosts. Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing

<sup>8</sup> Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For these shall be peace and truth in my days.

Behold, the Lord God will come as a mighty one, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his recompence before him. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd, he shall gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that give suck. 12 Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and 13 the hills in a balance? Who hath <sup>2</sup>directed the spirit of the Lord, or being 14 his counsellor hath taught him? To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye 19 compare unto him? The graven image, a workman melted it, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth <sup>6</sup>for it silver chains. He that is too impoverished for such an oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to <sup>6</sup>set up a graven image, that shall 21 not be moved. Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not <sup>7</sup>understood from the foundations 22 of the earth? It is he that sitteth <sup>8</sup>upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as <sup>9</sup>a curtain, and spreadeth them 23 out as a tent to dwell in: that bringeth princes to nothing; he maketh the 24 judges of the earth as <sup>5</sup>vanity. <sup>10</sup>Yea, they have not been planted; yea, they have not been sown; yea, their stock hath not taken root in the earth: moreover he bloweth upon them, and they wither, and the whirlwind taketh them away as stubble. To whom then will ye liken me, that I should be equal to him? saith the Holy One. 26 Lift up your eyes on high, <sup>11</sup>and see who hath created these, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by name; by the greatness of his might, and for that he is strong in power, not one is lacking.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judgement is passed away from my God? Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard? <sup>12</sup>the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary; there is no searching 29 of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to him that hath no 30 might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: 31 but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint. 41 Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the peoples renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgement. Who hath raised up one from the east, <sup>13</sup>whom he calleth in righteousness to his foot? he giveth nations before him, and maketh him rule over kings; <sup>14</sup>he giveth them as the dust to his sword, as the driven 33 stubble to his bow. He pursueth them, and passeth on safely; even by a way that he had not gone with his feet. 4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the Lord, the first, and with 5 the last, I am he. The isles saw, and feared; the ends of the earth trembled: they drew near, and came. They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of 7 good courage. So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smiteth the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved. 8 But thou, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend; thou whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the corners thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee and 10 not cast thee away; fear thou not, for I am with thee; <sup>15</sup>be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Behold, all they that are incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they that strive with thee shall be as nothing, and shall 12 perish. Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contend with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and 13 as a thing of nought. For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help 14 thee. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and <sup>1</sup>thy redeemer is 15 the Holy One of Israel. Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as 16 chaff. Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, thou shalt glory in the Holy One of Is- 17 rael. The poor and needy seek water and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst; I the LORD will answer them, I the God of Israel will 18 not forsake them. I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and 19 the dry land springs of water. I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia tree, and the myrtle, and the <sup>2</sup>oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, the <sup>3</sup>pine, and the <sup>4</sup>box tree 20 together: that they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith 22 the King of Jacob. Let them bring them forth, and declare unto us what shall happen: declare ye the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or shew us things for to 23 come. Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may <sup>5</sup>be dismayed, and 24 behold it together. Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he is come; from the rising of the sun one that calleth upon my name: and he shall come upon <sup>6</sup>rulers as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth 26 clay. Who hath declared it from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that heareth your 27 words. I first will say unto Zion, Behold, behold them; and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good 28 tidings. And when I look, there is no man; even among them there is no counsellor, that, when I ask of them, can 29 answer a word. <sup>7</sup>Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nought: their molten images are wind and confusion.

42 Behold my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgement to

2 the <sup>8</sup>Gentiles. He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in 3 the street. A bruised reed shall he not break, and the <sup>9</sup>smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgement in truth. He shall not <sup>10</sup>fail nor be <sup>11</sup>discouraged, till he have set judgement in the earth; and the isles shall 5 wait for his law. Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them forth; he that spread abroad the earth and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them 6 that walk therein: I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will <sup>12</sup>keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the 7 people, for a light of the Gentiles; to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison 8 house. I am the LORD; that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise unto graven images. 9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them. 10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth; ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the isles, and the in- 11 habitants thereof. Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit; let the inhabitants of <sup>13</sup>Sela sing, let them shout from the top of 12 the mountains. Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise 13 in the islands. The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man; he shall stir up <sup>14</sup>jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, he shall shout aloud; he shall do mightily against his enemies. 14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry out like a travailing woman; I will <sup>15</sup>gasp and pant 15 together. I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools. 16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they know not; in paths that they know not will I lead them: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things will I do, 17 <sup>16</sup>and I will not forsake them. They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say unto molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, 19 that ye may see. Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I send? who is blind as he that is <sup>17</sup>at peace with me, and blind as the 20 LORD's servant? Thou seest many things, but thou observest not; his ears

But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a 23 spoil, and none saith, Restore. Who is there among you that will give ear to this? that will hearken and hear for 24 the time to come? Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD? he against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they would not walk, neither were they 25 obedient unto his <sup>2</sup>law. Therefore he poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle; and it set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

43 But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel: Fear not, for I have redeemed thee; I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine.

2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall 3 the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy saviour; I have given Egypt as thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for 4 thee. Since thou hast been precious in my sight, <sup>3</sup>and honourable, and I have loved thee; therefore will I give men for thee, and peoples for thy life.

5 Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and 6 gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the end of 7 the earth; every one that is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory; I have formed him; 8 yea, I have made him. Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and 9 the deaf that have ears. <sup>4</sup>Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified: <sup>5</sup>or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he; before me there was no God formed, neither shall 11 there be after me. I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and I have saved, and I have shewed, and there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and I am

13 God. Yea, <sup>6</sup>since the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall <sup>7</sup>let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring down <sup>8</sup>all of them as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of 15 their rejoicing. I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your 16 King. Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path 17 in the mighty waters; <sup>9</sup>which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they lie down together, they shall not rise; they are extinct, 18 they are quenched as <sup>10</sup>flax: Remember ye not the former things, neither con-

19 sider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now shall it spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, 20 and rivers in the desert. The beasts of the field shall honour me, the jackals and the ostriches: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my 21 chosen: the people which I formed for myself, <sup>11</sup>that they might set forth my 22 praise. Yet thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary 23 of me, O Israel. Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not made thee to serve with <sup>12</sup>offerings, nor 24 wearied thee with frankincense. Thou hast bought me no <sup>13</sup>sweet cane with money, neither hast thou <sup>14</sup>filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine in-

25 iquities. I, even I, am he that blot-teth out thy transgressions for mine own sake; and I will not remember 26 thy sins. Put me in remembrance; let us plead together: set thou forth <sup>15</sup>thy cause, that thou mayest be justi-fied. Thy first father sinned, and thine <sup>15</sup>interpreters have transgressed 28 against me. Therefore I <sup>16</sup>will profane the <sup>17</sup>princes of the sanctuary, and I <sup>18</sup>will make Jacob a <sup>19</sup>curse, and Israel

44 a reviling. Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have 2 chosen: thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, who will help thee: Fear not, O Jacob my servant; and thou, Jeshurun, whom 3 I have chosen. For I will pour water upon <sup>20</sup>him that is thirsty, and streams upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing 4 upon thine offspring: and they shall spring up among the grass, as willows 5 by the watercourses. 7 <sup>8</sup>And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and that shall come to pass, let them

8 <sup>4</sup>declare. Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have I not declared unto thee of old, and shewed it? and ye are my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no Rock; I know

9 not any. They that fashion a graven image are all of them <sup>5</sup>vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit: and their own witnesses see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath fashioned a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for

11 nothing? Behold, <sup>6</sup>all his fellows shall be ashamed; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; they shall fear, they shall be ashamed

12 together. The smith <sup>7</sup>maketh an axe, and worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with his strong arm: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh

13 no water, and is faint. The carpenter stretcheth out a line; he marketh it out with <sup>8</sup>a pencil; he shapeth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compasses, and shapeth it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, to dwell in the

14 house. He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the holm tree and the oak, and strengtheneth for himself one among the trees of the forest: he planteth <sup>9</sup>a fir tree, and the rain doth

15 nourish it. Then shall it be for a man to burn; and he taketh thereof, and warmeth himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread: yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down there-

16 to. He burneth <sup>10</sup>part thereof in the fire; with <sup>10</sup>part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 and the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it and worshippeth, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me;

18 for thou art my god. They know not, neither do they consider: for he hath <sup>11</sup>shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot

19 understand. And none calleth to mind, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 Remember these things, O Jacob; and Israel, for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, <sup>12</sup>thou shalt not be for-

22 gotten of me. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto

23 me; for I have redeemed thee. Sing, O ye heavens, for the LORD hath done it; shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and will glorify himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb: I am the LORD, that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad

25 the earth; <sup>13</sup>who is with me? that frustrateth the tokens of the <sup>14</sup>liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh

26 their knowledge foolish: that confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith of Jerusalem, She shall be inhabited; and of the cities of Judah, They shall be built, and I will raise up

27 the waste places thereof: that saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up

28 thy rivers: that saith of <sup>15</sup>Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying of Jerusalem, She shall be built; <sup>16</sup>and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

45 Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him, and I will loose the loins of kings; to open the doors before him, and the

2 gates shall not be shut; I will go before thee, and make the rugged places plain: I will break in pieces the doors of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of

3 iron: and I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I am the LORD, which call thee by thy name, even the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel my chosen, I have called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though

5 thou hast not known me. I am the LORD, and there is none else; beside me there is no God: I will gird thee,

6 though thou hast not known me: that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me: I am the LORD, and

Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: Ask me of the things that are to come; concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands, command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

11 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine; they shall go after thee; in chains they shall come over: and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is

13 none else, there is no God. Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. They shall be ashamed, yea, confounded, all of them: they shall go into confusion together

14 that are makers of idols. But Israel shall be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

15 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; he is God; that formed the earth and made it; he established it, he created it not <sup>2</sup>a waste, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD;

16 and there is none else. I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness; I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me <sup>3</sup>in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare

17 things that are right. Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that carry the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a

18 god that cannot save. Declare ye, and <sup>4</sup>bring it forth; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath shewed this from ancient time? who hath declared it of old? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a saviour; there is none

22 beside me. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I

23 am God, and there is none else. By myself have I sworn, <sup>5</sup>the word is gone forth from my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue

24 shall swear. Only in the LORD, <sup>6</sup>shall one say <sup>7</sup>unto me, is righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come, and all they that were incensed

25 against him shall be ashamed. In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

46 Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols are upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: the things that ye carried about are made a load, a burden

2 to the weary beast. They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

3 Harken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which have been borne by me from the belly, which have been carried

4 from the womb: and even to old age I am he, and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; yea, I will carry, and will de-

5 liver. To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that

6 we may be like? Such as lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, they hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god; they fall down, yea,

7 they worship. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and <sup>8</sup>shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. Remember the former things of old: <sup>9</sup>for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and

10 there is none like me; declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand,

11 and I will do all my pleasure: calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of <sup>10</sup>my counsel from a far country; yea, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also

12 do it. Harken unto me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness: I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry; and I will <sup>11</sup>place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will accept no man. Our redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms. I was wroth with my people, I profaned mine inheritance, and gave them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the aged hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke. And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end thereof.

8 Now therefore hear this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and there is none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children: but these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: in their full measure shall they come upon thee, <sup>3</sup>despite of the multitude of thy sorceries, and the great abundance of thine

For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness; thou hast said, None seeth me; thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee: and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and there is none else beside me. Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know <sup>4</sup>the dawning thereof: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou knowest not. Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels: let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from the things that shall come upon thee. Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: it shall not be a coal to warm at, nor a fire to sit before. Thus shall the things be unto thee wherein thou hast laboured: they that have trafficked with thee from thy youth shall wander every one to <sup>7</sup>his quarter; there shall be none to save thee.

48 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah; which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is his name. I have declared the former things from of old; yea, they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them: suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; therefore I have declared it to thee from of old; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them. Thou hast heard it; behold all this; and ye, will ye not declare it? <sup>8</sup>I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, which thou hast not known. They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them. Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from of old thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou didst deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off. Behold, I have refined thee, but not as silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. For mine own sake, for mine own sake, will I do it; for how should my name be profaned? and my glory will I not give to another.

12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Yea, mine hand hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spread out the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 Assemble yourselves, all ye, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? <sup>10</sup>The LORD hath loved him: he shall perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; from the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the LORD God hath sent me, and his spirit. Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD thy God, which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou

18 shouldest go. <sup>11</sup>Oh that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy

20 Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the 22 waters gushed out. There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

49 Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye peoples, from far: the LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made 2 mention of my name: and he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me; and he hath made me a polished shaft, in his quiver hath he kept me

3 close: and he said unto me, Thou art my servant; Israel, in whom I will be 4 glorified. But I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought and vanity: yet surely my judgement is with the LORD, and my 5 recompence with my God. And now saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, <sup>2</sup>and that Israel be gathered unto him: (for I am honourable in the eyes of the LORD, and my

6 God is become my strength:) yea, he saith, It is too light a thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, <sup>3</sup>that thou mayest be my salvation unto the

7 end of the earth. Thus saith the LORD, the redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to a servant of rulers: Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall worship; because of the LORD that is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who hath

8 chosen thee. Thus saith the LORD; In an acceptable time have I answered thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to <sup>4</sup>raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritages;

9 saying to them that are bound, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall

10 be their pasture. They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the <sup>5</sup>heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide 11 them. And I will make all my mountains a way, and my high ways shall be

12 exalted. Lo, these shall come from far:

and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of 13 Sinim. Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have compassion upon his afflicted.

14 But Zion said, Jehovah hath forsaken me, and the LORD hath forgotten

15 me. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, these may forget, yet will not I forget

16 thee. Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are

17 continually before me. <sup>6</sup>Thy children make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of 18 thee. Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, and gird thyself with them,

19 like a bride. For, as for thy waste and thy desolate places and thy land that hath been destroyed, surely now shalt thou be too strait for the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall

20 be far away. The children of thy bereavement shall yet say in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give

21 place to me that I may dwell. Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath <sup>7</sup>begotten me these, seeing I have been bereaved of my children, and am <sup>8</sup>solitary, an exile, and wandering to and fro? and who hath brought up these?

Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they?

22 Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the nations, and set up my ensign to the peoples: and they shall bring thy sons in their bosom, and thy daughters shall be

23 carried upon their shoulders. And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and they that wait for me

24 shall not be ashamed. Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or <sup>9</sup>the lawful captives be delivered? But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered:

for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy 26 children. And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy saviour, and thy redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

ment, wherewith I have put her away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were ye sold, and for your transgressions was your mother put away. Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst. I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord God hath given me the tongue of <sup>1</sup>them that are taught, that I should know how <sup>2</sup>to sustain with words him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as <sup>1</sup>they that are taught. The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, 6 neither turned away backward. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. For the Lord God will help me; therefore have I not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be 8 ashamed. He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand up together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me. Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? behold, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant? <sup>3</sup>he that walketh in darkness, and hath no light, let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his 11 God. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that gird yourselves about with firebrands: walk ye in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

51 Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye were hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence 2 ye were digged. Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him, and made him 3 many. For the LORD hath comforted Zion: he hath comforted all her waste places, and hath made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 Attend unto me, O my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall go forth from me, and I will make my judgement to rest for a 5 light of the peoples. My righteousness is near, my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the peoples; the isles shall wait for me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die <sup>4</sup>in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Harken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye dismayed at their 8 revilings. For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation unto all generations.

9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Art thou not it that cut <sup>5</sup>Rahab in pieces, that pierced the dragon?

10 Art thou not it which dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; that made the depths of the sea a way for 11 the redeemed to pass over? <sup>6</sup>And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou art afraid of man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as

13 grass; and hast forgotten the LORD thy Maker, that stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fearest continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, <sup>7</sup>when he maketh ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the

14 oppressor? <sup>8</sup>The captive exile shall speedily be loosed; and he shall not die and go down into the pit, neither

15 shall his bread fail. For I am the LORD thy God, which <sup>9</sup>stirreth up the sea, that the waves thereof roar: the 16 LORD of hosts is his name. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the bowl of the cup of 18 staggering, and drained it. There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand

tion and destruction, and the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort 20 thee? Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the top of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of 21 thy God. Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not 22 with wine: thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink 23 it again: and I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy back as the ground, and as the street, to them that go over.

52 Awake, awake, put on thy strength,
O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the 2 unclean. Shake thyself from the dust;
arise, sit thee down, O Jerusalem:
3 loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye were sold for nought; and ye shall be re-4 deemed without money. For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there: and the Assyrian oppressed 5 them without cause. Now therefore, what do I here, saith the LORD, seeing that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them do howl, saith the LORD, and my name continually all the day is blasphemed.
6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak;
behold, <sup>2</sup>it is I.

7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that pub-lisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, 8 Thy God reigneth! The voice of thy watchmen! they lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see, eye to eye, <sup>8</sup>when the LORD returneth 9 to Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.
10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the 11 salvation of our God. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, ye that 12 bear the vessels of the LORD. For ye shall not go out in haste, neither shall ye go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rearward.

13 Behold, my servant shall <sup>4</sup>deal wisely, he shall be exalted and lifted up, 14 and shall be very high. Like as many were astonished at thee, (his visage was so marred <sup>5</sup>more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men,) 15 so shall he <sup>6</sup>sprinkle many nations;
kings shall shut their mouths <sup>7</sup>at him:
for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they <sup>8</sup>understand.

53 Who hath believed <sup>9</sup>our report?
and to whom hath the arm of the 2 LORD been revealed? For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; <sup>10</sup>and when we see him, there is no beauty that we 3 should desire him. He was despised, and <sup>11</sup>rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with <sup>12</sup>grief: and 13 as one from whom men hide their face he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our <sup>14</sup>griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, 5 and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his 6 stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath <sup>15</sup>laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, yet he humbled himself and opened not his mouth;
as a lamb that is led to the slaughter,
and as a sheep that before her shearers is dumb; yea, he opened not his mouth.

8 <sup>16</sup>By oppression and judgement he was taken away; <sup>17</sup>and as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living? for the transgression of my 9 people <sup>18</sup>was he stricken. And they made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his <sup>19</sup>death; <sup>20</sup>although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him;
he hath <sup>21</sup>put him to grief: <sup>22</sup>when thou shalt make his soul <sup>23</sup>an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD 11 shall prosper in his hand. <sup>24</sup>He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant <sup>25</sup>justify many; and 12 he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered

54 Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD. Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations; spare not: lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.

3 For thou shalt spread abroad on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall possess the nations, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and the reproach of thy widowhood shalt thou remember no more.

5 For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is thy redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall he

6 be called. For the LORD hath called thee as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she

7 is cast off, saith thy God. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 <sup>2</sup>In overflowing wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy redeemer.

9 <sup>3</sup>For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall my covenant of peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will set thy stones in <sup>4</sup>fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy <sup>5</sup>pinnacles of rubies, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy border of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be <sup>6</sup>taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children. In right-cousness shalt thou be established: <sup>7</sup>thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they may <sup>8</sup>gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall <sup>8</sup>gather together against thee <sup>9</sup>shall fall be-

16 cause of thee. Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the fire of coals, and bringeth forth a weapon for

<sup>10</sup>his work; and I have created the 17 waster to destroy. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgement thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and <sup>11</sup>their righteousness which is of me, saith the LORD.

55 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without 2 money and without price. Wherefore

do ye <sup>12</sup>spend money for that which is not bread? and your <sup>13</sup>labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself

3 in fatness. Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure

4 mercies of David. Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a <sup>14</sup>leader and commander to the peoples. Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and a nation that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is 7 near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith

9 the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my

10 thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to

11 the eater; so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto

12 I sent it. For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their fast by it; that keepeth the sabbath from profaning it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. Neither let the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD will surely separate me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. For thus saith the LORD of the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and hold fast by my covenant: Unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. Also the strangers, that join themselves to the LORD, to minister unto him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from profaning it, and holdeth fast by my covenant; even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar: for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all peoples. The Lord God which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside his own that are gathered.

13 hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds that cannot understand: they have all turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to-morrow shall be as this day, a day great beyond measure.

57 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He entereth into peace; they rest in their beds, each one that walketh in his uprightness.

3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore. Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, ye that inflame yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; that slay the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks? Among the smooth stones of the valley is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered an oblation. Shall I be

7 appeased for these things? Upon a high and lofty mountain hast thou set thy bed: thither also wentest thou up to offer sacrifice. And behind the doors and the posts hast thou set up thy memorial: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it. And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thine ambassadors far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell. Thou wast wearied with the length of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou didst find a quickening of thy strength; therefore thou wast not faint. And of whom hast thou been afraid and in fear, that thou liest, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of long time, and thou fearest me not? I will declare thy righteousness; and as for thy works, they shall not profit thee. When thou criest, let them which thou hast gathered deliver thee; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.

14 And he shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made. For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth and smote him, I hid my face and was wroth: and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart. I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners. I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him that is far off and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him. But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it cannot rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

58 Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and declare unto my people their transgression, and to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous ordinances, they delight 3to draw near unto God. Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no know-ye find your own pleasure, and <sup>1</sup>exact 4all your labours. Behold, ye fast for strife and contention, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: <sup>2</sup>ye fast not this day so as to make your voice to 5be heard on high. Is such the fast that I have chosen? the day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable 6day to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

 7Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself light break forth as the morning, and thy healing shall spring forth speedily:

 and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the Lord shall be 9thy rearward. Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the 10finger, and speaking wickedly; and if thou <sup>3</sup>draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in darkness, and 11thy obscurity be as the noonday: and the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in <sup>4</sup>dry places, and make strong thy bones; and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.
 12And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer 13of paths to dwell in. If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day;
 and call the sabbath a delight, and the holy of the Lord honourable; and shalt honour <sup>5</sup>it, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, 14nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will make thee to ride upon the high places of the earth; and I will feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.
 59 Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his 2ear heavy, that it cannot hear: but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not 3hear. For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity;

 your lips have spoken lies, your tongue 4muttereth wickedness. None <sup>6</sup>sueth in righteousness, and none pleadeth in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring 5forth iniquity. They hatch <sup>7</sup>basilisks' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that catcheth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out 6into a viper. Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the 7act of violence is in their hands. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their <sup>8</sup>paths.
 8The way of peace they know not; and there is no <sup>9</sup>judgement in their goings:
 they have made them crooked paths;
 whosoever goeth therein doth not know 9peace. Therefore is judgement far from us, neither doth righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but behold darkness; for brightness, but we 10walk in obscurity. We grope for the wall like the blind, yea, we grope as they that have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; <sup>10</sup>among them that are lusty we are as dead 11men. We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgement, but there is none; for 12salvation, but it is far off from us. For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know 13them: in transgressing and denying the Lord, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
 14And judgement is turned away backward, and righteousness standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and 15uprightness cannot enter. Yea, truth is lacking; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the Lord saw it, and it displeased him that 16there was no judgement. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was <sup>11</sup>no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it upheld 17him. And he put on righteousness as a <sup>12</sup>breastplate, and <sup>13</sup>an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and 10 he will repay recompence. So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun: <sup>1</sup>for he shall come as <sup>2</sup>a rushing stream, which the breath of the Lord driveth. And a redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord. And as for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord: my spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth<sup>1</sup>, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever.

60 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee: For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be <sup>8</sup>carried in the arms. Then thou shalt see and <sup>4</sup>be lightened, and thine heart shall tremble and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned unto thee, the wealth of the nations shall come unto thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the <sup>5</sup>dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; they all shall come from Sheba: they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall <sup>6</sup>proclaim the praises of the Lord.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will <sup>7</sup>glorify <sup>8</sup>the house of my glory. Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he hath

10 <sup>9</sup>glorified thee. And strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee. Thy gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the wealth of the nations, and their kings led with them.

12 For that nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, <sup>10</sup>the pine, and the box tree together; to beautify the place of my sanctuary, and I will make the place

14 of my feet glorious. And the sons of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee The city of the Lord, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. Thou shalt also suck the milk of the nations, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the Lord am thy saviour, and thy redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and <sup>11</sup>thine exactors righteousness. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, desolation nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light,

20 and thy God thy <sup>12</sup>glory. Thy sun shall no more go down, neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended. Thy people also shall be all righteous, they shall inherit the land for ever; the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation: I the Lord will hasten it in its time.

61 The spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the <sup>13</sup>meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and <sup>14</sup>the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim <sup>15</sup>the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified. And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and aliens shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. But ye shall be named the priests of the Lord: men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the wealth of the nations, and <sup>1</sup>in their glory shall ye boast yourselves. For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess double: everlasting joy shall be unto them. For I the LORD love judgement, I hate robbery <sup>2</sup>with iniquity; and I will give them their recompence in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. 9 And their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom <sup>3</sup>decketh himself with a garland, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the LORD God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

32 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth. And the nations shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name. Thou shalt also be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God. Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called <sup>4</sup>Hephzi-bah, and thy land <sup>5</sup>Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married. For as a young man marryeth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and <sup>6</sup>as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that are the LORD's remembrancers, <sup>7</sup>take ye no rest, and give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth. The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and strangers shall not drink thy <sup>9</sup>wine, for the which thou hast laboured: but they that have garnered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.

10 Go through, go through the gates;

prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the high way; gather out the stones; lift up an ensign <sup>10</sup>for the peoples. Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the earth, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; Zion, his reward is with him, and his <sup>11</sup>recompence before him. And they shall call them The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.

63 Who is this that cometh from Edom, with <sup>12</sup>dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no man with me: yea, I <sup>13</sup>trod them in mine anger, and trampled them in my fury; and their <sup>14</sup>lifeblood is sprinkled upon my garments, and I <sup>15</sup>have stained all my raiment. For the day of vengeance <sup>17</sup>was in mine heart, and <sup>18</sup>the year of my redeemed is come. 5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. And <sup>19</sup>I trod down the peoples in mine anger, and <sup>20</sup>made them drunk in my fury, and I <sup>21</sup>poured out their lifeblood on the earth.

7 I will make mention of the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us; and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses. For he said, Surely, they are my people, children that will not deal falsely: so he was their <sup>9</sup>saviour. <sup>22</sup>In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the 10 days of old. But they rebelled, and grieved his holy spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and him-
11 self fought against them. <sup>23</sup>Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the <sup>24</sup>shepherds of his flock? where is he that put his holy spirit in the midst of them? that caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? that divided the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name? 13 that led them through the depths, as an horse in the wilderness, that they

14 stumbled not? As the cattle that go down into the valley, the spirit of the LORD caused them to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself
 15 a glorious name. Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy mighty acts? the yearning of thy bowels and thy compassions are restrained toward me.
 16 For thou art our father, though Abraham knoweth us not, and Israel doth not acknowledge us: thou, O LORD, art our father; our redeemer from 17 everlasting is thy name. O LORD, why dost thou make us to err from thy ways, and hardenest our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.
 18 Thy holy people possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. We are become as they over whom thou never barest rule; as they that were not
 64 called by thy name. Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might <sup>1</sup>flow down at thy presence; as when fire kindleth the brushwood, and the fire causeth the waters to boil: to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations
 3 may tremble at thy presence! When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence. For from of old men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye <sup>2</sup>seen a God beside thee, which worketh for him that waiteth
 5 for him. Thou <sup>3</sup>meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou wast wroth, and we sinned: <sup>4</sup>in them have we been of long
 6 time, and shall we be saved? For we are all become as one that is unclean, and all our righteousnesses are as a polluted garment: and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the 7 wind, take us away. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and <sup>5</sup>hast <sup>6</sup>consumed us by means
 8 of our iniquities. But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are 9 the work of thy hand. Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, look, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Thy holy cities are become a wilderness, Zion is become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant things are laid waste.
 12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

65 I <sup>7</sup>am inquired of by them that asked not for me; I <sup>8</sup>am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation
 2<sup>9</sup> that was not called by my name. I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that is not good, after
 3 their own thoughts; a people that provoketh me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense upon bricks; which <sup>10</sup>sit among the graves, and lodge in the <sup>11</sup>secret places; which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their
 5 vessels; which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me, for I am holier than thou: these are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.
 6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yea, I will recompense into their bosom,
 7 your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and <sup>12</sup>blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I <sup>13</sup>first measure their work into their bosom.
 8 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them 9 all. And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. And Sharon shall be a <sup>14</sup>fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people that have

he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of <sup>1</sup>truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes. For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old, and the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall <sup>2</sup>long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for <sup>3</sup>calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring <sup>4</sup>with them.

<sup>66</sup> Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: what manner of house will ye build unto me? and what place shall be my rest? For all these things hath mine hand made, and so all these things came to be, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and that trembleth at my word. He that killeth an ox is as he that slayeth a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as he that breaketh a dog's neck; he that offereth <sup>5</sup>an oblation, as he that offereth swine's blood; he that <sup>6</sup>burneth frankincense, as he that blesseth an idol: yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations; I also will choose their <sup>7</sup>delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did that which was evil in mine eyes, and chose that wherein I delighted not.

my name's sake, have said, Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy; but they shall be ashamed.

<sup>10</sup> Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn over her: that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream, <sup>9</sup>and ye shall suck thereof; ye shall be borne upon the side, and shall be dandled upon the knees. As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. And ye shall see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like the tender grass: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and he will have indignation against his enemies.

<sup>15</sup> For, behold, the LORD will come <sup>10</sup>with fire, and his chariots shall be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire will the LORD plead, and by his sword, with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

<sup>14</sup> the time cometh, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and shall see my glory. And I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. ## THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

JEREMIAH.

1 THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in
 2 Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year
 3 of his reign. It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah; unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.
 4 Now the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee, and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee; I have appointed thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for 7 I am a child. But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for <sup>1</sup>to whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. Be not afraid because of them: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.
 9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth; and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my 10 words in thy mouth: see, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, and to destroy and to overthrow; to build, and to plant.
 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of 12 <sup>2</sup>an almond tree. Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I <sup>3</sup>watch over my word to perform it.
 13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething caldron; and the face thereof is from 14 the north. Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north evil <sup>4</sup>shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the 15 land. For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. And I will <sup>5</sup>utter my judgements against them touching all their wickedness; in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of 17 their own hands. Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at them, lest I dismay

 18 thee before them. For, behold, I have made thee this day a defended city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.
 19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

2 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember <sup>6</sup>for thee the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals; how thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was
 3 not sown. Israel was holiness unto the LORD, the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall be held guilty; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of 5 the house of Israel: Thus saith the LORD, What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after 6 vanity, and are become vain? Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt; that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of <sup>1</sup>the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man dwelt? And I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made <sup>8</sup>mine heritage an abomination. The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the <sup>2</sup>rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that <sup>9</sup>do not profit. Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I <sup>10</sup>plead. For pass over to the isles of Kittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if <sup>11</sup>there hath been such a thing. Hath a nation changed their gods, which yet are no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth <sup>12</sup>not profit. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD. <sup>13</sup>For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can <sup>14</sup>hold no water. Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he become <sup>15</sup>a prey? The young lions have roared upon him, and <sup>3</sup>yelled: and they have made his land waste; his cities are <sup>16</sup>burned up, without inhabitant. The children also of Noph and Tahpanhes have <sup>4</sup>broken the crown of thy head. <sup>17</sup>Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the <sup>18</sup>way? And now what hast thou to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of <sup>5</sup>Shihor? or what hast thou to do in the way to Assyria, to drink <sup>19</sup>the waters of <sup>6</sup>the River? Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and a bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord, the LORD of <sup>20</sup>hosts. For of old time <sup>7</sup>I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not <sup>8</sup>serve; for upon every high hill and under every green tree thou didst bow thyself, playing <sup>21</sup>the harlot. Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? <sup>22</sup>For though thou wash thee with lye, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the <sup>23</sup>Lord God. How canst thou say, I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift <sup>9</sup>dromedary traversing her ways; <sup>24</sup>a wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind in her desire; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall <sup>25</sup>find her. Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after <sup>26</sup>them will I go. As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their <sup>27</sup>prophets; which say to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast <sup>10</sup>brought <sup>11</sup>me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save <sup>28</sup>us. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah. <sup>29</sup>Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, <sup>30</sup>saith the LORD. In vain have I smitten your children; they received no <sup>12</sup>correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying <sup>31</sup>lion. O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? or a land of <sup>13</sup>thick darkness? wherefore say my people, We are broken loose; we will come no more <sup>32</sup>unto thee? Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without <sup>33</sup>number. How trimmest thou thy way to seek love! therefore even the wicked women hast thou taught thy ways. <sup>34</sup>Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the innocent poor: <sup>14</sup>I have not found it at <sup>15</sup>the place of <sup>35</sup>breaking in, but upon <sup>16</sup>all these. Yet thou saidst, I am innocent; surely his anger is turned away from me. Behold, I will enter into judgement with thee, because thou sayest, I have not <sup>36</sup>sinned. Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou shalt be ashamed of Egypt also, as thou wast <sup>37</sup>ashamed of Assyria. From him also shalt thou go forth, with thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them. <sup>3</sup> <sup>17</sup>They say, <sup>18</sup>If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? But thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; <sup>19</sup>yet return <sup>2</sup>again to me, saith the LORD. Lift up thine eyes unto the bare heights, and see; where hast thou not been lien with? By the ways hast thou sat for them, as an Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness. Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; yet thou hadst a whore's forehead, <sup>4</sup>thou refusedst to be ashamed. Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the <sup>1</sup>guide of my youth? Will he retain his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou <sup>2</sup>hast spoken and hast done evil things, and hast <sup>3</sup>had thy way.

<sup>6</sup> Moreover the LORD said unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

<sup>7</sup> <sup>4</sup>And I said after she had done all these things, <sup>5</sup>She will return unto me; but she returned not: and her <sup>8</sup>treacherous sister Judah saw it. And <sup>6</sup>I saw, when, for this very cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah her sister feared not; but she also went and played the harlot.

<sup>9</sup> And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with stocks. And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not returned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, <sup>11</sup>saith the LORD. And the LORD said unto me, Backsliding Israel hath shewn herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; I will not <sup>7</sup>look in anger upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> I will not keep anger for ever. Only <sup>8</sup>acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my <sup>14</sup>voice, saith the LORD. Return, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am a husband unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, <sup>15</sup>and I will bring you to Zion: and I will give you shepherds according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD; neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they <sup>9</sup>visit it; neither <sup>10</sup>shall that be <sup>17</sup>done any more. At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of <sup>18</sup>their evil heart. In those days the house of Judah shall walk <sup>12</sup>with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance unto your fathers. But I said, How <sup>13</sup>shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, <sup>13</sup>a goodly heritage of the hosts of the nations? and I said, <sup>14</sup>Ye shall call me My father; and shall not turn away <sup>20</sup>from following me. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the <sup>21</sup>LORD. A voice is heard upon the bare heights, the weeping and the supplications of the children of Israel; for that they have perverted their way, they have <sup>22</sup>forgotten the LORD their God. Return, ye backsliding children, I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we are come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our <sup>23</sup>God. Truly in vain is the help that is looked for from the hills, the <sup>15</sup>tumult on the mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> But the <sup>16</sup>shameful thing hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, <sup>25</sup>their sons and their daughters. Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day: and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

<sup>4</sup> If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, unto me shalt thou return: and <sup>17</sup>if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt <sup>2</sup>thou not be removed; and thou shalt swear, As the LORD liveth, in truth, in judgement, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

<sup>3</sup> For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among <sup>4</sup>thorns. Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury go forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of <sup>5</sup>your doings. Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry aloud and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fenced cities.

<sup>6</sup> Set up a standard toward Zion: flee for safety, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction. A lion is gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he is gone forth from his place; to make thy land desolate, that thy cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us. And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder. Then said I, Ah, Lord God! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul. At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse; <sup>1</sup>a full wind from these shall come for me: now will I also <sup>2</sup>utter judgements against them. Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thine evil thoughts lodge within thee? For <sup>3</sup>a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth evil from the hills of Ephraim: make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. As keepers of a field are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD. Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness; <sup>4</sup>for it is bitter, <sup>4</sup>for it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 My bowels, my bowels! <sup>5</sup>I am pained at <sup>6</sup>my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I cannot hold my peace; because <sup>7</sup>thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? For my people is foolish, they know me not; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and <sup>8</sup>all the hills <sup>9</sup>moved to and fro. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, <sup>10</sup>the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and before his fierce anger. For thus saith the LORD, The whole land shall be a desolation; yet will I not make a full end. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it. The whole city fleeth for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they go into the thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwelleth therein. And thou, when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with scarlet, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou <sup>11</sup>enlargest thine eyes with paint, in vain dost thou make thyself fair; thy lovers despise thee, they seek thy life. For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that gaspeth for breath, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul fainteth before the murderers.

5 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that doeth justly, that seeketh <sup>12</sup>truth; and I will pardon her. And though they say, As the LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely. O LORD, <sup>13</sup>do not thine eyes look upon <sup>12</sup>truth? thou hast stricken them, but they were not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive <sup>14</sup>correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. Then I said, Surely these are poor: they are foolish; for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgement of their God: I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they know the way of the LORD, and the judgement of their God. But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bands. Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, a wolf of the <sup>15</sup>evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities, every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. How can I pardon thee? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had <sup>16</sup>fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the harlots' houses. They were as fed horses <sup>17</sup>in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall

10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her branches: for they are not
11 the LORD's. For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith 12 the LORD. They have denied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we 13 see sword nor famine: and the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done
14 unto them. Wherefore thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is <sup>1a</sup> a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they 16 say. Their quiver is an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men. And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall <sup>2</sup>beat down thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustest, 18 with the sword. But even in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make 19 a full end with you. And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD our God done all these things unto us? then shalt thou say unto them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare ye this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,
21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without <sup>3</sup>understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears,
22 and hear not: Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, <sup>4</sup>by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it? and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass
23 over it. But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they 24 are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; that reserveth unto us the 25 appointed weeks of the harvest. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden 26 good from you. For among my people are found wicked men: they watch, as fowlers lie in wait; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great,

28 and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass in deeds of wickedness: they plead not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they should prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 <sup>5a</sup> A wonderful and horrible thing is come to pass in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule <sup>6</sup>by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

6 Flee for safety, ye children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth-haccherem: for evil looketh forth from the north, and 2a great destruction. The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, will
3 I cut off. Shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

47 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day declineth, for the shadows of the evening are stretched
5 out. Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces. For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down <sup>8</sup>trees, and cast up a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in 7 the midst of her. As a well <sup>9</sup>casteth forth her waters, so she <sup>9</sup>casteth forth her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually
8 is sickness and wounds. Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from thee; lest I make thee a desolation, a land not inhabited.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn again thine hand as a grapegatherer <sup>10</sup>into the 10 baskets. To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is become unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.
11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged 12 with him that is full of days. And their houses shall be turned unto others, their fields and their wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith

13 the LORD. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. 14 They have healed also the <sup>1</sup>hurt of <sup>2</sup>my people lightly, saying, Peace, 15 peace; when there is no peace. <sup>3</sup>Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall <sup>4</sup>be cast down, saith the LORD. 16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls: but they said, We will not walk 17 therein. And I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet; but they said, We will 18 not hearken. Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what 19 is among them. Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words; and as for my law, they 20 have rejected it. To what purpose cometh there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet <sup>5</sup>cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices 21 pleasing unto me. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people: and the fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish. 22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country; and a great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. 23 They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea, and they ride upon horses; every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against 24 thee, O daughter of Zion. We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pangs as of a woman in 25 travail. Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for there is the sword of the enemy, and terror on 26 every side. O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourn- 27 ing, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the spoiler shall sud- 27 denly come upon us. I have made thee a <sup>6</sup>tower and a fortress among my people; that thou mayest know and try 28 their way. They are all grievous re- voltors, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them 29 deal corruptly. The bellows <sup>7</sup>blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. 30 Refuse silver shall men call them, be- cause the LORD hath rejected them.

7 The word that came to Jeremiah 2 from the LORD, saying, Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship 3 the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause 4 you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, are these. 5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgement between a man 6 and his neighbour; if ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other 7 gods to your own hurt: then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from 8 of old even for evermore. Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot pro- 9 fit. Will ye steal, murder, and com- mit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye have not known, 10 and come and stand before me in this house, <sup>8</sup>which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; that ye 11 may do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, 12 saith the LORD. But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the 13 wickedness of my people Israel. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speak- ing, but ye heard not; and I called 14 you, but ye answered not: therefore will I do unto the house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have 15 done to Shiloh. And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. 16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to 17 me: for I will not hear thee. Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusa- 18 lem? The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the Lord; do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat ye

22 flesh. For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offer-

23 ings or sacrifices: but this thing I commanded them, saying, Harken unto my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the way that I command you,

24 that it may be well with you. But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up

26 early and sending them: yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers.

27 And thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them;

28 but they will not answer thee. And thou shalt say unto them, This is the nation that hath not hearkened to the voice of the Lord their God, nor received <sup>1</sup>instruction: <sup>2</sup>truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 Cut off <sup>3</sup>thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for the Lord hath rejected and forsaken the

30 generation of his wrath. For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight, saith the Lord: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to

31 defile it. And they have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded not,

32 neither came it into my <sup>4</sup>mind. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, <sup>5</sup>till

33 there be no place to bury. And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none

34 shall fray them away. Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride: for the land shall become a waste.

8 At that time, saith the Lord, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of

2 their graves: and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon

3 the face of the earth. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? shall one turn

5 away, and not return? Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to re-

6 turn. I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repenteth him of his wickedness, saying,

What have I done? every one <sup>6</sup>turneth to his course, as a horse that rusheth headlong in the battle. Yea,

7 the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the <sup>7</sup>ordinance of the Lord.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the Lord is with us? But, behold, the false pen of the scribes

9 hath <sup>8</sup>wrought falsely. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what manner of 10 wisdom is in them? Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall possess them:

I will utterly consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and <sup>1</sup>the things that I have given 14 them shall pass away from them. Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us <sup>2</sup>be silent there: for the LORD our God hath <sup>3</sup>put us to silence, and given us water of <sup>4</sup>gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of 16 healing, and behold dismay! The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembleth; for they are come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and 17 those that dwell therein. For, behold, I will send serpents, <sup>5</sup>basilisks, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

18 Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! my heart is faint within me. Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people <sup>6</sup>from a land that is very far off: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her King in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with 20 strange vanities? The harvest is past, the <sup>7</sup>summer is ended, and we are not 21 saved. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: I am <sup>8</sup>black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the <sup>9</sup>health of the daughter of my people <sup>10</sup>recovered?

9 Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain 2 of the daughter of my people! <sup>11</sup>Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly 3 of treacherous men. And they bend their tongue as it were their bow for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for <sup>12</sup>truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will go about with 5 slanders. And they will <sup>13</sup>deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how else should I do, because of the daughter of my people? 8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in his heart he layeth wait for 9 him. Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none passeth through; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the 11 beast are fled, they are gone. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant. Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it? wherefore is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my 14 voice, neither walked therein; but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baalim, 15 which their fathers taught them: therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of <sup>14</sup>gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the cunning women, that they may 18 come: and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and 19 our eyelids gush out with waters. For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because <sup>15</sup>they have cast 20 down our dwellings. Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

24 but let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth, and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgement, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these

25 things I delight, saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised in their uncircumcision;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair polled, that dwell in the wilderness: for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.

10 Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel: thus saith the LORD,

Learn not the way of the nations, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the nations are dismayed

3 at them. For the <sup>1</sup>customs of the peoples are vanity: for <sup>2</sup>one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with

5 hammers, that it move not. They are like a <sup>3</sup>palm tree, of turned work, and speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good.

6 There is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great

7 in might. Who would not fear thee, O King of the nations? for <sup>4</sup>to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is

8 none like unto thee. But they are <sup>5</sup>together brutish and foolish: <sup>6</sup>the instruction of idols, it is but a stock.

9 There is silver beaten into plates which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from <sup>7</sup>Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is <sup>8</sup>the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth trembleth, and the nations are not able to abide his indignation.

11 <sup>9</sup>Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, <sup>10</sup>these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding hath he stretched out the

13 heavens: <sup>11</sup>when he uttereth his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his

14 treasuries. Every man <sup>12</sup>is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no

15 breath in them. They are vanity, a work of <sup>13</sup>delusion: in the time of 16 their visitation they shall perish. The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

17 Gather up <sup>14</sup>thy wares out of the land,

18 <sup>15</sup>O thou that abidest in the siege. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them,

19 that they may <sup>16</sup>feel it. Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is my <sup>17</sup>grief, and I

20 must bear it. My tent is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of the LORD: therefore they have not <sup>18</sup>prospered,

22 and all their flocks are scattered. The voice of a rumour, behold it cometh, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place

23 of jackals. O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his

24 steps. O LORD, correct me, but with judgement; not in thine anger, lest

25 thou <sup>19</sup>bring me to nothing. <sup>20</sup>Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have devoured Jacob, yea, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his <sup>21</sup>habitation.

9 This verse is in Aramaic.

10 Or, they shall ... under these heavens milk and honey, as at this day. Then answered I, and said, Amen, O LORD.

6 And the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them. For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant

11 which I made with their fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry unto me, but I will not hearken unto them. Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time

13 of their trouble. For according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to the <sup>2</sup>shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal. Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me <sup>3</sup>for their <sup>4</sup>trouble.

15 <sup>4</sup>What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? <sup>5</sup>when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest. The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are

17 broken. For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have wrought for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then thou shewest me their doings. But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the

<sup>6</sup>fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed

21 my cause. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Thou shalt not prophesy in the name of the LORD,

22 that thou die not by our hand: therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will <sup>7</sup>punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

23 and there shall be no remnant unto them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, <sup>8</sup>even the year of their visitation.

12 Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet would I <sup>9</sup>reason the cause with thee: wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they at ease that deal

2 very treacherously? Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far

3 from their reins. But thou, O LORD, knowest me; thou seest me, and triest mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and <sup>10</sup>prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? for the wickedness of them that dwell therein, the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall

5 not see our latter end. If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and though in a land of peace thou art secure, yet how wilt thou do in the <sup>11</sup>pride of Jordan? For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; even they have cried aloud after thee: believe them not, though they speak

12 fair words unto thee.

7 I have forsaken mine house, I have cast off mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the

8 hand of her enemies. Mine heritage is become unto me as a lion in the forest: she hath uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated

9 her. Is mine heritage unto me as a speckled bird of prey? are the birds of prey against her round about? go ye, assemble all the beasts of the field,

10 bring them to devour. Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. They have made it a desolation; it mourneth unto me, being desolate; the whole land is

<sup>4</sup> The text is obscure. The Sept. renders thus: Why hath the beloved wrought abomination in my house? Shall roses and holy flesh take away from thee thy wickednesses, or shalt thou escape by these? <sup>5</sup> Or, when thine evil cometh made desolate, because no man layeth 12 it to heart. Spoilers are come upon all the bare heights in the wilderness:

for the sword of the LORD devoureth from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh 13 hath peace. They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and ye shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from a-15 mong them. And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them;
and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his 16 land. And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, As the LORD liveth; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of 17 my people. But if they will not hear, then will I pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, saith
the LORD.

13 Thus said the LORD unto me, Go, and buy thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.
2 So I bought a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it upon my 3 loins. And the word of the LORD came 4 unto me the second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast bought, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole
5 of the rock. So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded 6 me. And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I command-7 ed thee to hide there. Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, 8 it was profitable for nothing. Then the word of the LORD came unto me, 9 saying, Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.
10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, 11 which is profitable for nothing. For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would 12 not hear. Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Every <sup>2</sup> bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not know that every <sup>2</sup> bottle shall be filled with 13 wine? Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit <sup>3</sup> upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jeru-14 salem, with drunkenness. And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.

15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud:
16 for the LORD hath spoken. Give glory to the LORD your God, before <sup>4</sup> he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the <sup>5</sup> dark mountains; and, while ye look for light, he turn it into <sup>6</sup> the shadow of death, and make it gross 17 darkness. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the 18 LORD's flock is taken captive. Say thou unto the king and to the queen-mother, <sup>7</sup> Humble yourselves, sit down: for your headtires are come down, even 19 <sup>8</sup> the crown of your glory. The cities of the South are shut up, and there is none to open them: Judah is carried away captive all of it; it is wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy 21 beautiful flock? <sup>9</sup> What wilt thou say, when he shall set thy friends over thee as head, seeing thou thyself hast instructed them against thee? shall not sorrows take hold of thee, as of a wo-22 man in travail? And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore are these things come upon me? for the <sup>10</sup> greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels suffer violence.
23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are <sup>11</sup> accustomed to 24 do evil. Therefore will I scatter them, as the stubble that passeth away, <sup>12</sup> by 25 the wind of the wilderness. This is thy lot, the portion measured unto thee from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in 26 falsehood. Therefore will I also discover thy skirts <sup>13</sup> upon thy face, and thy 27 shame shall appear. I have seen thine abominations, even thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, on the hills in the field. Woe

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish, they sit in black upon the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. And their nobles send their

3 little ones <sup>1</sup>to the waters: they come to the pits, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty: they are ashamed and confounded, and

4 cover their heads. Because of the ground which is <sup>5</sup>chapt, for that no rain hath been in the land, the plowmen are ashamed, they cover their

5 heads. Yea, the hind also in the field calveth, and forsaketh her young, because there is no grass. And the wild

6 asses stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like <sup>4</sup>jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage.

7 Though our iniquities testify against us, work thou for thy name's sake, O LORD: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee. O thou

8 hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in the time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a sojourner in the land, and as a wayfaring man that <sup>5</sup>turneth

9 aside to tarry for a night? Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore the LORD doth not accept them; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 And the LORD said unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and <sup>6</sup>oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto them,

Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give 14 you <sup>7</sup>assured peace in this place. Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake I unto them: they prophesy unto you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nought, and

15 the deceit of their own heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall

16 those prophets be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their

17 wickedness upon them. And thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous

18 wound. If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold <sup>8</sup>them that are sick with famine! for both the prophet and the priest <sup>9</sup>go about <sup>10</sup>in the land and have no knowledge.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of heal-

20 ing, and behold dismay! We <sup>11</sup>acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have

21 sinned against thee. Do not <sup>12</sup>abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the heathen that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast <sup>13</sup>made all these things.

15 Then said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of

2 my sight, and let them go forth. And it shall come to pass, when they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity. And

3 I will appoint over them four <sup>14</sup>kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to <sup>15</sup>tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the 4 earth, to devour and to destroy. And I will cause them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that

5 which he did in Jerusalem. For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall turn aside to ask of thy

6 welfare? Thou hast rejected me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore have I stretched out my hand against thee, and destroyed thee; I am weary with repenting.

creased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them <sup>1</sup>against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall upon her 9 suddenly. She that hath borne seven languisheth; she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent on usury, neither have men lent to me on usury; yet every one of 11 them doth curse me. The LORD said, Verily <sup>2</sup>I will <sup>3</sup>strengthen thee for good; verily <sup>4</sup>I will cause the enemy to make supplication unto thee in the time of evil and in the time of afflic-tion.

12 <sup>5</sup>Can one break iron, even iron 13 from the north, and brass? Thy substance and thy treasures will I give for a spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy 14 borders. And <sup>6</sup>I will make them to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake 16 I have suffered reproach. Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy words were unto me a joy and the rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of 17 hosts. I sat not in the assembly of them that make merry, nor rejoiced:
I sat alone because of thy hand; for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou indeed be unto me as a deceitful brook, as waters that <sup>7</sup>fail?
19 Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, that thou mayest stand before me; and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: they shall return unto thee,
but thou shalt not return unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall; and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith 21 the LORD. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

16 The word of the LORD came also 2 unto me, saying, Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have 3 sons or daughters in this place. For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that be-4 gat them in this land: They shall die <sup>8</sup>of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried;
they shall be as dung upon the face of the ground: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine;
and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts
5 of the earth. For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and tender mercies.

6 Both great and small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald 7 for them: neither shall men <sup>9</sup>break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mo-8 ther. And thou shalt not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat 9 and to drink. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and 10 the voice of the bride. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity?
or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; 12 and ye have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that ye hearken not unto me:
13 therefore will I cast you forth out of this land into the land that ye have not known, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; <sup>10</sup>for I will shew you no favour.
14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said,
As the LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of 17 rocks. For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed

18 from mine eyes. And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; <sup>1</sup>because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled mine inheritance with their abomina-

19 tions. O LORD, my strength, and my strong hold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, unto thee shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Our fathers have inherited nought but lies, even vanity and things

20 wherein there is no profit. Shall a man make unto himself gods, which <sup>2</sup>yet are no gods? Therefore, behold, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Jehovah.

17 The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of

3 O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures for a spoil, and thy high places, because of sin, throughout all thy <sup>4</sup>borders. And thou, even of thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn for ever.

5 Thus saith the LORD: Cursed is the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like <sup>4</sup>the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited.

6 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose <sup>5</sup>hope the LORD is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out his roots by the river, and shall not

8 fear when heat cometh, but his leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither

9 shall cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is desperately sick: who can know

10 it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the <sup>11</sup>fruit of his doings. As the partridge

12 A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanc-

13 tuary. O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed; they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of 14 living waters. Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.

15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come

16 now. As for me, I have not hastened from being a shepherd after thee; neither have I desired <sup>9</sup>the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out

17 of my lips was before thy face. Be not a terror unto me: thou art my 18 refuge in the day of evil. Let them be ashamed that persecute me, but let not me be ashamed; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and <sup>10</sup>destroy them with double destruction.

19 Thus said the LORD unto me: Go, and stand in the gate of <sup>11</sup>the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jeru-

20 salem; and say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in

21 by these gates; thus saith the LORD: Take heed <sup>12</sup>to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring

22 it in by the gates of Jerusalem; neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work: but hallow ye the sabbath day,

23 as I commanded your fathers; but they hearkened not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might

24 not receive instruction. And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but to hallow

the sabbath day, to do no work therein; then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this

26 city shall <sup>13</sup>remain for ever. And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places round about Jeru-

18 The word which came to Jeremiah 2 from the LORD, saying, Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought his 4 work on the wheels. And when the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came 6 to me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are ye in 7 mine hand, O house of Israel. At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down 8 and to destroy it; if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a

10 kingdom, to build and to plant it; if it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit

11 them. Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and amend your ways 12 and your doings. But they say, There is no hope: for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD: Ask ye now among the nations, who hath heard such things; the virgin of Israel

14 hath done a very horrible thing. Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? or shall the cold waters 2 that flow down from afar be

15 3 dried up? For my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity; and they have caused them to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths, in a way

16 not cast up; to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall 17 be astonished, and shake his head. I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will 4 look upon their back, and not their face, in the day of their calamity.

18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with 20 me. Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before thee to speak good for them, to

21 turn away thy fury from them. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men smitten of the

22 sword in battle. Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid

23 snares for my feet. Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me; forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight: but let them be 5 overthrown before thee; deal thou with them in the time of thine anger.

19 Thus said the LORD, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the elders of the people, and of the elders 2 of the priests; and go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of 6 the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall

3 tell thee: and say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, 4 his ears shall tingle. Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom they knew not, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this

5 place with the blood of innocents; and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings unto Baal; which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it 6 into my 7 mind: therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, 7 but The valley of Slaughter. will <sup>1</sup>make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of them that seek their life: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts
8 of the earth. And I will make this city an astonishment, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all
9 the plagues thereof. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their life, shall straiten
10 them. Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go 11 with thee, and shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury in Topheth, <sup>2</sup>till 12 there be no place to bury. Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, even 13 making this city as Topheth; and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.
14 Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people:
15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they might not hear my words.
20 Now Pashhur the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. Then Pashhur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in
3 the house of the LORD. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name
4 Pashhur, but <sup>8</sup>Magor-missabib. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall slay them all the riches of this city, and all the gains thereof, and all the precious things thereof, yea, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry 6 them to Babylon. And thou, Pashhur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and there shalt thou be buried, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied falsely.

7 O LORD, thou hast <sup>4</sup>deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am become a laughingstock all the day, every 8 one mocketh me. For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and spoil: because the word of the LORD is made a reproach unto me, and a derision, all the day. And if I say, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name, then there is in mine heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I cannot 10 contain. For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce him, say all my familiar friends, they that watch for my halting; peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take 11 our revenge on him. But the LORD is with me as a mighty one and a terrible: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed, because they have not <sup>5</sup>dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonour which shall 12 never be forgotten. But, O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, that seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto 13 thee have I revealed my cause. Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for he hath delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evil-doers.

14 Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my 15 mother bare me be blessed. Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.
16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and <sup>6</sup>shouting at noontide;
17 because he slew me not from the womb; and so my mother should have been my grave, and her womb always great.
18 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

the son of Malchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,
 2 Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us: peradventure the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.
 3 Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans which besiege you, without the walls, and I will gather them into the midst of this city. And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.
 8 And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth away to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey. For I have set my face upon this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.
 11 And touching the house of the king of Judah, hear ye the word of the LORD: O house of David, thus saith the LORD, Execute judgement in the morning, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, <sup>3</sup>and of the rock of the plain, saith the LORD; ye which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? and I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is round about her.
 22 Thus said the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sitteth upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates. Thus saith the LORD: Execute ye judgement and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting <sup>4</sup>upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. For thus saith the LORD <sup>5</sup>concerning the house of the king of Judah: Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

 7 And I will <sup>6</sup>prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?
 9 Then they shall answer, Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.
 10 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.
 11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place: He shall not return thither any more; but in the place whither they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more.
 13 Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by injustice; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not his hire; that saith, I will build me a wide house and spacious chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion. Shalt thou reign, because thou <sup>8</sup>strivest to excel in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgement and justice? then it was well with him. He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Was not this to know me? saith the LORD. 20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan: and cry from Abarim; for all thy lovers are destroyed. I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst

22 not my voice. The wind shall <sup>1</sup>feed all thy shepherds, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy

23 wickedness. O <sup>2</sup>inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars,

24 as of a woman in travail! As I live, saith the LORD, though <sup>4</sup>Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would

25 I pluck thee thence; and I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them of whom thou art afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of 26 Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born;

27 and there shall ye die. But to the land wherunto <sup>5</sup>thy soul longeth to re-

28 turn, thither shall they not return. Is this man Coniah a despised broken

<sup>6</sup>vessel? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the 29 land which they know not? O <sup>7</sup>earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

23 Woe unto the shepherds that destroy and scatter the sheep of my

2 pasture! saith the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds that feed my people: Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the

3 LORD. And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous <sup>8</sup>Branch, and he shall reign as king and <sup>9</sup>deal wisely, and shall execute judgement and justice in the 6 land. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely:

and this is his name whereby he shall be called, <sup>10</sup>The LORD is our right-

7 eousness. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, As the LORD liveth, which brought up the children of

8 Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, As the LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 Concerning the prophets. Mine heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome; because of the LORD, and 10 because of his holy words. For the land is full of adulterers; for because of <sup>12</sup>swearing the land mourneth; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up; and their course is evil, and their 11 force is not right. For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith

12 the LORD. Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, <sup>13</sup>even the year of their visitation,

13 saith the LORD. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people

14 Israel to err. In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing; they commit adultery, and walk in lies, and they strengthen the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them become unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of <sup>14</sup>gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profane-

16 ness gone forth into all the land. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you; they teach you vanity:

they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say continually unto them <sup>15</sup>that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and unto every one in the council of the LORD, that he should perceive and hear his word? who hath marked <sup>1</sup>my word, and heard it? 19 Behold, the tempest of the LORD, even his fury, is gone forth, yea, a whirling tempest: it shall burst upon the head 20 of the wicked. The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have <sup>2</sup>executed, and till he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall <sup>3</sup>understand it perfectly. 21 I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I spake not unto them, yet they 22 prophesied. But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and 23 from the evil of their doings. Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not 24 a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. 25 I have heard what the prophets have said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have 26 dreamed. How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies; even the prophets of the deceit 27 of their own heart? which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers 28 forgot my name for Baal. The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? saith 29 the LORD. Is not my word like as fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? 30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour. Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that <sup>4</sup>use their 32 tongues, and say, He saith. Behold, I am against them that prophesy lying dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I sent them not, nor commanded them; neither shall they profit this 33 people at all, saith the LORD. And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? then shalt thou <sup>5</sup>say unto them, <sup>6</sup>What burden! I will cast you off, saith the LORD. 34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish 35 that man and his house. Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath 36 the LORD spoken? And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's own word <sup>7</sup>shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of 37 hosts our God. Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the 38 LORD spoken? But if ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD: Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The 39 burden of the LORD; therefore, behold, I will <sup>8</sup>utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave unto you and to your fathers, away from my 40 presence: and I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

24 The LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD; after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had 2 brought them to Babylon. One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very bad figs, which could 3 not be eaten, they were so bad. Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that cannot be eaten, they 4 are so bad. And the word of the LORD 5 came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, 6 for good. For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. 7 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their 8 whole heart. And as the bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and 9 them that dwell in the land of Egypt: I will even give them up to be <sup>9</sup>tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all 10 places whither I shall drive them. And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

akim the son of Josiah, king of Judah; the same was the first year of 2 Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; the which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: 3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even unto this day, these three and twenty years, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising up early and speaking; but ye 4 have not hearkened. And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor 5 inclined your ear to hear; saying, Return ye now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers, 6 from of old and even for evermore: and go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the work of your 7 hands; and I will do you no hurt. Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to 8 your own hurt. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: Because ye have 9 not heard my words, behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and I will send unto Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about; and I will 1 utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and 10 perpetual desolations. Moreover I will 2 take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the 11 light of the candle. And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the 12 king of Babylon seventy years. And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make 13 it 3 desolate for ever. And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations. 14 For many nations and great kings 4 shall serve themselves of them, even of them: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands. 15 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto me: Take the cup of the wine of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send 16 thee, to drink it. And they shall drink, and reel to and fro, and be mad, because of the sword that I will 17 send among them. Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the 18 LORD had sent me: to wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is 19 this day; Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all 20 his people; and all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ash- 21 dod; Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the 5 isle which is beyond 23 the sea; Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that have the corners of their 24 hair polled; and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the wilderness; 25 and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of 26 the Medes; and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of 6 Sheshach shall drink 27 after them. And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send 28 among you. And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: 29 Ye shall surely drink. For, lo, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, 30 saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar against his 7 fold; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the in- 31 habitants of the earth. A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword, saith the LORD. 32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of 33 the earth. And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the face of the 34 ground. Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter are fully come, <sup>1</sup>and I will break you in pieces, and ye shall 35 fall like a pleasant vessel. And <sup>2</sup>the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor 36 the principal of the flock to escape. A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the howling of the principal of the flock for the Lord layeth waste their pasture.

 37 And the peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger
 38 of the Lord. He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion: for their land is become an astonishment because of <sup>3</sup>the fierceness of the oppressing sword, and because of his fierce anger.

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from the Lord,
 2 saying, Thus saith the Lord: Stand in the court of the Lord's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the Lord's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; keep not
 3 back a word. It may be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their
 4 doings. And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord: If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law,
 5 which I have set before you, to hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send unto you, even rising up early and sending them,
 6 but ye have not hearkened; then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all
 7 the nations of the earth. And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these 8 words in the house of the Lord. And it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the Lord had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, Thou shalt surely 9 die. Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant? And all the people were gathered unto Jeremiah in the house of the Lord.
 10 And when the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house unto the house of the Lord; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of the Lord's house.
 11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy of death; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your 12 ears. Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

 13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God; and the Lord will repent him of the evil that he hath 14 pronounced against you. But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your 15 eyes. Only know ye for certain that, if ye put me to death, ye shall bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the Lord hath sent me unto you to speak all
 16 these words in your ears. Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy of death; for he hath spoken to us in the name of the Lord 17 our God. Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the 18 assembly of the people, saying, <sup>4</sup>Micaiah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts:
<sup>5</sup>Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high
 19 places of a forest. Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the Lord, and intreat the favour of the Lord, and the Lord repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great 20 evil against our own souls. And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the Lord, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of 21 Jeremiah: and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and 22 fled, and went into Egypt: and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt:
 23 and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the 24 graves of the <sup>6</sup>common people. But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 In the beginning of the reign of <sup>1</sup> Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah
2 from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD to me: Make thee bands and
3 bars, and put them upon thy neck; and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of 4 Judah; and give them a charge unto their masters, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Thus 5 shall ye say unto your masters; I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the face of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it unto 6 whom it seemeth right unto me. And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field also have I given
7 him to serve him. And all the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. And it shall come to pass, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have 9 consumed them by his hand. But as for you, hearken ye not to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve
10 the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive
11 you out and ye should perish. But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.
12 And I spake to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve 13 him and his people, and live. Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken concerning the nation that will not 14 serve the king of Babylon? And hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for 15 they prophesy a lie unto you. For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets 16 that prophesy unto you. Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto 17 you. Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city become a desolation? But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and 19 at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that 20 are left in this city, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the 21 nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and 22 at Jerusalem: They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

28 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,
2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken
3 the yoke of the king of Babylon. Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and 4 carried them to Babylon: and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went to Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.
5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house
6 of the LORD, even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon unto this place. Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people: The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known,<sup>1</sup> that the LORD hath truly sent him. Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Thou hast broken the bars of wood; but thou shalt make in their stead bars of iron. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also. Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; the LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will send thee away from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast spoken rebellion against the LORD. So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem unto Babylon: (after that Jeconiah the king, and the queen-mother, and the eunuchs, and the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;) by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem unto Babylon: Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply ye there, and be not diminished. And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets that be in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you, neither hearken ye to your dreams which ye<sup>2</sup> cause to be dreamed. For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD. For thus saith the LORD, After seventy years be accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you<sup>3</sup> hope in your latter end. And ye shall call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, saith the LORD, and I will<sup>4</sup> turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again unto the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. For ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon. For thus saith the LORD concerning the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and concerning all the people that dwell in this city, your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. And I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be<sup>5</sup> tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an execration, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them: because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, wherewith I sent unto them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. 21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes; and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon 22 roasted in the fire: because they have wrought folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I commanded them not; and I am he that knoweth, and am witness, saith the LORD.

24 And <sup>1</sup>concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite thou shalt speak, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thine own name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in the stocks and in <sup>2</sup>shackles. Now therefore, why hast thou not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet unto you, forasmuch as he hath sent unto us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them? And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of 30 Jeremiah the prophet. Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he hath 32 caused you to trust in a lie; therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he behold the good that I will do unto my people, saith the LORD: because he hath spoken rebellion against the LORD.

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will <sup>8</sup>turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and 5 concerning Judah. For thus saith the LORD: We have heard a voice of trembling, <sup>4</sup>of fear, and not of peace. Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child: wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces 7 are turned into paleness? Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of 8 it. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bands; and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him: 9 but they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I 10 will raise up unto them. Therefore fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and 11 none shall make him afraid. For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have scattered thee, but I will not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee with judgement, and will in no wise <sup>5</sup>leave thee unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy hurt is incurable, and thy wound grievous. 13 There is none to plead <sup>6</sup>thy cause, <sup>7</sup>that thou mayest be bound up: thou 14 hast no healing medicines. All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not: for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one; for the <sup>8</sup>greatness of thine iniquity, because 15 thy sins were increased. Why criest thou <sup>9</sup>for thy hurt? thy pain is incurable: for the <sup>8</sup>greatness of thine iniquity, because thy sins were increased, I have done these things 16 unto thee. Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a 17 prey. For I will restore <sup>10</sup>health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they have called thee an outcast, saying, It is Zion, whom no man <sup>11</sup>seeketh after. 18 Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will <sup>8</sup>turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be

6 that the watchmen upon the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God. For thus saith the LORD, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall they return hither. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will <sup>12</sup>cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

nations, and declare it in the isles afar off; and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock. For the LORD hath ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he. And they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together unto the goodness of the LORD, to the corn, and to the wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 Thus saith the LORD: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuseth to be comforted for her children, because they are not. 16 Thus saith the LORD: Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope for thy latter end, saith the LORD; and thy children shall come again to their own border. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a calf unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels <sup>13</sup>are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD. 21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee guide-posts: set thine heart toward the high way, even the way by which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities. 22 How long wilt thou go hither and thither, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall encompass a man.

 25 about with flocks. For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful 26 soul have I replenished. Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep
 27 was sweet unto me. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with 28 the seed of beast. And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down, and to overthrow and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them to 29 build and to plant, saith the LORD. In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the 30 children's teeth are set on edge. But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.
 31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with 32 the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; <sup>1</sup>which my covenant they brake, although I was <sup>2</sup>an husband
 33 unto them, saith the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the LORD; I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God,
 34 and they shall be my people: and they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember
 35 no more. Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which <sup>3</sup>stirreth up the sea, that the waves thereof roar; the LORD of hosts is his 36 name: If these ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.
 37 Thus saith the LORD: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, 38 saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananel unto the gate of the 39 corner. And the measuring line shall yet go out straight onward unto the hill Gareb, and shall turn about unto 40 Goah. And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.
 2 Now at that time the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the 3 king of Judah's house. For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall
 4 take it; and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold
 5 his eyes; and he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper?
 6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the 7 LORD came unto me, saying, Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.
 8 So Hanamel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the 9 LORD. And I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel mine uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even 10 seventeen shekels of silver. And I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the 11 money in the balances. So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, <sup>4</sup>according to the law and custom, and that which was open:
 12 and I delivered the deed of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court
 13 of the guard. And I charged Baruch 14 before them, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase, both that which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land.

16 Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD,

17 saying, Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and by thy stretched out arm; there is nothing too <sup>1</sup>hard

18 for thee: which shewest mercy unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the great, the mighty God, the LORD of hosts is

19 his name: great in counsel, and mighty in work: whose eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 which didst set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day,

<sup>2</sup>both in Israel and among other men; and madest thee a name, as at this

21 day; and didst bring forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out

22 arm, and with great terror; and gavest them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land

23 flowing with milk and honey; and they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused

24 all this evil to come upon them: behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to

25 pass; and, behold, thou seest it. And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and 29 he shall take it: and the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done that which was evil in my sight from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove

32 it from before my face: because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants

33 of Jerusalem. And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruc-

34 tion. But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my 35 name, to defile it. And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my <sup>3</sup>mind, that they should do this abomination; to cause Judah to sin.

36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pesti-

37 lence: Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and

38 I will cause them to dwell safely: and they shall be my people, and I will be

39 their God: and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for ever; for the good of them, and

40 of their children after them: and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away <sup>4</sup>from them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall

41 not depart from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land <sup>5</sup>assuredly with my whole heart and with my

42 whole soul. For thus saith the LORD: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have 43 promised them. And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate, without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

- 33 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, Thus saith the LORD that doeth it, the LORD that formeth it to establish it; the LORD is his name: Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and will shew thee great things, and <sup>1</sup>difficult, which thou knowest not. For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defence against the mounts, and against the sword: 5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city. Behold, I will bring it <sup>2</sup>health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal unto them abundance of peace and truth. And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned against me, and whereby they have transgressed against me. And this city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure unto it. Thus saith the LORD: Yet again there shall be heard in this place, whereof ye say, It is waste, without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast, 11 the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that say, Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that bring sacrifices of thanksgiving into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return 12 as at the first, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks 13 to lie down. In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

- 14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, will I cause a <sup>3</sup>Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgement and 16 righteousness in the land. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name whereby she shall be called, 17 <sup>4</sup>The LORD is our righteousness. For thus saith the LORD: <sup>5</sup>David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn <sup>6</sup>oblations, and to do sacrifice continually. And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, 20 Thus saith the LORD: If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there should not be day and night in their season; 21 then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the 22 priests, my ministers. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto 23 me. And the word of the LORD came 24 to Jeremiah, saying, Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD did choose, he hath cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before 25 them. Thus saith the LORD: If my covenant of day and night stand not, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; then will I also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will <sup>7</sup>cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them. 34 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities 2 thereof, saying: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with 3 fire: and thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee month to month, and thou shalt go to Babylon. Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus saith the LORD concerning thee, 5 Thou shalt not die by the sword; thou shalt die in peace; and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they make a burning for thee; and they shall lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have spoken the word, saith the LORD. Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fenced cities.

8 The word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, 9 to proclaim liberty unto them; that every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, 10 to wit, of a Jew his brother: and all the princes and all the people obeyed, which had entered into the covenant, that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more; they obeyed, 11 and let them go: but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for 12 handmaids: therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of <sup>2</sup>bondage, 14 saying, At the end of seven years ye shall let go every man his brother that is an Hebrew, which <sup>3</sup>hath been sold unto thee, and hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear. 15 And ye were now turned, and had done that which is right in mine eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is 16 called by my name: but ye turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and ye brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for 17 handmaids. Therefore thus saith the LORD: Ye have not hearkened unto me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim unto you a liberty, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be <sup>4</sup>tossed to and fro among all the 18 kingdoms of the earth. And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, <sup>5</sup>when they cut the calf in twain and passed between the 19 parts thereof; the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf; I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth. 21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are 22 gone up from you. Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

35 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, 2 saying, Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them 3 wine to drink. Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaiah, the man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the 5 <sup>6</sup>door: and I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, 6 Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither 7 ye, nor your sons, for ever: neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land 8 wherein ye sojourn. obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed; but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go, and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken unto my words? saith the LORD. The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed, and unto this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken unto you, rising up early and speaking; and ye have not hearkened unto me. I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me. Forasmuch as the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people hath not hearkened unto me; therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered. And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he commanded you; therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

36 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am <sup>1</sup>shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon <sup>2</sup>the fast day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. It may be <sup>3</sup>they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before the LORD. Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people. And when Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. Then Micaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came 15 unto them. And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears.

 16 So Baruch read it in their ears. Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these 17 words. And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write 18 all these words at his mouth? Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.
 19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and 20 let no man know where ye be. And they went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears
 21 of the king. So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes 22 which stood beside the king. Now the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in
 23 the brasier burning before him. And it came to pass, when Jehudi had read three or four <sup>1</sup>leaves, that the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brasier, until all the roll was consumed in the fire
 24 that was in the brasier. And they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.
 25 Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. And the king commanded Jerahmeel <sup>2</sup>the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.
 27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah,
 28 saying, Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiaquim the king of Judah hath 29 burned. And concerning Jehoiaquim king of Judah thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD: Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from 30 thence man and beast? Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiaquim king of Judah: He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the 31 frost. And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but 32 they hearkened not. Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiaquim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

37 And Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of <sup>3</sup>Coniah the son of Jehoiaquim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the 2 land of Judah. But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him
 4 into prison. And Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they brake up
 5 from Jerusalem. Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah,
 6 saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent ye unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own
 7 land. And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire.
 8 Thus saith the LORD: Deceive not 9 yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall 10 not depart. For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but <sup>5</sup>wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to pass that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's
 12 army, then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion <sup>6</sup>there, in 13 the midst of the people. And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou 14 fallest away to the Chaldeans. Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans; but he hearkened not to him: so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the 15 princes. And the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had 16 made that the prison. When Jeremiah was come into the <sup>1</sup>dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had 17 remained there many days; then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, Thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king 18 of Babylon. Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, Wherein have I sinned against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye 19 have put me in prison? Where now are your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this 20 land? And now hear, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, <sup>2</sup>be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest 21 I die there. Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard, and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 And Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah spake unto all 2 the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be unto him for 3 a prey, and he shall live. Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. 4 Then the princes said unto the king, Let this man, we pray thee, be put to death; forasmuch as he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the 5 hurt. And Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing 6 against you. Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the <sup>3</sup>dungeon of Malchiah <sup>4</sup>the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: and Jeremiah sank in the 7 mire. Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, an eunuch, which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin; Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the 8 king, saying, My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and <sup>5</sup>he is like to die in the place where he is because of the famine: for there 10 is no more bread in the city. Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dun- 11 geon, before he die. So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. 12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jerem- 13 iah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; 15 hide nothing from me. Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, thou 16 wilt not hearken unto me. So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand 17 of these men that seek thy life. Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If thou wilt go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and 18 thou shalt live, and thine house: but if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their 19 hand. And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their 20 hand, and they mock me. But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, in that which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well with thee, and thy

But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me: Behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, <sup>1</sup>Thy familiar friends have <sup>2</sup>set thee on, and have prevailed over thee: now that thy feet are sunk in the mire, they are turned 23 back. And they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and <sup>3</sup>thou shalt cause this city to be 24 burned with fire. Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king; hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death: also what the 26 king said unto thee: then thou shalt say unto them, I <sup>4</sup>presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to 27 Jonathan's house, to die there. Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter 28 was not <sup>5</sup>perceived. So Jeremiah abode in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

And it came to pass when Jerusalem was taken, <sup>6</sup>in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against 2 Jerusalem, and besieged it; in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, 3 a breach was made in the city: that all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, <sup>7</sup>Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, <sup>7</sup>Rab-mag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass that when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the Arabah.

5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he

6 <sup>8</sup>gave judgement upon him. Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles 7 of Judah. Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, 8 to carry him to Babylon. And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem. Then Nebuzaradan the <sup>9</sup>captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people that remained in the city, the deserters also, that fell away to him, and the residue of the people that remained. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. 11 Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, 12 saying, Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto 13 thee. So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the 14 king of Babylon; they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

15 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the 16 court of the guard, saying, Go, and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they <sup>10</sup>shall be accomplished before 17 thee in that day. But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the 18 men of whom thou art afraid. For I will surely save thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

40 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away 2 captive unto Babylon. And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God pronounced this evil upon this place: and the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he spake; because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore 4 this thing is come upon you. And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which are upon thine hand.

If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee; but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee; whither it seemeth good and <sup>1</sup>convenient unto thee to go, thither <sup>5</sup>go. Now while he was not yet gone back, Go back then, said he, to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth <sup>1</sup>convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him <sup>2</sup>viaticals <sup>6</sup>and a present, and let him go. Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

<sup>7</sup> <sup>3</sup>Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, <sup>4</sup>and of the poorest of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to <sup>8</sup>Babylon; then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and <sup>9</sup>their men. And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans, which shall come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

<sup>11</sup> Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; then all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

<sup>13</sup> Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to <sup>14</sup>Mizpah, and said unto him, Dost thou know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take thy life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed <sup>15</sup>them not. Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he take thy life, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

<sup>41</sup> <sup>5</sup>Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat <sup>2</sup>bread together in Mizpah. Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made <sup>3</sup>governor over the land. Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, even <sup>4</sup>the men of war. And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, that there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with <sup>6</sup>oblations and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house <sup>6</sup>of the LORD. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the <sup>8</sup>men that were with him. But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among <sup>9</sup>their brethren. Now the pit wherein Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, by the side of Gedaliah, (the same was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel,) Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them <sup>10</sup>that were slain. Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon.

- 11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. Now it came to pass that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad. So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah. But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon: and they departed, and dwelt in <sup>1</sup>Geruth Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt, because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

- 42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and <sup>2</sup>Jezaniah the son of Hoshai, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near, and said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we pray thee, our supplication <sup>3</sup>be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us: that the LORD thy God may shew us the way wherein we should walk, and the thing that we should do. 4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness <sup>4</sup>amongst us, if we do not even according to all the word wherewith the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

- 7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah. Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to <sup>5</sup>present your supplication before him: If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you. Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. And I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land. But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land; so that ye obey not the voice of the LORD your God; saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: now therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah: thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye are afraid, <sup>6</sup>shall follow hard after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die. So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. The LORD hath spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified unto you this day. For ye have dealt deceitfully <sup>7</sup>against your own souls; for ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so 22 which he hath sent me unto you. Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go to sojourn there.

43 And it came to pass that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, wherewith the LORD their God had sent him to them,
2 even all these words, then spake Azariah the son of Kareah, and Johanan the son of Neriah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Ye shall not
3 go into Egypt to sojourn there: but Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away
4 captives to Babylon. So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in
5 the land of Judah. But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all the nations whither they had been driven
6 to sojourn in the land of Judah; the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch
7 the son of Neriah; and they came into the land of Egypt; for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: and they came 8 seven to Tahpanhes. Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in 9 Tahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thine hand, and <sup>1</sup>hide them in mortar in the brickwork, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of 10 Judah; and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his <sup>2</sup>royal pavilion over 11 them. And he shall come, and shall smite the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be given to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the 12 sword. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall

13 go forth from thence in peace. He shall also break the <sup>3</sup>pillars of <sup>4</sup>Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwelt in the land of Egypt, which dwelt at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros,
2 saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein;
3 because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they,
4 nor ye, nor your fathers. Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn
6 no incense unto other gods. Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and
7 desolate, as it is this day. Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your own souls, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and suckling, out of the midst of Judah, to leave you none
8 remaining; in that ye provoke me unto anger with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to sojourn; that ye may be cut off, and that ye may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?
9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and 11 before your fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all 12 Judah. And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, 14 and by the pestilence: so that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they <sup>1</sup> have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save such as shall escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that their wives burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great assembly, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we

17 will not hearken unto thee. But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of <sup>2</sup> victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to <sup>3</sup> worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, with-

20 out our husbands? Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people which had given him

21 that answer, saying, The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as it is this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are

25 in the land of Egypt: thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: establish then your vows, and

26 perform your vows. Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As

27 the LORD God liveth. Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until

28 there be an end of them. And they that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose word shall stand,

29 mine, or theirs. And this shall be the sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriab, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah,

2 king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>4</sup> unto thee, O

3 Baruch: Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added sorrow to my pain; <sup>5</sup> I am weary with my

4 groaning, and I find no rest. Thus shalt thou say unto him, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck

5 up; and this in the whole land. And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

2 Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh-neco king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carmemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. Harness the horses, and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail.

5 Wherefore have I seen it? they are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: terror is on every side, saith

6 the LORD. Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Euphrates have

7 they stumbled and fallen. <sup>1</sup>Who is this that riseth up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he saith, I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and

9 the inhabitants thereof. Go up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put, that handle the shield; and the Ludim,

10 that handle and bend the bow. For that day is a day of the LORD, the LORD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood: for the LORD, the LORD of hosts, hath a sacrifice in the north country

11 by the river Euphrates. Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain dost thou use many medicines; there is no healing

12 for thee. The nations have heard of thy shame, and the earth is full of thy cry: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together.

13 The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand forth, and prepare thee; for the sword hath

15 devoured round about thee. <sup>2</sup>Why are thy strong ones swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did <sup>3</sup>drive

16 them. He made many to stumble, yea, they fell one upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing

17 sword. They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath

18 let the appointed time pass by. As I live, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. <sup>4</sup>O

thou daughter that dwellest in Egypt, <sup>5</sup>furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabit-

20 ant. Egypt is a very fair heifer; but <sup>6</sup>destruction out of the north is come, <sup>7</sup>it is come. Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity is come upon them, the time of

22 their visitation. <sup>8</sup>The sound thereof shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of

23 wood. They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, <sup>9</sup>though it cannot be searched; because they are more than 24 the locusts, and are innumerable. The daughter of Egypt shall be put to shame; she shall be delivered into the

25 hand of the people of the north. The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith: Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and

26 them that trust in him: and I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in

27 the days of old, saith the LORD. <sup>10</sup>But fear not thou, O Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make

28 him afraid. Fear not thou, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee, but I will not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee with judgement, and will in no wise

11 leave thee unpunished.

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

48 Of Moab. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe unto Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken: <sup>3</sup>Misgab is put to shame and <sup>4</sup>broken down.
<sup>2</sup>The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her, Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. Thou also, O Madmen, shalt be brought to silence; the <sup>3</sup>sword shall pursue thee. The sound of a cry from Horonaim, spoiling and <sup>4</sup>great destruction! Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. <sup>5</sup>For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for in the going down of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry <sup>6</sup>of destruction. Flee, save your lives, and be like <sup>6</sup>the heath in the wilderness. For, because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou also shalt be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, his <sup>8</sup>priests and his princes together. And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and <sup>7</sup>the plain shall be destroyed; as the LORD hath spoken.

young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name <sup>16</sup>is the LORD of hosts. The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. All ye that are round about him, bemoan him, and all ye that know his name; say, How is the strong <sup>13</sup>staff broken, the beautiful rod! <sup>18</sup>O thou daughter that <sup>14</sup>dwestest in Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab is come up against thee, he hath <sup>19</sup>destroyed thy strong holds. O <sup>15</sup>inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy: ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth; say, What hath <sup>20</sup>been done? Moab is put to shame; for it is <sup>4</sup>broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is laid <sup>21</sup>waste. And judgement is come upon <sup>16</sup>the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahzah, and upon Mephaath; <sup>22</sup>and upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and <sup>23</sup>upon Beth-diblathaim; and upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon <sup>24</sup>Beth-meon; and upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities <sup>25</sup>of the land of Moab, far or near. The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm <sup>26</sup>is broken, saith the LORD. Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against the LORD: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall <sup>27</sup>be in derision. For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for as often as thou speakest of him, thou waggest the <sup>28</sup>head. O ye inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that maketh her nest <sup>29</sup>in the sides of the hole's mouth. <sup>17</sup>We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and <sup>30</sup>his haughtiness of his heart. I know his wrath, saith the LORD, that it is nought; his boastings have wrought <sup>31</sup>nothing. <sup>18</sup>Therefore will I howl for Moab; yea, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir-heres shall they <sup>32</sup>mourn. With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for thee, <sup>19</sup>O vine of Sibmah: thy branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage the spoiler is <sup>33</sup>fallen. <sup>20</sup>And gladness and joy is taken away, from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting, the shouting shall be no shouting. <sup>21</sup>From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, even unto Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, <sup>22</sup>to Eglath-shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim <sup>35</sup>also shall become <sup>23</sup>desolate. saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high place, and him that burneth incense to his gods. Therefore mine heart soundeth for Moab like pipes, and mine heart soundeth like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: therefore the abundance that he hath gotten is perished. For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands are cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. On all the house-tops of Moab and in the streets thereof there is lamentation every where: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 How is it broken down! <sup>1</sup>How do they howl! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab become a derision and a dismaying to all that are round about him. For thus saith the LORD: Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. <sup>2</sup>Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD. He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon her, even upon Moab, the year of their

45 visitation, saith the LORD. <sup>4</sup>They that fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon: <sup>5</sup>for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and hath devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous

46 ones. Woe unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh is undone: for thy sons are taken away captive, and thy daughters into captivity. Yet will I <sup>6</sup>bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgement of Moab.

49 Of the children of Ammon. Thus saith the LORD: Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth <sup>7</sup>Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in the cities thereof? Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate

<sup>8</sup>heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess them that did <sup>9</sup>possess him, saith the LORD. Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled; cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth: lament, and run to and fro among the fences; for <sup>7</sup>Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. <sup>10</sup>Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me? Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, from all that are round about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be none to gather up him that wandereth. But afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 Of Edom. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I shall visit him. If grapegatherers came to thee, <sup>11</sup>would they not leave some gleanings grapes? if thieves by night, would they not destroy till they

10 had enough? But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours,

11 and he is not. Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me. For thus saith the LORD: Behold, they

<sup>12</sup>to whom it pertained not to drink of the cup shall assuredly drink; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink.

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes. <sup>13</sup>I have heard tidings from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. For, behold, I have made thee small among the nations, and despised among men. As for thy terribleness, the pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of <sup>14</sup>the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD. And Edom shall become an astonishment: every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of 17 man sojourn therein. Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the <sup>15</sup>pride of Jordan <sup>16</sup>against the strong habitation:

Arise, get you up unto a nation that is at ease, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD; which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone. be taken: their arrows shall be as of <sup>1</sup>an expert mighty man; <sup>2</sup>none shall return in vain. And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD. Because ye are glad, because ye rejoice, O ye that plunder mine heritage, because ye are wanton as an heifer <sup>3</sup>that treadeth out the corn, and neigh as strong horses; your mother shall be sore ashamed; she that bare you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the hindmost of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. Set yourselves in array against Babylon round about, all ye that bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD. Shout against her round about; she hath <sup>4</sup>submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD; take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. And I will bring Israel again to his <sup>5</sup>pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.

21 Go up against the land of <sup>6</sup>Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of <sup>7</sup>Pekod: slay and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee. A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation <sup>8</sup>among the nations! I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because 25 thou hast striven against the LORD. The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for the LORD, the LORD of hosts, hath a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. Come against her from the utmost border, open her <sup>9</sup>storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and <sup>10</sup>destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left. Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. Call together <sup>11</sup>the archers against Babylon, all them that bend the bow; camp against her round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. Therefore shall her young men fall in her streets, and all her men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, saith the LORD. Behold, I am against thee, <sup>12</sup>O thou proud one, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee. And <sup>13</sup>the proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all that are round about him.

33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together: and all that took them captives hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. Their redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the <sup>14</sup>boasters, and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her, and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures, and they shall be robbed. A drought is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up: for it is a land of graven images, and they are mad upon <sup>15</sup>idols.

39 <sup>16</sup>Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the <sup>17</sup>wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation. the LORD; so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man sojourn therein. <sup>1</sup> Behold, a people cometh from the north; and a great nation, and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea, and they ride upon horses; every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon. The king of Babylon hath heard the fame of them, and his hands wax feeble; anguish hath taken hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. <sup>2</sup> Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of Jordan against the strong habitation: but I will suddenly make them run away from her; and whoso is chosen, him will I appoint over her: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd that will stand before me? Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them. At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembleth, and the cry is heard among the nations.

<sup>51</sup> Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in <sup>3</sup> Leb-kamai, a destroying wind. And I will send unto Babylon <sup>4</sup> strangers, that shall fan her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. <sup>5</sup> Let not the archer bend his bow, and let him not lift himself up in his coat of mail: and spare ye not her young men; <sup>6</sup> destroy ye utterly all her host. And they shall fall downslain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets. For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and save every man his life; be not cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence. <sup>7</sup> Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgement reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. Make <sup>7</sup> sharp the arrows; <sup>8</sup> hold firm the <sup>9</sup> shields: the LORD hath stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his device is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple. Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, the measure of thy <sup>10</sup> covetousness. The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with the cankerworm; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

<sup>15</sup> <sup>11</sup> He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding hath he stretched out the heavens: when he uttereth his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. <sup>17</sup> Every man is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. <sup>19</sup> The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. <sup>20</sup> Thou art my <sup>12</sup> battleaxe and weapons of war: and with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; and with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and him that rideth therein; and with thee will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; and with thee will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces <sup>13</sup> governors and deputies. And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and 26 will make thee a burnt mountain. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever,
 27 saith the LORD. Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, <sup>1</sup>prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up
 28 as the rough cankerworm. <sup>1</sup>Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, the governors thereof, and all the deputies thereof, and all the 29 land of his dominion. And the land trembleth and is in pain: for the purposes of the LORD against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a 30 desolation, without inhabitant. The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strong holds; their might hath failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are 31 broken. One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter:
 32 and the <sup>2</sup>passages are surprised, and the <sup>3</sup>reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.
 33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come
 34 for her. Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured <sup>4</sup>me, he hath crushed <sup>4</sup>me, he hath made <sup>4</sup>me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed <sup>4</sup>me up like a dragon, he hath filled his maw with my delicates; he hath cast <sup>4</sup>me
 35 out. <sup>5</sup>The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the <sup>6</sup>inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall 36 Jerusalem say. Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain 37 dry. And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and an hissing, without in-38 habitant. They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions'
 39 whelps. When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not 40 wake, saith the LORD. I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats. How is 41 <sup>7</sup>Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become <sup>8</sup>a desolation among the

42 nations! The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the <sup>9</sup>multitude of the waves thereof. Her cities are become <sup>8</sup>a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of 44 man pass thereby. And I will <sup>10</sup>do judgement upon Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of the LORD.
 46 And let not your heart faint, neither fear ye for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; for a rumour shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.
 47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgement upon the graven images of Babylon, and her whole land shall be ashamed; and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.
 48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith
 49 the LORD. <sup>11</sup>As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the <sup>12</sup>land.
 50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go ye, stand not still; remember the LORD from afar, and let Jerusalem come into 51 your mind. We are ashamed, because we have heard reproach; confusion hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the 52 LORD's house. Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgement upon her graven images; and through all her land the wounded
 53 shall groan. Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers 54 come unto her, saith the LORD. The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of 55 the Chaldeans! for the LORD spoileth Babylon, and destroyeth out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters, the noise of their voice
 56 is uttered: for the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces: for the LORD is a God of recompences, he shall surely 57 requite. And I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King,

59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was <sup>2</sup>chief chamberlain. And Jeremiah wrote in <sup>3</sup>a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon.

4 Or,

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, <sup>4</sup>then see 62 that thou read all these words, and say, O LORD, thou hast spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell therein, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate 63 for ever. And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates: 64 and thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring <sup>5</sup>upon her: and they shall be weary.

5 Or, upon her.
And they shall be weary:—
thus far &c.

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

[ 52 <sup>6</sup>Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger of the LORD did it come to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence: and Zedekiah rebelled against the king of 4 Babylon. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round 5 about. So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. 6 In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. 7 Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about:) and they went by the 8 way of the Arabah. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scat- 9 tered from him. Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he <sup>7</sup>gave judgement 10 upon him. And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of 11 Judah in Riblah. And he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, which stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem: and he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even <sup>8</sup>every 14 great house, burned he with fire. And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem 15 round about. Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest sort of the people, and the residue of the people that were left in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the <sup>9</sup>multitude.

The pots also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they 19 ministered, took they away. And the cups, and the firepans, and the basons, and the pots, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of 20 the guard took away. The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for the house of the LORD: the brass of all these 21 vessels was without weight. And as for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: 22 it was hollow. And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of the one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like unto these, 23 and pomegranates. And there were ninety and six pomegranates <sup>10</sup>on the sides; all the pomegranates were an hundred upon the network round about.

24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of 25 the <sup>1</sup>door: and out of the city he took an <sup>2</sup>officer that was set over the men of war; and seven men of them that saw the king's face, which were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in 26 the midst of the city. And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king 27 of Babylon to Riblah. And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out 28 of his land. This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand 29 Jews and three and twenty: in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons;

30 in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 <sup>3</sup>And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought 32 him forth out of prison; and he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with 33 him in Babylon. And he changed his prison garments, and did eat bread before him continually all the days of 34 his life. And for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS [OF JEREMIAH.]

1 How doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people!

How is she become as a widow!

She that was great among the nations,
and princess among the provinces,
How is she become tributary!

2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;

Among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her:

All her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
They are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into <sup>1</sup>captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude;

She dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest:

All her persecutors overtook her within the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the <sup>2</sup>solemn assembly; All her gates are desolate, her priests do sigh:

Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are become the head, her enemies prosper;

For the Lord hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions;

Her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her <sup>3</sup>majesty is departed:

Her princes are become like harts that find no pasture,

And they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembereth in the days of her affliction and of her <sup>4</sup>miseries

All her pleasant things that were from the days of old:

When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and none did help her,

The adversaries saw her, they did mock at her <sup>5</sup>desolations.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she <sup>6</sup>is become as an unclean thing:

All that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: Yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness was in her skirts; she remembered not her latter end;

Therefore is she come down wonderfully; she hath no comforter:

Behold, O Lord, my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: For she hath seen that the heathen are entered into her sanctuary, Concerning whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; They have given their pleasant things for meat to refresh the soul:

See, O LORD, and behold; for I am become vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?

Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me,

13 From on high hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them:

He hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back;

He hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand;

They are knit together, they are come up upon my neck; he hath made my strength to <sup>2</sup> fail:

The LORD hath delivered me into their hands, <sup>3</sup> against whom I am not able to stand.

15 The LORD hath set at nought all my mighty men in the midst of me;

He hath called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men:

The LORD hath trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.

16 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water;

Because the comforter that should refresh my soul is far from me:

My children are desolate, because the enemy hath prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands; there is none to comfort her;

The LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that they that are round about him should be his adversaries: Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.

18 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment:

Hear, I pray you, all ye peoples, and behold my sorrow:

My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me:

My priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city,

While they sought them meat to refresh their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress; my bowels are troubled;

Mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled:

Abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me;

All mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it:

Thou wilt bring the day that thou hast proclaimed, and they shall be like unto me.

22 Let all their wickedness come before thee;

And do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions:

For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2 How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!

He hath cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel,

And hath not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied;

He hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah;

He hath brought them down to the ground:

He hath profaned the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in fierce anger <sup>4</sup> all the horn of Israel;

He hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy:

And he hath burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy, he hath stood with his right hand as an adversary,

And hath slain all that were pleasant to the eye:

<sup>5</sup> In the tent of the daughter of Zion he hath poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD is become as an enemy, he hath swallowed up Israel;

He hath swallowed up all her palaces, he hath destroyed his strong holds:

And he hath multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his <sup>6</sup> tabernacle, as if it were of a garden;

He hath destroyed his place of assembly:

The LORD hath caused <sup>7</sup> solemn assembly and sabbath to be forgotten in Zion,

And hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary,

He hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces:

They have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn assembly.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion;
He hath stretched out the line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from <sup>1</sup>destroying:

But he hath made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars:
Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not;
Yea, her prophets find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, they keep silence;
They have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth:

The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled,

My liver is poured upon the earth, for the <sup>2</sup>destruction of the daughter of my people;

Because the young children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine?

When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city,

When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What shall I <sup>3</sup>testify unto thee? what shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem?

What shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion?

For thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen visions for thee of vanity and foolishness;

And they have not discovered thine iniquity, to bring again thy captivity:

But have seen for thee <sup>4</sup>burdens of vanity and <sup>5</sup>causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee;

They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying:

Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth wide against thee;

They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up;

Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he devised;

He hath <sup>6</sup>fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old;

He hath thrown down, and hath not pitied:

And he hath caused the enemy to rejoice over thee,

He hath exalted the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord:

O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give thyself no respite; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches;

Pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord:

Lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children,

That faint for hunger at the top of every street.

20 See, O LORD, and behold, to whom thou hast done thus!

Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands?

Shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets;

My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword:

Thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast slaughtered, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, <sup>7</sup>my terrors on every side,

And there was none that escaped or remained in the day of the LORD's anger:

Those that I have dandled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

3 I am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me and caused me to walk in darkness <sup>8</sup>and not in light.

3 Surely against me he turneth his hand again and again all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he <sup>9</sup>made old; he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with <sup>10</sup>gall and travail.

6 <sup>11</sup>He hath made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.

7 He hath fenced me about, that I cannot go forth; he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Yea, when I cry and call for help, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath fenced up my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He is unto me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he hath made me desolate.

4 How is the gold become dim! how is the most pure gold changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, <sup>1</sup>comparable to fine gold, How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the jackals draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: The daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: The young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: They that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For <sup>2</sup>the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than <sup>3</sup>the sin of Sodom,

That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands <sup>4</sup>were laid upon her.

7 Her <sup>5</sup>nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, They were more ruddy in body than <sup>6</sup>rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire:

8 Their visage is <sup>7</sup>blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: Their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger;

For these <sup>8</sup>spine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children; They were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury, he hath poured out his fierce anger; And he hath kindled a fire in Zion, which hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth believed not, neither all the inhabitants of the world, That the adversary and the enemy should enter into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, That have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

14 They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood, So that men cannot touch their garments.

15 Depart ye, they cried unto them, Unclean! depart, depart, touch not:

<sup>9</sup> When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, They shall no more sojourn here.

16 The <sup>10</sup>anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: They respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 Our eyes do yet fail in looking for our vain help:

In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets:

Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heaven:

They chased us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits; Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.

21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz:

The cup shall pass through unto thee also; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 <sup>11</sup>The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; He will no more carry thee away into captivity:

He will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom;

He will discover thy sins.

5 Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us:

Behold, and see our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned unto strangers,

Our houses unto aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless,

Our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money; Our wood <sup>12</sup>is sold unto us.

5 Our pursuers are upon our necks:

We are weary, and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians,

And to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers have sinned, and are not; And we have borne their iniquities.

8 Servants rule over us:

There is none to deliver us out of their hand.

9 We get our bread with the peril of our lives

Because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our skin is <sup>13</sup>black like an oven Because of the burning heat of famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion, The maidens in the cities of Judah.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

- 1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the <sup>1</sup>captives by the river
 Chebar, that the heavens were opened,
 2 and I saw visions of God. In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth 3 year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, the word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the 4 LORD was there upon him. And I looked, and, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with a fire <sup>2</sup>unfolding itself, and a brightness round about it, and out of the midst thereof <sup>3</sup>as the colour of 4 amber, out of the midst of the fire.
 5 And out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had 6 the likeness of a man. And every one had four faces, and every one of them 7 had four wings. And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot;
 and they sparkled like the colour of 8 burnished brass. And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides: and they four had 9 their faces and their wings thus; their wings were joined one to another;
 they turned not when they went; they 10 went every one straight forward. As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and they four had the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four had also 11 the face of an eagle. <sup>5</sup>And their faces and their wings were separate above;
 two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their 12 bodies. And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit

- was to go, they went; they turned 13 not when they went. <sup>6</sup>As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches;
 it went up and down among the living creatures: and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth light-14 ning. And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a 15 flash of lightning. Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces there-16 of. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel 17 within a wheel. When they went, they went upon their four sides: they 18 turned not when they went. As for their <sup>8</sup>rings, they were high and dreadful; and they four had their rings full 19 of eyes round about. And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, 20 the wheels were lifted up. Whitherso-ever the spirit was to go, they went;
 thither was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up <sup>9</sup>beside them;
 for the spirit <sup>10</sup>of the living creature 21 was in the wheels. When those went, these went; and when those stood,
 these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up <sup>9</sup>beside them: for the spirit <sup>10</sup>of the living creature was in 22 the wheels. And over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of a firmament, like the colour of the terrible <sup>11</sup>crystal, stretched 23 forth over their heads above. And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other:

And there was a voice above the firmament that was over their heads: when they 26 stood, they let down their wings. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the ap-

And I saw as the colour of <sup>2</sup> amber, as the appearance of fire within it round about, from the appearance of his loins and upward; and from the appearance of his loins and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness round about 28 <sup>3</sup> him. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

2 And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak 2 with thee. And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet; and I heard 3 him that spake unto me. And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to nations that are rebellious, which have rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even un- 4 to this very day. And the children are impudent and stiffhearted; <sup>4</sup> I do send thee unto them: and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God. 5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. 6 And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though 7 they be a rebellious house. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most 8 rebellious. But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give 9 thee. And when I looked, behold, an hand was put forth unto me; and, 10 lo, a roll of a book was therein; and

whom I

he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe. And he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go, speak unto the 2 house of Israel. So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the roll. 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people <sup>5</sup> of a strange speech and of an hard language, 6 but to the house of Israel; not to many peoples of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, if I sent thee to them, they would hearken unto 7 thee. But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are of an hard forehead and of 8 a stiff heart. Behold, I have made thy face hard against their faces, and thy forehead hard against their foreheads.

deep of lip and heavy of tongue.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and 11 hear with thine ears. And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

13 And I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels <sup>6</sup> beside them, even the noise of 14 a great rushing. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away: and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit, and the hand of the LORD was strong 15 upon me. Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that <sup>7</sup> dwelt by the river Chebar, <sup>8</sup> and to where they <sup>7</sup> dwelt; and I sat there astonished among them seven days.

the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die; because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the <sup>1</sup>plain, and I will there talk with thee. Then I arose, and went forth into the <sup>1</sup>plain: and, behold, the glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell on my face. Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet; and he spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house. But thou, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: and I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: 27 for they are a rebellious house. But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4 Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it a city, even Jerusalem; and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mount against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round about.

3 And take thou unto thee an iron <sup>2</sup>pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Moreover lie thou upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it, thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be unto thee a number of days, even three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the

6 iniquity of the house of Israel. And again, when thou hast accomplished these, thou shalt lie on thy right side, and shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it unto thee. And thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with thine arm uncovered; and thou shalt prophesy against it. And, behold, I lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast accomplished the days of thy siege. Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof; according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, even three hundred and ninety 10 days, shalt thou eat thereof. And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from 11 time to time shalt thou eat it. And thou shalt drink water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time 12 shalt thou drink. And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it in their sight with dung that cometh 13 out of man. And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations whither I will drive them. Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn of beasts; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, See, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread 16 thereon. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with carefulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment: 17 that they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp sword, as a barber's razor shalt thou take it unto thee, and shalt cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and <sup>3</sup>divide the hair. A third part shalt thou burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite with the sword round about it; and a third part thou shalt scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after 3 them. And thou shalt take <sup>4</sup>thereof a few in number, and bind them in 4 thy skirts. And of these again shalt thou take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire;

therefrom shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord God: This is Jerusalem: I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are round

6 about her. And she hath <sup>1</sup>rebelled against my judgements in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have rejected my judgements, and as for my statutes, they have

7 not walked in them. Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because ye are turbulent more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgements, neither have done

8 after the <sup>2</sup>ordinances of the nations that are round about you; therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I, even I, am against thee; and I will execute judgements in the midst of thee in

9 the sight of the nations. And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more

10 the like, because of all thine abominations. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgements in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter

11 unto all the winds. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also <sup>3</sup>diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, and I also will have no pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and a third part I will scatter unto all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will <sup>4</sup>satisfy my fury <sup>5</sup>upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished

14 my fury upon them. Moreover I will make thee a desolation and a reproach, among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass

15 by. So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgements in thee in anger and in fury, and in furious rebukes: I the Lord have

16 spoken it: when I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you; and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break

17 your staff of bread; and I will send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee: I the Lord have spoken it.

6 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel,

7 and prophesy <sup>6</sup>unto them, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God: Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains and to the hills, to the <sup>7</sup>watercourses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will

8 destroy your high places. And your altars shall become desolate, and your sun-images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your

9 idols. And I will lay the carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones

10 round about your altars. In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and <sup>8</sup>made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your sun-images may be hewn down, and your works may be <sup>9</sup>abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the

8 Lord. Yet will I leave a remnant, in that ye shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall

9 be scattered through the countries. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, how that <sup>10</sup>I have been broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all

10 their abominations. And they shall know that I am the Lord: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord God: Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel: for they shall fall by the sword, by the 12 famine, and by the pestilence. He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is

13 besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick <sup>12</sup>oak, the place where they did offer sweet

14 savour to all their idols. And I will stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate and waste, <sup>13</sup>from the wilderness toward Diblah,

7 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, And thou, son of man, thus saith the LORD God unto the land of Israel, An end: the end is come upon the four corners of the land. Now is the end upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways; and I will bring upon thee all thine abominations. And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will bring thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the LORD God: An evil, an only evil; behold, it cometh. An end is come, the end is come, it awaketh against thee; behold, it cometh. 1 Thy doom is come unto thee, O inhabitant of the land: the time is come, the day is near; a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, 2 upon the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger against thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways; and I will bring upon thee all thine abominations. And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring upon thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I the

10 LORD do smite. Behold, the day, behold, it cometh: 3 thy doom is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride

11 hath budded. Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness; 4 none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth: neither shall there be 5 eminency among them. The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multi-

13 tude thereof. For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, 6 although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, 7 none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself 8 in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the 15 multitude thereof. The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour

16 him. But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one in his in- 17 iquity. All hands shall be feeble, and 18 all knees shall be weak as water. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and

19 baldness upon all their heads. They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD; they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it hath been the stumblingblock of their iniquity. As for the beauty of his ornament, 9 he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things 10 therein: therefore have I made 21 it unto them as an unclean thing. And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall 22 profane it. My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my 11 secret place: and robbers shall 23 enter into it, and profane it. Make the chain: for the land is full of 12 bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. 24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and 13 their 25 holy places shall be profaned. 14 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek 26 peace, and there shall be none. Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, 27 and counsel from the ancients. The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their desires will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

8 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the LORD God fell thereupon 2 me. Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his loins and downward, fire: and from his loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness, 15 as the 3 colour of 16 amber. And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh 4 to jealousy. And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the 17 appearance that I saw in the 5 plain. Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. And he said unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, <sup>1</sup>that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but <sup>2</sup>thou shalt again see yet other great abominations. And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. And he said unto me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here. So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, poured upon the wall round about. And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and the odour of the cloud of incense went up. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his chambers of imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the <sup>3</sup>earth. He said also unto me, Thou shalt again see yet other great abominations which they do. Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and behold, there sat the women weeping for Tamuz. Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? thou shalt again see yet greater abominations than these. And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them. <sup>9</sup> Then he cried in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, <sup>4</sup>Cause ye them that have charge over the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. And behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lieth toward the north, every man with his <sup>5</sup>slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the midst of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn <sup>6</sup>by his side. And they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar. And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house; and he called to the man clothed in linen, which had the writer's inkhorn <sup>6</sup>by his side. And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye through the city after him, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: slay <sup>7</sup>utterly the old man, the young man and the maiden, and little children and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the <sup>8</sup>ancient men which were before the house. And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and smote in the city. And it came to pass, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah LORD God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of <sup>9</sup>wresting of judgment: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the <sup>8</sup>earth, and the LORD seeth not. And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way upon their head. And behold, the man clothed in linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me. <sup>10</sup> Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was over the head of the cherubim, there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. And he spake unto the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both thine hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and <sup>10</sup>scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight. Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. And the glory of the LORD mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

And it came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. 7 And the cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim unto the fire that was between the cherubim, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. 8 And there appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their 9 wings. And I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was <sup>2</sup>as the 10 colour of a <sup>3</sup>beryl stone. And as for their appearance, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been <sup>4</sup>with- 11 in a wheel. When they went, they went <sup>5</sup>upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed 12 it; they turned not as they went. And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. 13 As for the wheels, they were called in 14 my hearing, the whirling wheels. And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the 15 fourth the face of an eagle. And the cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river 16 Chebar. And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them: and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also turned not from beside them. 17 When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit <sup>6</sup>of the 18 living creature was in them. And the glory of the LORD went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood 19 over the cherubim. And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels <sup>7</sup>beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over 20 them above. This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that 21 they were cherubim. Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands 22 of a man was under their wings. And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

11 Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of 2 Benaiah, princes of the people. And he said unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise iniquity, and that 3 give wicked counsel in this city: which say, <sup>8</sup>The time is not near to build houses: this city is the caldron, and 4 we be the flesh. Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. 5 And the spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said unto me, Speak, Thus saith the LORD: Thus have ye said, O house of Israel; for I know the things 6 that come into your mind. Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with 7 the slain. Therefore thus saith the LORD God: Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but <sup>9</sup>ye shall be brought forth out of the midst 8 of it. Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, saith 9 the LORD God. And I will bring you forth out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgements among 10 you. Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; I will judge you in the 12 border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither have ye executed my judgements, but have done after the <sup>10</sup>ordinances of the nations 13 that are round about you. And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel? 14 And the word of the LORD came unto 15 me, saying, Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy <sup>11</sup>kindred, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD; unto us is this land 16 given for a possession: therefore say, Thus saith the LORD God: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, <sup>12</sup>yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they are

And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: that they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God. Then did the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels were <sup>1</sup>beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 23 And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. And the spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the Lord had shewed me. 12 The word of the Lord also came unto me, saying, Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of the rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not, which have ears to hear, and hear not; for they are a rebellious house. 3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for <sup>2</sup>removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will <sup>3</sup>consider, though they be a rebellious house. And thou shalt bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for <sup>2</sup>removing: and thou shalt go forth thyself at even in their sight, as when men go forth into exile. Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel. 7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bare it upon my shoulder in their sight. And in the morning came the word of the Lord unto me, saying, 9 Son of man, hath not the house of

Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou? Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: This <sup>4</sup>burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel <sup>5</sup>among whom they are. Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall go into exile, into captivity. And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the <sup>6</sup>ground with his eyes. My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. And I will scatter toward every wind all that are round about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. 16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord. 17 Moreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying, Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness; and say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from <sup>7</sup>all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein. And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and ye shall know that I am the Lord. 21 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, what is this proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth? Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the <sup>8</sup>effect of every vision. For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. For I am the Lord; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God. 26 Again the word of the Lord came Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: There shall none of my words be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, saith the Lord God.

13 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own heart, Hear 3 ye the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord God: Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, 4<sup>1</sup> and have seen nothing! O Israel, thy prophets have been like foxes in the 5 waste places. Ye have not gone up into the <sup>2</sup>gaps, neither made up the fence for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord. 6 They have seen vanity and lying divination, that say, The Lord saith; and the Lord hath not sent them: and they <sup>3</sup>have made men to hope that the 7 word should be confirmed. Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God. And mine hand shall be against the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the <sup>4</sup>council of my people, neither shall they be written in the <sup>5</sup>writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the

10 Lord God. Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one buildeth up <sup>6</sup>a wall, behold, they daub 11 it with untempered mortar: say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy 12 wind shall rend it. Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye 13 have daubed it? Therefore thus saith the Lord God: I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in fury to 14 consume it. So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered: and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof; and ye shall 15 know that I am the Lord. Thus will

I accomplish my fury upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and I will say unto you, The wall is no more, 16 neither they that daubed it; to wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 And thou, son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; 18 and prophesy thou against them, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Woe to the women that sew pillows upon all 7 elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! <sup>8</sup>Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive <sup>9</sup>for 19 yourselves? And ye have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hearken unto lies. Wherefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against your pillows, <sup>10</sup>wherewith ye there hunt the souls 11 to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt 12 to make them fly. Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye 22 shall know that I am the Lord. Because with lies ye have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, <sup>12</sup>and be saved alive: 23 therefore ye shall no more see vanity, nor divine divinations: and I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

14 Then came certain of the elders of 2 Israel unto me, and sat before me. And the word of the Lord came unto me, 3 saying, Son of man, these men have <sup>13</sup>taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I 4 be inquired of at all by them? Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Every man of the house of Israel that taketh his idols into his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the Lord will answer him <sup>14</sup>therein according to the multitude of 5 his idols; that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through 6 their idols. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: Return ye, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your 7 faces from all your abominations. For every one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and taketh his idols into his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet to inquire <sup>1</sup>for himself of me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am

<sup>8</sup>the LORD. And if the prophet be <sup>2</sup>deceived and speaketh a word, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of <sup>10</sup>my people Israel. And they shall bear <sup>3</sup>their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity <sup>11</sup>of him that seeketh unto him; that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

<sup>12</sup>And the word of the LORD came unto <sup>13</sup>me, saying, Son of man, when a land sinneth against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out mine hand upon it, and break the staff of the bread thereof, and send famine upon it, and cut off from it man and beast; <sup>14</sup>though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they <sup>4</sup>spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through <sup>16</sup>because of the beasts; though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

<sup>17</sup>Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, <sup>5</sup>Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and beast; <sup>18</sup>though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves. Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man <sup>20</sup>and beast: though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. For thus saith the Lord God:

How much more when I send my four sore judgements upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beasts, and the pestilence, to cut off from <sup>22</sup>it man and beast? Yet, behold, therein shall be left <sup>6</sup>a remnant that shall be carried forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

<sup>23</sup>And they shall comfort you, when ye see their way and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done <sup>7</sup>without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God.

<sup>15</sup>And the word of the LORD came unto <sup>2</sup>me, saying, Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine branch <sup>3</sup>which <sup>8</sup>is among the trees of the forest?

<sup>3</sup>Shall wood be taken thereof to make any work? or will men take a pin of it <sup>4</sup>to hang any vessel thereon? Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel: the fire hath devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned; is it profitable

<sup>5</sup>for any work? Behold, when it was whole, it was <sup>9</sup>meet for no work: how much less, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be <sup>6</sup>meet for any work? Therefore thus saith the Lord God: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so <sup>10</sup>will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup>And I will set my face against them; they <sup>11</sup>shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when <sup>8</sup>I set my face against them. And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

<sup>16</sup>Again the word of the LORD came <sup>2</sup>unto me, saying, Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, <sup>3</sup>and say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem: <sup>12</sup>Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was thy father, and thy <sup>4</sup>mother was an Hittite. And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to cleanse thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at <sup>5</sup>all. None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, for that thy person was abhorred, in the day that thou wast <sup>6</sup>born. thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord
 9 God, and thou becamest mine. Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from 10 thee, and I anointed thee with oil. I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with <sup>1</sup>sealskin, and I <sup>2</sup>girded thee about with fine linen,
 11 and covered thee with silk. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain
 12 on thy neck. And I put a ring upon thy nose, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.
 13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper unto royal estate.
 14 And thy renown went forth among the nations for thy beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.
 15 But thou didst trust in thy beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy whoredoms on every one that passed by; his
 16 it was. And thou didst take of thy garments, and madest for thee high places decked with divers colours, and playedst the harlot upon them: the like things shall not come, neither shall 17 it be so. Thou didst also take thy <sup>3</sup>fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest for thee <sup>4</sup>images of men, and didst play the 18 harlot with them; and thou tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them, and didst set mine oil and mine
 19 incense before them. My bread also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou didst even set it before them for a sweet savour, and thus it was; saith the Lord
 20 God. Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Were thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 that thou hast slain my children, and delivered them up, in <sup>5</sup>causing them to
 22 pass through the fire unto them? And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast weltering in 23 thy blood. And it is come to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God,) that thou hast built unto thee <sup>6</sup>an eminent place, and hast made thee a lofty place in every 25 street. Thou hast built thy lofty place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty an abomination, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whore-

26 dom. Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians, thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast multiplied thy whoredom, to provoke 27 me to anger. Behold therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine <sup>7</sup>ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy 28 lewd way. Thou hast played the harlot also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet thou 29 wast not satisfied. Thou hast moreover multiplied thy whoredom <sup>8</sup>in the land of Canaan, unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.
 30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish
 31 woman; in that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thy lofty place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot,
 32 <sup>9</sup>in that thou scornest hire. A wife that committeth adultery! that taketh strangers instead of her husband!
 33 They give gifts to all harlots: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and bribest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredoms.
 34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, in that none followeth thee to commit whoredom: and whereas thou givest hire, and no hire is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.
 35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of 36 the Lord: Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy <sup>10</sup>filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers; and because of all the idols of thy abominations, and for the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;
 37 therefore behold, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them against thee on every side, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they 38 may see all thy nakedness. And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring upon thee the blood of fury
 39 and jealousy. I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and break down thy lofty places; and they shall strip thee of thy clothes, and take thy fair jewels: and they shall leave thee 40 naked and bare. They shall also bring up an assembly against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.
 41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgements upon thee in the sight of many women; and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou shalt also 42 give no hire any more. So will I<sup>1</sup> satisfy my fury<sup>2</sup> upon thee, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more 43 angry. Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; therefore behold, I also will bring thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God: and<sup>3</sup> thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

 44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is 45 her daughter. Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your 46 father an Amorite. And thine elder sister is Samaria, that dwelleth at thy left hand, she and her daughters: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her 47 daughters. Yet hast thou not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast more corrupt
 48 than they in all thy ways. As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daugh-
 49 ters. Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom; pride, fulness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and 50 needy. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away<sup>4</sup> as I saw 51 good. Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters by all thine abominations which thou hast
 52 done. Thou also, bear thine own shame, in that thou hast given judgement for thy<sup>5</sup> sisters; through thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou also confounded, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast
 53 justified thy sisters. And I will<sup>6</sup> turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of thy captives in 54 the midst of them: that thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be ashamed because of all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto 55 them. And thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, and thou and thy daughters shall re-56 turn to your former estate. For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride;

 57 before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which do despite unto thee
 58 round about. Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith 59 the Lord. For thus saith the Lord God: I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.
 60 Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an 61 everlasting covenant. Then shalt thou remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder sisters and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for daugh-
 62 ters, but not by thy covenant. And I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the 63 Lord: that thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more, because of thy shame; when I have forgiven thee all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.
 17 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the
 3 house of Israel; and say, Thus saith the Lord God: A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the top
 4 of the cedar: he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs thereof, and carried it into<sup>7</sup> a land of traffic; he
 5 set it in a city of merchants. He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in<sup>8</sup> a fruitful soil; he placed it beside<sup>9</sup> many waters; he set it as
 6 a willow tree. And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.
 7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water
 8 it. It was planted in a good<sup>10</sup> soil by<sup>9</sup> many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.
 9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God: Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither; even without great power or much

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came

12 unto me, saying, Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and brought them

13 to him to Babylon; and he took of the seed royal, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the

14 mighty of the land: that the kingdom might be <sup>1</sup>base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his

15 covenant it might stand. But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? shall he break

16 the covenant, and yet escape? As I live, saith the LORD God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon

17 he shall die. Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, when they cast up mounts and build forts, to

18 cut off many persons. For he hath despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet hath done all these

19 things; he shall not escape. Therefore thus saith the LORD God: As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, I will even bring it upon

20 his own head. And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed

21 against me. And all his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

22 Thus saith the LORD God: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of his young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it upon an high

23 mountain and eminent: in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches

24 thereof shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

18 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, What mean ye, that ye use this proverb <sup>2</sup>concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's

3 teeth are set on edge? As I live, saith the LORD God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb

4 in Israel. Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that

5 sinneth, it shall die. But if a man be just, and do <sup>3</sup>that which is law-

6 ful and right, and hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a woman in her separation; and hath not wronged any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath

7 spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment; he that hath not given forth upon

8 usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgement

9 between man and man, hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgements, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the LORD God.

10 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and <sup>4</sup>that doeth any

11 one of these things, and that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his

12 neighbour's wife, hath wronged the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath

13 committed abomination, hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations: he shall surely <sup>5</sup>die; his blood

14 shall be upon him. Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins, which he hath done, and <sup>6</sup>feareth, and

15 doeth not such like, that hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled

good among his people, behold, he shall die <sup>1</sup>in his iniquity. Yet say ye, Wherefore doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done <sup>20</sup>them, he shall surely live. The soul that sinneth, it shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be <sup>21</sup>upon him. But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall <sup>22</sup>surely live, he shall not die. None of his transgressions that he hath committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he hath done he <sup>23</sup>shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? saith the Lord God: and not rather that he should <sup>24</sup>return from his way, and live? But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he hath done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he hath transgressed, and in his sin that he <sup>25</sup>hath sinned, in them shall he die. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your <sup>26</sup>ways unequal? When the righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, <sup>2</sup>and dieth <sup>3</sup>therein; <sup>1</sup>in his iniquity <sup>27</sup>that he hath done shall he die. Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul <sup>28</sup>alive. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall <sup>29</sup>surely live, he shall not die. Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your <sup>30</sup>ways unequal? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Return ye, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; <sup>4</sup>so iniquity <sup>31</sup>shall not be your <sup>5</sup>ruin. Cast away from you all your transgressions, wherein ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why <sup>32</sup>will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live.

<sup>19</sup> Moreover, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, and say, What was thy mother? A lioness: she crouched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her <sup>3</sup>whelps. And she brought up one of her whelps; he became a young lion: and he learned to catch the prey, he devoured <sup>4</sup>men. The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit: and they brought him with hooks unto <sup>5</sup>the land of Egypt. Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. <sup>6</sup>And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion: and he learned to catch the prey, he devoured <sup>7</sup>men. And he knew their <sup>6</sup>palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, because of the noise of his <sup>8</sup>roaring. Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces: and they spread their net over him; <sup>9</sup>he was taken in their pit. And they put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strong holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the Lord, and sat before me. And the word of <sup>3</sup>the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, <sup>4</sup>I will not be inquired of by you. Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know <sup>5</sup>the abominations of their fathers; and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your 6 God; in that day I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of 7 all lands: and I said unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD 8 your God. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me;

 they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of 9 Egypt. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.
 10 So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them 11 into the wilderness. And I gave them my statutes, and <sup>1</sup>shewed them my judgements, which if a man do, he 12 shall live <sup>2</sup>in them. Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that <sup>3</sup>I am the LORD that 13 sanctify them. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness:
 they walked not in my statutes, and they rejected my judgements, which if a man do, he shall live <sup>2</sup>in them; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned:
 then I said I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to con-14 sume them. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in 15 whose sight I brought them out. Moreover also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; 16 because they rejected my judgements, and walked not in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths: for their heart 17 went after their idols. Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make a full end of 18 them in the wilderness. And I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgements, nor defile yourselves with their 19 idols: I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgements, 20 and do them: and hallow my sabbaths;
 and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am 21 the LORD your God. But the children rebelled against me; they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judge-

 he shall live <sup>2</sup>in them; they profaned my sabbaths: then I said I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the 22 wilderness. Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned
 in the sight of the nations, in whose 23 sight I brought them forth. Moreover I lifted up mine hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them 24 through the countries; because they had not executed my judgements, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were 25 after their fathers' idols. Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and judgements <sup>4</sup>wherein they 26 should not live; and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they <sup>5</sup>caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a 28 trespass against me. For when I had brought them into the land, which I lifted up mine hand to give unto them, then they <sup>6</sup>saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering,
 there also they made their sweet savour, and they poured out there their 29 drink offerings. Then I said unto them, What meaneth the high place <sup>7</sup>whereunto ye go? So the name thereof is 30 called <sup>8</sup>Bamah unto this day. Whereselves after the manner of your fathers?

 and go ye a whoring after their abominwhen ye make your sons to pass through the fire, do ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, unto this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, 32 I will not be inquired of by you: and that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all; in that ye say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the 33 countries, to serve wood and stone. As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will 34 I be king over you: and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with

there will I plead with you face to face.
 36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord 37 God. And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into 38 the bond of the covenant; and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye 39 shall know that I am the LORD. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God: Go ye, serve every one his idols,<sup>1</sup> and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but my holy name shall ye no more profane with your 40 gifts, and with your idols. For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the<sup>2</sup> firstfruits of your<sup>3</sup> oblations, with all your holy 41 things. <sup>4</sup>As a sweet savour will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the 42 sight of the nations. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I lifted up mine 43 hand to give unto your fathers. And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have polluted yourselves; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.
 44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.
 45 And the word of the LORD came unto
 46 me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against 47 the forest of the field in the South; and say to the forest of the South, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the 48 north shall be burnt thereby. And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.
 49 Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Is he not a speaker of parables?
 21 And the word of the LORD came unto
 2 me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy
 3 against the land of Israel; and say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh

 5 from the south to the north: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more. Sigh therefore, thou son of man; with the breaking of thy loins and with bitterness
 7 shalt thou sigh before their eyes. And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt say, Because of the tidings, for it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall<sup>5</sup> faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and it shall be done, saith the Lord God.
 8 And the word of the LORD came unto
 9 me, saying, Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD: Say, A sword, a sword, it is sharpened,
 10 and also furbished: it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning; shall we then make mirth? <sup>6</sup>the rod of 11 my son, it contemneth every tree. And it is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yea, it is furbished, to give it into 12 the hand of the slayer. Cry and howl, son of man: for it is upon my people, it is upon all the princes of Israel: <sup>7</sup>they are delivered over to the sword with my people: smite therefore upon thy 13 thigh. For there is a trial; and <sup>8</sup>what if even the rod that contemneth shall 14 be no more? saith the Lord God. Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one that is deadly wounded, which <sup>9</sup>entereth into their 15 chambers. I have set the <sup>10</sup>point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter.
 16 <sup>11</sup>Gather thee together, go to the right; set thyself in array, go to the left;
 17 <sup>12</sup>whithersoever thy face is set. I will also smite mine hands together, and I will <sup>13</sup>satisfy my fury: I the LORD have spoken it.
 18 The word of the LORD came unto me
 19 again, saying, Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they twain shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a <sup>14</sup>place, mark it out at

Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem
 21 the defenced. For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows to and fro, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in 22 the liver. In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth <sup>1</sup>in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to 23 cast up mounds, to build forts. And it shall be unto them as a vain divination in their sight, which have sworn oaths unto them: but he bringeth iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.
 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because that ye are come to remembrance, ye
 25 shall be taken with the hand. And thou, O deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day is come, in the time of the <sup>2</sup>iniquity of the end;
 26 thus saith the Lord God: <sup>3</sup>Remove the mitre, and take off the crown: this shall be <sup>4</sup>no more the same: exalt that which is low, and abase that which 27 is high. <sup>5</sup>I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.
 28 And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say thou, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furnished, <sup>6</sup>to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning:
 29 whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine lies unto thee, to lay thee upon the necks of the wicked that are deadly wounded, whose day is come, in the time of the <sup>2</sup>iniquity of the end.
 30 Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where thou wast created, in the land of <sup>7</sup>thy birth, will I judge thee.
 31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee; I will blow upon thee with the fire of my wrath: and I will deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Lord have spoken it.
 22 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, And thou, son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? <sup>8</sup>then cause her
 3 to know all her abominations. And thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord God: A city that sheddeth blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that maketh idols against herself
 4 to defile her! Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed, and art defiled in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the nations, and a mocking to all the countries.

 5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, thou
 6 infamous one and full of tumult. Behold, the princes of Israel, every one according to his <sup>9</sup>power, have been in 7 thee to shed blood. In thee have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they wronged the fatherless and 8 the widow. Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths. Slanderous men have been in thee to shed blood: and in thee they have eaten upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they have committed 10 lewdness. In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was 11 unclean in her separation. And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath 12 defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister,
 12 his father's daughter. In thee have they taken bribes to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by oppression, and hast forgotten me,
 13 saith the Lord God. Behold, therefore, I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst 14 of thee. Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the Lord have 15 spoken it, and will do it. And I will scatter thee among the nations, and disperse thee through the countries; and I will consume thy filthiness out of thee.
 16 And thou shalt be profaned in thyself, in the sight of the nations; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.
 17 And the word of the Lord came unto
 18 me, saying, Son of man, the house of Israel is become dross unto me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they 19 are the dross of silver. Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because ye are all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
 20 As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will lay you there, 21 and melt you. Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the 22 midst thereof. As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

23 And the word of the LORD came unto
24 me, saying, Son of man, say unto her,
Thou art a land that is not cleansed,
nor rained upon in the day of igni-25 nation. There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in the midst thereof.
26 Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey; to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that 28 they may get dishonest gain. And her prophets have daubed for them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying,
Thus saith the Lord God, when the 29 LORD hath not spoken. The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yea, they have vexed the poor and needy, and have oppressed 30 the stranger wrongfully. And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the fence, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found 31 none. Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

23 The word of the LORD came again
2 unto me, saying, Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of 3 one mother: and they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Oholah
the elder, and Oholibah her sister:
and they became mine, and they bare sons and daughters. And as for their names, Samaria is <sup>1</sup>Oholah, and Jeru-5 salem <sup>2</sup>Oholibah. And Oholah played the harlot <sup>3</sup>when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians

6 her neighbours, which were clothed with blue, governors and <sup>4</sup>rulers, all of them desirable young men, horse-7 men riding upon horses. And she bestowed her whoredoms upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them:
and on whomsoever she doted, with all 8 her idols she defiled herself. Neither hath she left her whoredoms <sup>5</sup>since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the teats of her virginity: and they poured 9 out their whoredom upon her. Wherefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the As-10 syrians, upon whom she doted. These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and her they slew with the sword: and she became a <sup>6</sup>byword among women; for they executed judgements upon her.

11 And her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her whoredoms which were more than the whoredoms of 12 her sister. She doted upon the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbours, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of 13 them desirable young men. And I saw that she was defiled; they both took 14 one way. And she increased her whoredoms; for she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 girded with girdles upon their loins, <sup>7</sup>exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look upon,
after the likeness of the Babylonians
<sup>8</sup>in Chaldea, the land of their nativity.

16 And <sup>9</sup>as soon as she saw them she doted upon them, and sent messengers 17 unto them into Chaldea. And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from 18 them. So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness:

then my soul was alienated from her,
like as my soul was alienated from her 19 sister. Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, remembering the days of her youth, wherein she had played the 20 harlot in the land of Egypt. And she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose 21 issue is like the issue of horses. Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewd-ness of thy youth, in the bruising of thy teats by the Egyptians for the breasts of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Oholibah, thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy soul is alienated, and I will bring 23 them against thee on every side; the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and <sup>10</sup>men of renown, all of 24 them riding upon horses. And they shall come against thee with weapons, chariots, and <sup>11</sup>wagons, and with an assembly of peoples; they shall set themselves against thee with buckler and shield and helmet round about:

them, and they shall judge thee accord-

And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal with thee in fury; they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire. They shall also strip thee of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom <sup>1</sup>brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more. For thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy soul is alienated: and they shall deal with thee in hatred, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. These things shall be done unto thee, for that thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols. Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thine hand. Thus saith the Lord God: Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup, which is deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; <sup>2</sup>it containeth much. Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria. Thou shalt even drink it and drain it out, and thou shalt gnaw the sherds thereof, and shalt tear thy breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God. Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 The Lord said moreover unto me: Son of man, wilt thou judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare unto them their abominations. For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also <sup>3</sup>caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass through the <sup>4</sup>fire unto them to be devoured. Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house. And furthermore ye have sent for men <sup>4</sup>that come from far: unto whom a messenger was sent, and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments; and satest upon a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon thou didst set mine incense and mine oil. And the voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets upon the hands of them twain, and beautiful crowns upon their heads. Then said I <sup>5</sup>of her that was old in adulteries, Now will they commit <sup>6</sup>whoredoms with her, <sup>7</sup>and she with them. And they went in unto her, as they go in unto an harlot: so went they in unto Oholah and unto Oholibah, the lewd women. And righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgement of adulteresses, and with the judgement of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. For thus saith the Lord God: I will bring up an assembly against them, and will give them to be tossed to and fro and spoiled. And the assembly shall stone them with stones, and despatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this selfsame day: the king of Babylon <sup>8</sup>drew close unto Jerusalem this selfsame day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and pile also the bones under it: make it boil well; yea, let the bones thereof be seethed in the midst of it.

6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God: Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose <sup>9</sup>rust is therein, and whose <sup>9</sup>rust is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; no lot is fallen upon it. For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the bare rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust; that it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood upon the bare rock, that it should not be covered. Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Woe to the bloody city!

10 I also will make the pile great. Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that it may be hot, and the brass thereof may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the

12 rust of it may be consumed. She hath wearied <sup>1</sup>herself with toil: yet her great rust goeth not forth out of her; her

13 rust <sup>2</sup>goeth not forth by fire. <sup>3</sup>In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have <sup>4</sup>satisfied

14 my fury <sup>5</sup>upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the LORD God.

15 Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke; yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither

17 shall thy tears run down. Sigh, <sup>6</sup>but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead, bind thy headtire upon thee, and put thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and <sup>7</sup>eat not the bread of 18 men. So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at even my wife died: and I did in the morning as I was commanded. And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I said unto them, The word of <sup>21</sup>the LORD came unto me, saying, Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and <sup>8</sup>that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left

22 behind shall fall by the sword. And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of

23 men. And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away in your iniquities,

24 and moan one toward another. Thus shall Ezekiel be unto you a sign; according to all that he hath done shall ye do: when this cometh, then shall ye know that I am the LORD God.

25 And thou, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their <sup>9</sup>strength, the joy of their <sup>10</sup>glory, the desire of their eyes, and <sup>11</sup>that whereupon they set their heart, their

26 sons and their daughters. that in that day he that escapeth shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with

27 thine ears? In that day shall thy mouth be opened <sup>12</sup>to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: so shalt thou be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

25 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the children of Ammon,

3 and prophesy <sup>13</sup>against them: and say unto the children of Ammon, Hear the word of the LORD God; Thus saith the LORD God: Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when

4 they went into captivity: therefore behold, I will deliver thee to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in thee, and make their dwellings in thee; they shall eat thy fruit, and

5 they shall drink thy milk. And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a couching place for flocks: and ye shall know

6 that I am the LORD. For thus saith the LORD God: Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the

despite of thy soul against the land of Israel; therefore behold, I have stretched out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut thee off from the peoples, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 Thus saith the LORD God: Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the

9 nations; therefore behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are <sup>14</sup>on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth,

10 Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim, <sup>15</sup>unto the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon, and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered

11 among the nations; and I will execute judgements upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD God: Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and re-

13 venged himself upon them; therefore thus saith the LORD God, I will stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it: and I will make it desolate from Teman; even unto Dedan shall they fall by

14 the sword. And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury: and they shall 17 the remnant of the sea coast. And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

26 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, 2 saying, Son of man, because that Tyre hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gate of the peoples; she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now that she is laid
3 waste: therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his
4 waves to come up. And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare
5 rock. She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God: and she shall become a
6 spoil to the nations. And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know
7 that I am the Lord. For thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will bring upon Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and much
8 people. He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make forts against thee, and cast up a mound against thee, and raise
9 up the buckler against thee. And he shall set his battering engines against thy walls, and with his <sup>1</sup>axes he shall 10 break down thy towers. By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the <sup>2</sup>wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a
11 breach. With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people with the sword, and the <sup>3</sup>pillars of thy strength shall go 12 down to the ground. And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the waters. 13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps 14 shall be no more heard. And I will make thee a bare rock: thou shalt be a place for the spreading of nets; thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lord have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lord God to Tyre: Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst
16 of thee? Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with <sup>4</sup>trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be 17 astonished at thee. And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited <sup>5</sup>of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which caused their terror to be on all that 18 haunt it! Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be dismayed
19 at thy departure. For thus saith the Lord God: When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and the great
20 waters shall cover thee; then will I bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make thee to dwell in the nether parts of the earth, <sup>7</sup>in the places that are desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; <sup>8</sup>and I will set glory
21 in the land of the living: I will make thee <sup>9</sup>a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord God.

27 The word of the Lord came again 2 unto me, saying, And thou, son of man, 3 take up a lamentation for Tyre; and say unto Tyre, O thou that dwellest at the <sup>10</sup>entry of the sea, which art the merchant of the peoples unto many isles, thus saith the Lord God: Thou, O Tyre, hast said, I am perfect in beauty. 4 Thy borders are in the heart of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty. 5 They have <sup>11</sup>made all thy planks of fir trees from Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make a mast
6 for thee. Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; they have made thy <sup>12</sup>benches of ivory inlaid in box-wood, from the isles of Kittim. The men of Dedan were thy traffickers: many isles were the mart of thine hand: they brought thee 4 in exchange horns of ivory and 16 ebony. Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of thy handy- works: they traded for thy wares with 5 emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. 17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy traffickers: they traded for thy merchandise wheat of Minnith, and 6 pannag, and honey, and oil, and 18 balm. of Israel, nor a grieving thorn of any that are round about them, that did despite unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God: When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which 26 I gave to my servant Jacob. And they shall dwell securely therein; yea, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely; when I have executed judgements upon all those that do them despite round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, say-2ing, Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt:

3speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own,

4and I have made it for myself. And I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, with all the fish of thy rivers which stick unto thy 5scales. And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the <sup>8</sup>open field; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the earth and 6to the fowls of the heaven. And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of 7Israel. When they took hold of thee <sup>9</sup>by thy hand, thou didst break, and didst rend all their shoulders: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to 8<sup>10</sup>be at a stand. Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and will cut off from 9 thee man and beast. And the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste;

and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river

10 is mine, and I have made it. Therefore behold, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation,

<sup>11</sup>from the tower of Sevehn even unto 11 the border of Ethiopia. No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither 12 shall it be inhabited forty years. And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years: and I will scatter

the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the 13 countries. For thus saith the Lord God: At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples 14 whither they were scattered: and I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their <sup>1</sup>birth; and they shall be there a <sup>2</sup>base 15 kingdom. It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no 16 more rule over the nations. And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to remembrance, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that 19 he had served against it: therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be 20 the wages for his army. I have given him the land of Egypt <sup>3</sup>as his recompence for which he served, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God. 21 In that day will I cause an horn to bud forth unto the house of Israel, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

30 The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: 3 Howl ye, Woe worth the day! For the day is near, even the day of the Lord is near, a day of clouds; it shall 4 be the time of the heathen. And a sword shall come upon Egypt, and anguish shall be in <sup>4</sup>Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. 5 <sup>4</sup>Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mingled people, and Cub, and the children of <sup>5</sup>the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the Lord: They also that uphold Egypt shall fall, and the pride of her power shall come down: <sup>6</sup>from the tower of Seveneh shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord 7 God. And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. 8 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are <sup>7</sup>destroyed. 9 In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish upon them, as in the day of Egypt; for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar 11 king of Babylon. He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with 12 the slain. And I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and <sup>8</sup>all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the Lord have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the <sup>9</sup>images to cease from Noph; and there shall be no more a prince out of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the 14 land of Egypt. And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgements in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strong hold of Egypt; and I will 16 cut off the multitude of No. And I will set a fire in Egypt; Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Noph shall have ad- 17 versaries <sup>10</sup>in the day-time. The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities 18 shall go into captivity. At Tehaphnehes also the day shall <sup>11</sup>withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. Thus will I execute judgements in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of 21 the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it hath not been bound up to apply healing medicines, to put a roller to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out 23 of his hand. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. And I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

31 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, say unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness? Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters nourished him, the deep made him to grow: her rivers ran round about her plantation; and she sent out her channels unto all the trees of the field. Therefore his stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long by reason of many waters, when he shot them forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations. Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by many waters. The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the plane trees were not as his branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like unto him in his beauty. I made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 Therefore thus said the Lord God: Because thou art exalted in stature, and he hath set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin all the fowls of the heaven shall dwell, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches: 14 to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up in their height, even all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God: In the day when he went down to hell I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the rivers thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field faint-

16 ed for him. I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain by the sword; yea, they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the nations.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

32 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the

2 Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou wast likened unto a young lion of the nations: yet art thou as a dragon in the seas; and thou brakest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with

3 thy feet, and foulest their rivers. Thus saith the Lord God: I will spread out my net over thee with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring thee up in my net. And I will leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to settle upon thee, and I will satisfy the beasts of the whole earth with thee. And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and

6 fill the valleys with thy height. I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall

7 be full of thee. And when I shall extinguish thee, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God. I will also vex the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known. Yea, I will make many peoples amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall. For thus saith the Lord God: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee. By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall spoil the pride of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed. I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside <sup>1</sup>many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them. Then will I <sup>2</sup>make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God. When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of <sup>3</sup>that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the Lord. This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith: for Egypt, and for all her multitude, shall they lament therewith, saith the Lord God.

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit. Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid down with the uncircumcised. They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: <sup>4</sup>she is delivered to the sword: draw her away and all her multitudes. The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of <sup>5</sup>hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. As-shur is there and all her company; his graves are round about him; all of them slain, fallen by the sword: whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living. There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with them that go down to the pit. They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are round about her: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with them that go down to the pit; he is put in the midst of them that be slain. There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude; her graves are round about her: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. <sup>6</sup>And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to <sup>7</sup>hell with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are upon their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. But thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain by the sword. There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, which <sup>7</sup>in their might are laid with them that are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit. There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; <sup>8</sup>in the terror which they caused by their might they are ashamed; and they lie uncircumcised with them that are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit. Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude: <sup>9</sup>even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, saith the Lord God. For I have put <sup>10</sup>his terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

33 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman: if, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. <sup>5</sup>He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him: whereas if he had taken warning he should have delivered his soul. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, and the sword come, and take any person from among them; he is taken away <sup>11</sup>in his iniquity, but his blood will I

When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die, and thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die <sup>1</sup> in his iniquity, but his blood will I require 9 at thine hand. Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he turn not from his way; he shall die <sup>1</sup> in his iniquity, but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 And thou, son of man, say unto the house of Israel: Thus ye speak, saying, <sup>2</sup> Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we pine away <sup>1</sup> in them; how 11 then should we live? Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 And thou, son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness: neither shall he that is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he 13 sinneth. When I say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but <sup>1</sup> in his iniquity that he hath committed, <sup>3</sup> therein shall he die.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do <sup>4</sup> that which is lawful 15 and right; if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely 16 live, he shall not die. None of his sins that he hath committed shall be remembered against him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall

17 surely live. Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is 18 not equal. When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die <sup>5</sup> therein. 19 And when the wicked turneth from his wickedness, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. 20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. 22 Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, 23 and I was no more dumb. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 24 Son of man, they that inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the 25 land is given us for inheritance. Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes unto your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the 26 land? Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye 27 possess the land? Thus shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: As I live, surely they that are in the waste places shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the strong holds and in the 28 caves shall die of the pestilence. And I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment, and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none 29 shall pass through. Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 And as for thee, son of man, the children of thy people talk of thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh 31 forth from the LORD. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but do them not: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after 32 their gain. And, lo, thou art unto them as <sup>7</sup> a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, 33 but they do them not. And when this cometh to pass, (behold, it cometh,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

34 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, even to the shepherds, Thus saith the Lord God: Woe unto the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the sheep? Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill the fatlings; but ye feed not the sheep. 4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigour have ye ruled over them.

5 And they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, and

6 were scattered. My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my sheep were scattered upon all the face of the earth; and there was none that did search or

7 seek after them. Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: As I live, saith the Lord God, surely forasmuch as my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became meat to all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not

9 my sheep; therefore, ye shepherds,

10 hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not

11 be meat for them. For thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek

12 them out. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places whither they have been scattered in

13 <sup>1</sup>the cloudy and dark day. And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them upon the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the 14 country. I will feed them with good pasture, and upon the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold, and on fat pasture shall they feed

15 upon the mountains of Israel. I myself will feed my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and will bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: and the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them

17 in judgement. And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, as well the rams as the he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have fed upon the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but ye must

19 foul the residue with your feet? And as for my sheep, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and the 21 lean cattle. Because ye thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, till ye have

22 scattered them abroad; therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between

23 cattle and cattle. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shep-

24 herd. And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I the LORD have spoken

25 it. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell securely in the wild-

26 erness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of bless-

27 ing. And the tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those

28 that <sup>2</sup>served themselves of them. And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make

29 them afraid. And I will raise up unto them a <sup>3</sup>plantation for renown, and they shall be no more <sup>4</sup>consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the

30 shame of the heathen any more. And they shall know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, saith

31 the Lord God. And ye my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

35 Moreover the word of the LORD came

2 unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, and say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O mount Seir, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee a desolation

4 and an astonishment. I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt know that I am

5 the LORD. Because thou hast had a perpetual enmity, and hast given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the <sup>1</sup>iniquity of the end: therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue thee. Thus will I make mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him that passeth through and him that returneth. And I will fill his mountains with his slain: in thy hills and in thy valleys and in all thy water-courses shall they fall that are slain with the sword. I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not <sup>2</sup>be inhabited: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; <sup>3</sup>whereas the LORD was there: therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast shewed out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, <sup>4</sup>when I shall judge thee. And thou shalt know <sup>5</sup>that I the LORD have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, <sup>6</sup>They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour. And ye have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it. Thus saith the Lord God: When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate. As thou didst rejoice over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

36 And thou, son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord God: Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha! and, The ancient high places are ours in possession: therefore prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the nations, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people: therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains and to the hills, to the water-courses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are round about: therefore thus saith the Lord God: Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, which have appointed my land unto themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey: therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen: therefore thus saith the Lord God: I have lifted up mine hand, saying, Surely the heathen that are round about you, they shall bear their shame. But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown: and I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded: and I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and be fruitful: and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of children. Thus saith the Lord God: Because they say unto you, Thou land art a devourer of men, and hast been a bereaver of thy nation; therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither <sup>8</sup>bereave thy nation any more, saith the Lord God: neither will I <sup>9</sup>let thee hear any more the shame of the heathen, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nation to stumble any more, saith the Lord God.

16 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her separation. Wherefore I poured out my fury upon them for the blood which they had poured out upon the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols: and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. And when they came unto the nations, whither they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them,

These are the people of the LORD, and 21 are gone forth out of his land. But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, whither they went.
 22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: <sup>1</sup>I do not this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name, which ye have profaned among the nations, whither 23 ye went. And I will sanctify my great name, which hath been profaned among the nations, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before <sup>2</sup>their eyes.
 24 For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into 25 your own land. And I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.
 26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you:
 and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you 27 an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgements, and do them.
 28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.
 29 And I will save you from all your un-cleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will multiply it, and lay no 30 famine upon you. And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more the reproach of famine among 31 the nations. Then shall ye remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.
 32 Not for your sake <sup>3</sup>do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your 33 ways, O house of Israel. Thus saith the Lord God: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the 34 waste places shall be builded. And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight 35 of all that passed by. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined 36 cities are fenced and inhabited. Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD have builded the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.
 37 Thus saith the Lord God: For this moreover will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a 38 flock. As the <sup>4</sup>flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

37 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones;
 2 and he caused me to pass by them round about: and behold, there were very many <sup>5</sup>in the open valley; and 3 lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, 4 thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophecy over these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word
 5 of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones: Behold, I will cause <sup>6</sup>breath to enter into you, and ye 6 shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
 7 So I prophesied as I was commanded:
 and as I prophesied, there was a <sup>7</sup>noise, and behold an earthquake, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And I beheld, and lo, there were sinews upon them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above: but there 9 was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the <sup>8</sup>wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the <sup>8</sup>wind, Thus saith the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O <sup>9</sup>breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they 10 may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.
 11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are 12 clean cut off. Therefore prophecy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God:
 Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves,
 O my people; and I will bring you 13 into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, O my 14 people. And I will put my <sup>8</sup>spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 The word of the LORD came again
 16 unto me, saying, And thou, son of man,

And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them <sup>2</sup>with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: and I will make them one nation in the land, upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them <sup>3</sup>out of all their dwelling places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. And my servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgements, and observe my statutes, and do them. And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, for ever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them: it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will <sup>4</sup>place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. My tabernacle also shall be <sup>5</sup>with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 38 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the <sup>7</sup>prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, <sup>7</sup>prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: and I will turn thee about, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armour, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords: Persia, Cush, and Put with them; all of them with shield and helmet: Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes: even many peoples with thee. Be thou prepared, yea, prepare thyself, thou, and all thy companies that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a <sup>8</sup>guard unto them. After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is <sup>9</sup>brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, upon the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste: but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. And thou shalt ascend, thou shalt come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy hordes, and many peoples with thee. Thus saith the Lord God: It shall come to pass in that day, that things shall come into thy mind, and thou shalt devise an evil device: and thou shalt say, I will go up to <sup>10</sup>the land of unwall'd villages; I will go to them that are at quiet, that dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates: to take the spoil and to take the prey; to turn thine hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and against the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the <sup>11</sup>middle of the earth. Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take the spoil? hast thou assembled thy company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil? Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God: In that day when my people Israel dwelleth securely, shalt thou not know it? And thou shalt come from thy place out of the uttermost parts of the north, thou, and many peoples with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company and a mighty army: and thou shalt come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring thee against my land, that the nations may know thee, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. for many years that I will bring thee pass in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up 19 into my nostrils. For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; 20 so that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every 21 wall shall fall to the ground. And I will call for a sword against him unto all my mountains, saith the Lord God:

 every man's sword shall be against 22 his brother. And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his hordes, and upon the many peoples that are with him, an overflowing shower,
 and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.
 23 And I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

 Lord God: Behold, I am against thee,
 O Gog, <sup>1</sup>prince of Rosh, Meshech, and 2 Tubal: and I will turn thee about, and will lead thee on, and will cause thee to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:
 3 and I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows 4 to fall out of thy right hand. Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy hordes, and the peoples that are with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field 5 to be devoured. Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, 6 saith the Lord God. And I will send a fire on Magog, and on them that dwell securely in the <sup>2</sup>isles: and they 7 shall know that I am the Lord. And my holy name will I make known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I suffer my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in 8 Israel. Behold, it cometh, and it shall be done, saith the Lord God; this is 9 the day whereof I have spoken. And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall make fires 10 of them seven years: so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests;

 for they shall make fires of the weapons: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of them that pass through <sup>3</sup>on the east of the sea: and it shall stop them that pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of <sup>4</sup>Hamon-12 gog. And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that 13 they may cleanse the land. Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them;
 and it shall be to them a renown, in the day that I shall be glorified, saith the 14 Lord God. And they shall sever out men of continual employment, that shall pass through the land to bury 15 them <sup>5</sup>that pass through, that remain upon the face of the land, to cleanse it:
 after the end of seven months shall they 16 search. And they that pass through the land shall pass through; and when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he <sup>7</sup>set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried 16 it in the valley of Hamon-gog. And <sup>6</sup>Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land:
 17 And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord God: Speak unto the birds of every sort, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat 18 flesh and drink blood. Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.
 19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for 20 you. And ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith 21 the Lord God. And I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see my judgement that I have executed, and my hand that I 22 have laid upon them. So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God, from that day and forward.
 23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of 24 them by the sword. According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I unto them; and I hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God.
Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous
26 for my holy name. And they shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and none shall make them
27 afraid; when I have brought them again from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of 28 many nations. And they shall know that I am the Lord thy God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them unto their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there;
29 neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the self-same day, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me thither.
2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of 3 a city on the south. And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed;
4 and he stood in the gate. And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.
5 And behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long, of a cubit and an hand-breadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the 6 height, one reed. Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the steps thereof; and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad: <sup>1</sup>and the other threshold, <sup>2</sup>one reed broad. And every <sup>3</sup>lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the 8 house was one reed. <sup>8</sup>He measured also the porch of the gate toward the 9 house, one reed. Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the <sup>4</sup>posts thereof, two cubits;

and the porch of the gate was toward 10 the house. And the lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that 11 side. And he measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits;
12 and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on 13 that side. And he measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of five and 14 twenty cubits; door against door. He made also posts, threescore cubits; and the court reached unto the post, the 15 gate being round about. And from the forefront of the gate at the entrance unto the forefront of the <sup>5</sup>inner porch
16 of the gate were fifty cubits. And there were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the <sup>6</sup>arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.
17 Then brought he me into the outer court, and, lo, there were chambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon 18 the pavement. And the pavement was by the <sup>7</sup>side of the gates, answerable unto the length of the gates, even the 19 lower pavement. Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.
20 And the gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured the length thereof and the 21 breadth thereof. And the lodges thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth
22 five and twenty cubits. And the windows thereof, and the arches thereof, and the palm trees thereof, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches
23 thereof were before them. And there was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred 24 cubits. And he led me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof accord-25 ing to these measures. And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

 26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side,
 27 upon the posts thereof. And there was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.
 28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these 29 measures; and the lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was 30 fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And there were arches
 31 round about, five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it
 32 had eight steps. And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to 33 these measures; and the lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was 34 fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And the arches thereof
 35 were toward the outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the 36 going up to it had eight steps. And he brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures; the lodges thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof; and there were windows therein round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.
 37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.
 38 And a chamber with the door thereof was by the posts at the gates; there 39 they washed the burnt offering. And <sup>1</sup>in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the 40 guilt offering. And on the one side without, <sup>2</sup>as one goeth up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were 41 two tables. Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew the sacrifices.
 42 And there were four tables for the burnt offering, of hewn stone, a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the 43 sacrifice. And the <sup>3</sup>hooks, an hand-breadth long, were fastened <sup>4</sup>within round about: and upon the tables was 44 the flesh of the oblation. <sup>5</sup>And without the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the 45 prospect toward the north. And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the 46 house. And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, which from among the sons of Levi come near to the LORD to minister unto 47 him. And he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.

 48 Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this
 49 side, and three cubits on that side. The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; <sup>6</sup>even by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.
 41 And he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the
 2 breadth of the <sup>7</sup>tabernacle. And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the <sup>8</sup>sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.
 3 Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits: and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits.
 4 And he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the <sup>9</sup>temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy
 5 place. Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.
 6 And the side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold therein, and not
 7 have hold in the wall of the house. And <sup>10</sup>the side-chambers were broader as

<sup>10</sup> Or, there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house

they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle chamber.

8 I saw also<sup>1</sup> that the house had<sup>2</sup> a raised basement round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full 9 reed<sup>3</sup> of six great cubits. The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chambers, on the outside, was five cubits: <sup>4</sup> and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that belonged to the house. And between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the house on every 11 side. And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five 12 cubits round about. And the building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. 13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an 14 hundred cubits long; also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits. 15 And he measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at the back thereof, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the 16 porches of the court; the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the threshold, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows; now the windows 17 were covered; to the space above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about 18 within and without, <sup>5</sup> by measure. And it was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub 19 had two faces; so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: this was it made through all the 20 house round about. From the ground unto above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: <sup>6</sup> thus was the 21 wall of the temple. As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance thereof was <sup>7</sup> as the appearance 22 of the temple. The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and <sup>8</sup> the corners thereof, and the <sup>9</sup> length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before 23 the LORD. And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two 25 leaves for the other. And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick beams of wood <sup>10</sup> upon 26 the face of the porch without. And there were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-chambers of the house, and the thick beams.

42 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the 2 building toward the north. Before the length of <sup>11</sup> an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty 3 cubits. Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery 4 against gallery <sup>12</sup> in the third story. And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of <sup>13</sup> one cubit; and their doors were toward the 5 north. Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building. 6 For they were in three stories, and they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the 7 middlemost from the ground. And the <sup>14</sup> wall that was without by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, the length thereof 8 was fifty cubits. For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits. And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them 10 from the outer court. In the thickness of the <sup>14</sup> wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were chambers. 11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; <sup>15</sup> according to their length so was their breadth: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according 12 to their doors. And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the <sup>14</sup> wall toward the east, as one 13 entereth into them. Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be the holy chambers, where the priests that are near unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering; <sup>14</sup>for the place is holy. When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertaineth to the people.

<sup>15</sup> Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. He measured on the east <sup>1</sup>side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He measured on the north <sup>1</sup>side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. <sup>18</sup> He measured on the south <sup>1</sup>side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed. He turned about to the west <sup>1</sup>side, and measured five hundred reeds <sup>20</sup>with the measuring reed. He measured it <sup>2</sup>on the four sides: it had a wall round about, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

<sup>43</sup> Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east: and behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east; and his voice was like the sound of many waters: and <sup>3</sup>the earth shined with his glory. And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell upon my face. <sup>4</sup> And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. And the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory <sup>6</sup>of the LORD filled the house. And I heard one speaking unto me out of the <sup>7</sup>house; and a man stood by me. And he said unto me, Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever: and the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, and by the carcases of <sup>8</sup>their kings <sup>9</sup>in their high places; in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door post beside my door post, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them <sup>9</sup>in mine anger. Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

<sup>10</sup> Thou, son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them <sup>11</sup>measure the <sup>4</sup>pattern. And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known unto them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the laws thereof, and write it in their sight: that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do <sup>12</sup>them. This is the law of the house: upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

<sup>18</sup> And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood <sup>19</sup>thereon. Thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which are near unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, a young <sup>20</sup>bullock for a sin offering. And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse it and make atonement for it. <sup>21</sup> Thou shalt also take the bullock of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, with-22 out the sanctuary. And on the second day thou shalt offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse 23 it with the bullock. When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without 24 blemish. And thou shalt bring them near before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto 25 the LORD. Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, with-26 out blemish. Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify

 when they have accomplished the days, it shall be that upon the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord God.

44 Then he brought me back the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looketh toward the east; and 2 it was shut. And the LORD said unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it, for the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it; there-3 fore it shall be shut. As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the 4 same. Then he brought me the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and 5 I fell upon my face. And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, <sup>2</sup>mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and <sup>2</sup>mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of 6 the sanctuary. And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your ab-7 ominations, in that ye have brought in aliens, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and <sup>3</sup>they have broken my covenant, <sup>4</sup>to add unto all your abominations.
 8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for your-9 selves. Thus saith the Lord God, No alien, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any alien that is 10 among the children of Israel. But the Levites that went far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray from me after their idols; they shall 11 bear their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before 12 them to minister unto them. Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and became a stumblingblock of iniquity unto the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they 13 shall bear their iniquity. And they shall not come near unto me, to execute the office of priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, unto the things that are most holy:

 but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have 14 committed. Yet will I make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me; and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat 16 and the blood, saith the Lord God: they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.
 17 And it shall be that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments;
 and no wool shall come upon them, whilst they minister in the gates of 18 the inner court, and <sup>5</sup>within. They shall have linen tires upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves 19 with any thing that causeth sweat. And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they minister, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments, that they sanctify not the people with their garments.
 20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they 21 shall only poll their heads. Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they 22 enter into the inner court. Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that is the widow of 23 a priest. And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.
 24 And in a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my judgements shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall 26 they may defile themselves. And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto 27 him seven days. And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the 28 Lord God. And they shall have an inheritance; I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession 29 in Israel; I am their possession. They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be 30 theirs. And the first of all the firstfruits of every thing, and every <sup>1</sup>oblation of every thing, of all your oblations, shall be for the priests: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your <sup>2</sup>dough, to cause a blessing to rest on thine

 31 house. The priests shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself, or is torn, whether it be fowl or beast.
 45 Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the Lord, <sup>3</sup>an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be <sup>4</sup>ten thousand: it shall be holy in all the border thereof round about.
 2 Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits for the <sup>5</sup>suburbs thereof round about. And of this measure shalt thou measure, a length of five and twenty thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. It is an holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which come near to minister unto the Lord; and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the
 5 sanctuary. And five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be unto the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession unto themselves, for <sup>6</sup>twenty chambers.
 6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, side by side with the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.
 7 And whatsoever is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy oblation and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward: and in

 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the 12 homer. And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your 13 maneh. This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah from an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah from an
 14 homer of barley: and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, shall be the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even an homer; for ten baths
 15 are an homer: and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the <sup>9</sup>fat pastures of Israel; for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them,
 16 saith the Lord God. All the people of the land <sup>10</sup>shall give unto this oblation
 17 for the prince in Israel. And it shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God: In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish; and thou shalt cleanse
 19 the sanctuary. And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the door posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the <sup>11</sup>settle of the altar, and upon the posts
 20 of the gate of the inner court. And so thou shalt do <sup>12</sup>on the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye make
 21 atonement for the house. In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread 22 shall be eaten. And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for

24 sin offering. And he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of 25 oil to an ephah. In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.

46 Thus saith the Lord God: The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened, and in the day of

2 the new moon it shall be opened. And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; then he shall go forth: but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 And the people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the

4 new moons. And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD shall be in the sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram with-

5 out blemish; and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an

6 ephah. And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish; and six lambs, and a ram; they

7 shall be without blemish: and he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as <sup>1</sup>he is

8 able, and an hin of oil to an ephah. And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way

9 thereof. But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the appointed feasts, he that entereth by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth straight

10 before him. And the prince, when they go in, shall go in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, <sup>2</sup>they shall go

11 forth together. And in the feasts and in the <sup>3</sup>solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil

12 to an ephah. And when the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering unto the LORD, one shall open for him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he doth on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one

13 shall shut the gate. And thou shalt prepare a lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering unto the LORD daily: morning by morning

14 shalt thou prepare it. And thou shalt prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an hin of oil, and the third part of an hin of oil, to

<sup>4</sup>moisten the fine flour; a meal offering unto the LORD continually by a per-

15 petual ordinance. Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord God: If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession

17 by inheritance. But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for

18 his sons. Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to <sup>5</sup>thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the

20 hinder part westward. And he said unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meal offering; that they bring them not forth into the outer court, to 21 sanctify the people. Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts <sup>6</sup>inclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the 23 corners were of one measure. And there was a row of building round about in them, round about the four, and it was made with boiling places

24 under the rows round about. Then said he unto me, These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

47 And he brought me back unto the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward, for the forefront of the house was toward the east: and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the <sup>2</sup>house, on the south of the altar. Then brought he me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way without unto the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looketh toward the east; and behold, there <sup>1</sup>ran out <sup>3</sup>waters on the right side. When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. <sup>4</sup>Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters <sup>5</sup>that were to the loins. Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed <sup>6</sup>through. And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return <sup>7</sup>to the bank of the river: Now when I had returned, behold, upon the bank of the river were very many trees on <sup>8</sup>the one side and on the other. Then said he unto me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah: and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters <sup>9</sup>shall be healed. And it shall come to pass, that every living creature which swarmeth, in every place whither the <sup>2</sup>rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish: for these waters are come thither, <sup>3</sup>and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and every thing shall live whitherso- <sup>10</sup>ever the river cometh. And it shall come to pass, that fishers shall stand by it: from En-gedi even unto Englain shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, <sup>11</sup>exceeding many. But the miry places thereof, and the marishes thereof, shall not be healed; they shall be <sup>4</sup>given up <sup>12</sup>to salt. And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for meat, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit thereof fail: it shall bring forth <sup>5</sup>new fruit every month, because the waters thereof issue out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for healing. <sup>13</sup>Thus saith the Lord God: This shall be the border, whereby ye shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph <sup>14</sup>shall have <sup>6</sup>portions. And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; <sup>7</sup>concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for in- <sup>15</sup>heritance. And this shall be the border of the land: on the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, <sup>16</sup>unto the entering in of Zedad; Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; <sup>8</sup>Hazer-hatticon, <sup>17</sup>which is by the border of Hauran. And the border from the sea shall be Hazarenon at the border of Damascus, and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side. <sup>18</sup>And the east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be Jordan; from the north border unto the east sea shall ye <sup>19</sup>measure. This is the east side. And the south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, unto the great sea. This is the south side south- <sup>20</sup>ward. And the west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entering in of <sup>21</sup>Hamath. This is the west side. So shall ye divide this land unto you <sup>22</sup>according to the tribes of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you; and they shall be unto you as the homeborn among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes <sup>23</sup>of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God. <sup>24</sup>Now these are the names of the tribes: from the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entering in of Hamath, Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath; and they shall have their sides east and west; Dan, one portion. <sup>2</sup>And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side; Asher, <sup>3</sup>one portion. And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the <sup>4</sup>west side; Naphtali, one portion. And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side; Manasseh, <sup>5</sup>one portion. And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the <sup>6</sup>west side; Ephraim, one portion. And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side; <sup>7</sup>Reuben, one portion. And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side; Judah, one portion. <sup>8</sup>And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the oblation which ye shall

The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be five and twenty thousand reeds in length, 10 and ten thousand in breadth. And for these, even for the priests, shall be the holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD 11 shall be in the midst thereof. <sup>1</sup>It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, which have kept my charge; which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as 12 the Levites went astray. And it shall be unto them an oblation from the oblation of the land, a thing most holy, 13 by the border of the Levites. And answerable unto the border of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the 14 breadth <sup>2</sup>ten thousand. And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange it, nor shall the firstfruits of the land be alienated: for it is holy unto the LORD. 15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the five and twenty thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs: and the city shall be in 16 the midst thereof. And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side 17 four thousand and five hundred. And the city shall have suburbs; toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred 18 and fifty. And the residue in the length, answerable unto the holy oblation, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be answerable unto the holy oblation; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that labour in the 19 city. And they that labour in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall till it. 20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation four-square, with the possession of the city.

21 <sup>3</sup>And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable unto the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy oblation and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst 22 thereof. Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince. 23 And as for the rest of the tribes: from the east side unto the west side; 24 Benjamin, one portion. And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side; Simeon, one portion. And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side; 25 Issachar, one portion. And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side; Zebulun, one portion. And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side; 26 Gad, one portion. And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, unto the great 27 sea. This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, saith the Lord God. 28 And these are the goings out of the city; on the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure: 29 and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel; three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; 30 the gate of Levi, one: and at the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds; and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, 31 one: and at the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, 32 one; the gate of Zebulun, one: at the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, 33 one. It shall be eighteen thousand reeds round about: and the name of the city from that day shall be, <sup>4</sup>The LORD is there.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Israel, even of the seed royal and of the nobles; youths in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. And the prince of the eunuchs gave names unto them: unto Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego. But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God made Daniel to find favour and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the youths which are of your own age? so should ye endanger my head with the king. Then said Daniel to the steward, whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's meat; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. So he hearkened unto them in this matter, and proved them ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths which did eat of the king's meat. So the steward took away their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse. Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. And at the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm. And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in the Syrian language, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye make not known unto me the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. But if ye shew the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream and the interpretation thereof. They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. The king answered and said, I know of a certainty that ye would gain time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye make not known unto me the dream, there is but one law for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: forasmuch as no king, <sup>1</sup>lord, nor ruler, hath asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain. Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon; he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Wherefore is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. And Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would <sup>2</sup>appoint him a time, <sup>3</sup>and he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: and he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: he revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast now made known unto me what we desired of thee: for thou hast made known unto us the king's matter. Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded can neither wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, shew unto the king; but there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and he hath made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these: as for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets hath made known to thee what shall come to pass. But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that thou mayest know the thoughts of thy heart. Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the aspect thereof was terrible. As for this image, his head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron, and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them in pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great <sup>4</sup>mountain, and filled the whole earth. This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art king of kings, unto whom the God of heaven hath given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; and wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee to rule over them all: thou art the head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that crusheth all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. And whereas

thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron

42 mixed with <sup>1</sup>miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be

43 partly strong, and partly <sup>2</sup>broken. And whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with <sup>1</sup>miry clay, they shall mingle themselves <sup>3</sup>with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even

44 as iron doth not mingle with clay. And in the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty thereof be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation

46 thereof sure. Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet

47 odours unto him. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou hast been able to reveal

48 this secret. Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Baby-

49 lon. And Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was <sup>4</sup>in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura,

2 in the province of Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the <sup>5</sup>judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the <sup>6</sup>sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had

3 set up. Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the <sup>5</sup>judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the <sup>6</sup>sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then the herald

cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery,

<sup>7</sup>dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath

6 set up: and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning

7 fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king

8 had set up. Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews.

9 They answered and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the 11 golden image: and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they

14 brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar answered and said unto them, Is it of purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye serve not my god, nor worship the golden image

15 which I have set up? Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, <sup>8</sup>we have no need to answer

17 thee in this matter. <sup>9</sup>If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O

18 king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image

19 which thou hast set up. Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego:

therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

- 20 And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Then these men were bound in their hosen, their <sup>1</sup>tunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods. Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the <sup>2</sup>mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spake and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth out of the midst of the fire. 27 And the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their hosen changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. Nebuchadnezzar spake and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. 29 Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other god that is able to deliver after this sort. Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

- 4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; peace be multiplied unto you. It hath seemed good unto me to shew the signs and wonders that the Most High God hath wrought toward me. How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

- 4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace. I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the <sup>3</sup>thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream. Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. 10 Thus were the visions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great. The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth. The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the branches thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven. He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches. Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him. The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the <sup>4</sup>demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whosoever he will, and setteth up over it the lowest of men. This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen: and thou,

O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine adversaries. The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth; whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 it is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over

24 him; this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the

25 king: that thou shalt be driven from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen, and shalt be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee; till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth

26 it to whomsoever he will. And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and <sup>1</sup>break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if there may be <sup>2</sup>a lengthening of thy

28 tranquillity. All this came upon the 29 king Nebuchadnezzar. At the end of twelve months he was walking <sup>3</sup>in the 30 royal palace of Babylon. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken: the kingdom is departed

32 from thee. And thou shalt be driven from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee; until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth

33 it to whomsoever he will. The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation:

35 and all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can <sup>4</sup>stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time mine understanding returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added

37 unto me. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways judgement: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank

2 wine before the thousand. Belshazzar, whilst he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink therein. Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank in them. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of

6 the hand that wrote. Then the king's

5 countenance was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against an-

7 other. The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spake and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall <sup>1</sup>be the third ruler in the 8 kingdom. Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the 9 king the interpretation. Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and 10 his lords were perplexed. Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever; let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy coun- 11 tenance be changed: there is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him: and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, <sup>2</sup>the king, I say, thy father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, 12 and soothsayers; forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father 14 brought out of Judah? I have heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in 15 thee. And now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing.

16 But I have heard of thee, that thou canst give interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt <sup>1</sup>be 17 the third ruler in the kingdom. Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the 18 interpretation. O thou king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father the kingdom, and greatness,

19 and glory, and majesty: and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would 20 he put down. But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took 21 his glory from him: and he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven: until he knew that the Most High God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and that he setteth up over it whom- 22 soever he will. And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; 23 but hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all 24 thy ways, hast thou not glorified: then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was in- 25 scribed. And this is the writing that was inscribed, <sup>3</sup>MENE, MENE, TEKEL, 26 UPHARSIN. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and brought it to 27 an end. TEKEL; thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 <sup>4</sup>PERES; thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should <sup>1</sup>be the third 30 ruler in the kingdom. In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean king was 31 slain. And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty satraps, which should be throughout 2 the whole kingdom; and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account unto them, and that the king 3 should have no damage. Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole 4 realm. Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against

Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. Then these presidents and satraps <sup>1</sup>assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together <sup>2</sup>to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which <sup>3</sup>altereth not. Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the interdict.

10 And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem;) and he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's interdict; Hast thou not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition unto any god or man within thirty days, save unto thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which <sup>4</sup>altereth not. Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the interdict that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to rescue him. Then these men assembled together unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords;

<sup>5</sup>that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were <sup>6</sup>instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him. Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came near unto the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice: the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the den of lions? Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him my innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. Then was the king exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had trusted in his God. And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote unto all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be unto the end: he delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth; who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel <sup>8</sup>had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed; then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven brake forth upon the great sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and <sup>9</sup>it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in his mouth between his teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, terrible and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. I beheld till thrones were placed, and one that was ancient of days did sit: his raiment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and the wheels thereof burning fire. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgement was set, and the books were opened. I beheld at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and he was given to be burned with fire. And as for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. I saw in the night visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 As for me Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceeding terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet; and concerning the ten horns that were on his head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell; even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; until the ancient of days came, and judgement was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And as for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings.

25 And he shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High: and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. But the judgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. And the kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. Here is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. And I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in Shushan the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself. And as I was considering, behold, an he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground:

and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. And he came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran upon him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him: but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground,

11 and trampled upon them. Yea, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and <sup>11</sup>it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place

12 of his sanctuary was cast down. And <sup>2</sup>the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through transgression; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did

13 its pleasure and prospered. Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said unto that certain one which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt offering, and the transgression that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden

14 under foot? And he said <sup>3</sup>unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be <sup>4</sup>cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought <sup>5</sup>to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance

16 of a man. And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to

17 understand the vision. So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was affrighted, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for the vision belongeth to 18 the time of the end. Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me <sup>6</sup>up-

19 right. And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation: for it belongeth to the appointed time of 20 the end. The ram which thou sawest that had the two horns, they are the 21 kings of Media and Persia. And the rough he-goat is the king of <sup>7</sup>Greece: and the great horn that is between his 22 eyes is the first king. And as for that which was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not

23 with his power. And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding

24 dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but not <sup>8</sup>by his own power; and he shall <sup>9</sup>destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure: and he shall <sup>9</sup>destroy the mighty ones and <sup>10</sup>the holy people.

25 And through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he <sup>9</sup>destroy many: he shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be

26 broken without hand. And the vision of the evenings and mornings which hath been told is true; but shut thou up the vision; for it belongeth to many

27 days to come. And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I was astonished at the vision, <sup>11</sup>but none understood it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm

2 of the Chaldeans; in the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by the books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusa-

3 lem, even seventy years. And I set my face unto the Lord God, <sup>12</sup>to seek by prayer and supplications, with fast-

4 ing, and sackcloth, and ashes. And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments; we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning

5 aside from thy precepts and from thy judgements: neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all 7 the people of the land. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of face, as at this day;

to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because of our iniquities, and because we have despised thy word, which thou hast sent by thy servants the prophets, saying, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and keep my commandments, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have sworn unto your fathers, saying, I will give it unto you.

But ye have despised his word, and have not kept his commandments, neither have ye hearkened unto his voice, nor have ye done according to his word: therefore shall ye be desolate, and your sanctuary shall be as a desolation, and ye shall be a curse, and a proverb, and a laughing-stock, among all that hear of you, and among the nations, because ye have despised his word, and have not kept his commandments.

Therefore shall ye be desolate, and your sanctuary shall be as a desolation, and ye shall be a curse, and a proverb, and a laughing-stock, among all that hear of you, and among the nations, because ye have despised his word, and have not kept his commandments.

Therefore shall ye be desolate, and your sanctuary shall be as a desolation, and ye shall be a curse, and a proverb, and a laughing-stock, among all that hear of you, and among the nations, because ye have despised his word, and have not kept his commandments.

9 we have sinned against thee. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses; <sup>1</sup>for we have rebelled against him; neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even turning aside, that they should not obey thy voice: therefore hath the curse been poured out upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God; for we have sinned against him. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet have we not intreated the favour of the Lord our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and <sup>2</sup>have discernment in thy truth. Therefore hath the Lord watched over the evil, and brought it upon us: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth, and we have not obeyed his voice. And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. O Lord, according to all thy <sup>3</sup>righteousness, let thine anger and thy fury, I pray thee, be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are round about us. Now therefore, O our God, hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not <sup>4</sup>present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not; for thine own sake, O my God, because thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy mountain

21 of my God; yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, <sup>5</sup>being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he <sup>6</sup>instructed me, and talked with me, and said, O

Daniel, I am now come forth to make thee skilful of understanding. At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment went forth, and I am come to tell thee; for thou art <sup>6</sup>greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter.

24 and understand the vision. Seventy weeks are decreed upon thy people and upon thy holy city, <sup>7</sup>to finish <sup>8</sup>transgression, and <sup>9</sup>to make an end of sins, and to <sup>10</sup>make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and <sup>11</sup>prophecy, and to anoint <sup>12</sup>the most holy. Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto <sup>13</sup>the anointed one, the prince, shall be <sup>14</sup>seven weeks; and threescore and two weeks, it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troublous times. And after the threescore and two weeks shall the anointed one be cut off, and <sup>15</sup>shall have nothing: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and <sup>16</sup>his end shall be with a flood, and even unto the end shall be war; desolations are determined. And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and <sup>17</sup>for the half of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the <sup>18</sup>oblation to cease; and <sup>19</sup>upon the wing of abominations shall come one that maketh desolate; and even unto the consummation, and that determined, shall <sup>20</sup>wrath be poured out upon the <sup>21</sup>desolator.

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three whole weeks. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is <sup>23</sup>Hiddekel, I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with pure gold of Uphaz: his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves.

8 So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no

10 toward the ground. And, behold, a hand touched me, which <sup>1</sup>set me upon my knees and upon the palms
11 of my hands. And he said unto me, O Daniel, thou man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright; for unto thee am I now sent: and when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood 12 trembling. Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to humble thyself before thy God, thy words were heard: and 13 I am come for thy words' sake. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I <sup>2</sup>remained there 14 with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for the vision is yet for many 15 days. And when he had spoken unto me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was dumb.
16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I
17 retain no strength. For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.
18 Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he 19 strengthened me. And he said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he spake unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for 20 thou hast strengthened me. Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I go forth, lo, the prince 21 of <sup>3</sup>Greece shall come. But I will tell thee that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is none that 22 <sup>4</sup>holdeth with me <sup>5</sup>against these, but
11 Michael your prince. And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.
2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he is waxed strong through his riches, <sup>6</sup>he shall stir up all
3 against the realm of <sup>8</sup>Greece. And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do ac-

4 cording to his will. And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside these. And the king of the south
7 shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be
6 a great dominion. And at the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make <sup>8</sup>an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened
7 her in those times. But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his <sup>9</sup>place, which shall come <sup>10</sup>unto the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:
8 and also their gods, with their <sup>11</sup>molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall <sup>12</sup>restrain some years from the king of the 9 north. And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he
10 shall return into his own land. And his sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, <sup>13</sup>which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through: and <sup>14</sup>they shall return and 11 war, even to his fortress. And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given unto 12 his hand. And the multitude shall 15 be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted: and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail.
13 And the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even <sup>16</sup>of years, with a great army and with much sub-
14 stance. And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among thy people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they 15 shall fall. So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take <sup>17</sup>a well fenced city: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

Then shall stand up in his <sup>7</sup>place one that shall cause an exactor to pass through the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be <sup>8</sup>destroyed, neither in anger, 21 nor in battle. And in his <sup>7</sup>place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom 22 by flatteries. And with the arms of a flood shall they be swept away from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also 23 the prince of <sup>9</sup>the covenant. And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. 24 In time of security shall he come even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yea, he shall devise his devices against the 25 strong holds, even for a time. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army: but he shall not stand, for they shall devise 26 devices against him. Yea, they that eat of his <sup>10</sup>meat shall <sup>11</sup>destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many 27 shall fall down slain. And as for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time 28 appointed. Then shall he return into his land with great substance; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do his pleasure, and 29 return to his own land. At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former. 30 For ships of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard unto them that for- 31 sake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that maketh desolate. 32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he <sup>12</sup>pervert by flatteries: but the people that know their God 33 shall be strong, and do exploits. And <sup>13</sup>they that be wise among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity 34 and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall join themselves unto them with flat- 35 teries. And some of <sup>14</sup>them that be wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for 36 the time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods: and he shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished; for that which is de- 37 termined shall be done. Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. 38 But in his <sup>7</sup>place shall he honour the god of fortresses: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious 39 stones, and pleasant things. And he shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a strange god; <sup>15</sup>who- soever acknowledgeth him he will in- crease with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide 40 the land for a price. And at the time of the end shall the king of the south <sup>16</sup>contend with him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and 41 shall overflow and pass through. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be over- thrown: but these shall be delivered out of his hand, Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of 43 Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. 44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: and he shall go forth with great fury to destroy 45 and <sup>17</sup>utterly to make away many. ## HOSEA.

- 1 THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.
- 2 When the LORD spake at the first <sup>1</sup>by Hosea, the LORD said unto Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredom and children of whoredom: for the land doth commit great whoredom, departing from the LORD. So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bare <sup>4</sup>him a son. And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will <sup>2</sup>avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And the LORD said unto him, Call her name <sup>3</sup>Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them.
- 7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by bat- tle, by horses, nor by horsemen. Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she <sup>9</sup>conceived, and bare a son. And the LORD said, Call his name <sup>4</sup>Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be <sup>5</sup>your God.

- 10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass that, <sup>6</sup>in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God. And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint themselves one head, and shall go up from the land: for great shall be <sup>2</sup>the day of Jezreel. Say ye unto your brethren, <sup>7</sup>Ammi; and to your sisters, <sup>8</sup>Ruhamah.
- 2 Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: and let her put away her whoredoms from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry <sup>4</sup>land, and slay her with thirst; yea, upon her feasts, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her <sup>5</sup>solemn assemblies.

 12 And I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my hire that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.
 13 And I will visit upon her the days of the Baalim, <sup>6</sup>unto which she burned incense; when she decked herself with her <sup>7</sup>earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, 14 saith the LORD. Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak <sup>8</sup>comfortably 15 unto her. And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of <sup>9</sup>Achor for a door of hope: and she shall <sup>10</sup>make answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of E-16 gypt. And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me <sup>11</sup>Ishi; 17 and shalt call me no more <sup>12</sup>Baali. For I will take away the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more 18 be <sup>13</sup>mentioned by their name. And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land, and will make them 19 to lie down safely. And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will be-troth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgement, and in lovingkind-20 ness, and in mercies. I will even be-troth thee unto me in faithfulness: and 21 thou shalt know the LORD. And it shall come to pass in that day, I will answer, saith the LORD, I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the earth; 22 and the earth shall answer the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall 23 answer <sup>14</sup>Jezreel. And I will sow her unto me in the <sup>15</sup>earth; and I will have mercy upon <sup>16</sup>her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to <sup>17</sup>them which were not my people, Thou art my people;

 and they shall say, Thou art my God.
 3 And the LORD said unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved <sup>18</sup>of her friend and an adulteress, even as the LORD loveth the children of Israel, though they turn unto other gods, and 2 <sup>19</sup>love cakes of raisins. So I bought her to me for fifteen <sup>pieces</sup> of silver, and an homer of barley, and an <sup>20</sup>half homer of barley: and I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days;
 thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be any man's wife: so will I 4 also be toward thee. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without <sup>21</sup>pillar, 5 and without ephod or teraphim: afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall come with fear unto the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

4 Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in 2 the land. There is nought but swearing and breaking faith, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery; they break out, and blood toucheth blood.
 3 Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field and the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of 4 the sea also shall be taken away. Yet let no man strive, neither let any man reprove; for thy people are as they 5 that strive with the priest. And thou shalt stumble in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with thee in the night; and I will destroy thy mother.
 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, <sup>22</sup>I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, 7 I also will forget thy children. As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me: I will change their glory into shame.
 8 They feed on the sin of my people, and 9 set their heart on their iniquity. And it shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and will 10 reward them their doings. And they shall eat, and not have enough; they increase: because they have left off to 11 take heed to the LORD. Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the <sup>1</sup>understanding. My people ask counsel at their stock, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredom hath caused them to err, and they have gone 13 a whoring from under their God. They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters commit whoredom, and 14 your <sup>2</sup>brides commit adultery. I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your <sup>2</sup>brides when they commit adultery; for they themselves go apart with whores, and they sacrifice with the <sup>3</sup>harlots: and the people that doth not understand 15 shall be overthrown. Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah <sup>4</sup>offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor 16 swear, As the LORD liveth. For Israel hath behaved himself stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer: now will the LORD feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols; let him
18 alone. <sup>5</sup>Their drink is become sour:
they commit whoredom continually;
19 <sup>6</sup>her <sup>7</sup>rulers dearly love shame. The wind hath wrapped her up in its <sup>8</sup>wings;
and <sup>9</sup>they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.
5 Hear this, O ye priests, and hearken, ye house of Israel, and give ear, O house of the king, for <sup>10</sup>unto you pertaineth
the judgement; for ye have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Ta-2 bor. And the revolvers are gone deep
12 in making slaughter; but I am <sup>12</sup>a re-3 buker of them all. I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O
Ephraim, thou hast committed whore-4 dom, Israel is defiled. <sup>13</sup>Their doings will not suffer them to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredom is <sup>14</sup>within them, and they know not the 5 LORD. And the <sup>15</sup>pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore Israel and Ephraim shall stumble in their iniquity;
Judah also shall stumble with them.
6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him: he hath withdrawn 7 himself from them. They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have <sup>16</sup>borne strange children:
now shall <sup>17</sup>the new moon devour them with their <sup>18</sup>fields.
8 Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: sound an alarm at Beth-aven; <sup>19</sup>behind thee, O 9 Benjamin. Ephraim shall become a desolation in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known 10 that which shall surely be. The princes of Judah are like them that remove the landmark: I will pour out my wrath 11 upon them like water. Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgement;

because he was content to walk after 12 <sup>20</sup>the command. <sup>21</sup>Therefore am I unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house 13 of Judah as rottenness. When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to Assyria, and sent to <sup>22</sup>king Jareb: but he is not able to heal you, neither shall he cure 14 you of your wound. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there shall be none to deliver.
15 I will go and return to my place, till they <sup>23</sup>acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me <sup>24</sup>earnestly.
6 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will 2 bind us up. After two days will he revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live before 3 him. And let us know, let us follow on to know the LORD; his going forth is sure as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter rain that watereth the earth.
4 O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your <sup>25</sup>goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the dew that 5 goeth early away. Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth:
<sup>26</sup>and thy judgements are as the light
6 that goeth forth. For I desire <sup>25</sup>mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
7 But they <sup>27</sup>like <sup>28</sup>Adam have transgressed the covenant: there have they 8 dealt treacherously against me. Gilead is a city of them that work iniqui-9 ty, it is stained with blood. <sup>29</sup>And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem: yea, they have 10 committed lewdness. In the house of Israel I have seen an horrible thing:
there whoredom is <sup>found</sup> in Ephraim, 11 Israel is defiled. Also, O Judah, there is an harvest appointed for thee, when I bring again the captivity of my <sup>people</sup>.
7 When I would heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood: and the thief entereth in, and the troop of robbers
2 <sup>30</sup>spoileth without. And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now have their own doings beset them ab-3 out; they are before my face. They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their

4 lies. They are all adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceaseth to stir the fire, from the kneading of the 5 dough until it be leavened. On the day of our king the princes <sup>1</sup>made <sup>2</sup>themselves sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorn.

6 For they have <sup>3</sup>made ready their heart like an oven, whilst they lie in wait: <sup>4</sup>their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth

8 unto me. Ephraim, he mixeth himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake

9 not turned. Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are <sup>6</sup>here and there upon him,

10 and he knoweth it not. And the <sup>6</sup>pride of Israel doth testify to his face: yet they have not returned unto the LORD their

11 God, nor sought him, for all this. And Ephraim is like a silly dove, without 12 understanding: they call unto Egypt, they go to Assyria. When they shall go,

13 I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the 14 heaven: I will chastise them, <sup>8</sup>as their congregation hath heard. Woe unto them!

15 for they have wandered from me; destruction unto them! for they have trespassed against me: though I would

16 redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me. And they have not cried

17 unto me with their heart, but they howl upon their beds: <sup>9</sup>they assemble themselves for corn and wine, they rebel

18 against me. Though I have <sup>10</sup>taught and strengthened their arms, yet do they

19 imagine mischief against me. They return, but not to him that is on high;

20 they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the 21 rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 <sup>11</sup>Set the trumpet to thy mouth. As an eagle he cometh against the house

9 of the LORD: because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed

10 against my law. They shall cry unto me, 3 My God, we Israel know thee. Israel hath cast off that which is good: the enemy shall pursue him. They have set up

12 kings, but not by me; <sup>12</sup>they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them 5 idols, that they may be cut off. He hath cast off thy calf, O Samaria; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will

6 it be ere they attain to innocency? For from Israel is even this; the workman made it, and it is no God: yea, the calf of 7 Samaria shall be broken in pieces. For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: <sup>13</sup>he hath no standing corn; the blade shall yield no meal; if 8 so be it yield, strangers shall swallow it up. Israel is swallowed up: now are they among the nations as a vessel 9 wherein is no pleasure. For they are gone up to Assyria, like a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired <sup>14</sup>lov-

10 ers. Yea, though they hire among the nations, now will I gather them; and they <sup>15</sup>begin to be diminished by reason of the burden of the <sup>16</sup>king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath multiplied altars to sin, altars have been unto him

12 to sin. <sup>17</sup>Though I write for him my law in ten thousand precepts, they are

13 counted as a strange thing. As for the sacrifices of mine offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their 14 sins; they shall return to Egypt. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and builded <sup>15</sup>palaces; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the <sup>19</sup>castles thereof. 9 Rejoice not, O Israel, <sup>20</sup>for joy, like the peoples; <sup>21</sup>for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved hire

2 upon every cornfloor. The threshing-floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail her. 3 They shall not dwell in the LORD's land;

but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria.

4 They shall not pour out wine offerings to the LORD, <sup>22</sup>neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread shall be for their appetite; it shall not come into the 5 house of the LORD. What will ye do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the 6 day of the feast of the LORD? For, lo, they are gone away from destruction, yet Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: their pleasant things of silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tents. 7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the man that hath the spirit is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and 8 because the enmity is great. Ephraim <sup>23</sup>was a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a fowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of 9 his God. They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah:

he will remember their iniquity, he 10 will visit their sins. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first season: but they came to Baal-peor, and <sup>24</sup>consecrated themselves unto the <sup>25</sup>shameful thing, and became abominable like that which 11 they loved. As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird: there shall be no birth, and none with child, and 12 no conception. Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there be not a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, <sup>1</sup>like as I have seen Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring out his children to 14 the slayer. Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them: because of the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house: I will love them no more; all their princes are revolt-

16 ers. Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant vine, which putteth forth his fruit: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath multiplied his altars; according to the <sup>2</sup>goodness of his land they have made goodly

<sup>33</sup>pillars. Surely now shall they say, We have no king: for we fear not the LORD; and the king, what can he do for

<sup>5</sup>lock in the furrows of the field. The inhabitants of Samaria shall be in terror for the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and

<sup>9</sup>the priests thereof that rejoiced over it, for the glory thereof, because it is de-

<sup>6</sup>parted from it. It also shall be carried unto Assyria for a present to <sup>10</sup>king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. <sup>11</sup>As for Samaria, her king is set off, as <sup>12</sup>foam upon the water. The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us. O Israel, thou hast sinned

<sup>13</sup>from the days of Gibeah: <sup>14</sup>there they stood; <sup>15</sup>that the battle against the children of iniquity should not

10 overtake them in Gibeah. When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they are <sup>16</sup>bound

<sup>11</sup>to their two transgressions. And Ephraim is an heifer that is taught, that loveth to tread out the corn; but I have passed over upon her fair neck: I will set a rider on Ephraim; Judah shall 12 plow, Jacob shall break his clods. Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and <sup>18</sup>rain right-

<sup>13</sup>cousness upon you. Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of <sup>19</sup>lies: for thou didst trust in thy way, in the

<sup>21</sup>people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces with her children. <sup>15</sup><sup>22</sup>So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: at daybreak shall the king of Israel be utterly cut off.

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto the Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

<sup>3</sup>Yet I taught Ephraim to go; <sup>23</sup>I took them on my arms; but they knew not that

<sup>4</sup>I healed them. I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat before them.

<sup>5</sup>He shall not return unto the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

<sup>7</sup>counsels. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they call them to him that is on high, none at

<sup>8</sup>all will <sup>25</sup>exalt him. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as

Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my <sup>12</sup>One. Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he continually multiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.

womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his <sup>1</sup>manhood he <sup>2</sup>had power <sup>4</sup>with God: yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him at Beth-el, and there he spake with <sup>5</sup>us; <sup>3</sup>even the Lord, the God of hosts; <sup>6</sup>the Lord is his memorial. Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgement, and wait on thy God continually.

7 <sup>4</sup>He is <sup>5</sup>a trafficker, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to <sup>6</sup>op-
8 press. And Ephraim said, Surely I am become rich, I have found me wealth: in all my labours they shall find in <sup>9</sup>me none iniquity that were sin. But I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt; I will yet again make thee to dwell in tents, as in the days of the sol-
10 emn feast. I have also spoken unto the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and <sup>7</sup>by the ministry of the prophets 11 have I used similitudes. Is Gilead iniquity? they are altogether vanity; in Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks: yea, their altars <sup>8</sup>are as heaps in the fur-
12 rows of the field. And Jacob fled into the field of Aram, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept 13 sheep. And by a prophet the Lord brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he <sup>9</sup>preserved.
14 Ephraim hath provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore shall his blood be left upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

13 When Ephraim <sup>10</sup>spake, there was trembling; he exalted himself in Israel: but when he <sup>11</sup>offended in Baal, he died.
2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let <sup>12</sup>the men that sacrifice kiss the
3 calves. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the dew that passeth early away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the smoke out of 4 the chimney. Yet I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt; and thou <sup>13</sup>shalt know no god but me, and beside 5 me there is no saviour. I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great 6 drought. According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore 7 have they forgotten me. Therefore am I unto them as a lion; as a leopard
8 will I watch by the way: I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart: and there will I devour them like a lion; the wild beast shall tear

9 them. <sup>14</sup>It is thy destruction, O Israel, 10 <sup>15</sup>that thou art against me, against thy 10 help. Where now is thy king, that he may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me
11 a king and princes? I have given thee a king in mine anger, and have taken 12 him away in my wrath. The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is laid 13 up in store. The sorrows of a travelling woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; <sup>16</sup>for it is time he should not tarry in the place of the breaking 14 forth of children. I will ransom them from the <sup>17</sup>power of <sup>18</sup>the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death,
15 <sup>19</sup>where are thy plagues? O <sup>20</sup>grave, <sup>21</sup>where is thy destruction? repentance
15 shall be hid from mine eyes. Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the <sup>22</sup>breath of the Lord coming up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: <sup>21</sup>he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant 16 vessels. Samaria shall <sup>22</sup>bear her guilt; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

14 O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine
2 iniquity. Take with you words, and return unto the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and <sup>23</sup>accept that which is good: so will we render 24 as bullocks the offering of our lips.
3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless
4 findeth mercy. I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.
5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall blossom as the lily, and cast forth
6 his roots as Lebanon. His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as 7 Lebanon. They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and blossom as the vine:
25 the scent thereof shall be as the wine
8 of Lebanon. <sup>26</sup>Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have answered, and will regard him: I am like a green fir tree; from me is 9 thy fruit found. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them; but transgressors shall fall therein.

JOEL.

1 THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or in the days 3 of your fathers? Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another

4 generation. That which <sup>1</sup>the palmerworm hath left hath <sup>1</sup>the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath <sup>1</sup>the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath <sup>1</sup>the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off

6 from your mouth. For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number; his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the jaw

7 teeth of a great lion. He hath laid my vine waste, and <sup>2</sup>barked my fig tree; he hath made it clean bare, and cast it <sup>3</sup>away; the branches thereof are made

8 white. Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meal offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's minis-

10 ters, mourn. The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted, the new wine is <sup>4</sup>dried up, the oil lan-

11 guisheth. <sup>5</sup>Be ashamed, O ye husbandmen, howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the

12 harvest of the field is perished. The vine is <sup>4</sup>withered, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for joy is <sup>4</sup>withered away from the sons

13 of men. Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meal offering and the drink offering is withholden from the

14 house of your God. Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the <sup>6</sup>old men and all the inhabitants of the land unto the house of the LORD your God,

15 and cry unto the LORD. Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as destruction from <sup>7</sup>the Almighty

16 shall it come. Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness

17 from the house of our God? The seeds <sup>8</sup>rot under their clods; the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken

18 down; for the corn is <sup>4</sup>withered. How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep <sup>9</sup>are made desolate. O LORD, to thee do I cry: for the fire hath devoured the <sup>10</sup>pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath 20 burned all the trees of the field. Yea, the beasts of the field pant unto thee: for the water brooks are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the <sup>10</sup>pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh,

2 for it is nigh at hand; a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as the dawn spread upon the mountains; a great people and a strong, there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. A fire devourereth before them;

and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and none hath escaped

4 them. The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as <sup>11</sup>horsemen, so do they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devourereth the stubble, as a

6 strong people set in battle array. At their presence the peoples are in an-

7 guish: all faces are waxed pale. They run like mighty men; they climb the wall like men of war; and they march every one on his ways, and they break

8 not their ranks. Neither doth one thrust another; they march every one in his path: and <sup>12</sup>they burst through the weapons, and <sup>13</sup>break not off their

9 course. They leap upon the city; they run upon the wall; they climb up into the houses; they enter in at the wind-

10 ows like a thief. The earth quaketh before them; the heavens tremble: the sun and the moon are darkened, and

11 the stars withdraw their shining: and the LORD uttereth his voice before his army; for his camp is very great; for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

12 Yet even now, saith the LORD, turn ye unto me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with

13 mourning: and rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, and repenteth

14 him of the evil. Who knoweth whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a

16 fast, call a solemn assembly: gather the people, sanctify the congregation. assemble the <sup>1</sup>old men, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his cham-

17 ber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the nations should <sup>2</sup>rule over them: wherefore should they say among the peoples, Where is their God?

18 Then was the LORD jealous for his land, and had pity on his people. And the LORD answered and said unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you

20 a reproach among the nations: but I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, <sup>3</sup>his forepart <sup>4</sup>into the eastern sea, and his hinder part <sup>4</sup>into the western sea; and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, be-

21 cause he hath done great things. Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice; for

22 the LORD hath done great things. Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their

23 strength. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he giveth you the former rain <sup>5</sup>in just measure, and he causeth to come down for you the rain, the former rain and the latter rain, <sup>6</sup>in the 24 first month. And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow

25 with wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that <sup>7</sup>the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great

26 army which I sent among you. And ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and shall praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you; and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and there is none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions; and also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible

32 day of the LORD come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that escape, as the LORD hath said, and <sup>8</sup>among the remnant those whom the LORD doth call.

3 And behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into <sup>9</sup>the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people: and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they

4 might drink. Yea, and what are ye to me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the regions of Philistia? <sup>10</sup>will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your <sup>11</sup>recompence upon your own head.

5 Forasmuch as ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things; the children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the sons of the Grecians, that ye might re-

7 move them far from their border: behold, I will stir them up out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your <sup>12</sup>recompence upon your own

8 head; and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the men of Sheba, to a nation far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 Proclaim ye this among the nations; <sup>13</sup>prepare war: stir up the mighty men; let all the men of war draw near, let

10 them come up. Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11 <sup>13</sup>Haste ye, and come, all ye nations round about, and gather yourselves together: thither cause thy mighty ones

12 to come down, O LORD. Let the nations bestir themselves, and come up to the valley of <sup>14</sup>Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the nations round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle, for the <sup>15</sup>harvest is ripe: come, <sup>16</sup>tread ye; for the winepress is full, the fats overflow; for

14 their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! for the day of the LORD is near in the 15 valley of decision. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars with-

16 draw their shining. And the LORD shall roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens waters; and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water

AMOS.

1 THE words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the <sup>1</sup>earthquake.
 2 And he said, The LORD shall roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the <sup>2</sup>pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.
 3 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Damascus, yea, for four, I will not <sup>3</sup>turn away <sup>4</sup>the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it shall devour
 5 the palaces of Ben-hadad. And I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off <sup>5</sup>the inhabitant from the valley of <sup>6</sup>Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from <sup>7</sup>the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.
 6 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Gaza, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive <sup>8</sup>the whole people, to deliver them up to 7 Edom: but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it shall devour the 8 palaces thereof: and I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon; and I will turn mine hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.
 9 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Tyre, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up <sup>8</sup>the whole people to Edom, and remembered not 10<sup>9</sup> the brotherly covenant: but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.
 11 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Edom, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and <sup>10</sup>did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

 12 but I will send a fire upon Teman, and it shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.
 13 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge
 14 their border: but I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind: and their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.
 2 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Moab, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the
 2 king of Edom into lime: but I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with
 3 the sound of the trumpet: and I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.
 4 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Judah, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have rejected the law of the LORD, and have not kept his statutes, and their lies have caused them to err, after the which their fathers
 5 did walk: but I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.
 6 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Israel, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy

Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazirites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazirites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, 13 saying, Prophecy not. Behold, <sup>5</sup>I will press you in your place, as a cart <sup>6</sup>presseth that is full of sheaves. And <sup>7</sup>flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver <sup>8</sup>himself: neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver <sup>9</sup>himself: and he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

3 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, 2 saying, You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will visit upon you all your iniquities. 3 Shall two walk together, except they <sup>4</sup>have <sup>5</sup>agreed? Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he <sup>6</sup>have taken nothing? Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is set for him? shall a snare spring up from the ground, and have taken <sup>7</sup>nothing at all? Shall the trumpet be blown in a city, and the people not be afraid? shall evil befall a city, and <sup>8</sup>the LORD hath not done it? Surely the LORD God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants <sup>9</sup>the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the LORD God hath spoken, who can but prophesy? 9 Publish ye <sup>10</sup>in the palaces at Ashdod, and <sup>11</sup>in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold what great tumults are therein, and what oppressions in the midst <sup>12</sup>thereof. For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. 11 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: An adversary there shall be, even round about the land: and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy <sup>12</sup>palaces shall be spoiled. Thus saith the LORD: As the shepherd rescueth out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be rescued that sit in Samaria in the corner of a couch, and <sup>13</sup>on the silken cushions of a <sup>14</sup>13 bed. Hear ye, and testify against the house of Jacob, saith the Lord God, the <sup>15</sup>14 God of hosts. For in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el, and the horns of the altar shall <sup>16</sup>15 be cut off, and fall to the ground. And I will smite <sup>17</sup>the winter house with <sup>18</sup>the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and <sup>19</sup>the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

4 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say unto their lords, Bring, and <sup>20</sup>2 let us drink. The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that they shall take you away with hooks, and your residue <sup>21</sup>3 with fish hooks. And ye shall go out at the breaches, every one straight before her; <sup>22</sup>12 and ye shall cast yourselves into Harmon, saith the LORD.

4 Come to Beth-el, and transgress; to Gilgal, and multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and <sup>23</sup>5 your tithes every three days; and <sup>24</sup>13 offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill offerings and publish them: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the <sup>25</sup>6 Lord God. And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the <sup>26</sup>7 LORD. And I also have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon <sup>27</sup>8 it rained not withered. So two or three cities wandered unto one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the <sup>28</sup>9 LORD. I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: the multitude of your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees hath the palmerworm devoured: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the <sup>29</sup>10 LORD. I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, <sup>30</sup>14 and have carried away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camp to come up even into your

I have overthrown some among you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare 13 to meet thy God, O Israel. For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth; the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

5 Hear ye this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of 2 Israel. The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she <sup>1</sup>is cast down upon her land; there is none 3 to raise her up. For thus saith the Lord God: The city that went forth a thousand shall have an hundred left, and that which went forth an hundred shall have ten left, to the house of Israel. For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye 5 shall live: but seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall <sup>2</sup>come to 6 nought. Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour and there

7 be none to quench it in Beth-el: ye who turn judgement to wormwood, and cast 8 down righteousness to the earth; seek him that maketh the Pleiades and Orion, and turneth <sup>8</sup>the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night; that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; the LORD is his name;

9 that <sup>4</sup>bringeth sudden destruction upon the strong, so that destruction cometh 10 upon the fortress. They hate him that reproveth in the gate, and they abhor

11 him that speaketh uprightly. Forasmuch therefore as ye trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine thereof.

12 For I know how manifold are your transgressions and how mighty are your sins; ye that afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the needy in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore he that is prudent shall keep silence in such a time; for it is an evil 14 time. Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye say.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgement in the gate: it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the LORD: Wailing shall be in all the broad ways; and they shall say in all the streets, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, <sup>5</sup>and such as are skilful of lamentation

17 to wailing. And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through the 18 midst of thee, saith the LORD. Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! wherefore would ye have the day of the LORD? it is darkness, and not

19 light. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; <sup>6</sup>or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, 20 and a serpent bit him. Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in

21 it? I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn

22 assemblies. Yea, though ye offer me <sup>8</sup>your burnt offerings and meal offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the <sup>9</sup>peace offerings of

23 your fat beasts. Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will

24 not hear the melody of thy viols. But let judgement roll down as waters, and righteousness as a <sup>10</sup>mighty stream.

25 Did ye bring unto me sacrifices and <sup>11</sup>offerings in the wilderness forty years, 26 O house of Israel? Yea, ye <sup>12</sup>have borne <sup>13</sup>Siccuth your king and <sup>14</sup>Chim your images, the star of your god, 27 which ye made to yourselves. Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

6 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and to them that are secure in the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to 2 whom the house of Israel come! Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great:

then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or is their border greater than your

3 border? Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the <sup>15</sup>seat of violence to 4 come near; that lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst

5 of the stall; that sing idle songs to the sound of the viol; that devise for themselves instruments of music, <sup>16</sup>like

6 David; that drink <sup>17</sup>wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for

7 the affliction of Joseph. Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the revelry of them that stretched themselves shall pass

8 away. The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, the God of hosts: I abhor the <sup>18</sup>excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

 11 of the name of the LORD. For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and <sup>2</sup>the great house shall be smitten with breaches, and the little house with clefts.
 12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? that ye have turned judgement into <sup>3</sup>gall, and the fruit of righteousness into worm-
 13 wood: ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?
 14 For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the <sup>4</sup>entering in of Hamath unto the brook of the Arabah.

7 Thus the Lord God shewed me: and, behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.
 2 And it came to pass that when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob
 3 stand? for he is small. The LORD repented concerning this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.
 4 Thus the Lord God shewed me: and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire; and it devoured the great deep, and would have eaten up the 5 <sup>5</sup>land. Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob stand?
 6 for he is small. The LORD repented concerning this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood <sup>6</sup>beside a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand. And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel; I will not
 9 again pass by them any more: and the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.
 11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.

 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and 13 prophesy there: but prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house.
 14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I <sup>7</sup>was no prophet, neither <sup>7</sup>was I <sup>8</sup>a prophet's son; but I <sup>7</sup>was an herdsman, and a dresser of sycomore
 15 trees: and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people 16 Israel. Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of 17 Isaac; therefore thus saith the LORD: Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou thyself shalt die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.

8 Thus the Lord God shewed me: and behold, a basket of summer fruit.
 2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.
 3 And the songs of the <sup>9</sup>temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: the dead bodies shall be many; in every place <sup>10</sup>shall they cast them
 4 forth with silence. Hear this, O ye that would swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail,
 5 saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may <sup>11</sup>set forth wheat? making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and dealing falsely
 6 with balances of deceit; that we may buy the poor for <sup>12</sup>silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell
 7 the refuse of the wheat. The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their
 8 works. Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? yea, it shall rise up wholly like the River; and it shall be troubled and sink again, like the River
 9 of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in 10 the clear day. And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as 11 a bitter day. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of 12 hearing the words of the LORD. And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word 13 of the LORD, and shall not find it. In that day shall the fair virgins and the 14 young men faint for thirst. Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of 9 Jacob, saith the LORD. For, lo, I will command, and I will <sup>5</sup>sift the house of Israel among all the nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. 10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us. 11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it 12 as in the days of old; that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations, which <sup>6</sup>are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this. 13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills 14 shall melt. And I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gar- 15 dens, and eat the fruit of them. ## OBADIAH.

1 THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord God <sup>1</sup>concerning Edom: We have heard tidings from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. 2 Behold, I have made thee small among the nations: thou art greatly despised. 3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of <sup>2</sup>the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall 4 bring me down to the ground? Though thou mount on high as the eagle, and though thy nest be set among the stars, I will bring thee down from thence, 5 saith the LORD. If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not steal till they had enough? if grapegatherers came to thee, would they not 6 leave some gleanings? How are <sup>3</sup>the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden treasures sought up! 7 All the men of thy confederacy have <sup>4</sup>brought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed

JONAH.

1 Now the word of the LORD came unto 2 Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is 3 come up before me. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD; and he went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence 4 of the LORD. But the LORD <sup>1</sup> sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the 5 ship was like to be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god; and they cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he 6 lay, and was fast asleep. So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. 7 And they said every one to his fellow,

Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and 8 the lot fell upon Jonah. Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and 9 of what people art thou? And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the 10 dry land. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had 11 told them. Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous. 12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tem- 13 pest is upon you. Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous 14 against them. Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O

 15 LORD, hast done as it pleased thee. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from 16 her raging. Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made 17 vows. And the LORD prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days
 2 and three nights. Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the 2 fish's belly. And he said,

I called <sup>1</sup>by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD,

And he answered me;
 Out of the belly of <sup>2</sup>hell cried I,
 And thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou didst cast me into the depth, in the heart of the seas,
 And the flood was round about me;
 All thy waves and thy billows passed over me.

4 And I said, I am cast out from before thine eyes;
 Yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul;
 The deep was round about me;
 The weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains;
 The earth with her bars closed upon me for ever:
 Yet hast thou brought up my life from <sup>3</sup>the pit, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD:
 And my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that regard lying vanities Forsake their own mercy.
 9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving;
 I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

10 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto 2 Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and 4 preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was <sup>5</sup>an exceeding great city, of three days'

4 journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and 5 Nineveh shall be overthrown. And the people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to 6 the least of them. <sup>6</sup>And the tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and laid his robe from him, and covered him with sack-

7 cloth, and sat in ashes. And he made proclamation and <sup>7</sup>published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing:

8 let them not feed, nor drink water: but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and beast, and let them cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from

9 the violence that is in their hands. Who knoweth whether God will not turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce

10 anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, which he said he would do unto

4 them; and he did it not. But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was 2 angry. And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I <sup>8</sup>hasted to flee unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and full of compassion, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, and repentest thee of the 3 evil. Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 And the LORD said, <sup>9</sup>Doest thou well to be angry? Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might

6 see what would become of the city. And the LORD God prepared a <sup>10</sup>gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was exceeding glad because of

7 the gourd. But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, It is better for me to die than

9 to live. And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry

10 even unto death. And the LORD said, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 and should not I have pity on Nineveh, that great city; wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

MICAH.

1 THE word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you; hearken. O earth, and <sup>1</sup>all that therein is: and let the Lord God be witness <sup>2</sup>against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as the plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all her graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate: for of the hire of an harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of an harlot shall they return.

8 For this will I wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the jackals, and a mourning like the ostriches. For her wounds are incurable: for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the gate of my people, 10 even to Jerusalem. Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all: at <sup>3</sup>Beth-le-Aphrah

11 <sup>4</sup>have I rolled myself in the dust. Pass ye away, O <sup>5</sup>inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame: the <sup>6</sup>inhabitant of Zaanan is not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel shall take from you 12 the <sup>6</sup>stay thereof. For the <sup>5</sup>inhabitant of Maroth <sup>7</sup>waiteth anxiously for good: because evil is come down from the 13 LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem. Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O <sup>5</sup>inhabitant of Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were 14 found in thee. Therefore shalt thou give a parting gift to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be <sup>8</sup>a deceitful thing unto the kings of Israel. I will yet bring unto thee, O <sup>5</sup>inhabitant of Mareshah, him that shall possess thee: the glory of Israel shall come even 16 unto Adullam. Make thee bald, and poll thee for the children of thy delight: enlarge thy baldness as the <sup>9</sup>eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

2 Woe to them that devise iniquity and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a man and his house, 3 even a man and his heritage. Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks, neither shall ye walk haughtily; 4 for it is an evil time. In that day shall they take up a parable against you, and lament <sup>10</sup>with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how doth he <sup>11</sup>remove it from me! to the rebellious he divideth our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast the line by lot in the congregation of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Prophecy ye not, thus they prophesy. They shall not prophesy <sup>13</sup>to these: reproaches shall 7 not depart. <sup>14</sup>Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, Is the spirit of the LORD <sup>15</sup>straitened? are these his doings? Do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly? But <sup>16</sup>of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye strip the robe from off the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from 9 war. The women of my people ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their young children ye take away my 10 glory for ever. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because of uncleanness <sup>17</sup>that destroyeth, even 11 with a grievous destruction. If a man walking <sup>18</sup>in wind and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah: as a flock in the midst of their pasture, they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude 13 of men. The breaker is gone up before them: they have broken forth and passed on to the gate, and are gone out thereat; and their king is passed on before them, and the LORD at the head of them.

3 And I said, Hear, I pray you, ye heads of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel: is it not for you

 3 flesh from off their bones; who also eat the flesh of my people; and they flay their skin from off them, and break their bones: yea, they chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh with-
 4 in the caldron. Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not answer them: yea, he will hide his face from them at that time, according as they have wrought evil in their doings.
 5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people to err; that bite with their teeth and cry, Peace; and whoso putteth not into their mouths, they even <sup>1</sup>prepare war a-
 6 gainst him: Therefore it shall be night unto you, that ye shall have no vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day
 7 shall be black over them. And the seers shall be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their lips: for there is no answer
 8 of God. But I truly am full of power <sup>2</sup>by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgement, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel
 9 his sin. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, that abhor judgement, 10 and pervert all equity. They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with 11 iniquity. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD in the midst of us? <sup>3</sup>no evil shall come upon us.
 12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.
 4 <sup>4</sup>But in the latter days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established <sup>4</sup>in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples
 2 shall flow unto it. And many nations shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth <sup>5</sup>the law, and the word
 3 of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge <sup>6</sup>between <sup>7</sup>many peoples, and shall <sup>8</sup>reprove strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall
 4 they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD

5 of hosts hath spoken it. For all the peoples <sup>9</sup>will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.
 6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that hatheth, and I will gather her that is driven away, and her
 7 that I have afflicted; and I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever.
 8 And thou, O tower of <sup>10</sup>the flock, <sup>11</sup>the hill of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come; yea, the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the 9 daughter of Jerusalem. Now why dost thou cry out aloud? Is there no king in thee, is thy counsellor perished, that pangs have taken hold of thee as of a 10 woman in travail? Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and shalt dwell in the field, and shalt come even unto Babylon; there shalt thou be rescued; there shall the LORD redeem thee from the hand of thine 11 enemies. And now many nations are assembled against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye <sup>12</sup>see its 12 desire upon Zion. But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he hath gathered them as the sheaves to the 13 threshing-floor. Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many peoples: and <sup>14</sup>thou shalt devote their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the 5 whole earth. Now shalt thou gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.
 2 But thou, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, which art little to be among the <sup>14</sup>thousands of Judah, out of thee shall one come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from
 3 of old, <sup>15</sup>from everlasting. Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the residue of his brethren shall return <sup>16</sup>unto the children of Israel. And he shall stand, and shall feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God: and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto 5 the ends of the earth. And this man shall be our peace: when the Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our border. And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as dew from the LORD, as showers upon the grass; that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men. And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and there is none to deliver. Let thine hand be lifted up above thine adversaries, and let all thine enemies be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots: and I will cut off the cities of thy land, and will throw down all thy strong holds: and I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers: and I will cut off thy graven images and thy <sup>1</sup>pillars out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands. 14 And I will pluck up thine <sup>2</sup>Asherim out of the midst of thee: and I will destroy thy <sup>3</sup>cities. And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the nations <sup>4</sup>which hearkened not.

6 Hear ye now what the LORD saith: Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear, O ye mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye enduring foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of bondage; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; remember from Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteous acts of the LORD. Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a

7 year old? Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The voice of the LORD crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom will

<sup>5</sup>see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it. Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant

11 <sup>6</sup>measure that is abominable? Shall I be pure with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights? For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceit-

13 ful in their mouth. Therefore I also have smitten thee with a grievous wound; I have made thee desolate be-

14 cause of thy sins. Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy <sup>7</sup>humiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt remove, but shalt not carry away safe; and that which thou carriest a-

15 way will I give up to the sword. Thou shalt sow, but shalt not reap: thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not anoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt

16 not drink the wine. For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels: that I should make thee <sup>8</sup>a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing; and ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; <sup>9</sup>my soul desireth the

2 firstripe fig. The godly man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his

3 brother with a net. <sup>10</sup>Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it diligently; the prince asketh, and the judge is ready for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth the mischief of his soul: thus

4 they weave it together. The best of them is as a brier: <sup>11</sup>the most upright is worse than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen, even thy visitation, is come;

5 now shall be their perplexity. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a <sup>12</sup>guide: keep the doors of thy mouth

6 from her that lieth in thy bosom. For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 But as for me, <sup>13</sup>I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me. Re-

8 joice not against me, O <sup>14</sup>mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light

9 unto me. I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him; until he plead my cause, and execute judgement for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall 16 things. The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf. They shall lick the dust like a serpent; like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their close places: they shall come with fear unto the LORD our God, and <sup>18</sup>shall be afraid because of thee. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because <sup>19</sup>he delighteth in mercy. He will turn again and have compassion upon us; he will <sup>6</sup>tread our iniquities under foot: and thou wilt cast all their sins into <sup>20</sup>the depths of the sea. <sup>7</sup>Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM.

- 1 THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. <sup>2</sup>The LORD is a jealous God and avengeth; the LORD avengeth and is full of wrath; the LORD taketh vengeance on his adversaries, and he re-serveth wrath for his enemies. The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means clear the guilty: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower <sup>5</sup>of Lebanon languisheth. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt; and the earth is upheaved at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell <sup>6</sup>therein. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are <sup>7</sup>broken asunder by him. The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that put their <sup>8</sup>trust in him. But with an overrunning flood he will make a full end of the place thereof, and will pursue his enemies <sup>9</sup>into darkness. What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make a full end: affliction shall not rise up the <sup>10</sup>second time. For though they be like tangled thorns, and be drenched as it were in their drink, they shall be de- <sup>11</sup>voured utterly as dry stubble. There is one gone forth out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, <sup>3</sup>that 12 counselleth wickedness. Thus saith the LORD: Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so shall they be cut down, and he shall pass away. <sup>5</sup>Though I have afflicted thee, I <sup>13</sup>will afflict thee no more. And now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will <sup>14</sup>burst thy bonds in sunder. And the LORD hath given commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image; I will make thy grave; for thou <sup>15</sup>art vile. Behold, upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! Keep thy feasts, O Judah, perform thy vows: for <sup>6</sup>the wicked one shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off. <sup>2</sup>He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify <sup>2</sup>thy power mightily. For the LORD bringeth again the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred <sup>3</sup>their vine branches. The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots <sup>7</sup>flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and <sup>4</sup>the spears are shaken terribly. The chariots rage in the streets, they jostle one against another in the broad ways: the appearance of them is like torches, <sup>5</sup>they run like the lightnings. He remembereth his worthies: they stumble in their march; they make haste to the wall thereof, and the mantelet is prepared.

But Nineveh hath been <sup>4</sup> from of old like a pool of water: yet they flee away; Stand, stand, they cry; 9 but none <sup>5</sup> looketh back. Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store, the <sup>10</sup> glory of all pleasant furniture. She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and anguish is in all loins, and the faces of them all are waxed pale.

11 Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion <sup>7</sup> and the lioness walked, the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid? The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with prey, 13 and his dens with ravin. Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

3 Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and rapine; the prey departeth not. 2 The noise of the whip, and the noise of the rattling of wheels; and prancing horses, and jumping chariots; the horseman <sup>8</sup> mounting, and the flashing sword, and the glittering spear; and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of carcases: and there is none end of the corpses; they stumble upon their 4 corpses: because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and 5 families through her witchcrafts. Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will discover thy skirts <sup>9</sup> upon thy face; and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, 6 and the kingdoms thy shame. And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee

7 as a gazingstock. And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste; who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than No-amon, that was situate among the <sup>10</sup> rivers, that had the waters round about her; whose rampart was <sup>11</sup> the sea, and her wall <sup>12</sup> was of the sea? Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and 10 Lubim were thy helpers. Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound 11 in chains. Thou also shalt be drunken, thou shalt be hid; thou also shalt seek <sup>13</sup> a strong hold because of the enemy.

12 All thy fortresses shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. 13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women; the gates of thy land are set wide open unto thine enemies: the 14 fire hath devoured thy bars. Draw thee water for the siege, strengthen thy fortresses: go into the clay, and tread the mortar, <sup>14</sup> make strong the brickkiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall devour thee like the cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself 16 many as the locust. Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm <sup>15</sup> spoileth, and dieth away. Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy <sup>16</sup> marshals as the swarms of grasshoppers, which camp in the <sup>17</sup> hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they 18 are. Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy worthies are at rest: thy people are scattered upon the mountains, and there is none to gather 19 them. There is no assuaging of thy hurt; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee clap the hands over thee; for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

tions, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for <sup>1</sup>I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be 6 told you. For, lo, I raise up the Chal-deans, that bitter and hasty nation; which march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places
7 that are not theirs. <sup>2</sup>They are terrible and dreadful: their judgement and their dignity proceed from themselves.
8 Their horses also are swifter than leop-ards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen <sup>3</sup>spread themselves: yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an 9 eagle that hasteth to devour. They come all of them for violence; <sup>4</sup>their faces are set eagerly <sup>5</sup>as the east wind;
and they gather captives as the sand.
10 <sup>6</sup>Yea, he scoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision unto him: he derideth every strong hold; for he heapeth up 11 dust, and taketh it. <sup>7</sup>Then shall he sweep by as a wind, and shall <sup>8</sup>pass over, and be guilty: even he whose 12 might is his god. Art not thou from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? <sup>9</sup>We shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained him for judgement;
and thou, O <sup>10</sup>Rock, hast established 13 him for correction. Thou that art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and that canst not look on perverseness, wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy peace when the wicked swalloweth up the man that is more righteous 14 than he; and makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that 15 have no ruler over them? He taketh up all of them with the angle, he catcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag: therefore he rejoiceth and 16 is glad. Therefore he sacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by them his portion is 17 fat, and his meat <sup>11</sup>plenteous. Shall he therefore empty his net, and not spare to slay the nations continually?
2 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the <sup>12</sup>tower, and will look forth to see what he will speak
<sup>13</sup>with me, and what I shall answer
2 concerning my complaint. And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.
3 For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it <sup>14</sup>hasteth toward the end, and shall not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it 4 will not delay. Behold, his soul is puffed up, it is not <sup>15</sup>upright in him:
but the just shall live <sup>16</sup>by his faith.
5 <sup>17</sup>Yea, moreover, wine is a treacherous dealer, a haughty man, and <sup>18</sup>that keep-eth not at home; who enlargeth his desire as <sup>19</sup>hell, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him 6 all peoples. Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting <sup>20</sup>proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that ladeth himself 7 with pledges! Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall <sup>21</sup>bite thee, and awake that shall <sup>22</sup>vex thee, and thou 8 shalt be for booties unto them? Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that getteth an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from 10 the hand of evil! Thou hast consulted shame to thy house, by cutting off many peoples, and hast sinned against 11 thy soul. For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.
12 Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by in-13 iquity! Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the peoples labour for the fire, and the nations weary themselves 14 for vanity? For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.
15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that <sup>23</sup>addeth thy <sup>24</sup>venom thereto, and makest him drunken also,
that thou mayest look on their naked-16 ness! Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and <sup>25</sup>be as one uncircumcised: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee,
and foul shame shall be upon thy glory.
17 For the violence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of the beasts, <sup>26</sup>which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.
18 What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven
it; the molten image, and the teacher of lies, that the maker of <sup>27</sup>his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?
19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood,
Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise!
Shall this teach? Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no 20 breath at all in the midst of it. But the LORD is in his holy temple: <sup>28</sup>let all the earth keep silence before him.

 He had <sup>2</sup>rays coming forth <sup>3</sup>from his hand:
 5 And there was the hiding of his power.
 Before him went the pestilence,
 And <sup>4</sup>fiery bolts went forth at his feet.
 6 He stood, and <sup>5</sup>measured the earth;
 He beheld, and drove asunder the nations:
 And the eternal mountains were scattered,
 The everlasting hills did bow;
 6 His goings were as of old.
 7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction:
 The curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.
 8 Was the Lord displeased against the rivers?
 Was thine anger against the rivers,
 Or thy wrath against the sea,
 That thou didst ride upon thine horses,
 Upon thy chariots of salvation?
 9 Thy bow was made quite bare;
 7 The oaths to the tribes were a sure word. [Selah]
 Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.
 10 The mountains saw thee, and <sup>8</sup>were afraid;
 The tempest of waters passed by:
 The deep uttered his voice,
 And lifted up his hands on high.
 11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation;
 At the light of thine arrows as they went,
 At the shining of thy glittering spear.
 12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation,

 13 Thou <sup>9</sup>wentest forth for the salvation of thy people,
 10 For the salvation of thine anointed;
 11 Thou <sup>12</sup>woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked,
 Laying bare the foundation even unto the neck. [Selah]

 They came as a whirlwind to scatter me:
 Their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.
 15 Thou <sup>15</sup>didst tread the sea with thine horses,
 The <sup>16</sup>heap of mighty waters.
 16 I heard, and my belly trembled,
 My lips quivered at the voice;
 Rottenness entered into my bones,
 And I trembled in my place:
 That I should rest <sup>17</sup>in the day of trouble,

 Neither shall fruit be in the vines;
 The labour of the olive shall fail,
 And the fields shall yield no meat;
 The flock shall be cut off from the fold,
 And there shall be no herd in the stalls:

 I will joy in the God of my salvation.

ZEPHANIAH.

- 1 THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.
 2 I will utterly consume all things from off the face of the ground, saith the LORD.
 3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, saith the LORD. And I will stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the <sup>1</sup>Chemarim with the <sup>2</sup>5 priests; and them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship, which swear to the LORD and swear by <sup>3</sup>2 Malcam; and them that are turned back from following the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor inquired after him.

1 See
2 Kings
xxiii. 5,
Hos. x. 5.

2 Or, their king

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath <sup>1</sup>sanctified his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will <sup>2</sup>punish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with foreign apparel. And in that day I will <sup>2</sup>punish all those that leap over the threshold, which fill their master's house with violence and deceit. And in that day, saith the LORD, there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the <sup>3</sup>second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, ye inhabitants of <sup>4</sup>Maktesh, for all <sup>5</sup>the people of Canaan are undone: all they that were laden with silver are cut off. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with <sup>6</sup>candles; and I will <sup>2</sup>punish the men that are <sup>7</sup>settled on their lees, that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil. And their wealth shall become a spoil, and their houses a desolation: yea, they shall build houses, but shall not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD; the mighty man crieth there bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fenced cities, and against the high <sup>8</sup>battlements. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as dung. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make an end, yea, a <sup>9</sup>terrible end, of all them that dwell in the land.

2 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation that hath no <sup>10</sup>shame; before the decree bring forth, <sup>11</sup>before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you. Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgement; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger. For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon-day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of <sup>12</sup>the sea

coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, the land of the Philistines; I will destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant. And the sea coast shall be pastures, with <sup>13</sup>cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed their flocks thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening; for the LORD their God shall visit them, and bring again their captivity. I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, wherewith they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of <sup>14</sup>nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my nation shall inherit them. This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the <sup>15</sup>isles of the nations. Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword. And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like the wilderness. And herds shall lie down in the midst of her, <sup>16</sup>all the beasts of the nations: both the pelican and the porcupine shall lodge in the chapters thereof: their voice shall sing in the windows; <sup>17</sup>desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he hath laid bare the cedar work. This is the joyous city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none else beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

3 Woe to her that is rebellious and polluted, to the oppressing city! She obeyed not the voice; she received not <sup>18</sup>correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God. Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they <sup>19</sup>leave nothing till the morrow.

4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have profaned the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. The LORD in the midst of her is righteous; he will not do iniquity; <sup>20</sup>every morning doth he bring his judgement to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame. are desolate; I have made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant. I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive <sup>1</sup>correction; so her dwelling should not be cut off, <sup>2</sup>according to all that I have appointed concerning her: but they rose early and corrupted all their doings. Therefore wait ye for me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my <sup>3</sup>determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. For then will I turn to the peoples a pure <sup>4</sup>language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one <sup>5</sup>consent. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia <sup>6</sup>my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee <sup>7</sup>thy proudly exulting ones, and thou shalt no more be haughty in my holy mountain. But I will leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD. The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid. Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. The LORD hath taken away thy judgements, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not <sup>8</sup>fear evil any more. In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: <sup>9</sup>O Zion, let not thine hands be slack. The LORD thy God is in the midst of thee, a mighty one who will save: he will rejoice over thee with joy, he will <sup>10</sup>rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing. <sup>11</sup>I will gather them that <sup>12</sup>sorrow for the solemn assembly, who were of thee: <sup>13</sup>to whom the burden upon <sup>14</sup>her was a reproach. Behold, at that time I will deal with all them that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven away; and I will make them a praise and a name, whose shame hath been in all the earth. At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring again your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI.

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, <sup>1</sup>It is not the time for us to come, the time for the LORD's house to be built. Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your cieled houses, while this house lieth waste? Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: <sup>2</sup>Consider your ways. Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: <sup>3</sup>Consider your ways. Go up to the <sup>4</sup>mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD. Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did <sup>4</sup>blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that lieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house. Therefore <sup>5</sup>for your sake the heaven is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands. Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people did fear before the LORD. Then spake Haggai the 15 God, in the four and twentieth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes as nothing? Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you,

5 saith the LORD of hosts, <sup>1</sup>according to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, and my spirit <sup>2</sup>abode among you: fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; and I will shake all nations, and <sup>3</sup>the desirable things of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts. The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that

15 which they offer there is unclean. And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple

16 of the LORD: <sup>4</sup>through all that time, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the winefat for to draw out fifty vessels, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the work of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD. Consider, I pray you, from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it. Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree hath not brought forth; from this day will I bless you.

20 And the word of the LORD came the second time unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying, Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth; and I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every

ZECHARIAH.

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers. Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Return unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Return ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor 5 hearken unto me, saith the LORD. Your fathers, where are they? and the pro-6 phets, do they live for ever? But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets,

did they not overtake your fathers?
and they turned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son 8 of Iddo, the prophet, saying, I saw in the night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the <sup>1</sup> bottom; and behind him there were horses, 9 red, sorrel, and white. Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.
11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold,
all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these 13 threescore and ten years? And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words, even comfort-

14 able words. So the angel that talked with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion 15 with a great jealousy. And I am very sore displeased with the nations that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they <sup>2</sup> helped forward the 16 affliction. Therefore thus saith the LORD: I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies; my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall 17 be stretched forth over Jerusalem. Cry yet again, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: My cities <sup>3</sup> through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw,
19 and behold four horns. And I said unto the angel that talked with me,
What be these? And he answered me,
These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four smiths.
21 Then said I, What come these to do?

And he spake, saying, These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.

2 And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw,
and behold a man with a measuring 2 line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length 3 thereof. And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another 4 angel went out to meet him, and said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall <sup>4</sup> be inhabited as villages without walls, by reason of the multitude of men and cattle therein.

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and I will be 6 the glory in the midst of her. Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the 7 LORD. Ho Zion, escape, thou that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts: <sup>5</sup> After glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth 9 you toucheth the apple of his eye. For, behold, I will shake mine hand over them, and they shall be a spoil to those that served them: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion:
for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the 11 midst of thee, saith the LORD. And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD 12 of hosts hath sent me unto thee. And the LORD shall inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and shall 13 yet choose Jerusalem. Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD: for he is waked up out of his holy habitation.

3 And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and <sup>6</sup> Satan standing at his 2 right hand to be his adversary. And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; yea, the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out 3 of the fire? Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood be-4 fore the angel. And he answered and spoke unto those that stood before him, saying, Take the filthy garments from off him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe 5 thee with rich apparel. And <sup>7</sup> I said, Let them set a fair <sup>8</sup> mitre upon his head.

So they set a fair <sup>8</sup> mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments;

and the angel of the LORD stood by.
 6 And the angel of the LORD protested
 7 unto Joshua, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou also shalt judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee <sup>1</sup>a place of access 8 among these that stand by. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee; for they are men which are a <sup>2</sup>sign: for, behold,
 I will bring forth my servant the 9 <sup>3</sup>Branch. For behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; upon one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the 10 iniquity of that land in one day. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.
 4 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man 2 that is wakened out of his sleep. And he said unto me, What seest thou?
 And I said, I have seen, and behold,
 a candlestick all of gold, with its bowl upon the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; <sup>4</sup>there are seven pipes to each 3 thereof: and two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the 4 other upon the left side thereof. And I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, 5 my lord? Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And 6 I said, No, my lord. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by <sup>5</sup>might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of 7 hosts. Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt be- come a plain: and he shall bring forth the head stone with shoutings of Grace, 8 grace, unto it. Moreover the word of the 9 LORD came unto me, saying, The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto 10 you. For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel, even these seven, which are the eyes of the LORD; they run to 11 and fro through the whole earth. Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon 12 the left side thereof? And I answered the second time, and said unto him,
 What be these two olive branches, <sup>6</sup>which are beside the two golden spouts, that empty <sup>7</sup>the golden oil out 13 of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these 14 be? And I said, No, my lord. Then said he, These are the two sons of oil, that stand by the Lord of the whole

 earth.

5 Then again I lifted up mine eyes, and 2 saw, and behold, a flying roll. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and 3 the breadth thereof ten cubits. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole land: for every one that stealeth shall be purged out <sup>8</sup>on the one side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be purged out <sup>8</sup>on 4 the other side according to it. I will cause it to go forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall abide in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that 6 goeth forth. And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their 7 resemblance in all the land: (and behold, there was lifted up a <sup>10</sup>talent of lead: and this is a woman sitting in 8 the midst of the ephah. And he said,
 This is Wickedness; and he cast her down into the midst of the ephah: and he cast the weight of lead upon the 9 mouth thereof. Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there came forth two women, and the wind was in their wings; now they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and 10 the heaven. Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these 11 bear the ephah? And he said unto me,
 To build her an house in the land of Shinar: and when it is <sup>11</sup>prepared, she shall be set there <sup>12</sup>in her own place.

6 And again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there came four chariots out from between <sup>13</sup>two mountains; and the mountains were mount-2 ains of brass. In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second 3 chariot black horses; and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth 4 chariot grised <sup>14</sup>bay horses. Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my 5 lord? And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four <sup>15</sup>winds of

So they walked to and fro 8 through the earth. Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, they that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 And the word of the LORD came unto 10 me, saying, Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, whither they are

11 come from Babylon; yea, take of them silver and gold, and make <sup>2</sup>crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the

7 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in

2 Chisleu. <sup>9</sup>Now they of Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to intreat the favour of the LORD,

3 and to speak unto the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I <sup>4</sup>have done these so many years? Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto

5 me, saying, Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month, even these seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me,

6 even to me? And when ye eat, and when ye drink, <sup>10</sup>do not ye eat for yourselves,

7 and drink for yourselves? Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?

8 And the word of the LORD came

9 unto Zechariah, saying, Thus hath the LORD of hosts spoken, saying, Execute true judgement, and shew mercy and compassion every man to

10 his brother: and oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your

11 heart. But they refused to hearken, and <sup>11</sup>pulled away the shoulder, and

<sup>12</sup>stopped their ears, that they should

12 not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his spirit by the hand of the former prophets: therefore came there great wrath from

13 the LORD of hosts. And it came to pass that, as he cried, and they would not hear; so they shall cry, and I will

14 not hear, said the LORD of hosts; but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the <sup>13</sup>pleasant land desolate.

8 And the word of the LORD of hosts

2 came to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her

3 with great fury. Thus saith the LORD: I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called The city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts

4 The holy mountain. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: There shall yet old men and old women <sup>14</sup>dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in

5 his hand <sup>15</sup>for very age. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls

6 playing in the streets thereof. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the

7 LORD of hosts. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the

8 west country: and I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in

9 righteousness. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, even the

10 temple, that it might be built. For before those days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the adversary: for I set all men every one against his neigh-

4 horse in the battle. From him shall come forth the corner stone, from him the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every <sup>1</sup>exactor together. And they shall be as mighty men, treading down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them: and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will <sup>2</sup>bring them again, for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and I will hear them. And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and rejoice; their heart shall be glad in the LORD. I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased. <sup>3</sup>And I will sow them among the peoples; and they shall remember me in far countries: and they shall live with their children, and shall return. I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them. And he shall pass through the sea of affliction, and shall smite <sup>4</sup>the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away. And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

11 Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the <sup>2</sup>fire may devour thy cedars. Howl, O fir tree, for the cedar is fallen, because the <sup>5</sup>goodly ones are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan, for the <sup>6</sup>strong forest is come down. A voice of the howling of the shepherds! for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions! for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus said the LORD my God: Feed the <sup>5</sup>flock of slaughter; whose <sup>7</sup>possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich: and <sup>8</sup>their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. So I fed the flock of slaughter, verily <sup>9</sup>the poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called <sup>10</sup>Beauty, and the other I called <sup>11</sup>Bands; and I fed the flock. And I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and <sup>12</sup>that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them which are left eat every one the flesh of another. And I took my staff Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

11 And it was broken in that day: and <sup>13</sup>thus <sup>9</sup>the poor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto me, Cast it <sup>14</sup>unto the potter, the goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them <sup>14</sup>unto the potter, in the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet again the instruments of a foolish shepherd. For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not <sup>15</sup>visit those that be <sup>16</sup>cut off, neither shall seek <sup>17</sup>those that be scattered, nor heal that that is broken; neither shall he feed that which <sup>18</sup>is sound, but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and shall tear their hoofs in pieces. Woe to the worthless shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

12 The <sup>19</sup>burden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

Thus saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him: Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling unto all the peoples round about, and <sup>20</sup>upon Judah also <sup>21</sup>shall it be in the siege against Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be sore wounded; and all the nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness. And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts their God. In that day will I make the chieftains of Judah like a torch of fire among wood, and like a torch of fire

among sheaves; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall yet again dwell in her own place, <sup>7</sup>even in Jerusalem. The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem <sup>8</sup>be not magnified above Judah. In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he <sup>1</sup>that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD <sup>9</sup>before them. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall look unto <sup>2</sup>me whom they have pierced: and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness <sup>11</sup>for his firstborn. In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the <sup>12</sup>valley of Megiddon. And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; <sup>13</sup>the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; <sup>14</sup>all the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart. <sup>13</sup>In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for <sup>2</sup>sin and for uncleanness. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass <sup>3</sup>out of the land. And it shall come to pass that, when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he prophesieth; neither shall they wear <sup>5</sup>a hairy mantle to deceive: but he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a <sup>6</sup>bondman from my youth. And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds between thine <sup>8</sup>arms? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my <sup>4</sup>friends. <sup>7</sup>Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine <sup>8</sup>hand upon the little ones. And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the <sup>9</sup>third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

<sup>14</sup>Behold, a day of the LORD cometh, when thy spoil shall be divided in the <sup>2</sup>midst of thee. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished: and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. <sup>3</sup>Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when <sup>4</sup>he fought in the day of battle. And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of <sup>5</sup>it toward the south. And <sup>5</sup>ye shall flee <sup>6</sup>by the valley of <sup>7</sup>my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azel: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the holy ones with thee. <sup>6</sup>And it shall come to pass in that day, that <sup>8</sup>the light shall not be <sup>9</sup>with <sup>7</sup>brightness and with gloom: but it shall be one day which is known unto the LORD; not day, and not night: but it shall come to pass, that at <sup>8</sup>evening time there shall be light. And it shall come to pass in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter <sup>9</sup>shall it be. And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall the LORD be one, and his name <sup>10</sup>one. All the land shall be turned as the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she shall be lifted up, and shall dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel <sup>11</sup>unto the king's winepresses. And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their sockets, and their tongue shall consume away in 13 their mouth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great <sup>1</sup>tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of 14 his neighbour. And Judah also shall fight <sup>2</sup>against Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in those camps, as this 15 plague. And it shall come to pass, 16 that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. 17 And it shall be, that whoso of all the families of the earth goeth not up unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, upon them there 18 shall be no rain. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, <sup>3</sup>neither shall it be upon them; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. This shall be the <sup>4</sup>punishment of Egypt, and the <sup>4</sup>punishment of all the nations that go not up to keep 19 the feast of tabernacles. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLY UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. 20 21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holy unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and see the therein: and in that day there shall be no more a <sup>5</sup>Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? <sup>3</sup>Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith 3 the LORD: yet I loved Jacob; but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the 4 jackals of the wilderness. <sup>4</sup>Whereas Edom saith, We are <sup>5</sup>beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down: and men shall call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for 5 ever. And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD <sup>6</sup>be magnified <sup>7</sup>beyond the border of Israel.
6 A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?
7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar. And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.
8 And when ye offer the blind for sacrifice, it is no evil! and when ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee? or will he accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, intreat the favour of God, that he may be gracious unto us: this hath been <sup>8</sup>by your means: will he <sup>9</sup>accept any of your persons? saith the LORD of hosts. Oh that there were one among you that would shut the doors, that ye might not kindle fire on mine altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering 11 at your hand. For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name <sup>10</sup>is great among the Gentiles; and in every place <sup>11</sup>incense is offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name <sup>10</sup>is great among the Gentiles, saith the LORD of hosts.
12 But ye profane it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible. Ye say also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye have brought that which was taken by violence, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye bring the offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the 14 LORD. which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a blemished thing: for I am a great king, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is terrible among the Gentiles.

2 And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, then will I send the curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to

3 heart. Behold, I will rebuke <sup>1</sup>the seed for your sake, and will spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your <sup>2</sup>sacrifices; and ye shall be <sup>4</sup>taken away <sup>3</sup>with it. And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear, and he feared me, and stood <sup>6</sup>in awe of my name. The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of <sup>8</sup>the LORD of hosts. But ye are turned aside out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble in the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith <sup>9</sup>the LORD of hosts. Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had respect of persons in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our <sup>11</sup>fathers? Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the <sup>4</sup>holiness of the LORD which he loveth, and hath married the

<sup>12</sup>daughter of a strange god. The LORD will cut off to the man that doeth this him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD

<sup>13</sup>of hosts. And this <sup>5</sup>again ye do: ye cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, inasmuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, neither receiveth it with good

<sup>14</sup>will at your hand. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously, though she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

<sup>15</sup>And did he not make one, although he had the residue of the spirit? And wherefore one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously <sup>16</sup>against the wife of his youth. For <sup>7</sup>I hate putting away, saith the LORD, the God of Israel, and him that covereth his garment with violence, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

<sup>17</sup>Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? In that ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them;

<sup>3</sup>or where is the God of judgement? Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; <sup>8</sup>and the <sup>9</sup>messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in, behold, he cometh, saith the LORD

<sup>2</sup>of hosts. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a <sup>3</sup>refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: and he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver; and they shall offer unto the LORD

<sup>4</sup>offerings in righteousness. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days

<sup>5</sup>of old, and as in ancient years. And I will come near to you to judgement; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the <sup>6</sup>LORD of hosts. For I the LORD change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

<sup>7</sup>From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye say, Wherein shall <sup>8</sup>we return? Will a man rob God? yet ye rob me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and <sup>10</sup>offerings.

<sup>9</sup>Ye are cursed with the curse; for ye <sup>10</sup>rob me, even this whole nation. Bring ye the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room <sup>11</sup>enough to receive it. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith

<sup>12</sup>the LORD of hosts. And all nations shall call you happy: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the LORD of hosts.

 14 in have we spoken against thee? Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked 15 mournfully before the LORD of hosts? And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are built up; yea, they tempt God, and are de-
 16 livered. Then they that feared the LORD spake one with another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the LORD, 17 and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in the day <sup>2</sup> that I <sup>3</sup> do make, even a peculiar treasure; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that 18 serveth him. Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God

a furnace; and all the proud, and all that work wickedness, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor

 3 of the stall. And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I <sup>3</sup> do make, saith the LORD of hosts.
 4 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes

PREFACE.

THE English Version of the New Testament here presented to the reader is a Revision of the Translation published in the year of Our Lord 1611, and commonly known by the name of the Authorised Version.

That Translation was the work of many hands and of several generations. The foundation was laid by William Tyndale. His translation of the New Testament was the true primary Version. The Versions that followed were either substantially reproductions of Tyndale's translation in its final shape, or revisions of Versions that had been themselves almost entirely based on it. Three successive stages may be recognised in this continuous work of authoritative revision: first, the publication of the Great Bible of 1539-41 in the reign of Henry VIII; next, the publication of the Bishops' Bible of 1568 and 1572 in the reign of Elizabeth; and lastly, the publication of the King's Bible of 1611 in the reign of James I. Besides these, the Genevan Version of 1560, itself founded on Tyndale's translation, must here be named; which, though not put forth by authority, was widely circulated in this country, and largely used by King James' Translators. Thus the form in which the English New Testament has now been read for 270 years was the result of various revisions made between 1525 and 1611; and the present Revision is an attempt, after a long interval, to follow the example set by a succession of honoured predecessors.

I. Of the many points of interest connected with the Translation of 1611, two require special notice; first, the Greek Text which it appears to have represented; and secondly, the character of the Translation itself.

1. With regard to the Greek Text, it would appear that, if to some extent the Translators exercised an independent judgement, it was mainly in choosing amongst readings contained in the principal editions of the Greek Text that had appeared in the sixteenth century. Wherever they seem to have followed a reading which is not found in any of those editions, their rendering may probably be traced to the Latin Vulgate. Their chief guides appear to have been the later editions of Stephanus and of Beza, and also, to a certain extent, the Complutensian Polyglott. All these were founded for the most part on manuscripts of late date, few in number, and used with little critical skill. But in those days it could hardly have been otherwise. Nearly all the more ancient of the documentary authorities have become known only within the last two centuries; some of the most important of them, indeed, within the last few years. Their publication has called forth not only improved editions of the Greek Text, but a succession of instructive discussions on the variations which have been brought to light, and on the best modes of distinguishing original readings from changes introduced in the course of transcription. While therefore it has long been the opinion of all scholars that the commonly received text needed thorough revision, it is but recently that materials have been acquired for executing such a work with even approximate completeness.

2. The character of the Translation itself will be best estimated by considering the leading rules under which it was made, and the extent to which these rules appear to have been observed.

The primary and fundamental rule was expressed in the following terms :—‘The ordinary Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops’ Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the truth of the Original will permit.’ There was, however, this subsequent provision :—‘These translations to be used, when they agree better with the text than the Bishops’ Bible : Tindale’s, Matthew’s, Coverdale’s, Whitchurch’s, Geneva.’ The first of these rules, which was substantially the same as that laid down at the revision of the Great Bible in the reign of Elizabeth, was strictly observed. The other rule was but partially followed. The Translators made much use of the Genevan Version. They do not however appear to have frequently returned to the renderings of the other Versions named in the rule, where those Versions differed from the Bishops’ Bible. On the other hand, their work shews evident traces of the influence of a Version not specified in the rules, the Rhemish, made from the Latin Vulgate, but by scholars conversant with the Greek Original.

Another rule, on which it is stated that those in authority laid great stress, related to the rendering of words that admitted of different interpretations. It was as follows :—‘When a word hath divers significations, that to be kept which hath been most commonly used by the most of the ancient fathers, being agreeable to the propriety of the place and the analogy of the faith.’ With this rule was associated the following, on which equal stress appears to have been laid :—‘The old ecclesiastical words to be kept, viz. the word Church not to be translated Congregation, &c.’ This latter rule was for the most part carefully observed ; but it may be doubted whether, in the case of words that admitted of different meanings, the instructions were at all closely followed. In dealing with the more difficult words of this class, the Translators appear to have paid much regard to traditional interpretations, and especially to the authority of the Vulgate ; but, as to the large residue of words which might properly fall under the rule, they used considerable freedom. Moreover they profess in their Preface to have studiously adopted a variety of expression which would now be deemed hardly consistent with the requirements of faithful translation. They seem to have been guided by the feeling that their Version would secure for the words they used a lasting place in the language ; and they express a fear lest they should ‘be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words,’ which, without this liberty on their part, would not have a place in the pages of the English Bible. Still it cannot be doubted that they carried this liberty too far, and that the studied avoidance of uniformity in the rendering of the same words, even when occurring in the same context, is one of the blemishes in their work.

A third leading rule was of a negative character, but was rendered necessary by the experience derived from former Versions. The words of the rule are as follows :—‘No marginal notes at all to be affixed, but only for the explanation of the Hebrew or Greek words which cannot without some circumlocution so briefly and fitly be expressed in the text.’ Here again the Translators used some liberty in their application of the rule. Out of more than 760 marginal notes originally appended to the Authorised Version of the New Testament, only a seventh part consists of explanations or literal renderings ; the great majority of the notes being devoted to the useful and indeed necessary purpose of placing before the reader alternative renderings which it was judged that the passage or the words would fairly admit. The notes referring to variations in the Greek Text amount to about thirty-five.

Of the remaining rules it may be sufficient to notice one, which was for the most part consistently followed:—‘The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.’ The Translators had also the liberty, in ‘any place of special obscurity,’ to consult those who might be qualified to give an opinion.

Passing from these fundamental rules, which should be borne in mind by any one who would rightly understand the nature and character of the Authorised Version, we must call attention to the manner in which the actual work of the translation was carried on. The New Testament was assigned to two separate Companies, the one consisting of eight members, sitting at Oxford, the other consisting of seven members, sitting at Westminster. There is no reason to believe that these Companies ever sat together. They communicated to each other, and likewise to the four Companies to which the Old Testament and the Apocrypha had been committed, the results of their labours; and perhaps afterwards reconsidered them: but the fact that the New Testament was divided between two separate bodies of men involved a grave inconvenience, and was beyond all doubt the cause of many inconsistencies. These probably would have been much more serious, had it not been provided that there should be a final supervision of the whole Bible, by selected members from Oxford, Cambridge, and Westminster, the three centres at which the work had been carried on. These supervisors are said by one authority to have been six in number, and by another twelve. When it is remembered that this supervision was completed in nine months, we may wonder that the incongruities which remain are not more numerous.

The Companies appear to have been occupied in the actual business of revision about two years and three quarters.

Such, so far as can be gathered from the rules and modes of procedure, is the character of the time-honoured Version which we have been called upon to revise. We have had to study this great Version carefully and minutely, line by line; and the longer we have been engaged upon it the more we have learned to admire its simplicity, its dignity, its power, its happy turns of expression, its general accuracy, and, we must not fail to add, the music of its cadences, and the felicities of its rhythm. To render a work that had reached this high standard of excellence still more excellent, to increase its fidelity without destroying its charm, was the task committed to us. Of that task, and of the conditions under which we have attempted its fulfilment, it will now be necessary for us to speak.

II. The present Revision had its origin in action taken by the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury in February 1870, and it has been conducted throughout on the plan laid down in Resolutions of both Houses of the Province, and, more particularly, in accordance with Principles and Rules drawn up by a special Committee of Convocation in the following May. Two Companies, the one for the revision of the Authorised Version of the Old Testament, and the other for the revision of the same Version of the New Testament, were formed in the manner specified in the Resolutions, and the work was commenced on the twenty-second day of June 1870. Shortly afterwards, steps were taken, under a resolution passed by both Houses of Convocation, for inviting the co-operation of American scholars; and eventually two Committees were formed in America, for the purpose of acting with the two English Companies, on the basis of the Principles and Rules drawn up by the Committee of Convocation.

The fundamental Resolutions adopted by the Convocation of Canterbury on the third and fifth days of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. That it is desirable that a revision of the Authorised Version of the Holy Scriptures be undertaken.

'2. That the revision be so conducted as to comprise both marginal renderings and such emendations as it may be found necessary to insert in the text of the Authorised Version.

'3. That in the above resolutions we do not contemplate any new translation of the Bible, or any alteration of the language, except where in the judgement of the most competent scholars such change is necessary.

'4. That in such necessary changes, the style of the language employed in the existing Version be closely followed.

'5. That it is desirable that Convocation should nominate a body of its own members to undertake the work of revision, who shall be at liberty to invite the co-operation of any eminent for scholarship, to whatever nation or religious body they may belong.'

The Principles and Rules agreed to by the Committee of Convocation on the twenty-fifth day of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.

'3. Each Company to go twice over the portion to be revised, once provisionally, the second time finally, and on principles of voting as hereinafter is provided.

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.

'5. To make or retain no change in the Text on the second final revision by each Company, except two thirds of those present approve of the same, but on the first revision to decide by simple majorities.

'6. In every case of proposed alteration that may have given rise to discussion, to defer the voting thereupon till the next Meeting, whensoever the same shall be required by one third of those present at the Meeting, such intended vote to be announced in the notice for the next Meeting.

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.

'8. To refer, on the part of each Company, when considered desirable, to Divines, Scholars, and Literary Men, whether at home or abroad, for their opinions.'

These rules it has been our endeavour faithfully and consistently to follow. One only of them we found ourselves unable to observe in all particulars. In accordance with the seventh rule, we have carefully revised the paragraphs, italics, and punctuation. But the revision of the headings of chapters and pages would have involved so much of indirect, and indeed frequently of direct interpretation, that we judged it best to omit them altogether.

Our communications with the American Committee have been of the following nature. We transmitted to them from time to time each several portion of our First Revision, and received from them in return their criticisms and suggestions. These we considered with much care and attention during the time we were engaged on our Second Revision. We then sent over to them the various portions of the Second Revision as they were completed, and received further suggestions, which, like the former, were closely and carefully considered. Last of all, we forwarded to them the Revised Version in its final form; and a list of those passages in which they desire to place on record their preference of other readings and renderings will be found at the end of the volume. We gratefully acknowledge their care, vigilance, and accuracy; and we humbly pray that their labours and our own, thus happily united, may be permitted to bear a blessing to both countries, and to all English-speaking people throughout the world.

The whole time devoted to the work has been ten years and a half. The First Revision occupied about six years; the Second, about two years and a half. The remaining time has been spent in the consideration of the suggestions from America on the Second Revision, and of many details and reserved questions arising out of our own labours. As a rule, a session of four days has been held every month (with the exception of August and September) in each year from the commencement of the work in June 1870. The average attendance for the whole time has been sixteen each day; the whole Company consisting at first of twenty-seven, but for the greater part of the time of twenty-four members, many of them residing at great distances from London. Of the original number four have been removed from us by death.

At an early stage in our labours, we entered into an agreement with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge for the conveyance to them of our copyright in the work. This arrangement provided for the necessary expenses of the undertaking; and procured for the Revised Version the advantage of being published by Bodies long connected with the publication of the Authorised Version.

III. We now pass onward to give a brief account of the particulars of the present work. This we propose to do under the four heads of Text, Translation, Language, and Marginal Notes.

1. A revision of the Greek text was the necessary foundation of our work; but it did not fall within our province to construct a continuous and complete Greek text. In many cases the English rendering was considered to represent correctly either of two competing readings in the Greek, and then the question of the text was usually not raised. A sufficiently laborious task remained in deciding between the rival claims of various readings which might properly affect the translation. When these were adjusted, our deviations from the text presumed to underlie the Authorised Version had next to be indicated, in accordance with the fourth rule; but it proved inconvenient to record them in the margin. A better mode however of giving them publicity has been found, as the University Presses have undertaken to print them in connexion with complete Greek texts of the New Testament.

In regard of the readings thus approved, it may be observed that the fourth rule, by requiring that 'the text to be adopted' should be 'that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating,' was in effect an instruction to follow the authority of documentary evidence without deference to any printed text of modern times, and therefore to employ the best resources of criticism for estimating the value of evidence. Textual criticism, as applied to the Greek New Testament, forms a special study of much intricacy and difficulty, and even now leaves room for considerable variety of opinion among competent critics. Different schools of criticism have been represented among us, and have together contributed to the final result. In the early part of the work every various reading requiring consideration was discussed and voted on by the Company. After a time the precedents thus established enabled the process to be safely shortened; but it was still at the option of every one to raise a full discussion on any particular reading, and the option was freely used. On the first revision, in accordance with the fifth rule, the decisions were arrived at by simple majorities. On the second revision, at which a majority of two thirds was required to retain or introduce a reading at variance with the reading presumed to underlie the Authorised Version, many readings previously adopted were brought again into debate, and either re-affirmed or set aside.

Many places still remain in which, for the present, it would not be safe to accept one reading to the absolute exclusion of others. In these cases we have given alternative readings in the margin, wherever they seem to be of sufficient importance or interest to deserve notice. In the introductory formula, the phrases 'many ancient authorities,' 'some ancient authorities,' are used with some latitude to denote a greater or lesser proportion of those authorities which have a distinctive right to be called ancient. These ancient authorities comprise not only Greek manuscripts, some of which were written in the fourth and fifth centuries, but versions of a still earlier date in different languages, and also quotations by Christian writers of the second and following centuries.

2. We pass now from the Text to the Translation. The character of the Revision was determined for us from the outset by the first rule, 'to introduce as few alterations as possible, consistently with faithfulness.' Our task was revision, not re-translation.

In the application however of this principle to the many and intricate details of our work, we have found ourselves constrained by faithfulness to introduce changes which might not at first sight appear to be included under the rule.

The alterations which we have made in the Authorised Version may be roughly grouped in five principal classes. First, alterations positively required by change of reading in the Greek Text. Secondly, alterations made where the Authorised Version appeared either to be incorrect, or to have chosen the less probable of two possible renderings. Thirdly, alterations of obscure or ambiguous renderings into such as are clear and express in their import. For it has been our principle not to leave any translation, or any arrangement of words, which could adapt itself to one or other of two interpretations, but rather to express as plainly as was possible that interpretation which seemed best to deserve a place in the text, and to put the other in the margin.

There remain yet two other classes of alterations which we have felt to be required by the same principle of faithfulness. These are,—Fourthly, alterations of the Authorised Version in cases where it was inconsistent with itself in the rendering of two or more passages confessedly alike or parallel. Fifthly, alterations rendered necessary by consequence, that is, arising out of changes already made, though not in themselves required by the general rule of faithfulness. Both these classes of alterations call for some further explanation.

The frequent inconsistencies in the Authorised Version have caused us much embarrassment from the fact already referred to, namely, that a studied variety of rendering, even in the same chapter and context, was a kind of principle with our predecessors, and was defended by them on grounds that have been mentioned above. The problem we had to solve was to discriminate between varieties of rendering which were compatible with fidelity to the true meaning of the text, and varieties which involved inconsistency, and were suggestive of differences that had no existence in the Greek. This problem we have solved to the best of our power, and for the most part in the following way.

Where there was a doubt as to the exact shade of meaning, we have looked to the context for guidance. If the meaning was fairly expressed by the word or phrase that was before us in the Authorised Version, we made no change, even where rigid adherence to the rule of translating, as far as possible, the same Greek word by the same English word might have prescribed some modification.

There are however numerous passages in the Authorised Version in which, whether regard be had to the recurrence (as in the first three Gospels) of identical clauses and sentences, to the repetition of the same word in the same passage, or to the characteristic use of particular words by the same writer, the studied variety adopted by the Translators of 1611 has produced a degree of inconsistency that cannot be reconciled with the principle of faithfulness. In such cases we have not hesitated to introduce alterations, even though the sense might not seem to the general reader to be materially affected.

The last class of alterations is that which we have described as rendered necessary by consequence; that is, by reason of some foregoing alteration. The cases in which these consequential changes have been found necessary are numerous and of very different kinds. Sometimes the change has been made to avoid tautology; sometimes to obviate an unpleasing alliteration or some other infelicity of sound; sometimes, in the case of smaller words, to preserve the familiar rhythm; sometimes for a convergence of reasons which, when explained, would at once be accepted, but until so explained might never be surmised even by intelligent readers.

This may be made plain by an example. When a particular word is found to recur with characteristic frequency in any one of the Sacred Writers, it is obviously desirable to adopt for it some uniform rendering. Again, where, as in the case of the first three Evangelists, precisely the same clauses or sentences are found in more than one of the Gospels, it is no less necessary to translate them in every place in the same way. These two principles may be illustrated by reference to a word that perpetually recurs in St. Mark's Gospel, and that may be translated either 'straightway,' 'forthwith,' or 'immediately.' Let it be supposed that the first rendering is chosen, and that the word, in accordance with the first of the above principles, is in that Gospel uniformly translated 'straightway.' Let it be further supposed that one of the passages of St. Mark in which it is so translated is found, word for word, in one of the other Gospels, but that there the rendering of the Authorised Version happens to be 'forthwith' or 'immediately.' That rendering must be changed on the second of the above principles; and yet such a change would not have been made but for this concurrence of two sound principles, and the consequent necessity of making a change on grounds extraneous to the passage itself.

This is but one of many instances of consequential alterations which might at first sight appear unnecessary, but which nevertheless have been deliberately made, and are not at variance with the rule of introducing as few changes in the Authorised Version as faithfulness would allow.

There are some other points of detail which it may be here convenient to notice. One of these, and perhaps the most important, is the rendering of the Greek aorist. There are numerous cases, especially in connexion with particles ordinarily expressive of present time, in which the use of the indefinite past tense in Greek and English is altogether different; and in such instances we have not attempted to violate the idiom of our language by forms of expression which it could not bear. But we have often ventured to represent the Greek aorist by the English preterite, even where the reader may find some passing difficulty in such a rendering, because we have felt convinced that the true meaning of the original was obscured by the presence of the familiar auxiliary. A remarkable illustration may be found in the seventeenth chapter of St. John's Gospel, where the combination of the aorist and the perfect shews, beyond all reasonable doubt, that different relations of time were intended to be expressed.

Changes of translation will also be found in connexion with the aorist participle, arising from the fact that the usual periphrasis of this participle in the Vulgate, which was rendered necessary by Latin idiom, has been largely reproduced in the Authorised Version by 'when' with the past tense (as for example in the second chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel), even where the ordinary participial rendering would have been easier and more natural in English.

In reference to the perfect and the imperfect tenses but little needs to be said. The correct translation of the former has been for the most part, though with some striking exceptions, maintained in the Authorised Version: while with regard to the imperfect, clear as its meaning may be in the Greek, the power of expressing it is so limited in English, that we have been frequently compelled to leave the force of the tense to be inferred from the context. In a few instances, where faithfulness imperatively required it, and especially where, in the Greek, the significance of the imperfect tense seemed to be additionally marked by the use of the participle with the auxiliary verb, we have introduced the corresponding form in English. Still, in the great majority of cases we have been obliged to retain the English preterite, and to rely either on slight changes in the order of the words, or on prominence given to the accompanying temporal particles, for the indication of the meaning which, in the Greek, the imperfect tense was designed to convey.

On other points of grammar it may be sufficient to speak more briefly.

Many changes, as might be anticipated, have been made in the case of the definite article. Here again it was necessary to consider the peculiarities of English idiom, as well as the general tenor of each passage. Sometimes we have felt it enough to prefix the article to the first of a series of words to all of which it is prefixed in the Greek, and thus, as it were, to impart the idea of definiteness to the whole series, without running the risk of overloading the sentence. Sometimes, conversely, we have had to tolerate the presence of the definite article in our Version, when it is absent from the Greek, and perhaps not even grammatically latent; simply because English idiom would not allow the noun to stand alone, and because the introduction of the indefinite article might have introduced an idea of oneness or individuality, which was not in any degree traceable in the original. In a word, we have been careful to observe the use of the article wherever it seemed to be idiomatically possible: where it did not seem to be possible, we have yielded to necessity.

As to the pronouns and the place they occupy in the sentence, a subject often overlooked by our predecessors, we have been particularly careful; but here again we have frequently been baffled by structural or idiomatic peculiarities of the English language which precluded changes otherwise desirable.

In the case of the particles we have met with less difficulty, and have been able to maintain a reasonable amount of consistency. The particles in the Greek Testament are, as is well known, comparatively few, and they are commonly used with precision. It has therefore been the more necessary here to preserve a general uniformity of rendering, especially in the case of the particles of causality and inference, so far as English idiom would allow.

Lastly, many changes have been introduced in the rendering of the prepositions, especially where ideas of instrumentality or of mediate agency, distinctly marked in the original, had been confused or obscured in the translation. We have however borne in mind the comprehensive character of such prepositions as 'of' and 'by,' the one in reference to agency and the other in reference to means, especially in the English of the seventeenth century; and have rarely made any change where the true meaning of the original as expressed in the Authorised Version would be apparent to a reader of ordinary intelligence.

3. We now come to the subject of Language.

The second of the rules, by which the work has been governed, prescribed that the alterations to be introduced should be expressed, as far as possible, in the language of the Authorised Version or of the Versions that preceded it.

To this rule we have faithfully adhered. We have habitually consulted the earlier Versions; and in our sparing introduction of words not found in them or in the Authorised Version we have usually satisfied ourselves that such words were employed by standard writers of nearly the same date, and had also that general hue which justified their introduction into a Version which has held the highest place in the classical literature of our language. We have never removed any archaisms, whether in structure or in words, except where we were persuaded either that the meaning of the words was not generally understood, or that the nature of the expression led to some misconception of the true sense of the passage. The frequent inversions of the strict order of the words, which add much to the strength and variety of the Authorised Version, and give an archaic colour to many felicities of diction, have been seldom modified. Indeed, we have often adopted the same arrangement in our own alterations; and in this, as in other particulars, we have sought to assimilate the new work to the old.

In a few exceptional cases we have failed to find any word in the older stratum of our language that appeared to convey the precise meaning of the original. There, and there only, we have used words of a later date; but not without having first assured ourselves that they are to be found in the writings of the best authors of the period to which they belong.

In regard of Proper Names no rule was prescribed to us. In the case of names of frequent occurrence we have deemed it best to follow generally the rule laid down for our predecessors. That rule, it may be remembered, was to this effect, 'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as high as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' Some difficulty has been felt in dealing with names less familiarly known. Here our general practice has been to follow the Greek form of names, except in the case of persons and places mentioned in the Old Testament: in this case we have followed the Hebrew.

4. The subject of the Marginal Notes deserves special attention. They represent the results of a large amount of careful and elaborate discussion, and will, perhaps, by their very presence, indicate to some extent the intricacy of many of the questions that have almost daily come before us for decision. These Notes fall into four main groups: first, notes specifying such differences of reading as were judged to be of sufficient importance to require a particular notice; secondly, notes indicating the exact rendering of words to which, for the sake of English idiom, we were obliged to give a less exact rendering in the text; thirdly, notes, very few in number, affording some explanation which the original appeared to require; fourthly, alternative renderings in difficult or debateable passages. The notes of this last group are numerous, and largely in excess of those which were admitted by our predecessors. In the 270 years that have passed away since their labours were concluded, the Sacred Text has been minutely examined, discussed in every detail, and analysed with a grammatical precision unknown in the days of the last Revision. There has thus been accumulated a large amount of materials that have prepared the way for different renderings, which necessarily came under discussion. We have therefore placed before the reader in the margin other renderings than those which were adopted in the text, wherever such renderings seemed to deserve consideration. The rendering in the text, where it agrees with the Authorised Version, was supported by at least one third, and, where it differs from the Authorised Version, by at least two thirds of those who were present at the second revision of the passage in question.

A few supplementary matters have yet to be mentioned. These may be thus enumerated,—the use of Italics, the arrangement in Paragraphs, the mode of printing Quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament, the Punctuation, and, last of all, the Titles of the different Books that make up the New Testament,—all of them particulars on which it seems desirable to add a few explanatory remarks.

(a) The determination, in each place, of the words to be printed in italics has not been by any means easy; nor can we hope to be found in all cases perfectly consistent. In the earliest editions of the Authorised Version the use of a different type to indicate supplementary words not contained in the original was not very frequent, and cannot easily be reconciled with any settled principle. A review of the words so printed was made, after a lapse of some years, for the editions of the Authorised Version published at Cambridge in 1629 and 1638. Further, though slight, modifications were introduced at intervals between 1638 and the more systematic revisions undertaken respectively by Dr. Paris in the Cambridge Edition of 1762, and by Dr. Blayney in the Oxford Edition of 1769. None of them however rest on any higher authority than that of the persons who from time to time superintended the publication. The last attempt to bring the use of italics into uniformity and consistency was made by Dr. Scrivener in the Paragraph Bible published at Cambridge in 1870-73. In succeeding to these labours, we have acted on the general principle of printing in italics words which did not appear to be necessarily involved in the Greek. Our tendency has been to diminish rather than to increase the amount of italic printing; though, in the case of difference of readings, we have usually marked the absence of any words in the original which the sense might nevertheless require to be present in the Version; and again, in the case of inserted pronouns, where the reference did not appear to be perfectly certain, we have similarly had recourse to italics. Some of these cases, especially when there are slight differences of reading, are of singular intricacy, and make it impossible to maintain rigid uniformity.

(b) We have arranged the Sacred Text in paragraphs, after the precedent of the earliest English Versions, so as to assist the general reader in following the current of narrative or argument. The present arrangement will be found, we trust, to have preserved the due mean between a system of long portions which must often include several separate topics, and a system of frequent breaks which, though they may correctly indicate the separate movements of thought in the writer, often seriously impede a just perception of the true continuity of the passage. The traditional division into chapters, which the Authorised Version inherited from Latin Bibles of the later middle ages, is an illustration of the former method. These paragraphs, for such in fact they are, frequently include several distinct subjects. Moreover they sometimes, though rarely, end where there is no sufficient break in the sense. The division of chapters into verses, which was introduced into the New Testament for the first time in 1551, is an exaggeration of the latter method, with its accompanying inconveniences. The serious obstacles to the right understanding of Holy Scripture, which are interposed by minute subdivision, are often overlooked; but if any one will consider for a moment the injurious effect that would be produced by breaking up a portion of some great standard work into separate verses, he will at once perceive how necessary has been an alteration in this particular. The arrangement by chapters and verses undoubtedly affords facilities for reference; but this advantage we have been able to retain by placing the numerals on the inside margin of each page.

(c) A few words will suffice as to the mode of printing quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament. Wherever the quotation extends to two or more lines, our practice has been to recognise the parallelism of their structure by arranging the lines in a manner that appears to agree with the metrical divisions of the Hebrew original. Such an arrangement will be found helpful to the reader; not only as directing his attention to the poetical character of the quotation, but as also tending to make its force and pertinence more fully felt. We have treated in the same way the hymns in the first two chapters of the Gospel according to St. Luke.

(d) Great care has been bestowed on the punctuation. Our practice has been to maintain what is sometimes called the heavier system of stopping, or, in other words, that system which, especially for convenience in reading aloud, suggests such pauses as will best ensure a clear and intelligent setting forth of the true meaning of the words. This course has rendered necessary, especially in the Epistles, a larger use of colons and semicolons than is customary in modern English printing.

(e) We may in the last place notice one particular to which we were not expressly directed to extend our revision, namely, the titles of the Books of the New Testament. These titles are no part of the original text; and the titles found in the most ancient manuscripts are of too short a form to be convenient for use. Under these circumstances, we have deemed it best to leave unchanged the titles which are given in the Authorised Version as printed in 1611.

We now conclude, humbly commending our labours to Almighty God, and praying that his favour and blessing may be vouchsafed to that which has been done in his name. We recognised from the first the responsibility of the undertaking; and through our manifold experience of its abounding difficulties we have felt more and more, as we went onward, that such a work can never be accomplished by organised efforts of scholarship and criticism, unless assisted by Divine help.

We know full well that defects must have their place in a work so long and so arduous as this which has now come to an end. Blemishes and imperfections there are in the noble Translation which we have been called upon to revise; blemishes and imperfections will assuredly be found in our own Revision. All endeavours to translate the Holy Scriptures into another tongue must fall short of their aim, when the obligation is imposed of producing a Version that shall be alike literal and idiomatic, faithful to each thought of the original, and yet, in the expression of it, harmonious and free. While we dare to hope that in places not a few of the New Testament the introduction of slight changes has cast a new light upon much that was difficult and obscure, we cannot forget how often we have failed in expressing some finer shade of meaning which we recognised in the original, how often idiom has stood in the way of a perfect rendering, and how often the attempt to preserve a familiar form of words, or even a familiar cadence, has only added another perplexity to those which already beset us.

Thus, in the review of the work which we have been permitted to complete, our closing words must be words of mingled thanksgiving, humility, and prayer. Of thanksgiving, for the many blessings vouchsafed to us throughout the unbroken progress of our corporate labours; of humility, for our failings and imperfections in the fulfilment of our task; and of prayer to Almighty God, that the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may be more clearly and more freshly shewn forth to all who shall be readers of this Book.

THE GOSPEL

ACCORDING TO

S. MATTHEW.

- 1 <sup>1</sup>Or, The genealogy of Jesus Christ birth: as in ver. 18. <sup>1</sup>THE book of the <sup>2</sup>generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.
- 2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and 3 his brethren; and Judah begat Perez and Zerah of Tamar; and Perez begat 4 Hezron; and Hezron begat <sup>3</sup>Ram; and <sup>3</sup>Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon 5 begat Salmon; and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of 6 Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; and Jesse begat David the king.
- And David begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Uriah; and Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat <sup>4</sup>Asa; 8 and <sup>4</sup>Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Uzziah; and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz 10 begat Hezekiah; and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat <sup>5</sup>A- 11 mon; and <sup>5</sup>Amon begat Josiah; and Josiah begat Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon.
- 12 And after the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon, Jechoniah begat <sup>7</sup>Shealtiel; and 13 <sup>7</sup>Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat 14 Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat 15 Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; 16 and Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.
- 17 So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations.
- 18 Now the <sup>8</sup>birth <sup>9</sup>of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found with 19 child of the <sup>10</sup>Holy Ghost. And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away 20 privily. But when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is <sup>11</sup>conceived in her is of the 21 Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for it is he that shall save his 22 people from their sins. Now all this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,
- 23 Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, And they shall call his name <sup>12</sup>Immanuel; which is, being interpreted, God with 24 us. And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his 25 wife; and knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and he called his name Jesus.
- 2 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, <sup>13</sup>wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, <sup>14</sup>Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are 3 come to worship him. And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and 4 all Jerusalem with him. And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where 5 the Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written <sup>15</sup>by the prophet,
- 6 And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah: For out of thee shall come forth a governor, Which shall be shepherd of my people Israel.
- 7 Then Herod privily called the <sup>13</sup>wise men, and learned of them carefully 8 <sup>16</sup>what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may 9 come and worship him. And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. 10 And when they saw the star, they re- 11 joiced with exceeding great joy. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and 12 frankincense and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed unto their own country another way.

13 Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young

14 child to destroy him. And he arose and took the young child and his mother by 15 night, and departed into Egypt; and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

16 Out of Egypt did I call my son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the <sup>1</sup>wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the <sup>1</sup>wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken <sup>2</sup>by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

18 A voice was heard in Ramah, Weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream

20 to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's

21 life. And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into 22 the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being

23 warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, and came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>2</sup>by the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

3 And in those days cometh John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judæa, saying, Repent ye; for the 3 kingdom of heaven is at hand. For this is he that was spoken of <sup>2</sup>by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Make ye ready the way of the Lord, Make his paths straight.

4 Now John himself had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then went out unto him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said unto them, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from

8 the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of <sup>8</sup>repentance: and think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And even now is the axe laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you <sup>4</sup>with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not <sup>6</sup>worthy to bear: he shall baptize you <sup>4</sup>with the Holy Ghost and 12 with fire: whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized 14 of him. But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer <sup>6</sup>it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then

16 he suffereth him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened <sup>7</sup>unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a 17 dove, and coming upon him; and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying,

<sup>8</sup>This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

4 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted

40 days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones be-

4 come <sup>9</sup>bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him into the holy city; and he set him on the <sup>10</sup> pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:

And on their hands they shall bear thee up,

Least haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, Thou shalt not tempt the

8 Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the

Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou 11 serve. Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 Now when he heard that John was de- 13 livered up, he withdrew into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali: 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>1</sup>by Isaiah the prophet, saying, 15 The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,

18 And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left the nets, and 21 followed him. And going on from thence he saw other two brethren, <sup>4</sup>James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called 22 them. 3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 4 <sup>8</sup>Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

<sup>8</sup> Some ancient authorities trans- pose ver. 4 and 5.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.

10 Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trod-

14 den under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot

15 be hid. Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are 16 in the house. Even so let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not to de-

18 stroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be ac-

19 complished. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom

20 of heaven. For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in dan-

22 ger of the judgement: but I say unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother <sup>9</sup>shall be in danger of the judgement; and whosoever shall say to his brother, <sup>10</sup>Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say,

23 <sup>13</sup>hell of fire. If therefore thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there re-

memberest that thy brother hath aught 24 against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come

25 and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge <sup>14</sup>deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast 26 into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.

<sup>10</sup> An expression of contempt.

27 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery: but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not 30 thy whole body be cast into <sup>1</sup>hell. And if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body go into <sup>1</sup>hell. It was said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce-ment: but I say unto you, that every one that putteth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when she is put away committeth adultery.

33 Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: but I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is the throne of God; nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor <sup>2</sup>by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not 37 make one hair white or black. <sup>3</sup>But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and whatsoever is more than these is of <sup>4</sup>the evil one.

38 Ye have heard that it was said, An eye 39 for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: but I say unto you, Resist not <sup>5</sup>him that is evil: but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40 And if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him 41 have thy cloke also. And whosoever shall <sup>6</sup>compel thee to go one mile, 42 go with him twain. Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and 44 hate thine enemy: but I say unto you, Love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; that ye may be sons of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the <sup>7</sup>publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the 48 Gentiles the same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6 Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father which is in heaven.

2 When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have 3 received their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know 4 what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

5 And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They 6 have received their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in 7 secret shall recompense thee. And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not therefore like unto them: for <sup>8</sup>your Father knoweth what things ye 9 have need of, before ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed 10 be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.

11 Give us this day <sup>9</sup>our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have 13 given our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from 14 <sup>10</sup>the evil one.<sup>11</sup> For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father 15 will also forgive you. But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, 18 noint thy head, and wash thy face: that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust doth consume, and where thieves <sup>12</sup>break 20 through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not <sup>12</sup>break through 21 nor steal: for where thy treasure is, 22 there will thy heart be also. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be 23 full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!

24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God 25 and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and 26 the body than the raiment? Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more 27 value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit 28 unto his <sup>1</sup> stature? And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed 30 like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more 31 clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be 32 clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have 33 need of all these things. But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall 34 be added unto you. Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

7 Judge not, that ye be not judged. 2 For with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured 3 unto you. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in 4 thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, 5 the beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be 8 opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it 9 shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; 10 or if he shall ask for a fish, will 11 give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that 12 ask him? All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide <sup>2</sup> is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be 14 they that enter in thereby. <sup>3</sup> For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few be they that find it.

15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly 16 are ravening wolves. By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes 17 of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth 18 evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree 19 bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn 20 down, and cast into the fire. Therefore 21 by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my 22 Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out <sup>4</sup> devils, and by thy name do many <sup>5</sup> mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work 24 iniquity. Every one therefore which heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, 25 which built his house upon the rock: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded 26 upon the rock. And every one that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: 27 and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus ended these words, the multitudes were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

8 And when he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And behold, there came to him a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I

5 And when he was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a cen-6 turion, beseeching him, and saying,
Lord, my <sup>1</sup>servant lieth in the house sick of the palsy, grievously tor-7 mented. And he saith unto him, I 8 will come and heal him. And the cen-turion answered and said, Lord, I am not <sup>2</sup>worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but only say

<sup>3</sup>the word, and my <sup>1</sup>servant shall be 9 healed. For I also am a man <sup>4</sup>under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my <sup>5</sup>servant, Do 10 this, and he doeth it. And when Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, <sup>6</sup>I have not found so great faith,

11 no, not in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall <sup>7</sup>sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, 12 in the kingdom of heaven: but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there shall be 13 the weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And the <sup>1</sup>servant was healed in that hour.

14 And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying 15 sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, 16 and ministered unto him. And when even was come, they brought unto him many <sup>8</sup>possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with a word, 17 and healed all that were sick: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>9</sup>by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to de-19 part unto the other side. And there came <sup>10</sup>a scribe, and said unto him, <sup>11</sup>Master,
I will follow thee whithersoever thou 20 goest. And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have <sup>12</sup>nests; but the Son of man 21 hath not where to lay his head. And another of the disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my 22 father. But Jesus saith unto him, Follow me; and leave the dead to bury their own dead.

23 And when he was entered into a boat,
24 his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea,

insomuch that the boat was covered 25 with the waves: but he was asleep. And they came to him, and awoke him, say-26 ing, Save, Lord; we perish. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and 27 there was a great calm. And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two <sup>8</sup>possessed with devils, coming forth out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man could pass by 29 that way. And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee,
thou Son of God? art thou come hither 30 to torment us before the time? Now there was afar off from them a herd of 31 many swine feeding. And the <sup>13</sup>devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of 32 swine. And he said unto them, Go.
And they came out, and went into the swine: and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, 33 and perished in the waters. And they that fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to them that were <sup>8</sup>pos-34 sessed with devils. And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart from their borders.

9 And he entered into a boat, and crossed 2 over, and came into his own city. And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, <sup>14</sup>Son, be of good cheer; thy 3 sins are forgiven. And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves,
4 This man blasphemeth. And Jesus <sup>15</sup>knowing their thoughts said, Where-5 fore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and walk?
6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath <sup>16</sup>power on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the sick of the palsy), Arise, and take up thy bed, and 7 go unto thy house. And he arose, and 8 departed to his house. But when the multitudes saw it, they were afraid, and glorified God, which had given such <sup>16</sup>power unto men.

9 And as Jesus passed by from thence,
he saw a man, called Matthew, sitting at the place of toll: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as he <sup>17</sup>sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples.

14 Then come to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast <sup>3</sup> oft, but thy disciples 15 fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they into old <sup>4</sup> wine-skins: else the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the into fresh wine-skins, and both are preserved.

18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came <sup>5</sup> a ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall 19 live. And Jesus arose, and followed 20 him, and so did his disciples. And behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the border of his gar-21 ment: for she said within herself, If I do but touch his garment, I shall be 22 <sup>6</sup> made whole. But Jesus turning and seeing her said, Daughter, be of good cheer; thy faith hath <sup>7</sup> made thee whole. And the woman was <sup>6</sup> made 23 whole from that hour. And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute-players, and the crowd 24 making a tumult, he said, Give place:
for the damsel is not dead, but sleep-
eth. And they laughed him to scorn.
25 But when the crowd was put forth, he entered in, and took her by the 26 hand; and the damsel arose. And <sup>8</sup> the fame hereof went forth into all that land.
27 And as Jesus passed by from thence,
two blind men followed him, crying out, and saying, Have mercy on us, 28 thou son of David. And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They say unto him, Yea, 29 Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it 30 done unto you. And their eyes were opened. And Jesus <sup>9</sup> strictly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.
31 But they went forth, and spread abroad
his fame in all that land.

32 And as they went forth, behold, there was brought to him a dumb man pos-33 sessed with a <sup>10</sup> devil. And when the <sup>10</sup> devil was cast out, the dumb man spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.
34 But the Pharisees said, <sup>11</sup> By the prince of the <sup>12</sup> devils casteth he out <sup>12</sup> devils.
35 And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of dis-36 ease and all manner of sickness. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as 37 sheep not having a shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.
38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into 10 his harvest. And he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his bro-3 ther; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James 4 the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus; Simon the <sup>13</sup> Cananean, and Judas Is-5 cariot, who also <sup>14</sup> betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying,

Go not into any way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of the Sa-6 maritans: but go rather to the lost sheep
7 of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven 8 is at hand. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out <sup>15</sup> devils: free-9 ly ye received, freely give. Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your 10 purses; no wallet for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff:
for the labourer is worthy of his food.
11 And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is wor-12 thy; and there abide till ye go forth. And 13 as ye enter into the house, salute it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let 14 your peace return to you. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, shake off the dust of your 15 feet. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrhah in the day of judgement, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as 17 serpents, and <sup>16</sup> harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake, for a testimony to them 19 and to the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what ye 20 shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father 21 that speaketh in you. And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall rise up against parents, and 22<sup>1</sup> cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.
 24 A disciple is not above his <sup>2</sup>master, <sup>25</sup>nor a <sup>3</sup>servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his <sup>2</sup>master, and the <sup>3</sup>servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house <sup>4</sup>Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of 26 his household! Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light: and what ye hear in the ear,
 28 proclaim upon the housetops. And be not afraid of them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body 29 in <sup>5</sup>hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your 30 Father: but the very hairs of your 31 head are all numbered. Fear not therefore; ye are of more value than many 32 sparrows. Every one therefore who shall confess <sup>6</sup>me before men, <sup>7</sup>him will I also confess before my Father which 33 is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
 34 Think not that I came to <sup>8</sup>send peace on the earth: I came not to <sup>8</sup>send 35 peace, but a sword. For I came to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law a-36 gainst her mother in law: and a man's foes shall be they of his own house-
 37 hold. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.
 38 And he that doth not take his cross and follow after me, is not worthy of me.
 39 He that <sup>9</sup>findeth his <sup>10</sup>life shall lose it; and he that <sup>11</sup>loseth his <sup>10</sup>life for my sake shall find it.
 40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him

 41 that sent me. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righte-
 42 ous man's reward. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.
 11 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and preach in their cities.
 2 Now when John heard in the prison the works of the Christ, he sent by his
 3 disciples, and said unto him, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another?
 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go your way and tell John the things
 5 which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have <sup>12</sup>good tidings preached to them.
 6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall find
 7 none occasion of stumbling in me. And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with 8 the wind? But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in 9 kings' houses. <sup>13</sup>But wherefore went ye out? to see a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he, of whom it is written,
 Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
 Who shall prepare thy way before thee.
 11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is <sup>14</sup>but little in the kingdom of hea-
 12 ven is greater than he. And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by force.
 13 For all the prophets and the law pro-14 phesied until John. And if ye are willing to receive <sup>15</sup>it, this is Elijah, which 15 is to come. He that hath ears <sup>16</sup>to hear,
 16 let him hear. But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the marketplaces, 17 which call unto their fellows, and say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance;
 18 we wailed, and ye did not <sup>17</sup>mourn. For John came neither eating nor drinking,
 19 and they say, He hath a <sup>18</sup>devil. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! And wisdom <sup>19</sup>is justified by her <sup>20</sup>works.

12 At that season Jesus went on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which it is not lawful to do upon

3 the sabbath. But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were

4 with him; how he entered into the house of God, and <sup>5</sup>did eat the shewbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him,

5 but only for the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are 6 guiltless? But I say unto you, that

<sup>6</sup>one greater than the temple is here.
7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the 8 guiltless. For the Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

9 And he departed thence, and went into 10 their synagogue: and behold, a man having a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? that they might

12 How much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful

13 to do good on the sabbath day. Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, as the 14 other. But the Pharisees went out, and took counsel against him, how

15 they might destroy him. And Jesus perceiving it withdrew from thence: and many followed him; and he healed

16 them all, and charged them that they

17 should not make him known: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>7</sup>by

Isaiah the prophet, saying,
18 Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;

My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:

I will put my Spirit upon him, And he shall declare judgement to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry aloud; Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, And smoking flax shall he not quench, Till he send forth judgement unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles hope.

22 Then was brought unto him <sup>8</sup>one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the

23 dumb man spake and saw. And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, Is

24 this the son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out <sup>9</sup>devils, but <sup>10</sup>by Beel-

25 zebub the prince of the <sup>9</sup>devils. And knowing their thoughts he said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall

26 not stand: and if Satan casteth out Satan, he is divided against himself; how 27 then shall his kingdom stand? And if I <sup>10</sup>by Beelzebub cast out <sup>9</sup>devils, <sup>10</sup>by whom do your sons cast them out?

28 therefore shall they be your judges. But if I <sup>10</sup>by the Spirit of God cast out

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, <sup>2</sup> Master, we 39 would see a sign from thee. And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my 50 brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 On that day went Jesus out of the 2 house, and sat by the sea side. And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so that he entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude 3 stood on the beach. And he spake to them many things in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; 4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, 7 they withered away. And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew 8 up, and choked them: and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some 9 thirty. He that hath ears <sup>8</sup>, let him hear.

<sup>8</sup> Some ancient authorities add here, and in ver. 43, to hear: as in Mark iv. 9; Luke viii. 3.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in 11 parables? And he answered and said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, 12 but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken 13 away even that which he hath. Therefore speak I to them in parables; because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they under- 14 stand. And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith,

By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;
And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, And their ears are dull of hearing, And their eyes they have closed; Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And should turn again,
And I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see; 17 and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and 18 heard them not. Hear then ye the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side. 20 And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway he 22 stumbleth. And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth

the word; and the care of the <sup>1</sup> world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke
the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed good 25 seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed <sup>2</sup>tares
also among the wheat, and went away.

26 But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared

27 the tares also. And the <sup>3</sup>servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then

28 hath it tares? And he said unto them, <sup>4</sup>An enemy hath done this. And the

<sup>3</sup>servants say unto him, Wilt thou then 29 that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with 30 them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest

I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a 32 man took, and sowed in his field: which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them;
The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three <sup>5</sup>measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and without a parable spake he nothing unto them:

35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>6</sup>by the prophet, saying,

I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden from the foundation <sup>7</sup>of the world.

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Explain unto us the 37 parable of the tares of the field. And he answered and said, He that soweth

38 the good seed is the Son of man; and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one;

39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is <sup>8</sup>the end of the 40 world; and the reapers are angels. As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in <sup>9</sup>the 41 end of the world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do in-42 quity, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping

43 and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears, let him hear.

44 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and <sup>9</sup>in his joy he goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking

46 goodly pearls: and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a <sup>10</sup>net, that was cast into the sea,

48 and gathered of every kind: which,
when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they 49 cast away. So shall it be in <sup>8</sup>the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the 50 righteous, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 Have ye understood all these things?

52 They say unto him, Yea. And he said unto them, Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed

54 thence. And coming into his own country he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished,

and said, Whence hath this man this 55 wisdom, and these <sup>11</sup>mighty works? Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren,

James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Ju-

56 das? And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man

57 all these things? And they were <sup>12</sup>offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in 58 his own house. And he did not many <sup>11</sup>mighty works there because of their unbelief.

But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and 7 pleased Herod. Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her what- 8 soever she should ask. And she, being put forward by her mother, saith, Give me here in a charger the head 9 of John the Baptist. And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them which sat at meat with him, he commanded it to be given; 10 and he sent, and beheaded John in the 11 prison. And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: 12 and she brought it to her mother. And his disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.

13 Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart: and when the multitudes heard thereof, they followed him <sup>1</sup> on foot 14 from the cities. And he came forth, and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, and healed their 15 sick. And when even was come, the disciples came to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy them- 16 selves food. But Jesus said unto them, They have no need to go away; give ye 17 them to eat. And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two 18 fishes. And he said, Bring them hither 19 to me. And he commanded the multitudes to <sup>2</sup> sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to 20 the multitudes. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the bro- 21 ken pieces, twelve baskets full. And they that did eat were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 And straightway he constrained the disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he 23 should send the multitudes away. And after he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain apart to pray: and when even was come, he was 24 there alone. But the boat <sup>3</sup> was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the 25 waves; for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night he came 26 unto them, walking upon the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is an apparition; and they cried out for 27 fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; 28 be not afraid. And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me 29 come unto thee upon the waters. And he said, Come. And Peter went down from the boat, and walked upon the 30 waters, <sup>4</sup> to come to Jesus. But when he saw the wind <sup>5</sup>, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, 31 Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? 32 And when they were gone up into the 33 boat, the wind ceased. And they that were in the boat worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 And when they had crossed over, they 35 came to the land, unto Gennesaret. And when the men of that place knew him, they sent into all that region round about, and brought unto him all that 36 were sick; and they besought him that they might only touch the border of his garment: and as many as touched were made whole.

15 Then there came to Jesus from Jerusalem Pharisees and scribes, saying, 2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not 3 their hands when they eat bread. And he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment 4 of God because of your tradition? For God said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him <sup>6</sup> die the death. 5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by 6 me is given to God; he shall not honour his father <sup>7</sup>. And ye have made void the <sup>8</sup> word of God because of your tradition. Ye hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 This people honoureth me with their lips;

But their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.

10 And he called to him the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand: 11 Not that which entereth into the mouth defileth the man; but that which proceedeth out of the mouth, this defileth 12 the man. Then came the disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were <sup>9</sup> offended, when they 13 heard this saying? But he answered and said, Every <sup>10</sup> plant which my heavenly Father planted not, shall be rooted up. 14 Let them alone: they are blind guides. And if the blind guide the blind, both 15 shall fall into a pit. And Peter answered and said unto him, Declare unto us the 16 parable. And he said, Are ye also 17 even yet without understanding? ceive ye not, that whatsoever goeth into the mouth passeth into the belly, and 18 is cast out into the draught? But the things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and they 19 defile the man. For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false 20 witness, railings: these are the things which defile the man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the man. 21 And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously 23 vexed with a <sup>1</sup>devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her 24 away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of 25 Israel. But she came and worshipped 26 him, saying, Lord, help me. And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's <sup>2</sup>bread and cast it to 27 the dogs. But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which 28 fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour. 29 And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat 30 there. And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and 31 he healed them: insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel. 32 And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint in the way. 33 And the disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place, as to fill so great a multitude? 34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, 35 and a few small fishes. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on 36 the ground; and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, 37 seven baskets full. And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside 39 women and children. And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

16 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and tempting him asked him to 2 shew them a sign from heaven. But he answered and said unto them, <sup>3</sup>When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the heaven is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowring. Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs 4 of the times. An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

5 And the disciples came to the other 6 side and forgot to take <sup>4</sup>bread. And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees 7 and Sadducees. And they reasoned among themselves, saying, <sup>5</sup>We took no 8 <sup>4</sup>bread. And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have no <sup>4</sup>bread? 9 Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many <sup>6</sup>baskets ye took up? 10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many <sup>6</sup>baskets ye 11 took up? How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning <sup>4</sup>bread? But beware of the leaven 12 of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of <sup>4</sup>bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say <sup>7</sup>that the 14 Son of man is? And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah: and others, Jeremiah, or one of the 15 prophets. He saith unto them, But who 16 say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, 17 the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. 18 And I also say unto thee, that thou art <sup>8</sup>Peter, and upon this <sup>9</sup>rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades 19 shall not prevail against it. I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth 20 shall be loosed in heaven. Then charged he the disciples that they should tell no man that he was the Christ.

 23 never be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art a stumblingblock unto me: for thou mindest not the things of 25 me. For whosoever would save his<sup>2</sup> life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose 26 his<sup>2</sup> life for my sake shall find it. For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his<sup>2</sup> life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his<sup>2</sup> life? For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then shall he render unto every man according

 25 to his<sup>3</sup> deeds. Verily I say unto you, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.
 17 And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: and he was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and
 4 Elijah talking with him. And Peter answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three<sup>4</sup> tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for 5 Elijah. While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.
 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.
 7 And Jesus came and touched them and 8 said, Arise, and be not afraid. And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.
 9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen from the dead.
 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come? And he answered 11 and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and 12 shall restore all things: but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they listed. Even so shall the Son of man also 13 suffer of them. Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is epileptic, and suffereth grievously: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into 16 the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.
 17 And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him hither to me.
 18 And Jesus rebuked him; and the<sup>5</sup> devil went out from him: and the boy was 19 cured from that hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why
 20 could not we cast it out? And he saith unto them, Because of your little faith: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.<sup>6</sup>
 22 And while they<sup>7</sup> abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of 23 men; and they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised up. And they were exceeding sorry.
 24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received the<sup>8</sup> half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth not 25 your<sup>9</sup> master pay the<sup>8</sup> half-shekel? He saith, Yea. And when he came into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they receive toll or tribute? from their sons, or from 26 strangers? And when he said, From strangers, Jesus said unto him, Therefore the sons are free. But, lest we cause them to stumble, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a<sup>10</sup> shekel: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.
 18 In that hour came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who then is<sup>11</sup> greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And he called to him a little child, and set him in the 3 midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter
 4 into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the<sup>11</sup> greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child
 6 in my name receiveth me: but whoso shall cause one of these little ones which believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that<sup>12</sup> a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the 7 depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the oc-

8 And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the <sup>1</sup>hell of fire. See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.<sup>2</sup>

12 How think ye? if any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not gone astray. Even so it is not <sup>3</sup>the will of <sup>4</sup>your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 And if thy brother sin <sup>5</sup>against thee, go, shew him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. And if he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the <sup>6</sup>church: and if he refuse to hear the <sup>6</sup>church also, let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, What things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until <sup>7</sup>seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would make

24 a reckoning with his <sup>8</sup>servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand <sup>9</sup>talents. But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The <sup>10</sup>servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that <sup>10</sup>servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the <sup>11</sup>debt. But that <sup>10</sup>servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred <sup>12</sup>pence: and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest.

29 So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked <sup>10</sup>servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me: shouldst not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due. So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

19 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judæa beyond Jordan; and great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 And there came unto him <sup>13</sup>Pharisees, tempting him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said, Have ye not read, that he which <sup>14</sup>made them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the twain shall become one flesh? So that they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, <sup>15</sup>except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: <sup>16</sup>and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth adultery. The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not expedient to marry. But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, but they to whom it is given.

12 For there are eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, which were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, which made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 And behold, one came to him and said, 12 Master, what good thing shall I do, 17 that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, 8 Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but if thou wouldst enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I observed: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldst be perfect, go, sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, 22 follow me. But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, It is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of 24 heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to 25 enter into the kingdom of God. And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who 26 then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them said to them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things 27 are possible. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we 28 have? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve 29 tribes of Israel. And every one that hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, 4 or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive

5 a hundredfold, and shall inherit eternal life. But many shall be last that 20 are first; and first that are last. For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a 6 penny a day, he sent them into his 3 vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in 4 the marketplace idle; and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And 5 they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and 6 did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why 7 stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the 8 vineyard. And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last 9 unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they 10 received every man a 6 penny. And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise 11 received every man a 6 penny. And when they received it, they murmured against 12 the householder, saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden of the day and the 7 scorching heat. But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a 14 6 penny? Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto 15 to this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or is thine eye evil, because 16 I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last.

17 And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart, 18 and in the way he said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall 19 condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and the third day he shall be raised up.

20 Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshipping him, and asking a certain thing of 21 him. And he said unto her, What wouldst thou? She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, 22 in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to drink? They say unto him, We are 23 able. He saith unto them, My cup indeed ye shall drink: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it is for them for whom it 24 hath been prepared of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation concerning the two 25 brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over 26 them. Not so shall it be among you: but whosoever would become great among

27 you shall be your <sup>1</sup>minister; and whosoever would be first among you shall 28 be your <sup>2</sup>servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 And as they went out from Jericho,
30 a great multitude followed him. And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of 31 David. And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou 32 son of David. And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will 33 ye that I should do unto you? They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may 34 be opened. And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes: and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

21 And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent
2 two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them,
3 and bring them unto me. And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straight-
4 way he will send them. Now this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>3</sup>by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, Meek, and riding upon an ass, And upon a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did even as 7 Jesus appointed them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their 8 garments; and he sat thereon. And the most part of the multitude spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread
9 them in the way. And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the 10 highest. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this? And the multitudes said, This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.

12 And Jesus entered into the temple <sup>4</sup>of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the 13 seats of them that sold the doves; and he saith unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer:
14 but ye make it a den of robbers. And the blind and the lame came to him in 15 the temple: and he healed them. But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were moved 16 with indignation, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? And he left them, and went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned to 19 the city, he hungered. And seeing <sup>5</sup>a fig tree by the way side, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig tree withered
20 away. And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig 21 tree immediately wither away? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea, it shall 22 be done. And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee
24 this authority? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one <sup>6</sup>question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority
25 I do these things. The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then 26 did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude;
27 for all hold John as a prophet. And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I
28 do these things. But what think ye? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, <sup>7</sup>Son, go work to-day in 29 the vineyard. And he answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented himself, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and 31 went not. Whether of the twain did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before 32 you. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even repent yourselves afterward, that ye might believe him.

- 33 Hear another parable: There was a man that was a householder, which planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country. And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his <sup>1</sup>servants to the husbandmen, to receive <sup>2</sup>his fruits. And the husbandmen took his <sup>1</sup>servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned 36 another. Again, he sent other <sup>1</sup>servants more than the first: and they did unto 37 them in like manner. But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They 38 will reverence my son. But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and take his inheritance. And they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, 40 and killed him. When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do unto those husbandmen? 41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the 42 fruits in their seasons. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures,

The stone which the builders rejected,

The same was made the head of the corner:

This was from the Lord,

And it is marvellous in our eyes?

- 43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation bringing 44 forth the fruits thereof. <sup>3</sup>And he that falleth on this stone shall be broken to pieces: but on whomsoever it shall fall, 45 it will scatter him as dust. And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he 46 spake of them. And when they sought to lay hold on him, they feared the multitudes, because they took him for a prophet.

- 22 And Jesus answered and spake again 2 in parables unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, which made a marriage feast for 3 his son, and sent forth his <sup>1</sup>servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. 4 Again he sent forth other <sup>1</sup>servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage 5 feast. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, 6 another to his merchandise: and the rest laid hold on his <sup>1</sup>servants, and entreated them shamefully, and killed

- 7 them. But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those 8 murderers, and burned their city. Then saith he to his <sup>1</sup>servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were 9 not worthy. Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage 10 feast. And those <sup>1</sup>servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with 11 guests. But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding-garment: 12 and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the <sup>4</sup>servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into the outer darkness; there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but 14 few chosen.

- 15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare him in 16 his talk. And they send to him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, <sup>5</sup>Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or 18 not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye 19 hypocrites? Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a <sup>6</sup>penny. 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this 21 image and superscription? They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God 22 the things that are God's. And when they heard it, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

- 23 On that day there came to him Sadducees, <sup>7</sup>which say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, saying, <sup>8</sup>Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother <sup>8</sup>shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. Now there were with us seven 25 brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife 26 unto his brother; in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the 27 <sup>9</sup>seventh. And after them all the woman 28 died. In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? 29 for they all had her. But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but 31 are as angels <sup>10</sup>in heaven. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And when the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching.

34 But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, 35 gathered themselves together. And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question,

36 tempting him, <sup>1</sup>Master, which is the great commandment in the law? And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the great and first commandment. <sup>2</sup>And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hangeth the whole law, and the prophets.

11 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say

43 unto him, The son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet?

45 If David then calleth him Lord, how is 46 he his son? And no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

23 Then spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat: 3 all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, these do and observe: but do not ye after their works; for they say,

4 and do not. Yea, they bind heavy burdens <sup>3</sup>and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with

5 their finger. But all their works they do for to be seen of men: for they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge

6 the borders of their garments, and love the chief place at feasts, and the chief

7 seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be

8 called of men, Rabbi. But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your teacher,

9 and all ye are brethren. And call no man your father on the earth: for one is your

10 Father, <sup>4</sup>which is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your

11 master, even the Christ. But he that is <sup>5</sup>greatest among you shall be your 12 <sup>6</sup>servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye shut the kingdom of heaven <sup>7</sup>against men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter.<sup>8</sup>

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more a son of <sup>9</sup>hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the

<sup>10</sup>temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the <sup>10</sup>temple,

17 he is <sup>11</sup>a debtor. Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the

<sup>10</sup>temple that hath sanctified the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is 19 <sup>11</sup>a debtor. Ye blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? He therefore that swareth by the altar, swareth by it, and by all things thereon. And he that swareth by the <sup>10</sup>temple, swareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that swareth by the heaven, swareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye tithe mint and <sup>12</sup>anise and cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, judgement, and mercy, and faith: but these ye ought to have done, and not to have 24 left the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain out the gnat, and swallow the camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full from extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside thereof may become clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whitened sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of

30 the righteous, and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in

31 the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye witness to yourselves, that ye are sons of them that slew the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgement

34 of <sup>9</sup>hell? Therefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: some of them shall ye kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city: that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the sanctuary and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you <sup>1</sup>desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

24 And Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way; and his disciples came to him to shew him the buildings of the temple. But he answered and said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy <sup>2</sup>coming, and of <sup>3</sup>the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and ye shall lead many astray. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines and earthquakes in divers places. But all these things are the beginning of travail.

9 Then shall they deliver you up unto tribulation, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all the nations for my name's sake. And then shall many stumble, and shall deliver up one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall arise, and shall lead many astray. And because iniquity shall be multiplied, the love of the many shall wax cold. But he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. And <sup>4</sup>this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole <sup>5</sup>world for a testimony unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When therefore ye see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of <sup>6</sup>by Daniel the prophet, standing in <sup>7</sup>the holy place (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in

17 Judæa flee unto the mountains: let him that is on the housetop not go down to take out the things that are in his house: and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloke. But woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! 20 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sabbath: for then shall be great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. 22 And except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe <sup>8</sup>it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Behold, I have told you before- 26 hand. If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner 27 chambers; believe <sup>9</sup>it not. For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be the <sup>10</sup>coming of the Son of man. Whosoever the carcass is, there will the <sup>11</sup>eagles be gathered together.

29 But immediately, after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he shall send forth his angels <sup>12</sup>with <sup>13</sup>a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye 33 know that the summer is nigh: even so ye also, when ye see all these things, know ye that <sup>14</sup>he is nigh, even at the 34 doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all 35 these things be accomplished. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, <sup>15</sup>neither the Son, but 37 the Father only. And as were the days of Noah, so shall be the <sup>10</sup>coming 38 of the Son of man. For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day 39 that Noah entered into the ark, and they knew not until the flood came, and

25 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their <sup>6</sup>lamps, and went forth to meet

2 the bridegroom. And five of them were 3 foolish, and five were wise. For the foolish, when they took their <sup>6</sup>lamps, 4 took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their 5 <sup>6</sup>lamps. Now while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 But at midnight there is a cry, Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet

7 him. Then all those virgins arose, and 8 trimmed their <sup>6</sup>lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your 9 oil; for our <sup>6</sup>lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye rather to them that 10 sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward come also the other virgins, 12 saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say

13 unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor talents, to another two, to another one;

to each according to his several ability; 16 and he went on his journey. Straightway he that received the five talents went and traded with them, and made

17 other five talents. In like manner he also that received the two gained other

18 two. But he that received the one went away and digged in the earth, and hid

19 his lord's money. Now after a long time the lord of those <sup>7</sup>servants cometh, and 20 maketh a reckoning with them. And he that received the five talents came and brought other five talents, saying,

Lord, thou deliverdest unto me five talents: lo, I have gained other five

21 talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful <sup>4</sup>servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things: enter 22 thou into the joy of thy lord. And he also that received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliverdest unto me two talents: lo, I have gained other

23 two talents. His lord said unto him,
Well done, good and faithful <sup>4</sup>servant;

thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things: 24 enter thou into the joy of thy lord. And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where 25 thou didst not scatter: and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the 26 earth: lo, thou hast thine own. But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful <sup>4</sup>servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not,

and gather where I did not scatter;

27 thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine

28 own with interest. Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath the ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance:
but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away.

30 And cast ye out the unprofitable <sup>4</sup>servant into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of 32 his glory: and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall 37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or athirst, and 38 gave thee drink? And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or 39 naked, and clothed thee? And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and 40 came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even 41 these least, ye did it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, <sup>1</sup>Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared 42 for the devil and his angels: for I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no 43 drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me 44 not. Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me.

 46 And these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.
 26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, he said unto his 2 disciples, Ye know that after two days the passover cometh, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified.
 3 Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who was 4 called Caiaphas; and they took counsel together that they might take Jesus by 5 subtilty, and kill him. But they said, Not during the feast, lest a tumult arise among the people.
 6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in 7 the house of Simon the leper, there came unto him a woman having <sup>2</sup>an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, as he 8 sat at meat. But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold for much, 10 and given to the poor. But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought 11 a good work upon me. For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have 12 not always. For in that she <sup>3</sup>poured this ointment upon my body, she did 13 it to prepare me for burial. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever <sup>4</sup>this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.
 14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief 15 priests, and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they weighed unto him 16 thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to deliver him unto them.

 17 Now on the first day of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready 18 for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The <sup>5</sup>Master saith, My time is at hand; I keep the passover at 19 thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus appointed them; 20 and they made ready the passover. Now when even was come, he was sitting at 21 meat with the twelve <sup>6</sup>disciples; and as they were eating, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray 22 me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every 23 one, Is it I, Lord? And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray 24 me. The Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it <sup>7</sup>for that man 25 if he had not been born. And Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, Thou 26 hast said. And as they were eating, Jesus took <sup>8</sup>bread, and blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and 27 said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took <sup>9</sup>a cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of 28 it; for this is my blood of <sup>10</sup>the <sup>11</sup>covenant, which is shed for many unto redemption of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.
 30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives.
 31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be <sup>12</sup>offended in me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. But after I am raised up, 33 I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter answered and said unto him, If all shall be <sup>12</sup>offended in thee, I will never 34 be <sup>12</sup>offended. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny 35 me thrice. Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.
 36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto <sup>13</sup>a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go 37 yonder and pray. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore

And he went forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one 41 hour? <sup>1</sup> Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is 42 willing, but the flesh is weak. Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, 43 thy will be done. And he came again and found them sleeping, for their 44 eyes were heavy. And he left them again, and went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same 45 words. Then cometh he to the disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed unto the hands of sinners. 46 Arise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders 48 of the people. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he: take him. 49 And straightway he came to Jesus, and 50 said, Hail, Rabbi; and <sup>2</sup> kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51 And behold, one of them that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and smote the <sup>3</sup> servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 52 Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish 53 with the sword. Or thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me more than 54 twelve legions of angels? How then should the scriptures be fulfilled, that 55 thus it must be? In that hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and ye took me not. 56 But all this is come to pass, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

57 And they that had taken Jesus led him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders 58 were gathered together. But Peter followed him afar off, unto the court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with 59 the officers, to see the end. Now the chief priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, that 60 they might put him to death; and they found it not, though many false witnesses came. But afterward came two, 61 and said, This man said, I am able to destroy the <sup>4</sup> temple of God, and to build 62 it in three days. And the high priest stood up, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these 63 witness against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the 64 Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of 65 heaven. Then the high priest rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard 66 the blasphemy: what think ye? They answered and said, He is <sup>5</sup> worthy of 67 death. Then did they spit in his face and buffet him: and some smote him 68 <sup>6</sup> with the palms of their hands, saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee?

69 Now Peter was sitting without in the court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilean. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man 72 also was with Jesus the Nazarene. And again he denied with an oath, I know 73 not the man. And after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. 74 Then began he to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And straightway 75 the cock crew. And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 Now when morning was come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put 2 him to death: and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, which betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and 4 elders, saying, I have sinned in that I betrayed <sup>7</sup> innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us? see thou to 5 it. And he cast down the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, and departed; and he went away and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the <sup>1</sup>treasury, since it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken <sup>2</sup>by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And <sup>3</sup>they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, <sup>4</sup>whom certain 10 of the children of Israel did price; and <sup>5</sup>they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And 12 Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. And when he was accused by the chief priests 13 and elders, he answered nothing. Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against 14 thee? And he gave him no answer, not even to one word: insomuch that the 15 governor marvelled greatly. Now at <sup>6</sup>the feast the governor was wont to release unto the multitude one prisoner, 16 whom they would. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? 18 For he knew that for envy they had 19 delivered him up. And while he was sitting on the judgement-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day 20 in a dream because of him. Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for 21 Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. 22 Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. And he said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified. 24 So when Pilate saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent <sup>7</sup>of the blood of this righteous man: see ye to it. And all the people answered and said, His blood be 26 on us, and on our children. Then released he unto them Barabbas: but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the <sup>8</sup>palace, and gathered 28 unto him the whole <sup>9</sup>band. And they <sup>10</sup>stripped him, and put on him a scarlet 29 robe. And they plaited a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spat upon him, and took the reed and 31 smote him on the head. And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they <sup>11</sup>compelled to go with them, that 33 he might bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, The place of a 34 skull, they gave him wine to drink mingled with gall: and when he had 35 tasted it, he would not drink. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots: 36 and they sat and watched him there. 37 And they set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE 38 KING OF THE JEWS. Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand, and one on the left. 39 And they that passed by railed on him, 40 wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the <sup>12</sup>temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou art the Son of God, come down 41 from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him, with 42 the scribes and elders, said, He saved others; <sup>13</sup>himself he cannot save. He is the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. He trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: 44 for he said, I am the Son of God. And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the <sup>14</sup>land until the 46 ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, <sup>15</sup>why hast thou forsaken 47 me? And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This 48 man calleth Elijah. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a 49 reed, and gave him to drink. And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether 50 Elijah cometh to save him. <sup>16</sup>And Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and 51 yielded up his spirit. And behold, the veil of the <sup>12</sup>temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake; and the rocks were 52 rent; and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had 53 fallen asleep were raised; and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into the holy city 54 and appeared unto many. Now the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, 55 Truly this was <sup>1</sup>the Son of God. And many women were there beholding from afar, which had followed Jesus from 56 Galilee, ministering unto him: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.
